Rep. Edwin Smith spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

On a division vote, 289 members having voted in the affirmative and 68 in the negative, floor amendment (0961h) was adopted.

Motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment adopted.

Referred to Finance.

HB 401, relative to approvals under the groundwater protection act. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Judith T. Spang for the Majority of Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill will streamline the process of approving large groundwater withdrawals by providing more structure to community input procedures. The change in statute will move the public hearing so it occurs after, rather than before the technical feasibility studies have been completed, ending time-consuming speculative discussions between the Department of Environment Services (DES) and the public. In addition, a review committee consisting of representatives of potentially impacted communities may be formed to provide a single vehicle for municipalities to discuss applications and make recommendations to DES. Appeals will go to the water council rather than directly to court. Vote 10-8.

Rep. Pierre W. Bruno for the Minority of Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill, even as amended, uses scientific words in a loose manner, creating far-reaching unintended consequences. The "zone of contribution" of groundwater is dependent upon geologic assumptions and may be limited to a local watershed or expanded to a regional watershed—larger even than the whole State. The criteria for selecting the size of the watershed is not defined in this bill. This language will essentially enable any municipality to join action committees for large groundwater withdrawal applications. Passage of this bill encourages public stonewalling of any large groundwater withdrawal application. The minority feels this issue merits study and oversight of the current process.

Majority Amendment (0779h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Approval for Large Groundwater Withdrawals; Large Groundwater Withdrawal Review Committee. RSA 485-C:21, III - VI are repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

III. The applicant shall submit a final report to the department which shall include aquifer testing analysis. Copies of the final report shall be forwarded by certified mail by the applicant to the chair of the large groundwater withdrawal review committee, governing bodies of each municipality and each supplier of water within the anticipated zone of contribution to the well.

IV. Following the submission of the final report, accepted by the department as complete, the department shall hold a public hearing on the application in the municipality in which the proposed withdrawal is to be made upon the request of the governing body of any municipality, supplier of water within the anticipated zone of contribution, or the chair of a large groundwater withdrawal review committee, provided that such a hearing is requested within 15 days of their receipt of the final report.

V. The department shall hold the public hearing within 30 days after the request of the governing body of any municipality, supplier of water within the anticipated zone of contribution, or the chair of a large groundwater withdrawal review committee. Notice of the hearing shall be made by the applicant and shall be published twice in 2 different weeks, the last publication to be 7 days before the hearing, in one newspaper of general circulation throughout the state and another newspaper of general circulation in the municipalities within the anticipated zone of contribution. The notice shall also be posted in 2 public places in the municipalities.

VI. The applicant, the governing body of each municipality, the large groundwater review committee, and each supplier of water within the anticipated zone of contribution to the well may submit comments to the department relative to the proposed withdrawal within 45 days after the public hearing in the municipality or, if no hearing is requested, within 45 days after the receipt of the final report by the municipality, large groundwater review committee, and water suppliers. If the comments relative to the application make recommendations to the department, the department shall specifically consider such recommendations and shall issue written findings with respect to each issue raised that is contrary to the decision of the department.

VII. Rehearings and appeals from a decision of the department under this section shall be in accordance with RSA 21-O:14.

VIII. A municipality in which a large commercial withdrawal of groundwater is proposed may establish a large groundwater withdrawal review committee to make recommendations to the department concerning the approval of the large groundwater withdrawal.

(a) The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(1) Three members appointed by the governing body of the municipality where the withdrawal is proposed, one of whom shall be a member of the municipality's planning board.

(2) Two members from each of the other municipalities in the zone of contribution, appointed by the governing body of their municipalities, one of whom shall be a member of the municipality's planning board.

(b) The committee shall be formed within 60 days after the municipalities within the anticipated zone of contribution receive the preliminary application from the applicant.

(c) Upon formation, the committee shall notify the department and provide it with the chairperson's contact information.

(d) The department shall provide all information concerning the application for the large commercial groundwater withdrawal to the review committee chairperson and shall meet with the committee one time within 15 days of receiving a request for a meeting.

(e) The committee may hold one or more public information session regarding the proposed withdrawal.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

HB 748, making changes to the laws governing off highway recreational vehicles. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. David M. Lawton for Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill is a recommendation of a legislative study committee and makes various changes to laws governing OHRV's and the statewide trail system. It reduces the allowable noise level for trail bikes and includes that same restriction on all terrain vehicles. The bill, as amended, requires adult supervision for the operation of OHRV's by minors under age 14. This bill, as amended, will also restrict the operation of OHRV's by minors under age 14 by requiring them to be accompanied by an adult when operating off of their own families lands. The bill will make it easier to conduct commercial OHRV events or contests by exempting certain OHRV requirements. Further, the committee amendment restricts expenditures on wheeled OHRV trails to those which are developed using the Department of Resources and Economic Developments best management practices for trail development. And the amendment also references the existing municipal authority to regulate nuisance noise and encourages cities and towns to use this tool to address noise complaints relating to wheeled OHRV operation. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (0924h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT making changes to the laws governing off highway recreational vehicles and the multi-use statewide trail system.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Definition Clarified. Amend RSA 215-A:1, I to read as follows:

I. "Accompanied by", or "accompany" means when a person is within sight and when actual physical direction and control can be effected.

2 Sound Level Lowered; ATVs included. Amend RSA 215-A:12, IV to read as follows:

IV. No person shall operate in this state a trail bike or all terrain vehicle which produces a sound level in excess of [99] 96 decibels on the A scale, when measured in accordance with the provisions of the Society of Automotive Engineers Recommended Practice ANSI/SAE, J-1287, Mar 82, "Measurement of Exhaust Sound Levels of Stationary Motorcycles".

3 Registration Fees; Department of Resources and Economic Development Funds. Amend RSA 215-A:23, VI(b) to read as follows:

(b) Grants-in-aid shall be granted to OHRV clubs and political subdivisions for the construction and maintenance of public use OHRV trails and facilities. The bureau shall make grants on such terms as it deems necessary and shall determine what trails and facilities shall be eligible. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subparagraph, a landowner who grants permission for a grant-in-aid trail to be located on his or her property shall retain the right to establish the inclusive dates during which OHRV operation shall be permitted. Use of trails on private land shall extend only to the specific type of OHRV permitted by the landowner.

4 Registration Fees; Department of Resources and Economic Development Funds; Land Purchase Account Amend RSA 215-A:23, VII(c) to read as follows:

(c) Land purchases, easements, [and] rights-of-way, and new construction. A separate account shall be established into which $2 of each resident trail bike and other OHRV registration fee appropriated for administration of the bureau under RSA 215-A:23, I(b) and $2 of each non-resident trail bike and other OHRV registration fee appropriated for administration of the bureau under RSA 215-A:23, III(b) shall be deposited to be used only for land purchases, easements, [and] rights-of-way, and new construction for ATV or trail bike trail and facility development.

5 Accident Reports; Bureau of Trails. Amend RSA 215-A:28, IV to read as follows:

IV. Any person who is knowingly involved in any accident involving personal injury with an OHRV shall report said accident to the nearest police officer or police station. A report of said accident shall be filed forthwith by said police officer or police station with the department of safety, the bureau of trails, and the fish and game department in such form as the executive director may prescribe.

6 OHRV Operation. RSA 215-A:29, I-III are repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

I. No person shall operate an OHRV on land not owned or leased by such person or such person's parent, grandparent, or guardian unless such person:

(a) If under 14 years of age, is accompanied at all times by a person at least 18 years of age who has met the conditions of subparagraph (b); and

(b) If 12 years of age or older, has either:

(1) Successfully completed an OHRV training program, the recognition of which has not been suspended or otherwise disallowed by law; or

(2) Is licensed to drive a vehicle in accordance with RSA 263, or in accordance with the law of another state or a province of Canada, provided the person would be eligible for a driver's license in this state.

II.(a) Except as further specified in subparagraph (b), it shall be prima facie evidence that any person at least 18 years of age who travels with a person under 14 years of age shall be legally responsible for the OHRV operation of such person and shall be liable according to law for personal injury or property damage to others which may result from such person's operation.

(b) When more than one person at least 18 years of age is traveling with a person under 14 years of age, and if any of the following persons over 18 years of age are present, then only such persons shall be legally responsible and liable under this paragraph:

(1) Parents or guardians, or

(2) Any person who has otherwise been given or assumed the responsibility for supervising the person under 14 years of age at the time of OHRV operation.

(c) Any person legally responsible and liable under this paragraph shall accompany the person under 14 years of age at all times of OHRV operation.

(d) Except as provided in RSA 215-A:30, IV, an organizer of an event or contest shall be responsible for ensuring that each participant under 14 years of age is accompanied at all times.

III. A person 12 years of age or older operating an OHRV shall carry evidence of compliance with subparagraph I(b) in the form of a valid driver's license or evidence of successfully completing an OHRV training program. The person shall present such evidence to any law enforcement officer who is empowered to enforce this chapter, upon demand of such law enforcement officer.

III-a. The provisions of paragraphs I and III shall not apply to any person participating in an OHRV training program. The provisions of paragraph II shall not apply to any person teaching an OHRV training program.

7 Events; Exceptions. RSA 215-A:30, II is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

II. Unregistered OHRVs may be operated as part of an organized, commercial OHRV event or contest that takes place on property owned by the organizer of such event or contest, without a permit being obtained under paragraph I.

III. The OHRV training and driver's license requirements of RSA 215-A:29, I(b) and III shall not apply to any person participating in an organized event or contest permitted under this section or in an event not requiring a permit as provided for in paragraph II.

IV. The provisions of RSA 215-A:29, I(a) and II shall not apply relative to any person under 14 years of age participating in an organized event or contest, where the organizer of the event or contest has obtained landowner permission and procured a permit from the executive director for such type of activity in the same manner and under the same terms as provided in paragraph I. The organizer of the permitted event or contest shall be responsible for maintaining conditions that have the effect of ensuring actual physical direction and control over participants under 14 years of age.

8 Closing or Zoning of Trail. Amend RSA 215-A:42, III to read as follows:

III. The bureau may not permanently close a trail under paragraph II to ATV or trail bike use except upon a request made to the commissioner of resources and economic development to act under RSA 216-F:2, III, and not without first holding a public hearing in the local area in which the trail is located. Such hearing shall be noticed to the requesting party and the governing body of the affected municipalities and advertised at least 14 days prior to the hearing in a newspaper of statewide circulation and also in any local newspapers to the cities and towns in which the state property is located.

9 New Trail Screening Process. Amend RSA 215-A:43, II, (d) – (f) to read as follows:

(d) The ~~[proposal is compatible with]~~ bureau has given due consideration to local planning and zoning ordinances.

(e) The proposed trail does not pass through a parcel with deed restrictions.

(f) The ~~[proposal is compatible with]~~ bureau has given due consideration to local noise and obnoxious use ordinances.

10 Bureau of Trails; Internet Reference. Amend RSA 215-A:43, III to read as follows:

III. The bureau shall hold at least one meeting to inform the public and local cities and towns of the plan and layout for a proposed ATV or trail bike trail, consistent with the fine filter criteria in paragraph II, and to provide an opportunity for the public to comment. Information on the plan and layout shall be made available to the public at a place in the local area in which the proposed trail is to be located, at the bureau's office in Concord, and on ~~[the]~~ a public accessible Internet site maintained by the bureau. The meeting and the places to obtain the information on the plan and layout shall be advertised at least 14 days prior to the meeting in a newspaper of statewide circulation and also in any local newspapers to the cities and towns in which the state property is located.

11 New Paragraph; State Rail Trails Use Exempted. Amend RSA 215-A:43 by inserting after paragraph IV the following new paragraph:

V. This section shall not apply to the change in use designation of rail trails to include ATV and trail bike use.

12 Statewide Trail System; Advisory Committee; Membership Changed. Amend RSA 216-F:5, I to read as follows:

I. The commissioner shall appoint a New Hampshire statewide trail system advisory committee, for the purposes of advising the director of parks and recreation on matters related to the New Hampshire statewide trail system. The members shall equally represent the different trail interests involved and the general public. This committee shall include, but not be limited to, representation from the following: the bureau of trails; department of fish and game; office of state planning; department of transportation; governor's commission on disability; New Hampshire Snowmobile Association; a representative of ~~[wheel vehicle users]~~ Granite State ATV Association; Appalachian Mountain Club; New Hampshire Municipal Association; Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests; the New Hampshire Heritage Trail; the New Hampshire Farm Bureau Federation; the New Hampshire Horse Council, Inc.; a representative of landowners; and the bicycle trail coordinator from the department of transportation.

13 New Section; Statewide Trail System; Best Management Practices; Limit on Expenditures. Amend RSA 216-F by inserting after section 5 the following new section:

216-F:6 Best Management Practices; Limit on Expenditures. The commissioner of the department of resources and economic development shall identify and publish best management practices for erosion control during trail maintenance and construction. The practices shall be based on the type of activity that is occurring or may occur on a trail, site conditions such as terrain, soil type, and water presence and flow. State funds shall only be expended for work on wheeled OHRV trails that are constructed and maintained in accordance with the best management practices.

14 Municipal Noise Ordinances Encouraged. In recognition of the fact that a large portion of the complaints that are raised against wheeled OHRVs operating in the state is associated with unacceptable noise levels experienced by persons on lands abutting the area of operation, the general court hereby encourages municipalities to enact noise ordinances under existing statutory authority of RSA 31:39 and RSA 47:17.

15 Repeal. RSA 215-A:19, VIII, relative to the refund of OHRV fines after completing a training program, is repealed.

16 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2003.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes various changes to the laws governing off highway recreational vehicles and the statewide trail system.

Adopted.

Rep. Lars Christiansen spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Lawton spoke in favor.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 613-FN-L, relative to incineration and air quality. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Lawrence C. Ross for Science, Technology and Energy: This bill, as introduced, restricted the operation of the municipal waste combustor facility in Claremont. It would have required the shut down of the facility on those days declared as "air quality action days" by the Department of Environmental Services (DES), and for a period of 24 hours after the air quality action day had been lifted. Testimony by DES indicated that such action would have no appreciable effect due to the fact that most air quality alerts are triggered by circumstances outside the state and motor vehicle emissions. The committee made its decision after discovery and discussion that such closures would be costly in terms of economic impact while achieving no significant environmental impact. Vote 10-4.

Adopted.

HB 261, relative to lucky 7 licenses. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John S. Langone for Ways and Means: The committee agreed to increase the Lucky 7 license application period to 12 consecutive months and amended the bill to allow financial reports to the commission relative to Lucky 7 within 105 days from the date of issue and every 90 days thereafter. Vote 12-4.

Amendment (0112h)

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 Financial Reports. Amend RSA 287-E:24, I to read as follows:

I. A charitable organization shall submit a complete financial report for each license issued under RSA 287-E:20 to the commission within 105 days from the date of issue and every 90 days thereafter, or within 15 days after the expiration date of the license, whichever occurs first.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 370-FN, relative to the dispensing of lucky 7 tickets. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Daniel M. Hughes for the Majority of Ways and Means: This bill would allow the playing of electronic Lucky 7 games through mechanical video display means utilizing cartridge-based, computerized gaming systems. All player stations would be linked to a central computer network that distributes the electronic Lucky 7 tickets for each cartridge to all player stations within a site network. The Sweepstakes Commission is unable to estimate the fiscal impact of this bill although many current Lucky 7 outlets did testify that this system would greatly enhance their sales. Testimony from the office of the Attorney General stated that this bill effectively legalizes a form of video gambling and would lead to many social and criminal problems associated with gambling. Vote 10-8.

Rep. Christopher C. Pappas for the Minority of Ways and Means: The minority of Ways and Means disagrees with the majority's assertion that this bill expands gambling. To the contrary, HB 370 only allows for Lucky 7 tickets to be played in video form at charitable gaming halls. This bill permits charities to have up to five touch screen machines on which players can open Lucky 7 pull tab tickets. The minority strongly believes that this is not, and could never be, a slot machine. The internal mechanism draws electronic tickets out of a cartridge, which is analogous to the boxes of Lucky 7 tickets.

Reps. Christopher Pappas and Gibson spoke against.

Rep. Heon spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Hughes, Major and Hess spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Boyce requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being adoption of the majority report.

(Speaker Chandler in the Chair)

The House reconvened at 1:20 p.m.

HCR 14, declaring it to be wrongful for the judiciary, either directly or indirectly, to define an adequate education or the cost of an adequate education. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Shawn N. Jasper for the Majority of Ways and Means: HCR 14 is a rejection of judicial activism. In its Claremont decision the court set out guidelines defining and for funding an adequate education. The Legislature should find that the court has set such standards not found within the Constitution. This resolution is not a rejection of the judicial responsibility to measure the constitutionality of legislation relating to education or tax policy. It, in fact, makes clear that the Legislature understands and respects the separation of powers. This resolution takes the pulse of the Legislature. The minority questions the purpose of the resolution. That purpose is to make it clear that we find the lines of responsibility between the judicial and legislative branches have been crossed in the Claremont decisions. HCR 14 can be seen as a measure of our resolve to defend our constitutional responsibilities in the future. Justice Horton said it best when in his dissent he stated: "My problem is that I was not appointed to establish educational policy, nor to determine the proper way to finance the implementation of this policy... Those duties, in my opinion, reside with the representatives of the people... My job is to determine whether the structures for providing and financing education.....meet the mandates of the Constitution. Vote 11-7.

Rep. Christine C. Hamm for the Minority of Ways and Means: In declaring that the directives of the judicial branch are not binding upon the legislative and executive branches, this resolution defies the concept of a tripartite, co-equal division of governmental authority, the system of checks and balances established by the framers of the United States Constitution and reaffirmed in The Federalist Papers and by more than two centuries of court decisions. The resolution questions the judicial branch's most basic responsibility, the right to interpret the state's constitution. Members of the committee believe that, carried to its logical conclusion, such an assertion threatens the basic rights of all members of society to seek judicial redress. Passage of the resolution, while non-binding in law, is an impediment to effective governance and an unworthy use of legislative power.

Majority Amendment (0434h)

Amend the title of the resolution by replacing it with the following:

A RESOLUTION declaring the directives of the judicial branch in the Claremont cases that the legislative and executive branches define an "adequate education," adopt "standards of accountability," and "guarantee adequate funding" of a public education are not binding on the legislative and executive branches.

Amend the resolution by replacing all after the title with the following:

Whereas, under part 1, article 37 of the constitution of the state of New Hampshire, the 3 essential powers of the government of this state, the legislative, the executive and the judicial, are to be kept as separate from and independent of each other as the nature of a free government will admit; and

Whereas, only by a consistent and strict adherence to a separation of the powers of the 3 branches of the government can the rights of the people set forth in part 2 of the constitution be preserved, and the form of government set forth in part 2 be maintained; and

Whereas, the language of part 1, article 37 applies with equal force to the judicial as to the legislative and executive branches; and

Whereas, were part 1, article 37 to apply with less force to the judicial than to the legislative and executive branches, the legislative and executive branches would be inferior to, subordinate to, and dependent upon the judicial branch, and our system of government would be oligarchical and not republican; and

Whereas, it is the duty of the executive and legislative branches, pursuant to the oaths taken by their members under part 2, article 84, no less than it is of the judicial branch, pursuant to the oaths taken by its members, not to contravene any portion of the constitution, and to be vigilant for and to oppose any contravention by another branch; and

Whereas, upon the occurrence of a palpable attempt on the part of the judicial branch to exercise any authority inconsistent with the judicial function, it is the right and duty of the legislative and executive branches to intervene to the extent deemed by them necessary, within the scope of their enumerated powers, to oppose and defeat such exercise, thereby to safeguard the fundamental principle of our form of government that each of its 3 branches should be confined to its constitutional limits; and

Whereas, in its decisions in the Claremont school funding cases, the judicial branch unambiguously directed the legislative and executive branches to pass laws "implementing" an "adequate education" based upon "seven criteria articulated by the Supreme Court of Kentucky," and to pass laws establishing "standards of accountability," and unambiguously stated that it reserved for itself the ultimate authority to determine the sufficiency of these laws; and

Whereas, for the judiciary to rule that the constitution of New Hampshire requires the legislature and executive branches to enact into law a certain definition of an "adequate education" or a definition of an "adequate education" based upon or incorporating certain criteria or parameters, or to enact into law any definition of an "adequate education" at all, adds legislative and executive powers to those of the judicial and unconstitutionally involves the judicial branch in the core policy-making functions of the legislative and executive branches; and

Whereas, for the judiciary to rule that the constitution of New Hampshire requires the legislature and executive branches to enact into law "standards of accountability," adds legislative and executive powers to those of the judicial and unconstitutionally involves the judicial branch in the core policy-making functions of the legislative and executive branches; and

Whereas, in its decisions in the Claremont school funding cases, the judicial branch unambiguously directed the legislative and executive branches to fund public education and unambiguously directed the legislative and executive branches how to do so; and

Whereas, for the judiciary to rule that the constitution of New Hampshire requires the legislature and executive branches to enact into law a certain system for funding public education or a system for funding public education based upon or incorporating certain criteria or parameters, or that the legislative and executive branches are required to enact into law any system at all for funding public education, adds legislative and executive powers to those of the judicial and unconstitutionally involves the judicial branch in the core policy-making functions of the legislative and executive branches; and

Whereas, at no time over the course of the 2 centuries of New Hampshire's statehood prior to the Claremont decisions did the judicial branch ever assert any authority to control, direct, or shape the educational policies to be pursued by the legislative and executive branches in terms of "adequacy" or any other qualitative measure; and

Whereas, at all times over the course of the 2 centuries of New Hampshire's statehood prior to the Claremont decisions, the judicial branch confined its review of statutory enactments and administrative actions respecting education to the constitutionality of the challenged statute or action and never considered the "adequacy" or any other qualitative measure of the statute or action.

Whereas, for the legislative and executive branches to treat as binding upon them any ruling by the judicial branch directing them to enact definitions agreeable to the judicial branch of "adequate education," or "systems of accountability" or to enact a particular system for funding public education, would attenuate the republican form of government established by part 2 of the New Hampshire constitution, and be subversive of representative government; and

Whereas, the scope of part 2, article 83 is not limited to cherishing the interest of public schools alone, but expressly encompasses as well cherishing the interest of literature, the sciences, and all seminaries; and further expressly states there to be a duty to "encourage," "countenance" and "inculcate" many other pursuits and virtues as well; and

Whereas, by its very terms, and in accordance with its original understanding, part 2, article 83 applies equally to the many matters therein enumerated, and the historical record is clear that it was left to the legislative branch to decide which of these matters, if any, would be funded from the public purse and, consistent with the fundamental principle of the separation of powers, these legislative decisions were not subjected to judicial review; and

Whereas, acceptance by the legislative and executive branches of the judiciary's directives in the Claremont decisions would not merely be to surrender to the judiciary a portion of the legislative and executive power to set educational policy, but to set a precedent by which the judiciary may justify the exercise of legislative and executive policy-making powers over any number of other matters; and

Whereas, the Claremont directives that the legislative and executive branches must enact a certain definition of an "adequate education," and "systems of accountability" and a certain system of funding public education constitute a palpable exercise by the judicial branch of powers not granted to it by the constitution of New Hampshire, and the legislative and executive branches have the right and are duty bound to prevent the exercise of such powers in order to maintain within their respective limits the three branches of the government of this state; and

Whereas, the judicial branch is not constitutionally empowered to direct the legislative and executive branches to define an "adequate education;" and

Whereas, the judicial branch is not constitutionally empowered to direct the legislative and executive branches to adopt "standards of accountability;" and

Whereas, the judicial branch is not constitutionally empowered to direct the legislative and executive branches to "guarantee adequate funding" of public education; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

That the legislature, having fully considered the foregoing enumeration of constitutional principles and having fully considered the foregoing enumeration of deficiencies inherent to the Claremont rulings, finds that the directives of the judicial branch in the Claremont cases that the legislative and executive branches define an "adequate education," adopt "standards of accountability," and "guarantee adequate funding" of a public education are not binding on the legislative and executive branches.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This house concurrent resolution declares the directives of the judicial branch in the Claremont cases that the legislative and executive branches define an "adequate education," adopt "standards of accountability," and "guarantee adequate funding" of a public education are not binding on the legislative and executive branches.

Majority amendment adopted.

Reps. John Pratt, Espieffs and Marjorie Smith spoke against.

Reps. Jasper and Sorg spoke in favor.

Rep. Giuda spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Almy requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

BILLS REMOVED FROM THE CONSENT CALENDARHB 504, relative to refinancing home mortgages. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Leo W. Fraser, Jr. for Commerce: The intent of this legislation would be to amend the terms of a mortgage without affording the lender to do all that it normally does in financing a new mortgage. The committee was unanimous in believing that if the provisions of the bill and/or the proposed amendment were adopted, lenders would be very reluctant to continue to make loan modifications that save the consumer from a full blown refinancing with its corresponding closing costs. Vote 18-0.

Rep. Jacobson spoke against.

Reps. Fraser and Hunt spoke in favor.

Adopted.

HB 573-FN, relative to motor vehicle insurance. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. George J. Liebl for Commerce: This proposed legislation would have further restricted the use of parts that were not manufactured by the original automobile manufacturer for automobiles that are older than two years. The committee felt that the insurance department has addressed this with a pro-active consumer brochure that informs the policyholder of their rights under RSA 417:4 and Regulations Ins. 1001.02, 1001.03 and 1001.05. Any further restrictions would only increase the costs and be passed to the policyholder in higher premiums. Vote 12-2.

Rep. Lars Christiansen spoke against.

Rep. Liebl spoke in favor.

Adopted.

HB 636-FN, relative to mandatory automobile insurance. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Kathleen N. Taylor for Commerce: This bill would require mandatory automobile insurance and require the Department of Safety to collect the number plates of those who cancel or non-renew their insurance. The committee feels that New Hampshire has an excellent rate of insured drivers under the laws as they now exist. Vote 12-2.

Rep. Arnold spoke against.

Rep. Hunt spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Adopted.

HB 680-FN, relative to services contracts. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Randolph N. Holden for Commerce: The majority felt that the bill in its original form raised numerous complex questions. In an effort to effectively address these questions the committee adopted an amendment, which would establish a study committee. This amendment would also repeal the law regarding legal service insurance in order to start from a clean slate. Vote 12-2.

Amendment (0865h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a committee to study service contracts and repealing the law regarding legal services insurance.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study service contracts, including prepaid legal services contracts.

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house.

(b) Three members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

3 Duties. The committee shall study service contracts, including prepaid legal services contracts.

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named house member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

5 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate president, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 2003.

6 Reference Deletion. Amend RSA 404-D: 3, I to read as follows:

I. This chapter shall apply to direct life insurance policies, health insurance policies, ~~legal services insurance policies;~~ annuity contracts, and contracts supplemental to life and health insurance policies and annuity contracts issued by persons authorized to transact insurance in this state at any time. The term health insurance is intended to include "accident and health" insurance, "sickness and accident" insurance, and "disability" insurance ~~[and for the purposes of this chapter shall also include "legal services insurance" as defined by RSA 415-C].~~

7 Repeal. RSA 415-C, relative to legal services insurance, is repealed.

8 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study service contracts, including prepaid legal services contracts.

This bill also repeals the law regarding legal services insurance.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

Rep. Elbert I. Bicknell for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill amends RSA 651:5, annulment of criminal records. HB 119, relative to removing names from the checklist. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Howard C. Dickinson for Election Law: This bill, as amended, will enable the supervisors of the checklist to remove names from the checklist when reliable evidence is provided that a person has changed their place of domicile. 1 New Section; Periodic Maintenance and Verification of Checklists; Evidence of Change of Domicile. Amend RSA 654 by inserting after section 37 the following new section:

654:37-a Evidence of Change of Domicile. If the supervisors of the checklist have received reliable documentary evidence that a voter whose name is on the checklist has left the town or city, they shall strike that name from the checklist at the next session for the correction of the checklist. They shall retain for 5 years the evidence, or copies of the evidence, as proof of their reasoning in striking the name from the checklist.

2 Removing Names from Checklist, Notice Required; Exception Added. Amend RSA 654:44, II to read as follows:

The provisions of this section do not apply to the removal of the names of persons for whom the supervisors have received a report of transfer or death as provided in RSA 654:36 or 654:37, nor to the removal of names of persons for whom the supervisors have received evidence of change of domicile as provided in RSA 654:37-a, nor to the removal of names during the period for verification of the checklist as provided in RSA 654:38 or 654:39, nor to the removal of names of persons for whom they have received a notice from a duly authorized board of registration from a community outside New Hampshire stating that a person whose name is on the checklist of the town or ward in New Hampshire has registered to vote outside New Hampshire.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

HB 795, establishing a committee to study deaths and injuries caused by OHRV use by minors.
INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. David M. Lawton for Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill would establish a six-member legislative study committee to research information on deaths and injuries caused by OHRV use by minors. The committee does not recommend a study committee at this time for two reasons. First, a legislative study committee recently recommended legislation which the Resource Committee has endorsed which includes restrictions on the operation of OHRV's by minors. That legislation should be given time to work before further study is undertaken. Secondly, the committee believes that data regarding the deaths and injuries caused by OHRV use by minors is already being compiled by the New Hampshire Fish and Game Department and they are actively developing education programs to address these problems. Vote 11-4.

Rep. Nordgren spoke against.

Rep. Royce spoke in favor.

On a division vote, 224 members having voted in the affirmative and 125 in the negative, the report was adopted.

HB 787-FN-A, relative to renewable energy promotion. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Edward R. Leach for Science, Technology and Energy: Recognizing that the New Hampshire forest product industry is a key component of the state's economy, the committee held numerous work sessions crafting this piece of legislation to help assure a market for low-grade timber in the State. The roots for this bill go back many years. But the current conjoining began at the end of last session when the House authorized a study committee to investigate methods of supporting the continued operation of wood-fired electrical generating facilities whose output is no longer sold through power sales rate orders. The linkage between wood fired plants and the timber industry is that more than fifty percent of the fuel utilized in these plants comes from low-grade timber. This timber, when removed from the forest, encourages a much faster and stronger regeneration of the forest and also contributes substantially to the economic vitality of the timber and sawmill industries. According to the Department of Resources and Economic Development, the wood plants themselves represent a total annual economic impact to the state's economy of about $96 million. While recognizing the difficulty for these plants to acutely compete with other, larger, electrical generators, the committee concurrently weighed that against the impact that removal of these plants would have on the timber industry specifically and the state as a whole. Aggressive actions are already underway to identify new and heretofore unexplored possible markets for this low-grade timber. The bill itself underscores the necessity and importance of this by establishing a Task Force to Promote the Low-Grade Forest Products Market. While these new markets are being pursued, the bill provides a funding mechanism to keep eligible wood-fired generation facilities in operation during the term of the program that is approximately five years. Using a carefully calibrated formula that includes numerous measurements such as capacity rating, average rate, and other variables, the bill creates the Forest Product Utilization Program. This program will be primarily funded from the Energy Efficiency component of the Systems Benefits Charges that are already in place for most utilities throughout the state. Utilities and municipal systems not having a systems benefit charge shall collect $0.0001 per kilowatt-hour distributed to its customers. This small, but widespread revenue stream, will flow into a newly created Forest Products Utilization Fund that will provide the necessary funding to keep the plants viable. The total amount in the fund may not grow in excess of $1.1 million. Eligibility to participate in the fund will require review by the Public Utilities Commission that has the same requirements that a public utility is subject to in a rate proceeding or an adjudicative proceeding before the Commission. The Commission is also charged with the task of making a public interest determination that will demonstrate that payment under the program will preserve NH jobs related to the low-grade forest products industry. Vote 13-2.

Amendment (0825h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to forest products promotion, establishing a forest products utilization charge, and requiring the department of resources and economic development to convene a task force.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Findings. The general court finds that the New Hampshire forest products industry is a significant component of the state's economy. As such, an economically healthy forest products industry is important to the economic well-being of the state. The low-grade forest products market is a key part of the forest products industry, therefore every effort should be made to promote viable uses of low-grade forest products.

2 Intent. It is the intent of the general court that the program established under sections 4-10 of this act, and funded from system benefits charges and other electric charge revenues, shall serve as a temporary means to assist in maintaining the low-grade forest products market by providing payments, within a restricted amount of funding, to make it economically feasible for eligible wood-fired generation facilities to operate during the term of the program. It is also the intent of the general court that a more permanent solution to sustaining the low-grade forest products market be developed by all concerned parties in the near future.

3 Forestry; Policy, Definitions, and Administration; Forest Products Promotion. Amend RSA 227-G by inserting after section 3 the following new section:

227-G:3-a Forest Products Promotion. The department shall develop a program to promote the New Hampshire forest products industry. The department's program shall support the operation of viable existing or new industries and companies in New Hampshire that use low-grade forest products.

4 Definitions. In sections 4-10 of this act:

I. "Average rate" means the sum of all revenues received or to be received by an eligible facility for eligible kilowatt-hours produced and sold during a production period, whether from sales to the New England Independent System Operator, sales under any contract, or sales pursuant to statutory mandates other than this act, divided by the eligible kilowatt-hours produced and sold during that production period.

II. "Billing cycle" means the regular period for which the eligible facility was paid for its electrical output for sales under its rate order.

III. "Capacity rating" means the output potential of a wood-fired, qualifying small power production facility as set forth in the commission Docket DR 89-148 settlement agreement of August 5, 1992 by and among Public Service Company of New Hampshire, the commission, and 6 therein listed New Hampshire wood-fired power facilities which, among other matters, settled the amount of capacity and energy output which could be produced under their respective rate orders.

IV. "Commission" means the New Hampshire public utilities commission.

V. "Department" means the department of resources and economic development.

VI. "Eligible facility" means any wood-fired, qualifying small power production facility for which the commission issued an order between November 1, 2001 and November 30, 2001 releasing the facility from all or part of its obligation under a rate order to sell energy or energy and capacity from the facility at specified long-term rates.

VII. "Eligible kilowatt-hours" means the number of kilowatt-hours produced by an eligible facility in a production period, up to the facility's kilowatt-hour limit, reduced by those kilowatt-hours required to be produced under a privately-negotiated legal obligation existing on December 31, 2001, or then existing and later amended, and produced during the production period.

VIII. "Forest products utilization rate" means $0.06 per kilowatt-hour, unless adjusted by the commission under section 8 of this act.

IX. "Fund" means the forest products utilization fund established under section 10 of this act.

X. "Kilowatt-hour limit" means the number of kilowatt-hours that an eligible facility could produce during a production period if operated at 100 percent of its capacity rating.

XI. "Participant" means the owner of an eligible facility that has been enrolled in the forest products utilization program in accordance with the provisions of this act.

XII. "Production costs" means the sum of:

(a) The participant's reasonable and prudent fuel, maintenance, operation, and administration costs incurred by or properly chargeable to the participant, without duplication, for the operation and maintenance of the eligible facility, including, without limitation, payments for fuel, additives or chemicals and transportation costs related thereto, salaries, benefits to employees, taxes other than those based upon the participant's income, insurance, consumables, payments under any lease, payments pursuant to agreements for the management, operation, and maintenance of the eligible facility, legal fees and expenses paid by the participant in connection with the management, operation, and maintenance of the eligible facility, fees paid in connection with obtaining, transferring, maintaining, or amending any permits or otherwise complying with any requirements or any local, state, or federal governmental authority with jurisdiction over the eligible facility, and general and administrative expenses, depreciation, utilities, transmission costs, ash handling and disposal, expenditures or reserves for repairs, capital replacement, and major maintenance, and all other costs properly allocable to the eligible facility.

(b) A return on investment, at the rate determined by the commission pursuant to paragraph V of section 8 of this act, on the eligible facility's depreciated net book value of plant in service.

(c) The cost to the participant of participating in any proceedings before the commission, including the reasonable and prudent fees and expenses of its counsel and experts.

XIII. "Production period" means a period corresponding to a billing cycle during which the electrical output is produced.

XIV. "Rate order" means a commission-approved long-term power sales order respecting a particular eligible facility and issued as part of the state's implementation of the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act of 1978.

5 Forest Products Utilization Program. There is hereby established a forest products utilization program in which eligible facilities may be voluntarily enrolled. The term of enrollment shall be through midnight, December 31, 2006, unless earlier terminated pursuant to paragraph IV of section 8 of this act. Eligibility verification by the department and acceptance by signature under section 6 of this act shall be a legally enforceable obligation upon both the department and the participant for the foregoing term to abide by the provisions of sections 4-10 of this act and the terms of the enrollment approval document, to the extent the enrollment approval document is in conformance with sections 4-10 of this act.

6 Enrollment.

I. An owner of an eligible facility may apply to the department to become enrolled in the forest products utilization program by providing, to the satisfaction of the department, the following information:

(a) A statement of the eligibility of the facility, as determined solely by the definition of eligible facility under paragraph VI of section 4 of this act;

(b) The billing cycle and associated production periods of the eligible facility;

(c) The capacity rating, kilowatt-hour limit, and the kilowatt-hour production requirements of any privately-negotiated legal obligation existing on December 31, 2001, or then existing and later amended, including a copy of such, to be used to compute the eligible kilowatt-hours for the eligible facility;

(d) A statement of the fuel required to be combusted at the eligible facility under any agreements associated with the termination of its rate order and copies of all such agreements; and

(e) Adequate credit security to ensure payment of any payments required pursuant to paragraph II of section 7 of this act and section 9 of this act.

II. The department shall expeditiously verify the eligibility of the facility based on the definition of eligible facility under paragraph VI of section 4 of this act. If eligibility cannot be verified, the department shall expeditiously notify the applicant in writing and provide a reasonable opportunity for the facility to respond to the department's determination or remedy the basis of any such determination. If eligibility is verified, the department shall expeditiously issue an enrollment approval document for signature on behalf of the eligible facility that details the following:

(a) The enrollment period is through midnight, December 31, 2006, unless earlier terminated pursuant to paragraph IV of section 8 of this act;

(b) The billing cycle and the associated production periods to be used;

(c) The composition of the fuel to be burned based on any agreements the applicant was required to submit under subparagraph I(d);

(d) The method by which eligible kilowatt-hours and the average rate shall be calculated in accordance with this act;

- (e) Documentation requirements for payment submittals; and
- (f) Any required credit security measures.

III. Enrollment in the program shall commence upon receipt by the department of the document signed on behalf of the eligible facility. The document shall become void if not returned to the department within 30 days of issuance, unless an extension is granted by the department. The department shall forward a copy of the signed document to the commission within 3 days of receipt.

7 Payment Process.

I. The participant shall submit to the department, on a billing cycle basis, a statement containing:

- (a) The calculation, in accordance with the method required by the enrollment approval document, of the number of eligible kilowatt-hours produced during the production period as taken from the eligible facility's meter reading and invoices to purchasers;
- (b) The calculation of the average rate for the production period;
- (c) The calculation of any payments due in accordance with paragraph II; and
- (d) A statement that the fuel burned during the production period complies with all agreements the eligible facility may have on such fuel composition and a quantification of such fuel amounts. With each statement submitted, the eligible facility shall submit a certification documenting that at least 85 percent of the wood combusted and attributable to eligible kilowatt-hours during the period was obtained from suppliers, procurers, or sources located in this state.

II. The department shall review and verify the calculations submitted. If the average rate is less than the forest products utilization rate, then the department shall make payment to the participant from the fund, to the extent moneys are available, in an amount equal to the positive difference between the average rate and the forest products utilization rate multiplied by the eligible kilowatt-hours. If the average rate is greater than the forest products utilization rate, then an amount equal to 50 percent of the positive difference between the average rate and the forest products utilization rate multiplied by the eligible kilowatt-hours shall be paid by the participant to the department. Any payment due under this paragraph shall be timely made using the same time for payment used under the eligible facility's terminated rate order.

8 Adjustment of Forest Products Utilization Rate.

I. Within 30 days of a participant's enrollment in the forest products utilization program, the commission shall commence a proceeding, that shall include an adjudicative proceeding, to adjust, if needed, the forest products utilization rate that shall apply to the participant's eligible facility, as provided for in paragraph II. The participant shall be subject to the same requirements that a public utility is subject to in a rate proceeding or an adjudicative proceeding before the commission, including, but not limited to, the provisions of RSA 365:6, RSA 365:10, RSA 365:12, RSA 365:14, RSA 365:15, RSA 365:16, RSA 365:17, RSA 365:18, RSA 365:21, RSA 365:29, RSA 365:38, 365:41-44, and RSA 366. Within 30 days of a participant's enrollment in the forest products utilization program, the participant shall file with the commission such information as necessary to comply with the commission's rules applicable to a public utility regarding rate case filing requirements, in the form and detail as specified therein, or as modified by the commission. Such filing shall include written testimony and all documentation in support of the participant's calculations of its average rate and production costs, along with such written attestation as required by commission rule.

II. The commission shall, as it can best determine and if needed, adjust the forest products utilization rate that shall apply to the participant's eligible facility to provide revenues that will be equivalent to the production costs for eligible kilowatt-hours during the term of enrollment, provided such adjustment does not increase the rate above the initial rate established in paragraph VIII of section 4 of this act. The commission may include an automatic adjustment mechanism to apply to the rate to account for future changes in productions costs, based on a generally recognized economic indicator that measures inflationary pressures in the region. Such automatic adjustment mechanism may increase the rate above the initial rate established in paragraph VIII of section 4 of this act. The commission shall conclude its responsibilities under this paragraph within 6 months of the participant's completed filing required by paragraph I.

III. As part of the proceeding, the commission shall make a public interest determination based solely on whether the following conditions are likely to occur:

- (a) Payments received by the participant under the program will preserve New Hampshire jobs related to the low-grade forest products industry, not including those within the eligible facility; and

(b) The price of the fuel used by the eligible facility will be comparable to the market price as a whole for such type of fuel.

IV. If the public interest conditions in paragraph III are not likely to occur, then the commission shall notify the department of its determination and the department shall terminate the participant's enrollment in the program.

V. The commission shall, by order, establish a return on investment rate of up to 10 percent to be used for determining the participant's production costs.

9 Review of Sales Revenue. The eligible facility shall provide written notice to its suppliers and procurers to seek to obtain such supply from in-state locations, where it can be done so in a commercially reasonable manner. A participant shall, within reasonable and prudent business practices, maximize sales revenue for eligible kilowatt-hours produced during the term of enrollment. The commission may from time to time, up until 4 months after a participant's enrollment in the program ends, review the participant's sales revenue to determine compliance with this requirement. If the commission determines that a participant has not complied, the commission shall notify the department and shall require the participant to repay to the department any amount received in excess of the amount that would have been received had sales revenue been appropriately maximized. The participant shall make such repayment to the department in equal monthly installments over a period of 12 months, beginning on the date 15 days after the commission's determination. In any review before the commission under this paragraph, the participant shall be subject to the same requirements that a public utility is subject to in a similar review before the commission.

10 Forest Products Utilization Fund Established.

I. There is hereby established in the office of the treasurer the forest products utilization fund. This nonlapsing, revolving special fund shall be continually appropriated to the department only for the purposes specified in this act. The state treasurer shall invest the moneys in the fund as provided by law. Interest received on investments made by the state treasurer shall be credited to the fund.

II. Any payments made by the department to an eligible facility under this act shall be drawn from the fund. Any payments made by an eligible facility to the department under this act shall be deposited in the fund. The treasurer may accept deposits into the fund from other sources not specifically referred to in this act. This paragraph shall not apply to any transactions that occur under paragraph VII after closure of the fund under paragraph VIII.

III. Each public utility having a system benefits charge, including any public utility where authorization for such charges arises at any time during the existence of the program created under section 5 of this act shall pay to the department, by the 15th of each month for deposit in the fund, $0.0001 per kilowatt-hour distributed to its customers in the prior month; payments shall be made for all electricity distributed by the utility for the period that any eligible facility is enrolled in the program. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commission shall allow any such public utility to be reimbursed through that portion of revenues collected from its existing system benefits charge and allocated to energy efficiency programs by the commission.

IV. Each public utility not having a system benefits charge and each municipal electric system furnishing electric utility service shall assess a charge on the utility bill of their customers in the amount of $0.0001 per kilowatt-hour distributed to its customers during the period that any eligible facility is enrolled in the program created under section 5 of this act or until such time as a system benefits charge is authorized for the public utility. The public utility or municipal electric system shall collect such charge and forward the revenue to the department for deposit in the fund.

V. The provisions of paragraphs III and IV shall be suspended if the balance in the fund reaches or exceeds $1,100,000. The requirements shall be reinstated if the balance declines to $750,000 or less.

VI. The department shall not be obligated to make payments to any participant in excess of moneys available in the fund. In the event of insufficient funds, the department shall make partial payments, if possible, and shall make full payments for past due amounts, as expeditiously as possible, when sufficient funds are available.

VII. If, after all required payments have been made into the fund, there are insufficient funds available at the conclusion of the program created under section 5 of this act to pay all claims submitted by eligible facilities, the department shall prorate such claims on an equitable basis and make payment from the available funds. Any unpaid claims surviving the conclusion of the program will not be paid unless funds, which should have been paid into the fund prior to the program conclusion, are later paid to the department.

VIII. Moneys remaining in the fund after all payments due under sections 7 and 9 of this act have been made shall be returned pro rata to the public utilities and municipal electric systems. The public utilities and the municipal electric systems that assessed a charge under paragraph IV shall credit the returned amounts to the benefit of their ratepayers. Public utilities and municipal electric systems who made payments from the system benefits charge shall use the returned funds for any purposes for which a system benefits charge may be used under RSA 374-F:3, VI, as determined by the commission. The department shall disburse such remaining moneys as directed by the commission, at which time the state treasurer shall close the fund account.

11 Eligibility Under Nox Budget Trading Program. Notwithstanding the definition of "renewable energy projects" under administrative rule Env-A 3203.49, any multi-purpose set-aside account established under the NOx Budget Trading Program by the department for renewable energy sources shall include any eligible facility as defined in paragraph VI of section 4 of this act that is enrolled in the forest products utilization program. Any owner of such a facility shall file a request under the trading program for the allocation of NOx allowances. Any allowances received shall be sold by the owner with the intent of maximizing sales revenues. Such revenues shall be deposited in the forest products utilization fund established under section 10.

12 Task Force to Promote the Low-Grade Forest Products Market. The department of resources and economic development shall convene a task force to identify and develop means of promoting a sustainable low-grade forest products market in the state. The department shall work with all interested parties, including the New Hampshire business finance authority, the New Hampshire industrial research center, the community development finance authority, the office of state planning, county and municipal economic development agencies, and the governor's office. The department shall submit an interim report by November 1, 2003 and a final report by November 1, 2004, detailing its efforts, along with any recommendations for legislation, to the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate president, the house science, technology and energy committee, the senate energy and economic development committee, and the state library.

13 Repeal. Sections 4-11 of this act, relative to the forest products utilization program, are repealed.

14 Effective Date.

I. Section 13 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2008.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Rep. Joseph Stone addressed the House.

Without objection, the Speaker indicated that the remarks of Rep. Stone would be printed in the Permanent Journal.

REMARKS

Rep. Joseph Stone: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today, our young men and women are engaged in harm's way half way around the world in Iraq. This morning, our chaplain prayed that the good Lord would stand watch over them and guide them as they proceeded toward their objective — freedom for the people of Iraq and the suppression of their dictator. Over the past twelve years that I have been in the House, each February the Honorable gentleman from New London, Representative (Alf) Jacobson, has asked us to remember the exploits of his fellow Marines as they fought the bloody battle for Iwo Jima.

Fifty-seven years ago this coming Tuesday, April 1st, on April Fool's Day, I, as an 18-year old Marine of the First Marine Division, along with the members of the Navy, the Army, the Air Force, the Coast Guard and other Marines, participated in the invasion and the battle of Okinawa on the island known as Okinawa in the Ryukyu Islands located 300 miles south of Tokyo, Japan. This island, which is 29 miles long, 5 miles wide, became what historians have called "the bloodiest battle of the entire Pacific campaign” during World War II. For over five months, Marine and Army soldiers and personnel advanced over very rugged terrain, often hill to hill, cave to cave, hand to hand fighting, until the island was declared secured in September.

On the sea, over 300 American vessels were either sunk or damaged and 5,000 sailors gave their lives because of the attacks of the kamikaze pilots. On the land, over 24,000 Marines and soldiers were either killed, wounded or missed in action. Over 90,000 Japanese soldiers were killed, and 150,00 Okinawans lost their lives on their mainland.

This afternoon, we have with us several representatives who were there and stood in harm’s way on that April 1st morning and who also participated in the Battle of Okinawa. Mr. Speaker, with your permission, I would like to have all those gentlemen or ladies who participated in the battle, please stand. Representative (Robert) Milligan was a Navy man who piloted a Higgins boat. For those of you who do not know what a Higgins boat is, that’s the little, small craft that launched off from the transports and brought the Marines and the soldiers onto land during the initial invasion. Representative John Flanders was a sonar technician on a destroyer escort who was keeping sincere watch to see about submarines by his pinging machine. Representative (Leighton) Pratt was a Navy man, also on a Higgins boat, bringing soldiers and Marines in. Representative (Leo) Fraser was a member of a Marine air wing which was supporting our troops as they battled their way on the island.

As you can see, we all seem to be a little long in the teeth, but our love for our great country and flag still remains firmly entrenched in each and every one of us. We all are proud that we played a small part in the history of our great nation. We fought for liberty and the right to remain a free country. We remember all of our fallen brothers who gave their lives in the battle for Okinawa and to all those other veterans who have gone on to their eternal rests.

This next Tuesday, as I’ve done so for the last 56 years, I will say a prayer for all those who have gone beyond me and also to say a prayer of thanks that I was one of the survivors. Ladies and gentlemen, thank you very much. God Bless America. “Semper Fi” to my fellow Marines. And thank you, Mr. Speaker.

RECESS MOTION

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 14

Thursday, April 10, 2003

The House assembled at 10:00, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, The Reverend Hays M. Junkin, Rector of Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church in Hopkinton.

Eternal God, strong to save, look with compassion upon the world You have made. Empower all humankind to overcome the bitter divisions caused by self-interest, misunderstanding or greed. By Your grace may the light of true freedom lift each human heart; that a renewed world, with liberty and justice for all, may rise from the sadness of war and from the supreme sacrifice of those who have given their lives in the defense of liberty's cause. We especially lift up to You the members of our armed forces, and our allies, now serving in Iraq and ask for their protection and for their swift return home. Receive and embrace those who have lost their lives, comfort those who are wounded, defend those who are held as prisoners.

Bless the work of this honorable House today, and may all that is done here be worthy of the sacrifice of those who defend the United States and all citizens of our beloved New Hampshire. As always we ask for Your protective hand to be upon those who serve in law enforcement, emergency medical services and in the fire service as they protect and defend our homes, our lives and our communities. Amen.

Rep. Norman Major led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The National Anthem was sung by Candace Glickman, a student at University of New Hampshire-Manchester.

All were guests of the House.

TARTAN DAY RECOGNITION PROGRAM

To begin the Tartan Day Program, Rep. John Hunt recognized special guests, David Gooch, President of the New Hampshire Gathering of the Scottish Clans, and Ellen Avery, widow of The Honorable Stephen Brody Avery, his daughter, Wickie and his grandson, Woody.

REMARKS

Without objection, the Speaker indicated that Rep. Hunt's remarks be printed in the Permanent Journal. Rep. Hunt: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today, my fellow representatives, as we have done for the past six years, we are celebrating New Hampshire Tartan Day. It is the day we recognize those achievements that Scots and Scottish Americans have made on behalf of the State of New Hampshire and the United States. The date of April 6th, declared by Congress as National Tartan Day, as has been mentioned before, marks the anniversary of the Declaration of Arbroath, the document that was signed on April 6 in the year 1320 declaring Scottish Independence, and a document many credit as being a model for our own United States Declaration of Independence. It is also the third anniversary of the new Scottish Parliament, which was dormant for over 250 years. We were honored with the visit of the Prime Minister last week. I want to thank the Speaker for his gift of New Hampshire's finest liquid maple syrup, of course, for which the Prime Minister was very appreciative and very concerned that it made it to his car for the ride back to Boston.

Mr. Speaker, the most important phrase of the 1320 Scottish Declaration of Arbroath is especially important today. "It is in truth, not for glory nor riches that we are fighting, but for freedom. For that alone which no honest man gives up but with life itself."

We take special note of the men and women of the American and allied armed forces who are fighting in Iraq, and especially those who have made the ultimate sacrifice with their lives fighting for these same principles of freedom from terrorism and freedom for all people. They have our prayers and best wishes and our fervent hope that someday all peoples on this earth shall be free.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the St. Andrew's Society of New Hampshire and the over 50,000 people of New Hampshire who claim some Scottish ancestry, it is my pleasure to introduce Pipe Major Gordon Webster, formerly Pipe major of the Scots Guards and piper to Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, as well as dancers from the New Hampshire School of Scottish Arts.

[Pipe Major Webster accompanied the students as they danced the Highland Fling.]

Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to introduce two young men who are piping students at the New Hampshire School of Scottish Arts and over the past year have competed in Highland Games from Georgia to Maine and have finished as the top two rankings for grade four pipers in the Eastern United States Pipe Band Association. They are John Bassett and Brian Morgan.

[The two young pipers, after playing for the members, joined the Speaker on the rostrum. The Speaker presented each with a declaration from the House.]

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. One of the primary goals of the St. Andrew's Society is to keep the Scottish traditions alive through our young people.

I would also like to thank all of the members who remembered to wear the tartan today. Would all of the members and visitors who wore tartan today please rise and be acknowledged.

Now I would like to ask all the members to please rise and let us have a final moment of silence for our four former members of the House who have passed away since we last recognized our fallen brothers and sisters one year ago.

Rep. Martin Feurstein of Franklin; Rep. Raymond Proulx of Dover; Rep. Lynn Horton of Lancaster and Rep. Stephen Avery of Dublin.

I would like to make a special recognition of my friend, Steve Avery, whose untimely death three days before election day last November will always rest heavy in my heart. If it were not for Steve's love for anything and everything Scottish, I would not be standing here today. This event is something that he took very special pride in creating and making happen. We will miss him but we will always have this day to remember him by.

[Pipe Major Webster played "Flowers of the Forest" and "Amazing Grace" in memory of those four members.]

The Speaker called the House to order.

SB 14, relative to vacancies in county offices, removed by Rep. Pitts.

HB 109-FN, relative to telemarketing practices. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: This bill prohibits telemarketers from calling customers who have listed their names on the "Do Not Call" list of the Federal Trade Commission. The amendment removed the allocation of fines to defray costs associated with the implementation and enforcement of this subdivision. Vote 23-0.

Amendment (1054h)

Amend RSA 359-E:9 as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

359-E:9 Obligation to Obtain Do-Not-Call Registry. Telemarketers making telemarketing sales calls to customers in the state shall obtain the do-not-call registry from the Federal Trade Commission.

Amend RSA 359-E:13, II as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. A violation of RSA 359-E:8 or RSA 359-E:12 shall result in the loss of ability to conduct telemarketing in this state for a period of 2 years and shall result in a fine of $11,000 per violation.

HB 353-FN-A, making an appropriation for the pilot program to study and establish protected instream flows and water management plans on the Lamprey River and the Souhegan River. IN-EXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. MaryAnn N. Blanchard for Finance: The Department of Environmental Services, due to budgetary constraints this biennium, has reorganized its funding for its water programs. This will allow support for the Instream Flow pilot project in the regular budget process this year without additional general fund money. Hence, this bill is unnecessary. Vote 18-2.

HB 565-FN-A, establishing a commission to implement the Hampton Beach Master Plan. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Marjorie Smith for Finance: The State of New Hampshire and the Town of Hampton have been working together to develop a master plan for Hampton Beach. The plan was completed last year. This bill establishes a commission that will work on the implementation of the plan and a master plan fund that will be a depository for gifts, grants and donations that will be used to implement the master plan. There is no fiscal impact on state revenues or expenditures, although both the state and the town will benefit from the implementation. The Town of Hampton has just approved $12 million for infrastructure improvements, demonstrating the town's commitment to this effort. Vote 23-0.

HB 577-FN-A-L, relative to implementing the Help America Vote Act of 2002 and relative to rulemaking by the secretary of state. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: This bill implements the Help America Vote Act of 2002 through the Secretary of State's Office. The committee felt that conforming to federal law and establishing a statewide centralized voter registration database in accordance with the Secretary of State's office was a sound fiscal approach to compliance. Vote 23-0.

Amendment (0970h)

Amend RSA 5:6-d as inserted by section 1 of the bill by inserting after paragraph V the following new paragraph:

VI. The secretary of state shall include appropriations from the election fund in the department budget submitted pursuant to RSA 9:4.

Amend RSA 654:45, IV(b) as inserted by section 4 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) Voter database record data shall be verified by matching the records with those of the department of safety and the federal social security administration as are required by law, and with the records of the state agency or division charged with maintaining vital records. For this purpose the voter registration record database may be linked to the state agency or division charged with maintaining vital records and the department of safety, provided that no linked agency or division may save or retain voter information or use it for purposes other than verifying the accuracy of the information contained in the voter database. The system shall facilitate the identification and correction of voter registration records whenever a registered voter has died or has been disenfranchised pursuant to part I, article 11 of the New Hampshire constitution or RSA 654:5 through RSA 654:6, or when the domicile address does not match the address provided by the same individual to the department of safety.

Amend the bill by replacing section 11 with the following:

11 Initial Funding; Appropriation.

I. The secretary of state shall develop a budget for the biennium ending June 30, 2005 for the purposes of funding costs associated with the Help America Vote Act of 2002, Public Law 107-252, and shall submit the budget to the fiscal committee of the general court for final approval.

II. The secretary of state is hereby authorized to accept money allocated to the state by the federal government pursuant to the Help America Vote Act of 2002, Public Law 107-252. Said sum shall be deposited into the election fund established in RSA 5:6-d for funding costs associated with the Help America Vote Act, including costs associated with positions and other program expenses.

III. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the secretary of state is authorized to establish positions necessary to implement the Help America Vote Act of 2002, Public Law 107-252.

HB 590-FN, relative to highway fund budget reporting requirements. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Elizabeth S. Hager for Finance: The committee agrees with the Public Works and Highways Committee that this bill allocates unrestricted revenue from the highway fund and requires any department that receives such funds to submit a biennial report of expenditures to the State Treasurer. The amendment sets parameters for this allocation. The committee felt that establishing such parameters would result in a greater percentage of highway funds going to actual road work, and not being eroded by use of other agencies. The bill retains the Highway Block Grant Aid Program intact. Vote 23-0.

HB 619-FN-A, expanding opportunities for dropout prevention and dropout recovery and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Elizabeth S. Hager for Finance: The amendment removes the appropriation from this bill but the Finance Committee understands the bill is important policy even without dollars attached. The committee is trying to find money for dropout prevention to put in the budget. Vote 22-0.

Amendment (1025h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT expanding opportunities for dropout prevention and dropout recovery.

Amend the bill by deleting section 2 and renumbering the original sections 3-4 to read as 2-3, respectively.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a dropout prevention and dropout recovery program in the department of education to provide a variety of services to high school students.

HB 677-FN, increasing the number of reserved student slots in medical programs, and establishing a loan forgiveness program for physicians who practice in underserved areas, and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Elizabeth S. Hager for Finance: This bill is an important expansion of our preferred access seats in medical schools. There are enough dollars currently in the budget to fund this program in the current biennium. Vote 22-1.

HB 702-FN, relative to payment of medical benefits costs for disabled group II members of the retirement system. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: The committee accepted the policy of extending to July 1, 2004 coverage of medical benefits costs for disabled group II members. This results in a one-year extension of terminally funded benefits which are paid from the special account. This bill also received an 18-0 vote in Executive Departments and Administration Committee. Vote 20-0.

SB 104, relative to state administration of medicaid benefits and services for individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Peter L. Batula for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill requires the Department of Health and Human Services to analyze rates for audiological and hearing aid services to determine whether they are sufficient to cover the appropriate services. With today's technology, infant deafness can be identified with more accuracy and this bill encourages utilization by also examining the reimbursement rates. The amendment made minor language changes, agreed to by the prime sponsor. Vote 14-0.

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Infant Deafness Program; Payment Schedule; Approval Process; Report. The department of health and human services shall analyze rates for audiological and hearing aid services to determine whether they are sufficient to cover any appropriate services. The department shall also review the prior approval process to improve the timeliness in regards to requests. The commissioner of health and human services shall make a report to the chairs of the house health, human services and elderly affairs committee and the public institutions, health and human services committee with any recommendations on or before November 1, 2003.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the department of health and human services to analyze rates for audiological and hearing aid services to determine whether they are sufficient to cover appropriate services. The bill requires the commissioner of health and human services to make a report to the chairs of the house health, human services and elderly affairs committee and the senate public institutions, health and human services committee on or before November 1, 2003.

REGULAR CALENDAR

HB 25-FN-A, making appropriations for capital improvements. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: This is the capital budget plan for the next biennium. It funds the long-term projects with money for planning, new construction, and long life maintenance such as roofs. The majority of the money is bonded. The debt service is provided by the general fund, highway fund, fish and game fund, or other sources that have a reliable cash flow. The committee made some minor changes to the bill as it came from the Public Works and Highways Committee. The total general fund bonding remains the same at $82 million. Department of Administrative Services found another source of funds to help with the enterprise resource planning project, and the Department of Transportation agreed to bond $5 million with highway funds. The instream flow pilot program was funded by rearranging other Department of Environmental Service projects. Lapses from earlier authorized Youth Development Center projects allowed $1.6 million to be added to that large project, and the additions to the USNH KEEP program were rewritten so as to have the same quarterly scrutiny as the base project. Finally, amendments to the state hospital projects allow replacement of a residence cottage rather than a more expensive rebuilding. Vote 21-2.

HB 135-FN-L, relative to charter schools. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: The charter school bill passed the legislature in a prior session but was vetoed by the Governor. It was passed again by the House and sent to the Finance Committee. The Finance Committee had the advantage of reviewing a proposal by the governor in HB 2. It was decided to move the charter school text in HB 2 to HB 135 to assure a consistent bill. Further, criticism of the status of special education students transferred to charter schools was treated in an amendment. By giving charter schools the same status as any other public school for special education, I.E.P.'s can be adjusted to reflect the unique capabilities of charter schools. The money included in the budget for charter schools is $250,000 in 2004 and $425,000 in 2005. Vote 18-4.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 New Paragraphs; Charter School Funding. Amend RSA 194-B:11 by inserting after paragraph VIII the following new paragraphs:

IX.(a) The pupil's resident school district shall pay tuition in cash or may issue reimbursement anticipation notes as set forth in RSA 198:20-d for each year in which a resident pupil attends a charter school approved by the state board of education. Unless otherwise agreed upon, cash payment shall coincide with the schedule for grant payment set forth in RSA 198:42. The reimbursement anticipation note shall be in the amount of the average base cost per pupil of an elementary or high school pupil, as calculated under RSA 198:40, for the year of attendance at the charter school, and shall be issued to the charter school prior to the beginning of the school year of the charter school. Each reimbursement anticipation note issued shall be for a term of 3 years from the date of issue or may be redeemable by the charter school at such time as the charter school or the pupil's resident school district receives adequate education grant amounts pursuant to RSA 198:42.

(b) Upon receipt of such reimbursement anticipation notes, the charter school may elect to borrow funds for the purpose of meeting general operating and maintenance expenses for charter school operations.

X. Each charter school shall be considered a public charter school and a separate local educational agency for the purposes of federal law. A charter school may accept and expend funds received under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, as a local educational agency, for each educationally disabled child who attends the charter school. During the time an educationally disabled child attends a charter school, the charter school shall be the school district responsible for the child under RSA 186-C.

XI. There shall be an appropriation in the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 2003 for the establishment of charter schools under this section. Charter schools which are eligible for grants under this program shall match funds provided by the state through private contributions in order to receive such money. State matching funds shall be provided in addition to any other sums provided by the state. Grants under this section shall be administered and determined by the state board of education who shall have the authority to develop a grant application, written procedures and criteria used to determine eligibility for grants, and procedures for the administration of grants by recipients, including reporting requirements. The total grants provided under this program shall not exceed the amount of money appropriated in the budget for this purpose.

XII. Any money appropriated in the budget for matching charter school grants that remains unused after the department of education issues matching grants to eligible recipients under paragraph XI shall be used to provide a one-year transitional grant to public school districts that have lost pupils as a result of the establishment of a charter school, and have paid tuition to the charter school in cash pursuant to subparagraph IX(a). For the first year in which a public school pupil leaves the public school and enrolls in a charter school, the school district that loses the pupil shall be eligible for a charter school transitional grant of up to $3,390 per pupil. Such transitional grants shall be administered by the state board of education who shall have the authority to determine eligibility and the amount of money to be awarded to school districts under this section, subject to the amount appropriated in the budget.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a 10-year pilot program for the approval of up to 2 charter schools per year by the state board of education and creates certain exemptions from existing law relative to the approval process, while subjecting charter schools approved by the state board of education to the same oversight and reporting requirements found in the existing charter school laws. The bill provides that funding for charter schools shall be through reimbursement anticipation notes or cash tuition payments directly payable to the charter school, and establishes a state matching grant program for charter schools. The bill also provides that a charter school shall be considered to be a public charter school and a separate local educational agency for the purposes of federal law and federal funding.

HB 164-FN-A, increasing the gross premiums tax on insurance provided by certain unlicensed companies. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Frederick W. King for Finance: This bill increases the existing 2% tax on certain unlicensed insurance companies to 3%. This tax is paid by the broker and predominately applies to commercial lines not available through carriers in New Hampshire. The tax rate of 3% is consistent with other tax rates, ranging from 3% to 6% across the country. It was a recommendation of the New Hampshire Insurance Department. Vote 21-1.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 167, relative to complaints against judges. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: This bill clarifies the jurisdiction of the Judicial Conduct Commission and its presence sparked a spirited discussion regarding its operation and funding. The majority of the committee felt that funding two commissions to do the same work was inappropriate and that the legislatively established committee was the one to be funded. Vote 17-6.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

Rep. Burling declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

HB 280-FN, relative to the poison information center. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Larry G. Elliott for Finance: The Department of Health and Human Services is required by state law, RSA 126-A:49, to have a poison control center. In years past, Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center provided this service to the state at no cost to the state. Approximately 17,000 calls are received each year. However, as a result of the tightening economic circumstances in our state, in the near future DHMC will no longer be able to provide this free of charge. The state currently uses a health insurance assessment fee to fund immunizations, and the Science and Technology Committee recommended that the state increase that assessment fee to cover the costs of operating a poison control center. The Department of Health and Human Services will determine the amount of the increase based on the number of individuals who are covered by health insurance. Although the exact charge is uncertain, the department projects an increase of six cents per month per insured. The poison control center services will be put out to bid, and additional savings may be realized. It is estimated that the cost in Fiscal Year 04 will be $778,480. However, we may only need to raise $400,000 through assessment fees because federal funds and other funds, including bioterrorism funding may become available to offset state expenses. Vote 21-2.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 304-A, relative to state acquisition of certain acreage in the Connecticut Lakes headwaters tract and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: Last session the legislature appropriated ten million dollars as part of an arrangement to purchase 171,000 acres in the Connecticut Lakes headwaters tract. There were to be eleven million dollars in federal funds, one million in private contributions and twelve million from a timber company. The timber company would own most of the tract, and allow recreational use managed by the division of parks and recreation. Delays in finalizing the easement led the sponsors to file this bill in the event that the whole arrangement might be jeopardized. The Finance Committee found that the land could produce up to one million dollars per year in timber harvest and camp leases. Thus, the committee amended the bill to have the bond payments made from the Forest Management and Protection Fund of the state into which timber harvest and camp leases would flow were the state to own the land. This action leaves the general fund bonding capacity fully available for all the competing construction projects. As we report the bill out, we have learned that the original arrangement may come to fruition before this bill reaches the Governor's desk. Should that occur, we will leave it to our Senate colleagues to find that this bill is unnecessary. Vote 20-0.

Amend the bill by replacing section 4 with the following:

4 Bonds Authorized. To provide funds for the appropriation made in section 3 of this act, the state treasurer is hereby authorized to borrow upon the credit of the state a sum not to exceed $12,000,000 and for said purpose may issue bonds and notes in the name of and on behalf of the state of New Hampshire in accordance with RSA 6-A. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 227-G:5, I, payments of principal and interest on the bonds and notes shall be made from the forest management and protection fund established in RSA 227-G:5, I.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 519-FN-A, relative to the conservation number plate trust fund. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Betsy A. Coes for Finance: This bill accomplishes three objectives at no additional cost. First, it adds the planting of lilacs to the Department of Transportation's current wildflower establishment program. Second, it directs $50,000 from conservation plate sales to DRED for the marketing and promotion of conservation plates; and third, it removes the 10% administrative cost cap on funds transferred to the state conservation committee's grants program. Vote 21-0.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 578-FN-A, establishing a program for self-certification by small quantity hazardous waste generators and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. MaryAnn N. Blanchard for Finance: This bill establishes a program for self-certification by small quantity hazardous waste generators. There is no general fund money in this bill; the program is funded by fees. It is an important initiative supported by the generators to enhance compliance, and avoid non-compliance penalties in a complex and changing regulatory climate. The small quantity generator fee is $180 for three years as well as a new notification fee for new hazardous waste generators of $100. The fees will be deposited into the Hazardous Waste Cleanup Fund. Revenues 04 - $254,145; expenses 04 - $249,382. Revenues 05 - $262,784; expenses 05 - $254,145. Vote 18-1.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

CLERK'S NOTE

Without objection, HB 608-FN-L, reducing the education property tax rate and relative to the calculation of adequate education grants, was postponed until after the noon recess.

HB 621-FN-A-L, establishing an early childhood literacy program. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Marjorie K. Smith for Finance: The legislature, through past actions, has determined that it is desirable to provide children from 0-3 years of age with a solid foundation for success in school and life, and to increase parents' knowledge about child development and appropriate ways to encourage that development. This bill authorizes the Department of Education to expand, to 10-15 other sites, the existing early childhood literacy program in Claremont, which is modeled after the national Parents as Teachers program. This program is intended to provide children ages birth through three, whose parents choose to participate, with a solid foundation for success in school. The amendment authorizes the commissioner to apply for, accept and expend up to $1 million for this program from non-state sources. Vote 17-2.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Funds Authorized. The commissioner is authorized to apply for, accept, and expend not more than $1,000,000 from non-state sources each year for the biennium ending June 30, 2005, for the purposes of the early childhood literacy program established in sections 1-2 of this act Any funds received under this paragraph shall be non-lapsing.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill implements an early childhood literacy program in the department of education modeled after the national Parents as Teachers program, and authorizes the commissioner of the department of education to apply for, accept, and expend non-state funds for the early childhood literacy program.

Adopted.

Reps. Hagan, Newton and Ingbretson spoke against.

HB 638-FN, increasing the oil import license fee, changing the rate of interest assessed on overdue oil import fees, and repealing underground storage facility permit fees. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert G. Holbrook for Finance: This bill increases the oil import fee from $.001 to $.00125 to provide funds for the Department of Environmental Services to increase staff for the new problem of ethers in leaking oil (such as MTBE). This bill also reimburses $100,000 to the general fund to cover expenses attributed to costs beyond the regular oil fund programs which are covered by oil import fees. The bill also increases the rate of interest on overdue oil import fees and repeals underground storage facility permit fees. Vote 22-1.

Amend the bill by replacing section 5 with the following:

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2003.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 663-FN-A-L, relative to county and state funding of long-term care medicaid programs. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Neal M. Kurk for Finance: This bill as amended reauthorizes the long-term care financial relationship between the state and the counties for an additional year. It covers nursing home, residential and home and community-based care. The bill establishes a county-state finance commission to oversee the relationship and make recommendations on rate setting, billing systems and individual county payment limits. The bill continues the limit on nursing home beds and caps the counties' financial liabilities for long-term care for FY 04 and FY 05 at $58 million and $60 million respectively. The bill establishes a nursing home assessment at 6% of gross revenues that will be matched with federal funds. The result is an additional $23 million that will be distributed through a quality incentive program to nursing homes that serve Medicaid patients. The counties will receive approximately $12 million of those funds, which would have a very favorable impact on county property taxes. This is an assessment on the nursing home facilities and not the residents. Therefore, it is expected that private pay residents will not be directly impacted by this bill. The bill also establishes similar assessments on community mental health center providers and provides for the developmentally disabled. Vote 20-3.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Purpose and Intent.

I. The purpose of this act is to reauthorize the county obligation to fund a portion of the non-federal share of medicaid expenses for long-term care programs.

II. This act addresses the need to better manage the financial relationship between state and county governments, which must work as partners in the development and funding of long-term care medicaid services. This act reduces the growing deficits between the actual reasonable costs for providers of long-term care medicaid services and the level of medicaid reimbursement.

III. This act reauthorizes eligible individuals to choose home and community-based care, mid-level care, or a nursing facility. This plan allows the state to serve an increasing medicaid eligible population appropriately and economically.

IV. This act also establishes a medicaid quality incentive program to promote quality care for medicaid nursing home residents.

2 New Chapter; County-State Finance Commission. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 28-A the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 28-B

COUNTY-STATE FINANCE COMMISSION

28-B:1 Commission Established. There is hereby established the county-state finance commission which shall consist of the following members:

IV. Six members representing county government, all appointed by the New Hampshire Association of Counties, who shall serve 2-year terms, provided that the initial terms of 3 such members shall be for one year.

The commission shall elect a chairperson from among its members, provided that the chair shall alternate between a state and a county representative in a manner determined by the commission. The commission shall meet at least quarterly and shall adopt rules for its procedures.

28-B:3 Duties of the Commission. The county-state finance commission shall oversee the financial relationship and the development of policy associated with programs for which the county and state governments share funding obligations. The commission shall have the following responsibilities:

Review and provide recommendations regarding department of health and human services rate setting and adjustments including, but not limited to, those for long-term care services for elderly and adult clients by the division of elderly and adult services, court-ordered and volunteer services by the division for children, youth, and families, the division of juvenile justice services, prior to any rate setting or adjustments.

III. Review and provide recommendations for refinement of county billing systems for all payments from the counties to the state.

IV. Pursue and evaluate funding options.

V. Develop a process for managing individual county payment limits under RSA 167:18-b, IV. In no event shall the individual county payment limit reduce or alter the total county obligation under 167-18-b, IV.

5 Long Term Care; Program Management and Cost Controls. Amend RSA 151-E:11 to read as follows:

151-E:11 Program Management and Cost Controls.

I. The department shall designate in its operating budget requests specific class lines for nursing facility, mid-level, and home-based care provided for in this chapter. These class lines shall reflect, and the requesting documentation shall include, the anticipated number of persons to receive services. The department shall not increase expenditures in approved budgets for care class lines or the number of persons to receive mid-level or home care services without the approval of the legislative fiscal committee, and the prior review of the county-state finance commission.

II. For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1999, and each fiscal year thereafter the average annual cost for the provision of services to persons in the mid-level of care shall not exceed 50 percent of the average annual cost for the provision of services in a nursing facility. II. Each county shall be liable in the same manner as provided for in paragraph I for old age assistance and aid to the permanently and totally disabled recipients who are eligible for nursing home care, but who are in another setting as an alternative to placement in a nursing home and are supported under the medicaid home and community-based care waiver for the elderly and chronically ill, as such waiver may be amended from time to time, except that no charges shall be made for services under the waiver to the extent the average cost of all such services exceeds the average cost for care that would have been provided in nursing homes.

III. ~~[The counties shall have an aggregate credit of $2,000,000 against amounts due under this section for each fiscal year beginning July 1, 1998. IV. The total ~~[reimbursements]~~ billings by all counties made pursuant to this section for persons who have been determined eligible to receive nursing facility services shall not exceed ~~[the amounts set forth below for any of the state fiscal years 1999-2003]~~ 50 percent of the non-federal share of the combined long-term care medicaid spending for which the counties are obligated and in no instance shall the billings for the 12-month period of the state fiscal year, dated between July 1, 2004 and June 30, 2005 exceed:

(a) State fiscal year ~~[1999]~~2004—~~[$54,000,000]~~$58,000,000.

V. ~~[In no event shall the financial obligation of any county for reimbursement of funds pursuant to paragraph I for state fiscal year 1999 exceed the amount that the county otherwise would have had to pay pursuant to paragraph I if this section were not effective prior to July 1, 1999.]~~ The limitations of total payments by all counties shall be recalculated every 2 years to align with the state budget process and amounts appropriated for all services for which the counties are liable.

VI. For purposes of this section all expenditures shall include all ~~[reimbursements made]~~ bills for which the county is liable for medicaid services, including but not limited to, payments for skilled nursing, hospital, physician and pharmaceutical services.

CHAPTER 84-C

COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH CENTER PROVIDER ASSESSMENT

II. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department of revenue administration.

III. "Community mental health center" means a program as defined in RSA 135-C:10.

84-C:2 Imposition of Fee. A assessment of 6 percent of the state fiscal year's gross revenues is hereby imposed on community mental health centers. The assessment shall be implemented as a health care-related fee as defined in 42 C.F.R. 433.55.

84-C:3 Fee Due. Each community mental health center shall pay its assessment in 3 equal installments. The first payment shall be made on or before September 30, the second payment shall be made on or before December 31, and the third payment shall be made on or before March 31. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, no penalty or interest shall be imposed for failure to make payment of the assessment when due if such payment is made within 15 days of when such payment is due.

84-C:4 Returns. Every community mental health center shall on or before September 30 make a return to the commissioner. The commissioner shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to the form of such return and the data which it must contain for the correct computation of program gross revenues and the fee assessed upon such amount. All returns shall be signed by the authorized representative of the community mental health center, subject to the pains and penalties of perjury.

84-C:5 Method of Payment and Deposit of Fee.

I. The payments required by RSA 84-C:3 shall be made to the department of revenue administration and deposited to the community mental health center trust fund established by RSA 84-C:7.

II. The commissioner and the state treasurer are authorized to establish an account or accounts and to take all steps necessary to facilitate the transfer of moneys required in paragraph I.

84-C:6 Extension of Time for Returns. For good cause, the commissioner may extend the time within which a community mental health center is required to file a return.

84-C:7 Community Mental Health Center Trust Fund Established. There is hereby established the community mental health center trust fund for the receipts from the assessment on the community mental health centers, any federal financial participation received by the state as a result of expenditures funded by these assessments, and the interest thereon. All of these funds shall be credited to and for the purposes of the community mental health center trust fund and shall not be used for any other purposes. These funds shall be nonlapsing. Any balance shall be carried forward to subsequent fiscal years.

84-C:8 Contingencies. The community mental health center assessment imposed by this chapter shall not be assessed, and no return shall be required to be made, upon the occurrence of either of the following events:

I. The federal match for medicaid funds allocated to community mental health centers is less than 50 percent in any fiscal year;

II. Federal approval of the community mental health center provider assessment established under this chapter, or of any related state plan amendments, is not granted or is withdrawn.

CHAPTER 84-D

NURSING FACILITY QUALITY ASSESSMENT

84-D:1 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Assessment" means the nursing facility quality assessment imposed pursuant to this chapter.

II. "Assessment period" means a 3-month period beginning July 1, October 1, January 1, and May 1, of each year.

III. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department of revenue administration.

IV. "Gross revenues" means gross patient services revenue recorded by the nursing facility for established rates for services provided to residents, regardless of whether full payment of such amounts is expected or paid.

V. "Nursing facility" means a nursing facility as defined in RSA 151-E:2, V.

84-D:2 Imposition of Fee. A assessment of 6 percent of the gross revenues is hereby imposed on all nursing facilities. The fee shall be implemented as a broad-based health care-related fee as defined in 42 U.S.C. section 1396b(w)(3)(B).

84-D:3 Assessment Due.

I. Each nursing facility shall pay 100 percent of its nursing facility quality assessment due and payable for the assessment period no later than the fifteenth day of the month following the assessment period. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, no penalty or interest shall be imposed for failure to make payment of the assessment when due if such payment is made on or before the last day of the month in which such payment is due.

II. If the return required by RSA 84-D:4 shows an additional amount of assessment to be due, such additional amount is due and payable at the time the return is due.

84-D:4 Returns. Every nursing facility shall on or before the tenth day of the month following the expiration of the assessment period make a return to the commissioner. The commissioner shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to the form of such return and the date which it must contain for the correct computation of facility gross revenues and the assessment upon such amount. All returns shall be signed by the authorized representative of the nursing facility, subject to the pains and penalties of perjury. If such return shows an overpayment of the assessment due, the commissioner shall refund or credit the overpayment to the nursing facility.

84-D:5 Collection and Deposit of Assessment.

I. The commissioner shall collect the assessment imposed by this chapter, interest on assessment, additions to assessment and penalties imposed, and pay over to the state treasurer the amount of funds collected under this chapter for deposit to the nursing facility trust fund established by RSA 151-E:14.

II. The state treasurer is authorized to establish an account or accounts and to take all steps necessary to facilitate the transfer of moneys required in paragraph I or III.

III. The commissioner may adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A requiring that payments made under this chapter be made by electronic funds transfer to the state treasurer for deposit to the nursing facility trust fund established by RSA 151-E:151-E:14.

84-D:6 Additional Returns. When the commissioner has reason to believe that a nursing facility has failed to file a return or to include any part of its gross revenue in a filed return, the commissioner may require the nursing facility to file a return or a supplementary return showing such additional information as the commissioner prescribes. Upon the receipt of the supplementary return, or if none is received within the time set by the commissioner, the commissioner may find and assess the amount due upon the information that is available. The making of such additional return does not relieve the nursing facility of any penalty for failure to make a correct original return or relieve it from liability for interest imposed under RSA 21-J:28 or any other additional charges imposed by the commissioner. This section shall not be construed to modify the statute of limitations provided in RSA 21-J:29.

84-C:7 Extension of Time for Returns. For good cause, the commissioner may extend the time within which a nursing facility is required to file a return, and if such return is filed during the period of extension no penalty or late filing charge may be imposed for failure to file the return at the time required by this chapter, but the nursing facility shall be liable for interest and late payment charges as prescribed in RSA 21-J:28 or RSA 21-J:33. Failure to file the return during the period of the extension shall void the extension.

84-D:8 Records.

I. Every nursing facility shall:

(a) Keep such records as may be necessary to determine the amount of its liability under this chapter.

(b) Preserve such records for the period of 3 years or until any litigation or prosecution hereunder is finally determined.

(c) Make such records available for inspection by the commissioner or his authorized agents, upon demand, at reasonable times during regular business hours.

II. Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall be subject to the penalties imposed under RSA 21-J:39.

84-D:9 Administration.

I. The commissioner shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to:

(a) The administration of the nursing facility quality assessment; and

(b) The recovery of any assessment, interest on assessment, or penalties imposed by this chapter or by RSA 21-J.

II. The commissioner may institute actions in the name of the state to recover any assessment, interest on assessment, additions to assessment or penalties imposed by this chapter or by RSA 21-J.

III. In the collection of any overdue tax, penalties or interest imposed by this chapter or by RSA 21-J, the commissioner may use all of the powers granted to tax collectors under RSA 21-J and RSA 80 for the collection of taxes.

84-D:10 Confidentiality of Records. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 21-J:14, the commissioner shall not be prohibited from providing information to the commissioner of health and human services with respect to the assessment imposed by this chapter, provided that the commissioner of health and human services and his agents and employees shall be subject to the provisions of RSA 21-J:14 with respect to any information provided by the commissioner.

84-D:11 Contingencies.

I. The nursing facility quality assessment imposed by this chapter shall not be assessed, and no return shall be required to be made, upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(a) The state and county share of payments to nursing facilities is less than $91 million in any fiscal year;

(b) Federal approval of the nursing facility quality assessment established under this chapter, or of any related state plan amendments is withdrawn; or

(c) Any proceeds from the nursing facility quality assessment established in this chapter are expended by the state or any state agency for any purpose other than funding the nursing facilities under the medicaid quality incentive program under RSA 151-E:13.

II. The assessments established by this chapter shall not be collected until the commissioner of health and human services certifies that the department of health and human services has obtained federal approval of any related state plan amendments. The medicaid quality incentive program payments authorized by RSA 151-E:13 shall be made 30 days after federal approval of the nursing facility provider assessment is first received from the federal government and shall cover the period beginning May 1, 2003.

DEVELOPMENTALLY DISABLED PROVIDER ASSESSMENT

84-E:1 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Assessment" means the user fee imposed pursuant to this chapter. For residential care and day program providers under RSA 171-A, the assessment shall be imposed on the provider's gross revenues for the previous fiscal year.

II. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department of revenue administration.

84-E:2 Imposition of Fee. A assessment of 6 percent of the prior state fiscal year's gross revenues is hereby imposed on residential care and day program providers under RSA 171-A. The assessment shall be implemented as a health care-related fee as defined in 42 C.F.R. 433.55.

84-E:3 Fee Due. Each residential care and day program provider under RSA 171-A shall pay its assessment in 3 equal installments. The first payment shall be made on or before September 30, the second payment shall be made on or before December 31, and the third payment shall be made on or before March 31. The commissioner shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to the form of such return and the data which it must contain for the correct computation of program gross revenues and the fee assessed upon such amount. All returns shall be signed by the authorized representative of the residential care and day program provider, subject to the pains and penalties of perjury.

84-E:5 Method of Payment and Deposit of Fee.

84-E:6 Extension of Time for Returns. For good cause, the commissioner may extend the time within which a provider is required to file a return.

84-E:7 Developmentally Disabled Provider Trust Fund Established. There is hereby established the developmentally disabled provider trust fund for the receipts from the assessment on the developmentally disabled providers, any federal financial participation received by the state as a result of expenditures funded by these assessments, and the interest thereon. (a) The federal match for medicaid funds allocated to developmentally disabled providers is less than 50 percent in any fiscal year;

(b) Federal approval of the developmentally disabled provider assessment established under this chapter, or of any related state plan amendments, is not granted or is withdrawn.

10 Long Term Care; Financial Eligibility Standards. RSA 151-E:3, I(b) is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

III. Within 15 days after the close of each quarter the commissioner of administrative services shall certify to the governor and the commissioner of health and human services the amount available to support the medicaid quality incentive program. The amounts certified are hereby appropriated to the department of health and human services for the purpose of implementing the medicaid quality incentive program and the governor is authorized to draw warrants for said sums out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. The department of health and human services shall designate a specific budget class line for the medicaid quality incentive program.

IV. When the funds for the medicaid quality incentive program are made available, the department of health and human services shall immediately distribute them to eligible facilities together with any matching federal funds that may be available to support the program.

V. Notwithstanding the obligation of the counties to fund services pursuant to RSA 167:18-b, the counties shall not contribute toward the cost of the medicaid quality incentive program.

151-E:14 Nursing Facility Trust Fund Established. There is hereby established the nursing facility trust fund for the receipts from the nursing facility quality assessment under RSA 84-D:3, any federal financial participation received by the state as a result of expenditures funded by these nursing facility quality assessments, and the interest thereon. Any taxpayer who fails to file a return when due, unless an extension has been granted by the department, shall pay a penalty equal to 5 percent of the amount of the tax due or $10, whichever is greater, for each month or part of a month during which the return remains unfiled. The total amount of any penalty shall not, however, exceed 25 percent of the amount of the tax due or $50, whichever is greater. This penalty shall not be applied in any case in which a return is filed within the extended filing period as provided in RSA 77:18-b, RSA 77-A:9, RSA 77-E:8, RSA 83-C:6, RSA 83-E:5 [or], RSA 84-A:7, or 84-D:7, or the failure to file was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect of the taxpayer. The amount of the penalty is determined by applying the percentages specified to the net amount of any tax due after crediting any timely payments made through estimating or other means.

13 Applicability. Nothing in this act shall be construed to create a new right on entitlement on behalf of any person to receive a service provided by the state.

HB 671-FN-A, establishing a contributory defined benefit judicial retirement plan. OUGHT TO PASS Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: This bill is the result of a study committee and reflects input from and consensus between the legislative and judicial branches of government. The bill establishes a contributory defined benefit judicial retirement plan. The future cost savings to the state become significant because regular contributions of both members (full time judges) and employer (State of New Hampshire) will provide adequate funding of the actuarial demands of the plan. The bill provides for an adjustment to judicial salaries equal to the contribution required by the plan and a onetime start-up appropriation of $250,000. The bill recognizes the need to continue funding the retirement plan of currently retired judges and in no way alters the provisions of their current retirement plan. The additional cost of the contributory program is $3,000,000 per year, largely to retire the unfunded liability of our present pay-as-you-go system. In 20 years, when the unfunded liability is amortized, the annual cost of judicial retirement is reduced by over 40%. Vote 22-1.

Rep. Alger inquired if the bill was divisible and requested that Section 3 be divided.

The Speaker ruled the bill was divisible and, without objection, so ordered.

Rep. Alger spoke against Section 3.

Rep. Wheeler spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Section 3 adopted.

Remainder of report adopted.

Ordered to third reading.

Rep. Burling declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

HB 608-FN-L, reducing the education property tax rate and relative to the calculation of adequate education grants. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Neal M. Kurk for the Majority of Finance: This bill sets in law lower rates for the statewide property tax, decreasing yearly from $4.92 in 2004 to $3.92 in 2009 and thereafter in inverse proportion to the increase in equalized property valuation. In addition, the bill establishes a targeted aid program funded at $10 million in 2004, $15 million in 2005 and $20 million each in FY 2006 and 2007. The bill modifies the existing education funding formula to reflect more accurately the cost of providing an adequate education. The base cost in the formula is indexed to the northeast regional consumer price index. Transportation covers the full cost of what is required by state statute. Home schooled pupils are included in the weighting system in proportion to the costs borne by their districts. It is estimated that the cost of an adequate education will be $885 million in FY 2004 and $910 in FY 2005. Vote 13-9.

Rep. Elizabeth S. Hager for the Minority of Finance: The minority agrees with the majority that the costing methodology the legislature has chosen to use may not accurately reflect the cost of continuing to provide adequate education opportunity over time. While we do not share their goal, we also agree with the majority that HB 608 will reduce the state responsibility now and even more so over time. The minority believes that HB 608 as amended by the majority shifts that responsibility to local taxpayers, most of whom will have a more difficult time raising dollars necessary to pay the increase in local school taxes which will be the unavoidable result of passage of HB 608 as amended by the majority. The minority proposes, instead, to continue the plan now in place until the legislature is ready to grapple with the complicated underlying issues. The minority amendment does that. It lowers the property tax in each succeeding biennium parallel to those reductions in HB 608. These decreases take into account the anticipated increase in statewide property values. The amendment uses the adequacy figures determined by the Department of Education. The minority suggests that it is in the best interests of school districts and of local taxpayers that we don't keep changing the rules until we have figured out an appropriate long-term solution.

Majority Amendment (1105h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Statement of Purpose; Legislative Findings.

I. The general court recognizes the inherent imprecision and subjectivity involved in determining the cost of providing the opportunity for an adequate education. In the exercise of its constitutional authority and discretion, to provide the opportunity for pupils to obtain an adequate education, the general court has adopted an average costing methodology. The general court recognizes that this costing methodology may produce spending pressures and results that may not accurately reflect the cost of continuing to provide adequate educational opportunity over time. As a result, the general court finds that changing the base cost per pupil by reference to the consumer price index is the most appropriate way to calculate changes in the cost of an adequate education.

II. The general court further finds that the local portion of the cost of education is primarily funded through a local tax on property. Resident homeowners use personal income to pay their property tax bills. In municipalities that have less industry, and fewer rental properties or vacation homes, resident homeowners bear most of the burden in paying the local property tax. Targeted education grants will assist those municipalities that have less other property and less income in relation to home values in providing additional education services.

8 Education Property Tax; Rate Formula. RSA 76:3 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:
76:3 Education Property Tax.

I. Beginning July 1, 2009, and every July 1 thereafter, the commissioner of the department of revenue administration shall calculate the education property tax rate to be imposed in the fiscal year by calculating the percentage change in the total valuation of all developed land in the state as of June 30 of the year in which the calculation is made, assessed at 100 percent of fair market value, and adjusting the education property tax rate that was in effect as of June 30, 2009 in inverse proportion to such percentage change. In this section, "developed land" shall mean any land, regardless of whether or not it is subject to a conservation restriction, upon which structures or improvements have been introduced for residential, commercial, or industrial purposes or any commercial mining or excavating purposes inconsistent with its use as open space land.

II. The maximum tax rate imposed under this section shall not exceed the education tax rate in effect during the immediately preceding fiscal year.

(1) 0.1 for each home educated pupil participating in a public school activity; and

(2) An additional 0.15 for each academic course taken in a public school, provided that no co-curricular activity, as defined by the department of education, shall count as an academic course under this subparagraph.

10 Consumer Price Index Adjustments to the Base Cost Per Pupil Calculation. For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2003, and every fiscal year thereafter, the base cost per pupil shall be adjusted by the average annual percentage rate of inflation for the 4 immediately preceding calendar years.

11 School Money; Determination of Per Pupil Adequate Education Cost and Adequate Education Grant. Amend RSA 198:40, III to read as follows:

III. For each fiscal year, the statewide cost of an adequate education for all pupils shall be calculated by multiplying the average base per pupil cost of an adequate education by the statewide weighted average daily membership in residence of pupils and then adding ~~[70]~~ 100 percent of ~~[total statewide]~~ transportation costs as defined in RSA 198:38, XI.

12 School Money; State Aid for Educational Adequacy. Amend RSA 198:38, XI to read as follows:

XI. "Transportation costs" means the ~~[costs]~~ cost of transporting pupils in kindergarten through grade 8 to and from school ~~[and other school activities]~~ as reported by school districts on the ~~[MS-25]~~ DOE-25 form.

13 School Money; Determination of Adequate Education Grants. Amend RSA 198:41, I(b) to read as follows:

(b) Add to the product of subparagraph (a), ~~[70]~~ 100 percent of the municipality's apportioned transportation ~~[cost]~~ costs as defined in RSA 198:38, XI;

14 New Section: Targeted Education Grants. Amend RSA 198 by inserting after section 45 the following new section:

198:45-a Targeted Education Grants.

I. In this section:

(a) "Median family income" and "median home value" shall be as defined in the most recent census data published for New Hampshire counties and municipalities by the United States Census Bureau, United States Department of Commerce. County values shall be used for unincorporated places not reported in the census data.

(b) "Total equalized valuation" shall mean the most recent available total equalized valuation, including utilities and railroads, as determined by the department of revenue administration.

(c) "Adjustment percentage" shall mean the percentage which will result in a total targeted education grant distribution in a fiscal year that will match, as nearly as possible without exceeding, the appropriation in such fiscal year for targeted education grants.

II. The department of education shall annually calculate each municipality's targeted education grant as set forth in this paragraph.

(a) The department of education shall calculate the statewide average per pupil target amount as follows:

(1) Multiply the statewide median family income by 0.5 percent; and

(2) Divide the product by the statewide median home value; and

(3) Multiply the result by the statewide total equalized valuation and divide the product by the statewide average daily membership in residence. The result shall be the statewide average per pupil target amount.

(4) Multiply the statewide average per pupil targeted amount by 2 and multiply the result by the adjustment percentage.

(b) The department of education shall calculate the local valuation per pupil as follows:

(1) Multiply the average median family income in the municipality by 0.5 percent; and

(2) Divide the product by the median home value in the municipality; and

(3) Multiply the result by the total equalized valuation in the municipality and divide the product by the average daily membership in residence in the municipality. The result shall be the local per pupil amount.

(c) Subtract the amount obtained in subparagraph (b) from the amount obtained in subparagraph (a) and multiply the difference by the adjustment percentage. The result, if greater than zero, shall be multiplied by the average daily membership in residence in the municipality and shall be distributed to the municipality as a targeted education grant.

III. The sums of $10,000,000 for the 2004 fiscal year, $15,000,000 for the 2005 fiscal year, $20,000,000 for the 2006 fiscal year, $20,000,000 for the 2007 fiscal year, shall be appropriated to the education trust fund established in RSA 198:39 for the purpose of providing targeted education grants to school districts. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sums out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

IV. Targeted education grants made under this section shall be distributed in accordance with RSA 198:42.

15 School Boards, Teachers; Definitions Amended. RSA 189:1-d is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

III. "Average daily membership in attendance" means the aggregate half-day membership of pupils attending schools operated by a school district divided by the number of half-days of instruction offered. The average daily membership in attendance for preschool and kindergarten pupils shall be divided by the number of instructional days offered to higher level elementary grades.

IV. "Average daily membership in residence" means the average daily membership in attendance of pupils who are legal residents of the school district pursuant to RSA 193:12 or RSA 193:27, IV and are attending any public school, or who are attending any charter school or private school program approved by the department of education at the expense of the school district.

Capital expenses shall include the costs of acquiring land and buildings for school purposes, including property owned by a pre-existing district; the construction, furnishing, and equipping of school buildings and facilities; and the payment of the principal and interest of any indebtedness which is incurred to pay for the same or which is assumed by the cooperative school district. [~~Home education pupils who do not receive services from the cooperative school district, except an evaluation pursuant to RSA 193-A:6, II, shall not be included in the average daily membership relative to apportionment formulas.~~]

Rep. Weyler offered a floor amendment (1227h).

Floor Amendment (1227h)

Amend RSA 198:45-a, III as inserted by section 14 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. The sum of $5,000,000 for the 2005 fiscal year shall be appropriated to the education trust fund established in RSA 198:39 for the purpose of providing targeted education grants to school districts. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sums out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Amend section 18 of the bill by replacing all after paragraph VIII with the following:

IX. Section 14 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2004.

X. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 2003.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

1. Provides that the calculation of the statewide cost of an adequate education shall be indexed to the northeast regional consumer price index for all urban consumers for the 4 immediately preceding calendar years.

II. Reduces the education property tax rate from $5.80 to $4.92 for the 2004 fiscal year, and thereafter further reduces the rate by 20 cents per fiscal year through the 2009 fiscal year.

III. Beginning July 1, 2009, requires that the commissioner of the department of revenue administration set the education property tax rate by calculating the percentage change in the total valuation of all developed land in the state, assessed at 100 percent of fair market value, and adjusting the rate in the immediately preceding fiscal year in inverse proportion to such rate.

IV. Changes the payment for transportation costs to include 100 percent of the total cost of transporting pupils in kindergarten through grade 8 to and from school.

V. Changes the definition of average daily membership in residence for the purpose of calculating state aid for educational adequacy.

VI. Implements a weighting formula for counting home educated pupils.

VII. Provides that $5,000,000 in targeted education grants shall be made to municipalities for the 2005 fiscal year.

Rep. Weyler spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Kurk spoke against.

Rep. Weyler requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being adoption of floor amendment (1227h).

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Marjorie Smith moved that the debate on HB 608 be printed in the Permanent Journal.

HB 705, establishing a committee to study the application of the communications services tax to the provision of Internet services and relative to the rate of the communications services tax and the property tax exemption for wooden poles and conduits. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Elizabeth S. Hager for Finance: This bill came to the Finance Committee in order to confirm its fiscal impact. The Finance Committee agrees with the Ways and Means Committee that the continuation of the telecommunications service tax and the companion wooden poles and conduits exemption is important to the state revenue system. Vote 21-2.

On a division vote, 231 members having voted in the affirmative and 124 in the negative, the report was adopted.

Ordered to third reading.

HB 717-FN-L, relative to targeted aid to education. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Frederick W. King for Finance: This legislation promotes educational quality by preserving local control and primacy of local funding for public elementary and secondary education. It promotes budgetary efficiency by targeting aid to communities most in need. It assists communities in local planning by providing an adequate transition period and stability of state aid grants. It utilizes existing financial resources within the education trust fund without the need for a state property tax. It awards grants based on the differences between a community's education need and its fiscal capacity as determined by household income, as well as equalized property values. The formula goes beyond the current system by taking into account such factors as additional costs associated with students with limited English proficiency, variations in the cost of living around New Hampshire and the high costs of providing education in very small towns. It eliminates the state-wide property tax and becomes effective July 1, 2005. Vote 15-7.

Amend RSA 198:41-a, I (c) (1) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(1) A municipality's total weighted pupils shall mean the number of its elementary school pupils, including kindergarten pupils, plus 1.1 times the number of its high school pupils, plus the number of its special education pupils, plus the number of its pupils eligible to receive free or reduced price lunch, plus the number of its pupils with limited proficiency in the English language, plus the number of its scale pupils. For the purposes of this calculation, "eligible to receive free or reduced price lunch" shall mean the percentage of a municipality's eligible elementary school pupils multiplied by the total of its elementary and high school pupils.

Amend RSA 198:41-a, I (e) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(e) Fiscal capacity shall mean the sum of the municipality's equalized property valuation as determined by the department of revenue administration as of April 1, 2001, excluding property subject to taxation under RSA 83-F, plus the municipality's total household income, divided by 2. The result shall then be multiplied by 0.01923. Total household income shall mean the municipality's median household income multiplied by the number of its households, as determined by the 2000 United States census.

Amend the bill by replacing section 6 with the following:

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2005.

Adopted.

Rep. King spoke in favor.

Rep. Jeffrey Gilbert spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 719-FN-A, relative to the duties, function, and operation of the Pease development authority. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: This bill provides for the addition of a new position of Deputy Chief Harbor Master at labor grade 21 and benefits at 37%. This is in response to both the increased business volume and the additional responsibility which springs from homeland protection. Fees for services will cover the additional cost. Vote 21-0.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 724-FN-L, extending the effective date of the Skyhaven airport transfer plan. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Marjorie K. Smith for Finance: Skyhaven is a state-owned airport. Current statute provides for a transfer of ownership in June, 2003. This legislation would extend that date to June, 2006. During that time, approvals for wetlands mitigation and a new airport layout plan should be secured, providing for a major expansion of flight activity and increasing the long term viability of the airport. In the interim, revenues are expected to equal expenditures, resulting in no net cost to the state. Vote 21-0.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 728-FN-A, establishing a dedicated fund for organic certification inspections. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Frederick W. King for Finance: This legislation allows organic food processors and handlers to be certified by the New Hampshire Department of Agriculture. At the present time, the department only inspects and certifies organic food producers. The cost of this program will be paid 100% by user fees. Vote 20-0.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 735-FN, relative to prescription drugs and medicaid best practices. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Fran Wendelboe for Finance: The policy intent of this bill is to provide prescription drug coverage to a segment of disabled and senior citizens who are under 120% of poverty and have assets under $2,500. This category (of approximately 2,000 people) currently gets some assistance on their Medicare premiums (part A and part B). The corrected fiscal note is $3.2 million, half of which would come from general funds. While the committee believes it important to assist these very needy individuals, it was felt that under the current economic climate it is not possible to fund the program. The committee did put $1 in each line and allowed for acceptance of gifts or grants. There is also a section directing the Department of Health and Human Services to effect cost savings through disease management, and another section establishing a task force to study prescription drug access for all segments of our population. Vote 21-2.

The bill also establishes a 3-year task force to study increasing access to prescription drug medicines. Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

Rep. Robert G. I. There shall be an executive director of the state conservation committee who shall be an unclassified employee and shall be compensated as provided in RSA 94:1-a. The executive director shall serve a 3-year term and shall be appointed by the state conservation committee.

Amend the bill by replacing sections 4 and 5 with the following:

The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sums out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes a change in the language of the state conservation committee, creates a new unclassified position of executive director of the state conservation committee, establishes a salary for the position, and makes an appropriation for certain expenses of the committee.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 738-FN-A-L, permitting aid to public water systems to be used for forming or improving regional water systems and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. MaryAnn N. Blanchard for Finance: This bill, as amended, reduces the appropriation to $1.00, but makes no other changes. The bill widens use of existing surface water filtration funds to include interconnections when/if money becomes available as the need for filtration declines. Vote 19-0.

Amend the bill by replacing section 17 with the following:

17 Appropriation. The sum of $1 is hereby appropriated to the department of environmental services for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2004 and the sum of $1 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005, for the purpose of providing grants for regional water system projects under RSA 486-A. Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 751-FN-L, implementing an alternative school building aid grant formula, establishing size and cost standards for the construction of new school facilities, and permitting high school vocational technical education programs which lease space to be eligible for school building aid grants. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert K. Dodge for Finance: The original concept of school construction aid encouraged school districts to form cooperatives by increasing the percentage of state aid from 30% of principle for a single town district, 40% for two towns, and an additional 5% for each additional town for a maximum of 55%. As a result, most towns have some arrangement with multi-town districts. The existing formula does not, however, look at a district's ability to pay. Anecdotally, we have heard of poor districts that could not even include a gymnasium, while affluent districts might include towering atriums and covered tennis courts. This bill not only offers an alternative cost sharing, where even a single town district can be funded at the 60% level, but it also includes standards in building size and site. Most states limit the number of square feet per student that they will pay for, and the number of acres relative to the number and type of school (i.e. elementary, middle, high). It is estimated that by placing a limit on what the state funds, more will be available for the most financially stressed schools. The result will be approximately the same amount of school construction aid as is delivered at present. Vote 17-3.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 788-FN-A, transferring the duties of the health services planning and review board. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Fran Wendelboe for Finance: This bill, as it came from the policy committee, repealed the Health Services Planning and Review Board (CON) structure and reduced regulations of outpatient renovations. The bill reduces government regulations, encourages competition and protects small hospitals from competition in surgery services. The Finance Committee amended the bill to make some technical corrections, clarified language adding ambulatory surgery centers to those paying fees, and moved the responsibility for review to the Department of Health and Human Services. The Finance Committee also increased the budget $200,000 so that new federal money now eligible with the move to the Department of Health and Human Services could be spent on needed health data collection and analysis. This total appropriation comes from non-general fund dollars, being raised by fees assessed to certain health care facilities and matching dollars from the federal government. Vote 15-7.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Certificate of Review. RSA 151-C is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

Each notice shall include dates and locations of public hearings.

151-C:6 Procedures for Existing Standards; No Standards.

I. If a standard of need, which precludes additional services, has existed for longer than 24 months, any person may request that the standard be reviewed to determine whether the standard should be continued. The 24-month requirement may be waived if it can be demonstrated that there has been a change in technology, market, or price which would warrant review of the standard. Notwithstanding RSA 541-A:4, the procedure shall be as follows:

(a) A request for a standard review shall be submitted in writing to the department.

(b) Within 30 days of the receipt of the request, the department must notify, in writing, the person making the request of the commencement of the 120-day standard review process or that the proposed project is not in accordance with RSA 151-C:5, II, and no standard review shall take place.

(c) The review of an existing standard shall take no longer than 120 days. Adoption of the standard shall be in accordance with RSA 541-A.

(d) The department shall notify persons, pursuant to RSA 151-C:5, I, of the beginning of the standard review period and the schedule for the review.

(e) If the department does not provide a standard allocating the new service or a statement on competition within the allotted 180 days, the proposed service shall not be required to obtain a certificate of review and shall not be subject to regulation under RSA 151-C.

II. In the case of a service for which there is no standard, any person may request, in writing, that the department develop a standard. Notwithstanding RSA 541-A:4, the procedure shall be as follows:

(a) A request for a standard development shall be submitted in writing to the department.

(b) Within 30 days of the receipt of the request, the department shall notify, in writing, the person making the request of the commencement of the 120-day standard development process or that the service is not in accordance with RSA 151-C:5, II, and no standard development shall take place.

(c) The development of a new standard shall take no longer than 120 days. Adoption of the standard shall be in accordance with RSA 541-A.

(d) The department shall notify persons, pursuant to RSA 151-C:5, I, of the beginning of the standard development period and the schedule for the review.

(e) The standard shall be either a standard allocating the new service by number, type, and location or a statement that the proposed new service is in the best competitive interest of health care in the state and shall not be subject to the provisions of RSA 151-C:8. The decision of the department shall be considered a final decision.

(f) If the department does not provide a standard allocating the new service or a statement on competition within the allotted 180 days, the proposed service shall not be required to obtain a certificate of review and shall not be subject to regulation under RSA 151-C.

III. In any standards for nursing facilities, the department shall provide that priority for a certificate of review for additional nursing facility beds shall be given to any facility which after January 1, 1999, has surrendered its certificate of review for the same or greater number of nursing facility beds. A facility may transfer to any other entity its priority status for a new certificate of review.

151-C:7 Criteria. Every standard developed by the department shall stipulate the criteria which must be met by any successful applicant applying to fill a need identified in the standard. At a minimum these shall include:

I. The immediate and long range financial feasibility of the proposed project, including the probable impact of costs and charges of the facility on health insurance premiums and personal health expenditures in the state or the region of the state.

II. The availability of resources for the proposed project including health and management personnel and funds, capital, and operating needs.

III. The degree to which the proposed project will be accessible to persons who are medically underserved, including, but not limited to, persons with a disability and indigent persons.

IV. In the case of existing facilities or entities with other facilities, records of the quality of care which may include records from state, federal, and private licensing and accreditation facilities. In the case of new entities, assurance of the quality of care stated in measurable terms.

151-C:8 Procedures for Certificate of Review.

I. If a standard developed through RSA 151-C:5 or 151-C:6 indicates a need for additional health services, the department shall issue a request for applications. The department shall publish, in other than the legal notices section, in a newspaper of statewide distribution and in at least one newspaper in every county, as well as notify all affected persons as defined in paragraph VI(b) of this section, a notice that the department is requesting applications for certificates of review for the specified service. At a minimum the notice shall include:

(a) A brief description of the service to be provided, including the amount, type, and location as established by the standard.

(b) The final date that applications are to be submitted which shall be no sooner than 60 days from the date of publication. An application in response to a request for application may be submitted prior to the deadline, but no review shall commence prior to the deadline.

(c) An address at which applicants may obtain copies of the application format as well as the minimum criteria and specifications which shall be the basis for judging the merits of each application.

II. The department shall be available to provide technical assistance to any applicant submitting an application in response to a request for applications.

III. All applications received in response to a single request for applications shall be reviewed simultaneously and shall be considered in relationship to each other.

IV. Every application shall contain such information as the department adopts by rule. The department shall not require any information which it has not adopted by rule. The information requirements established by the department may vary according to the purpose of the review or the type of health service being reviewed. In addition to the information required for submission to the department, any applicant may submit, and the department shall duly consider, any other information.

V.(a) The department shall examine every application for form and completeness, and the information required by RSA 151-C:7 as well as the specifications and standards outlined in the request for application. If an application is determined incomplete by the department, it shall notify the applicant by certified mail within 15 business days of receipt of the application. Such notification shall include a full explanation of the reasons for incompleteness. If no request for additional information is made by the department within the 15 business days, the application shall be considered complete.

(b) An applicant whose application is incomplete shall be allowed a maximum of 15 business days, from the date of receipt of notification of incompleteness, to provide the required additional information. The applicant shall not provide more than the required additional information. The department shall then review the additional information provided by the applicant; and, if satisfactory, the application shall be considered complete and the applicant shall be notified by certified mail. If the application is still found to be incomplete, the department shall mail the applicant a notification within 10 business days of receipt of the additional information. If no such notification is mailed to the applicant by the department within the 10 business days' period, the application shall be considered complete. Within 5 business days of the receipt of any information submitted pursuant to the second completeness notice, the department shall notify the applicant as to whether such information is satisfactory and the application shall be considered complete.

(c) Any applicant whose application is incomplete following the second completeness review under subparagraph (b) may, by certified mail, within 5 business days of receipt of the second notice of incompleteness:

(1) Provide the additional required information; or

(2) Stipulate that it wishes to have its application reviewed by the department notwithstanding its incompleteness. Any applicant whose application is incomplete and who fails to either provide the additional required information or stipulate that it wishes to have its application reviewed notwithstanding its incompleteness shall waive any right to have its application reviewed.

(d) The department shall review any application for which a stipulation has been filed pursuant to subparagraph (c).

(e) An applicant may withdraw an application at any time thereby terminating the review process.

VI.(a) Within 10 business days of completion of the completeness review under paragraph V of this section, the department shall mail, to any qualified applicant, a notice that formal review of the application has begun and shall publish the notice in other than the legal notice section of one or more newspapers of general circulation in the state and in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the service area of the facility to be reviewed. The department shall provide all affected persons, as defined in subparagraph (b), with written notification of the beginning of a review. The notice shall include a statement that review has begun and the proposed schedule for review by the department.

(b) For purposes of this paragraph, "affected persons" include organizations of health care providers and organizations of health care consumers, as defined by the department by rules adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A, and members of the public who are to be served by the proposed project. For purposes of this paragraph, notification of all qualified applicants in which the proposed project is to be offered or developed shall be by certified mail. Notification to all affected persons shall be by mail and notification to members of the public shall be by newspaper. Notification by newspaper shall serve as appropriate notice to all health care facilities located within the state.

(c) If an affected person fails to receive notification which was provided in accordance with this paragraph, such failure of notice shall not be grounds for reversal of a decision made by the department, defeat any jurisdiction of the department, or adversely affect the regularity of any proceedings before the department.

VII. The date on which notification is sent to qualified applicants or the date on which notification to the members of the public first appears in a newspaper published in the state, whichever occurs later, shall be the date of notification and shall be the beginning date of the review cycle of the department.

VIII. The department shall establish review schedules which provide that no review by the department shall, to the extent possible, take longer than 90 calendar days from the beginning of the review cycle to the date of a final decision of the department. In accordance with the requirements of RSA 151-C:11, the department shall adopt exception criteria for determining when it would not be practicable to complete a review within 90 calendar days. If an application clearly meets such exception criteria, the department may provide for a single extension of the review period for a total of 30 calendar days beyond the initial 90-day period. The total review period for certificate of review shall not extend beyond 120 days from the beginning of review.

IX. Upon request, the department shall provide for access by the general public to all applications reviewed by the department and to all other written materials pertinent to department review.

X. The department shall provide in its review procedures for a public hearing. The department shall, prior to such hearing, provide notice of such hearing in accordance with the notification provisions in paragraph VI of this section. The procedures for a public hearing shall include an opportunity for any person to present testimony regarding the proposed project, the right of any persons testifying to be accompanied and advised by legal counsel, the right of any qualified applicant to cross-examine witnesses, and the establishment of a formal record of the hearing. The department shall not impose any fee for such a public hearing.

XI. During the course of review of any application for a certificate of review, the department shall take reasonable measures to prohibit and prevent all ex parte communication relating to the merits of such application.

XII.(a) After an application has been filed with the department, the applicant may file a request to amend the application only during the 45 days after the date of notification of the beginning of review. If the department grants the applicant's request, the application shall be filed 30 days after the department's approval. The department shall examine the amended application for form and completeness, for information required in RSA 151-C:7, and for conformity to all applicable standards in the request for applications. If an application is determined incomplete, the department shall notify the applicant by certified mail within 10 business days of receipt of the amended application. The applicant whose application is incomplete shall be allowed a maximum of 10 business days from the date of receipt of the department's notification of incompleteness to provide the required additional information. The amended application shall then be considered complete and processed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph VIII.

(b) When an application is filed with the department, an applicant shall be required by the department to file an amendment of the application when any supporting documentation or other material submitted to the department by the applicant indicates that:

(1) The nature, scope, or location of the project will differ substantially from those described in the application;

(2) The method of financing will differ substantially from that described in the application in that the estimated capital expenditure will exceed that proposed in the application by 15 percent plus the inflation factor, as specified in RSA 151-C:12, IV.

(3) The identity of the applicant has changed.

(4) The department may waive the requirements of subparagraph (b)(1), (2) or (3) if it is determined that the proposed amendment of the application is technical or otherwise insignificant.

(c) If an amendment is filed in accordance with subparagraph (a) or (b), the application shall return to the point in the review process defined in paragraph VI relative to the notification to the applicant that review of the application has begun.

XIII. Any action by the department or by an applicant pursuant to this section which results in a delay of the review process shall affect all applicants which filed under the same request for application and are considered by the department to be competing.

151-C:9 Decision Regarding Certificate of Review; Issuance of Certificate of Review; Reconsideration.

I. Upon completion of the review, the department shall render a decision on the applicant or applicants which filed in response to a request for application. The decision shall be in the form of an approval, denial, or an approval with conditions. An approval of a certificate of review shall be in conformance with the standard used as the basis for the request for application.

II. The department shall consider competing applicants in relationship to each other. The decision shall be based on the applicant who demonstrates superiority in cost effectiveness, quality, and affordability and who will best meet the specifications and criteria outlined in the standard.

III. If the department fails to issue a final decision within the time period specified for the review, a certificate of review shall be denied. The applicant may either request a reconsideration hearing under paragraph IV, or, within a reasonable time following the expiration of that period, petition the supreme court to require the department to render a final decision on the application.

IV.(a) Any person, for good cause shown, may request in writing a public hearing for purposes of reconsideration of a final decision of the department. The department shall adopt appropriate procedures for such a hearing. No fee may be imposed for the hearing. For purposes of this paragraph, a request for a reconsideration hearing, other than by an applicant denied a certificate of review, shall be good cause if it:

(1) Presents significant, relevant information not previously considered by the department;

(2) Demonstrates that there have been significant changes in factors or circumstances relied upon by the department in reaching its decision;

(3) Demonstrates that the department has materially failed to follow its adopted procedures in reaching its decision; or

(4) Provides such other basis for a public hearing as the department determines constitutes good cause.

(b) To be effective, a request for a reconsideration hearing shall be received by the department within 20 business days following the date of the department's decision. If granted, the hearing shall commence within 30 calendar days of receipt of the request. The applicant may waive the 30-day requirement. At least 14 calendar days prior to the reconsideration hearing, notification of the hearing shall be sent to the person requesting the hearing and to the persons proposing the new institutional health service and to others upon request. Within 25 business days after the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall make written findings which state the basis for its decision. The decision shall be considered the final decision of the department.

151-C:10 Appeals to the Supreme Court.

I. Any person submitting an application for a certificate of review, if aggrieved or dissatisfied with the decision of the department, shall have the right, upon a petition which provides a detailed statement of the grounds upon which the decision of the department is claimed to be erroneous and contrary to the facts and the law, to appeal from the decision to the supreme court pursuant to RSA 541.

II. The provisions of RSA 541 shall govern all appeals under this section.

III. The court shall affirm the decision of the department unless it finds it to be arbitrary or capricious or not made in compliance with applicable law.

151-C:11 Additional Rules.

I. The commissioner of the department shall adopt rules governing review of certificate of review applications consistent with and necessary to the proper administration of this chapter. All rules shall be adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A and as described in this section; except that, in the case of an irreconcilable conflict between the provisions of RSA 541-A and the provisions of this section, the provisions of this section shall control.

II. At least 45 days prior to adopting any rule, the department shall publish, in at least one newspaper of statewide circulation, a notice stating that rules for the review of certificate of review applications or any revisions thereof have been proposed for adoption and are available at specified addresses for inspection and copying by interested persons. Such notice shall appear in other than the legal notice section of such newspapers; in addition, notice may be given through other public information channels.

151-C:12 Validity of Certificates of Review; Compliance; Sanctions.

I. A certificate of review issued pursuant to this chapter shall expire upon failure to commence or complete the project authorized thereby within the time period specified in this section. The department's approval shall be terminated upon the expiration of such period, and the person proposing to offer or develop the new institutional health service shall be required to resubmit an application for certificate of review under RSA 151-C:8. In the event that only part of a project to offer or develop the new institutional health service has been commenced or completed within such period, the department's approval shall be terminated upon the expiration of such period solely with respect to the parts of the project which have not been commenced or completed. Project completion date requirements are as follows:

(a) In the case of construction projects, the following time periods apply:

(1) If the total estimated cost of the project is less than $ 1,000,000, the project must be commenced within one year of, and completed within 3 years of, the date of issuance of a certificate of review.

(2) If the total estimated cost of the project is greater than $1,000,000, then the project must be commenced within 18 months of, and completed within 5 years of, the date of issuance of a certificate of review.

(b) In the case of any plan for capital expenditures proposed by or on behalf of a health care facility, health maintenance organization, or health care provider under which a series of obligations for capital expenditures for discrete components of the plan is to be incurred over a period longer than one year, the department may allow up to 3 years following the date of approval for incurring such capital expenditures.

II. Pursuant to a showing of good cause by the person proposing the project, the department shall extend by 6 months the period for commencement. A maximum of 2 such extensions shall be allowed. Upon a showing of substantial, diligent progress and good cause by the person proposing the project, the department shall grant up to a maximum of 2 extensions of 6 months each for completion of the project. For purposes of this paragraph, "good cause" includes delay resulting from unpreventable or unexpected occurrences, such as emergency, strike, disaster, unforeseen shortage of materials or other reasonably unforeseeable event.

III. For the purposes of this chapter, a project shall be commenced if:

(a) The applicant has submitted to the department a certified copy of a written agreement executed between the applicant and a registered general contractor to construct and complete the project within a designated time schedule in accordance with final architectural plans and specifications; or

(b) The applicant has submitted evidence to the department that there has been construction work on the project to justify and require a progress payment by the applicant to the general contractor under the terms of the construction agreement, or, if the construction agreement does not require progress payments, then construction has progressed to the state at which an initial progress payment would otherwise be required in accordance with the usual and customary practices of the building industry.

IV. For purposes of this chapter, completion shall mean when the approved proposed project is sufficiently complete so that it becomes operational for the purpose for which the certificate of review was issued. A certificate of review shall be valid only for the designated scope of the project and for the premises and geographical area named in the application. A certificate of review granted for a project shall not be considered as an approval of that portion of the total actual cost of such a project which is in excess of the sum of: (a) the anticipated cost designated in the application; (b) an additional 15 percent of the total cost; and (c) cost increases clearly attributable to inflation.

IV-a.(a) Prior to completion of the proposed project, the department may require any applicant to file a change of scope when any documentation or other material submitted to the department indicates that:

(1) The nature, scope, or location of the project will differ substantially in the opinion of the department from those described in the application.

(2) The method of financing will differ substantially because the estimated capital expenditure will exceed that proposed in the application by 15 percent plus the inflation factor, as specified in RSA 151-C:12, IV.

(3) The identity of the applicant has changed.

(b) The department may waive the requirements of subparagraph (a)(1), (2) or (3), if it is determined that the proposed change in scope of the project is technical or otherwise insignificant.

V. All applicants receiving a certificate of review or a certificate of review with conditions shall file, at least semi-annually during the development stage and annually once the project is commenced, a report indicating that the project is in compliance with information provided in the application, and with the conditions outlined in the certificate of review. A report shall only be necessary for the first 5 years after completion of the project.

VI. Any applicant found not to be in reasonable compliance with any statement in its certificate of review application or with the conditions of the certificate of review shall be fined not more than 1/2 of one percent of the previous year's revenue minus contractual allowances or, in the case of a new facility, not more than 1/2 of one percent of the projected first year revenue minus contractual allowances.

VII. Funds collected under the provisions of this section shall be deposited in the general fund. 151-C:13 Exemptions.

I. The following are excluded from this chapter:

(a) Private offices or private clinics of physicians, dentists, or other practitioners of the healing arts, meaning the physical places which are occupied by such providers on a regular basis in which such providers perform the range of diagnostic and treatment services usually performed by such providers on an outpatient basis.

(b) Dispensaries and first-aid stations, located within business or industrial establishments, maintained solely for the use of employees, provided that such a facility does not contain inpatient or resident beds for patients or employees who generally remain in the facility for more than 24 hours.

(d) Institutions or homes which provide remedial care or treatment only to residents or patients who rely solely upon treatment by prayer or spiritual means in accordance with the creed or attendance of any recognized church or religious denomination.

(e) Facilities and services which are intended to serve only outpatients.

(f) Hospice houses.

II. Nothing in this chapter shall exempt hospice houses from the licensing standards established under RSA 151.

151-C:14 Enforcement.

I. Any person who offers or develops any new institutional health service within the meaning of this chapter without first obtaining a certificate of review as required in this chapter, or who otherwise violates any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to the following sanctions:

(a) The state shall not issue a license to any health care facility or health maintenance organization to operate, offer, or develop any new institutional health service in violation of this chapter and without a certificate of review issued pursuant to this chapter. The provisions of RSA 151 notwithstanding, in the case of an increase in actual bed capacity in contravention of the requirements of this chapter, any license for such beds shall be deemed to be revoked.

(b) The state shall not furnish from any reimbursement program administered by the state, nor shall any entity chartered under the laws of New Hampshire or any person licensed and doing business in the state, provide reimbursement for any new institutional health service offered or developed in contravention of the requirements of this chapter.

(c) Any person who violates this chapter shall be fined not more than 1/2 of one percent of the total operating budget of the previous year, or, in the case of a new facility, not more than 1/2 of one percent of the projected annual operating budget for the first year of operation.

(d) In addition to all other sanctions, if any person offers or develops any new institutional health service without first having been issued a certificate of review, or violates any other provision of this chapter or any lawful rule adopted under this chapter, upon the posting of a bond or security, the department or health care facilities, health maintenance organizations, and health care providers located in the state shall have standing to maintain a civil action in the superior court of the county in which such alleged violation has occurred, or in which such person may be found, to enjoin, restrain, or prevent such violation. Upon written request by the department, it shall be the duty of the attorney general of the state to furnish such legal services as may be appropriate and to prosecute such action for injunctive relief to an appropriate conclusion.

151-C:15 Fees.

I. In addition to any other fees required of it, each acute care hospital, specialty hospital, nursing home, and ambulatory surgical center licensed under RSA 151 shall pay an annual administrative fee. The total amount collected shall be equal to the amount actually expended in that year for the health services planning and review component of the department of health and human services or $700,000, whichever is less. The amount to be collected shall be prorated at the end of each fiscal year among all health care facilities licensed under RSA 151, except those operated by county and municipal governments.

II. All persons filing an application in response to a request for applications shall pay a fee of one percent of the total capital cost of the project with a minimum fee of $1,500, and a maximum of $12,000. This paragraph shall not apply to health care facilities operated by counties or municipalities.

III. Persons requesting a standard development or standard review as outlined in RSA 151-C:6 shall pay a fee of $1,000 if the department determines that a standard review or a standard development process shall occur.

IV. Funds collected under this section shall be deposited in the general fund.

HB 810-FN-A, relative to processing excavating and dredging and terrain alteration permits, changing the fees for permits, establishing 2 new positions, and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. MaryAnn N. Blanchard for Finance: This bill has passed both the Resources, Recreation and Development Committee and the Ways and Means Committee. It increases fees in order to fund 2 new positions and ensure more timely processing of applications for excavating, dredging and alteration of terrain. The additional fees, which are estimated to be $150,000 in FY '04, are sufficient to cover the additional expenses, which are estimated to be $131,000 in FY '04. A broad consensus of many interests, such as the New Hampshire Marine Dealers, the Granite State Designers and Installers Association, the NH Association of General Contractors and the NH Association of Conservation Commissioners, support this bill. The amendment changes the effective date to July 1, 2003 in order to allow fees to accumulate before expenses are incurred. Vote 21-1.

Amend paragraph II of section 8 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 2003.

HB 786-FN-L, relative to the participation of the state and its political subdivisions in the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert K. Dodge for Finance: This bill ensures that no state or local funds will be spent to pay for complying with the requirements of the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB). In NCLB, the federal government promises to fully fund its costs. In addition, individual school districts may, by vote, exempt themselves from any state regulations implementing the provisions of such federal laws. Vote 18-1.

Rep. Alger offered a floor amendment (1094h).

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose. The federal No Child Left Behind Act (NCLBA) of 2001 (H.R. 1) directs those states that participate in it to make many meritorious improvements in their system of public education. Furthermore, contrary to state experience with other federal laws, NCLBA was enacted as a fully-funded federal law as directed by federal Public Law 104-4 of 1995 and section 9527 of NCLBA which curb the practice of imposing unfunded federal mandates on states and local governments. Therefore, the general court hereby directs that general funds not be expended on the NCLBA and that school districts also prohibited from such expenditures.

21-N:12 Compliance with No Child Left Behind. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary:

I. No general funds of the state or any of its political subdivisions shall be appropriated, expended, or encumbered to implement the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLBA).

II. A school district or other political subdivision may, upon a majority vote of its legislative body, be exempt from all state administrative rules or regulations of any kind, adopted for the purpose of implementing NCLBA if the cost of compliance with such rules or regulations is not fully covered by the additional federal funds received by the school district or other political subdivision.

III. The state board of education and the commissioner of the department of education are hereby prohibited from adopting any new administrative rules or regulations, or amending existing administrative rules or regulations for the purpose of complying with NCLBA until 60 days after the submission of a written report detailing such new or amended rules or regulations to the house and senate education committees.

IV. No additional costs incurred by the state or any of its political subdivisions in implementing NCLBA shall be included in calculating the cost of an adequate education pursuant to RSA 198:40.

3 New Paragraph; Adequate Public Education; Statewide Testing. Amend RSA 193-E:3 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. The results of any statewide testing required under the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 shall be ranked by the commissioner of the department of education by individual school and grade level performance. The rankings shall be made available to the public arranged by numerical rank order and alphabetical order no later than 30 days after the results are available to the commissioner of the department of education. No test shall be ranked until the commissioner of the department of education submits to the house and senate education committees a written explanation of the ranking methodology to be used.

4 Report. No later than January 1 of each year, the commissioner of the department of education shall submit to the house and senate education and finance committees a statement of expenditures by the state and by school districts necessitated by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 in the immediately prior fiscal year, and the sources of funding used for such expenses.

5 Severability. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

1. Prohibits the spending of state general funds for compliance with the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLBA).

II. Allows school districts to exempt themselves from compliance with NCLBA by a majority vote of the legislative body if the cost of compliance is not fully covered by the additional federal funds received by the school district or other political subdivision.

III. Directs the department of education to ensure that no costs associated with NCLBA shall be included in the calculation of the cost of an adequate education.

IV. Requires the department of education to submit a financial report for expenditures and sources of funding to the house and senate education and finance committees on an annual basis.

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 15

Thursday, April 17, 2003

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the Speaker.

His Excellency, Governor Craig Benson, joined the Speaker on the rostrum for the day's opening ceremonies.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, The Reverend Hays M. Junkin, Rector of Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church in Hopkinton.

Compassionate and ever-watchful Creator of all, we give thanks for the gifts of freedom that we share as citizens of the United States and of our beloved New Hampshire. Protect and defend those who protect and defend us, especially those who serve in places that take them far from their family and community. Today we ask Your healing grace to be with all especially the weak, elderly and the young who have suffered injury in Iraq's liberation. Bring peace and new hope quickly to all the troubled areas of Your world.

Bless and support the work of this so-called unruly and mercurial, yet honorable House. May the decisions today be made for the true benefit of each citizen, and be worthy of the sacrifice of many, who make these decisions a witness to true democracy.

As always, we ask for Your protective hand to be upon those who serve in law enforcement, emergency medical services, and in the fire service as they protect and defend our homes, our lives and our communities. Amen.

CONSENT CALENDAR

Rep. Hess moved that the Consent Calendar with the relevant amendments as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

SB 24, relative to license revocations for DWI offenders under the age of 21. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Stanley E. Stevens for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill is an amendment to RSA 265:82-b that clarifies that a mandatory one-year license revocation applies to certain DWI offenses where the offense occurred while the offender was under the age of 21. Vote 14-0.

SB 22, amending the duties of the public higher education study committee. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. James T. Dunn for Education: The testimony in favor of this bill was compelling and concise. This bill adds the duty of studying student activities on college campuses to the Legislative Oversight Committee, which will benefit the communities and the colleges. Vote 13-0.

SB 26, removing the penalty against teachers who fail to keep registers. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Richard C. Leone for Education: This bill removes the $20.00 penalty against teachers who file pupil registers late with the local school board. This task is currently done by the administrative staff and the penalty against teachers is no longer appropriate. Vote 13-0.

SB 51-FN, relative to membership on the New England Board of Higher Education. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Arthur Tufts for Education: The testimony presented to the committee indicated that the university system is well represented by the chancellor of the university and colleges, on the NEBHE. The university and college presidents are well served by the chancellor being on the board. The second change adds the membership of the executive director of the post secondary education commission, which will add NH's technical colleges to the NEBHE's services. Vote 13-0.

SB 68, authorizing electronic certification of educational credentials. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Deanna P. Rush for Education: This bill permits a teacher applying for certification to submit either a written or electronic application. The bill further authorizes the State Board of Education to adopt rules that affect the electronic certification of educational credentials, such as the e-signature. This legislation was requested by the NH Department of Education. Vote 13-0.

SB 170, relative to Public Service of New Hampshire. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Roy D. Maxfield for Science, Technology and Energy: This bill amends RSA 374-F, Electric Utility Restructuring. It restricts Public Service Company from selling generation assets prior to April 30, 2006 unless the Public Utilities Commission (PUC) finds the sale of these assets to be in the economic interest of retail customers. Securing these existing coal fired plants in Bow and Newington and using their electric generation for New Hampshire PSNH customers will save rate payers between 70 and 100 million dollars per year based on current market costs. The legislature amended the 1996 electric utility restructuring law two years ago to allow for a 30-month retention of these generating assets. Unstable wholesale energy prices and the California energy crisis prompted our action to control our generation costs at that time. A provision was also added that gave the PUC oversight of these generators and their associated operating costs. The 18% rate reduction obtained in the restructuring settlement agreement includes approximately 3.5 cents per kilowatt for stranded costs. Part 1 of the stranded costs is for restructuring bonds and will be eliminated by 2012. Part 2 of the stranded costs is for existing wood and other high costs energy contracts and will be eliminated in 2006. The legislature will be in better position by 2006 to assess the sale of PSNH generation assets once these part 2 costs, estimated to be 1.5 cents per kilowatt, are eliminated. Finally, the bill requires the legislative electric oversight committee to review and recommend legislation to address transition and default service prior to April 30, 2006. This additional time will allow the committee to evaluate electric generation costs in the region and decide which options are in the best interests for New Hampshire PSNH customers. Vote 12-0.

SCR 3, urging maintenance of funding for the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Roy D. Maxfield for Science, Technology and Energy: This resolution urges an increase and continuation of federal funding of the low-income home energy assistance program. It recommends extending authorization through 2008, increasing the authorization level to 3.4 billion, and allows states to draw down funds prior to the winter heating season to take advantage of discount programs. Vote 13-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR

HB 1-A, making appropriations for the expenses of certain departments of the state for fiscal years ending June 30, 2004, and June 30, 2005. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Neal M. Kurk for Finance: This is the state's budget for the next two fiscal years. The committee amendment represents the core needs for the functioning of state government. It covers our traditional state services (general government, criminal justice and public safety, environmental protection and resource development, transportation and highway improvement, health and human services, post-secondary and higher education) and our obligation to provide the opportunity for an adequate primary and secondary public education.

As our responsibilities have increased, the budget has increased. To meet our responsibilities, the committee amendment appropriates $8.975 billion in total funds and $2.703 billion in general funds for the biennium, an increase of 15.0% and 10.8 %, respectively, compared to the prior biennium.

Some highlights of the committee amendment: 1) Funding for the developmentally disabled has increased and includes $3 million each year to reduce the waiting list. 2) Aid to cities and towns has increased, and state fiscal problems have not been "downshifted." 3) LCHIP is funded at the governor's recommended level of $4 million in each year. 4) The Goffstown women's prison will remain open. 5) Additional funding to deal with the nursing shortage has been provided in the form of additional program assistance and scholarships.

The committee amendment fulfills its obligation under House rules to present a budget that is balanced within Ways and Means' revenue estimates without the need for an increase in taxes. It is a "live within your means" budget. Vote 17-4.

Amendment (1268h)

This amendment was printed in its entirety in House Record No. 33, April 11, 2003 and is made part of the Journal by reference.

Rep. Kurk spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. McEachern requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being adoption of the committee amendment.

Amend the bill by replacing section 7 with the following:

7 General Fund Appropriation Reduction; Judicial Branch. The judicial branch is hereby directed to reduce all state general fund appropriations by $7,474,589 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2004 and $7,030,628 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005 excluding PAU 02-01-05, class 049. The reductions required by this section shall be distributed among all judicial branch program appropriation units; each program appropriation unit shall be reduced by an amount that bears the same proportional relation to total reductions as the unit's appropriations bear to total judicial branch appropriations. The chief justice of the supreme court or designee shall, by July 1, 2003, notify the department of administrative services as to the specific amounts to be reduced in specified line item appropriations in functional units, in order to comply fully with this section. The chief justice of the supreme court or designee shall, by July 1, 2004, notify the department of administrative services as to the specific amounts to be reduced in specified line item appropriations in functional units, in order to comply fully with this section.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 14 the following and renumbering the original section 15 to read as 17:

15 General Fund Appropriation Reduction; Department of Corrections. The department of corrections is hereby directed to reduce state general fund appropriations by $1,700,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2004 and $1,700,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005.

16 Administrative Cost Assessment Reduction; New Hampshire Retirement System. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board of trustees of the New Hampshire Retirement System should review and reduce administrative cost assessments to an extent that the reductions yield a net savings in state general fund appropriations of $12,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005.

Rep. Burling inquired if the amendment was divisible and asked to have the portion of the amendment dealing with Section 1 of the bill divided from the remainder of the amendment. The Speaker ruled the amendment was divisible and so ordered.

Rep. Elliot requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

Ordered to third reading.

HB 2-FN-A, relative to state fees, funds, revenues, and expenditures. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Neal M. Kurk for Finance: This is the companion or trailer bill to HB 1-A, the biennial budget. It contains necessary statutory changes to allow HB 1-A to be executed appropriately. Key provisions create the Nurses State Program, the Start-up NH garage grant program, the reorganization of the Office of State Planning, the creation of the Office of Information Technology and Management, and an increase in court filing fees. The committee amendment to HB 2 supports the committee amendment to HB 1. Vote 17- 5.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Department of Health and Human Services; Program Eligibility. Further, the general court recognizes the shortage of qualified instructors to teach these nursing programs at the regional community technical institute and colleges. To address this shortage, there is established the nurses stat program, a nursing leveraged scholarship loan program, to be administered by the postsecondary education commission for the benefit of students pursuing approved programs of nursing study. These approved programs of nursing study shall include part-time or full-time programs for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, licensed nursing assistants and medication nursing assistants.*

188-D:18-b Rulemaking. IV. State funds appropriated directly to the regional community-technical institute and the regional community-technical community colleges for the nurses stat program shall be used solely for the purpose of hiring, training, and retaining teachers for nursing programs. Of the amount appropriated to the regional community-technical colleges, $250,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to establish and operate a nursing program at the Keene campus of the regional community technical colleges.

7 New Paragraphs; Nurses Stat Program; Terms of Repayment for Nursing Assistants. Amend RSA 188-D:18-e by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraphs:

No monetary award shall be made to any employee or agency head unless the agency demonstrates that it has reduced its biennium budget as a result of reorganization or downsizing measures. The remaining 90 percent of the monetary savings resulting from reorganization or downsizing shall be deposited in the revenue stabilization reserve account maintained by the state treasurer in the fiscal year in which the savings occur. The can-do incentive program shall be administered by the commissioner of the department of administrative services. The commissioner of the department of administrative services shall decide who is eligible to receive awards under this program and the amount of such awards. The commissioner shall determine the amount of any monetary savings, net of projected lapses.

Rep. Hess moved that the Consent Calendar with the relevant amendments as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

SB 140-FN, establishing an optional renewal period for licenses to carry a pistol or revolver, removed by Rep. Welch.

SB 18-FN, relative to vehicle stops at railroad grade crossings, removed by Rep. Weldy.

SB 33-FN, establishing a putative fathers' registry in the department of health and human services. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Thomas I. Arnold Jr. for Children and Family Law: The committee found that there is a putative fathers' registry in the Child Support Enforcement Office which can be used for the purposes of SB 33. The bill is therefore unnecessary. Vote 15-0.

SB 48, exempting housing for older persons from certain age discrimination laws. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Leo W. Fraser, Jr. for Commerce: This proposed legislation clarifies what is a conflict between RSA 354-A: 15 and Human Rights Commission Rule (Hum) 303. The conflict even goes deeper. The Human Rights Commission Rules Hum 302 and Hum 303 are equally in conflict. There is no question that by the terms of RSA 354-A: 15 it was the intent of the General Court that qualified retirement communities would be permitted to exclude children under the age of 18. No provisions in this chapter regarding familial status or age apply with respect to housing for older persons. Vote 15-0.

SB 165, relative to the voluntary dissolution of nondepository trust companies. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Paul D. Spiess for Commerce: The bill establishes a regulatory process, to be administered and supervised by the New Hampshire Banking Department, for the liquidation or conversion of a non-depository trust company. The new procedures, which provide an option to the current judicial process, set forth the application and filing requirements, as well as the requirements for a plan of conversion, written reports of the companies intent, and required capital levels. After review by the banking department, the application, reports and plan must be submitted and approved by the Board of Trust Company Incorporation before the dissolution or conversion can take place. The bill also sets forth reporting and compliance requirements with the Secretary of State. Vote 15-0.

SB 36-FN, relative to protective custody of a person impaired by drugs and establishing a committee to study the issue of the applicability of the administrative license suspension laws to driving while under the influence of controlled drugs and ways to address the speed with which such cases are adjudicated in the district court. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Douglas K. Fish for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill allows peace officers to take persons into protective custody when they are impaired by drugs, for the same purpose as that already provided for the safety of persons impaired by alcohol. It establishes a committee to study the issue of the applicability of the administrative license suspension laws to driving while under the influence of controlled drugs and ways to address the speed with which such cases are adjudicated in the district court. Vote 14-0.

SB 39, relative to the results of a preliminary breath test as evidence in court. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. John E. Tholl, Jr. for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill allows the use of preliminary breath tests as evidence in court. The test was previously only allowed for use as probable cause. Technology has advanced to a point where the accuracy and reliability of the preliminary breath test instrument is as good as the devices currently utilized for evidentiary breath testing. The preliminary breath test will be admitted as relevant evidence and will be considered along with all other evidence to determine a finding. Taking, or failure to take, a preliminary breath test will not bar the taking of subsequent tests or any additional test if requested. Failure to take a preliminary breath test does not result in any action against the person. Vote 13-0.

SB 52, relative to a voluntary certification program for police dogs and handlers. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Alan B. Bemis for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill is very straightforward and simplistic in its approach. It provides a centralized program of voluntary training and certification at the Police Standards and Training Academy of New Hampshire for K-9 dogs and their handlers. Vote 13-0.

SB 79-FN-L, relative to penalties for the exhibition of fighting animals. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Alan B. Bemis for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: RSA 644:8-9, "Exhibition of Fighting Animals", is amended by this bill to add those who breed dogs intended to become participants in fighting exhibitions to the current statute. It also adds the offspring of such dogs. Under current statute, the training of any bird or other animal to be used in fighting exhibitions is punishable as a misdemeanor, and if the animal is a dog, punishable as a class B felony. The amendment eliminates the misdemeanor penalty and makes the breeding and exhibition and training of any bird, dog, or other animal with the intent that it, or its offspring, be engaged in fighting exhibitions a class B felony. The bill also eliminates a misdemeanor penalty for those persons present at an exhibition where birds or other animals are exhibited and raises the penalty to a class B felony as it is currently for the dog-fighting exhibitions. Vote 13-0.

SB 145-FN-A, relative to the duties of the board of trustees of the department of regional community-technical colleges. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Clair A. Snyder for Education: This bill gives the board of trustees of the community-technical colleges the ability to accept and disburse non-general funds such as privately donated funds. They will also have the ability to establish foundations for fund-raising activities. Vote 16-0.

SB 166, establishing a committee to study methods for the state to create incentives for school districts to provide mentoring for beginning teachers. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Nancy Scovner for Education: This bill establishes a study committee to seek ways to expand on the quality mentoring programs currently going on in the state. Mentoring assists novice educators and improves the quality of teaching and has a positive influence on teacher retention and student learning. Vote 16-0.

SB 57-FN, relative to certain accounts within the fish and game fund. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert J. L'Heureux for Fish and Game: This bill, requested by the Fish and Game Department, would allow for the use of certain Fish and Game fund accounts for fund raising expenses related to those accounts. This bill also repeals the wildlife protection fund, and the raptor conservation account and clarifies the use of nongame species account. This bill was supported by the Fish and Game Department and the New Hampshire Wildlife Federation. Vote 12-1.

SB 171, regulating non-agricultural activities which may cause the introduction and spread of infectious wildlife diseases. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert J. L'Heureux for Fish and Game: In response to Chronic Wasting Disease, this bill would allow the Executive Director and the Fish and Game Commission to adopt rules regulating non-agricultural activities which may cause the introduction and spread of infectious disease in the state's wildlife resources. This bill is supported by the New Hampshire Fish and Game Department, New Hampshire Wildlife Federation, New Hampshire Farm Bureau, and the state veterinarian. Vote 13-0.

SB 34, relative to independent living retirement communities. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. James R. MacKay for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The committee agreed with the Senate action relative to independent living retirement communities. This legislation had the support of the Department of Health and Human Services, the New England Association of Homes and Services for the Aging, and the Hillcrest Retirement Community. Although there are very few independent living retirement communities in New Hampshire, it was felt that some governmental oversight was needed. This bill adds these facilities under RSA 161-J, which establishes standards as to disclosure of information to consumers regarding the provision costs and the type of services provided. It defines independent living retirement communities. A prospective resident is provided with a standard disclosure summary adopted by the Department of Health and Human Services and is allowed a minimum of 24 hours prior to signing. This bill also requires that the owners of these facilities shall file an annual registration statement with the Department of Justice. This bill provides for a level of oversight without requiring micro-management of these facilities. Vote 14-0.

SB 190, relative to community living facilities. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Carolyn Brown for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: Passage of this bill would authorize the Department of Health and Human Services to certify living facilities in the categories of permanent, temporary or emergency basis. These family and individual homes already exist and already are categorized as described above but this bill makes the categories official. These homes provide a service by keeping our developmentally disabled citizens in local and familiar surroundings whenever possible. This bill also protects the individuals in the facilities by keeping the facility owner in compliance to maintain certification. Consequences of non-compliance could be a fine and loss of certification, as is in current law for similar violations. Vote 15-0.

SB 219, relative to superior court notice to health care regulatory boards of felony convictions of health care providers. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. John M. Pratt for Judiciary: RSA 449:10-a in its present state requires superior court clerks to notify the appropriate health care regulatory board whenever a licensed or registered "health care provider" has been convicted of a felony. This amendment limits these clerks' duty to report to those cases where the clerk "reasonably believes or knows" that the person convicted is a licensed health care provider. The committee felt that this change was reasonable since the definitions of "health care providers" appears in numerous statutes and in various contexts. Vote 15-0.

SB 90-FN, increasing the cap for relocation assistance for businesses in eminent domain proceedings. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Chris S. Malloy for Public Works and Highways: The majority of the committee felt that it has been close to thirty years since the state has made an adjustment to the current $10,000.00 cap increasing reestablishment costs. Reestablishment fees are paid to businesses when their property is taken during an eminent domain proceeding. The proposed cap increases the current amount to $100,000 to reflect present day economics. Vote 12-2.

Referred to Finance.

SB 91, extending the committee to study eminent domain proceedings and adding certain duties. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. William E. Leber for Public Works and Highways: This study committee established by SB 187, Chapter 68, Laws of 2002, has produced several proposals relative to improving the eminent domain statutes and procedures. However, there are still several issues that need further work. An added duty will be to study the public policy implications of having government entities take property by eminent domain in order to make it available to other private entities. The committee strongly supports further study. Vote 17-0.

SB 129, relative to the board of tax and land appeals and eminent domain cases. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. John R. Cloutier for Public Works and Highways: This bill authorizes the Board of Tax and Land Appeals to use its staff appraisers to evaluate an eminent domain case and requires the board to make findings of fact as part of its report. This bill was unanimously recommended by a special joint legislative committee, established in 2002, to study eminent domain proceedings. Vote 18-0.

SB 142-FN, relative to advertisements on utility poles and highway signs. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Matthew J. Vallone for Public Works and Highways: This bill as amended helps to alleviate the problem of the placement of illegal advertisements. In addition, the bill will help to reduce the safety risk posed by the placement of signs on telephone poles. By clarifying the language in current statutes relevant to the illegal placement of advertisement on public and private property, this bill will clearly grant the owner's of objects defaced by illegal advertisements the right to remove the ads without incurring any cost from the advertisement's owner. This bill provides mechanisms whereby those individuals or organizations that place advertisement illegally will be held responsible for the cost of their removal and destruction. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1453h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Advertisements Prohibited; Removal; Compensation. Amend RSA 236:75 to read as follows:

236:75 No Advertisements of any Kind Upon Certain Objects. Notwithstanding any provisions of the law to the contrary, it shall be unlawful to affix, attach or display any advertisement upon any object of nature, utility pole, telephone booth, or highway sign, directly in such a manner that the object of nature, utility pole, telephone booth, or highway sign, is utilized as an integral part of the sign's support as distinguished from being only incidentally a support to the sign, such as the earth or ground upon which a sign is affixed. This prohibition shall extend to all primary and secondary highways and roads of and within the state without exception for any type of advertising. The owner of an object upon which an advertisement is placed in violation of this section shall be entitled to remove and destroy the advertisement and the advertisement owner shall not be entitled to damages or compensation therefor. The object owner shall be entitled to collect the costs associated with the removal and destruction from the advertisement owner or the person who is responsible for placing the advertisement on the object in violation of this section.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2004.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows the owner of certain objects upon which a person has unlawfully posted an advertisement to remove the advertisement and recover the costs of removal from the advertisement owner or the person who is responsible for posting it.

SB 161, relative to procedures in eminent domain proceedings. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Terri Norelli for Public Works and Highways: This bill was introduced as a result of recommendations made by the committee to study eminent domain procedures. It provides that: 1) a condemnor disclose that it does not represent the rights of the condemnee; 2) the condemnor provide a copy of its appraisal to the condemnee early in the process, and 3) the condemnee is entitled to reimbursement if the condemnee gets an appraisal. It also clarifies that the abandonment of project statute, RSA 498-A:12, II, applies both to properties taken by condemnation and properties taken by agreement. Because of the potential for significant state cost, the amendment removed a proposed provision that would have allowed a condemnee the option of electing to have the entire property condemned rather than just a portion. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (1451h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Preliminary Steps to Initiating Action. RSA 498-A:4 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

498-A:4 Preliminary Steps to Initiating Action.

I. DISCLOSURE. At the initial contact with a property owner, the condemnor shall provide to the condemnee information regarding acquisition and relocation. Such information shall include a disclosure, conspicuously located, which states that the condemnor does not represent the rights of the condemnee and that the condemnee may want to obtain independent advice or unbiased counsel.

II. APPRAISAL.

(a) The condemnor shall have an impartial, qualified appraiser make at least one appraisal of all property proposed to be acquired. The appraiser shall make reasonable efforts to confer with the condemnees or their personal representatives.

(b) Every condemnee who is the subject of a property acquisition shall have a reasonable opportunity to have his or her property appraised by an independent, qualified appraiser, employed by the condemnee. The condemnor shall reimburse the usual and customary cost of the appraisal up to $1,000.

(c) Before making the offer provided for in paragraph III, the condemnor shall make reasonable efforts to negotiate with the condemnees or their personal representatives for the purchase of the property, but failure to confer or negotiate shall not be a defense to condemnation of a property. Any sum of money or other consideration discussed by either the condemnor or the condemnee during any such negotiations shall not be admissible in evidence and shall not be referred to in any proceedings for the determination of just compensation.

(d) Within 10 days of receipt of a notice of offer provided for in paragraph III of this section a municipal condemnee shall, at the request of the condemnor, furnish the condemnor with the estimated amount of unpaid taxes, fees and interest for which notice has not been recorded at the registry of deeds for the county in which the property is located. Failure to timely provide such estimate shall not affect any right of a municipal condemnee under this chapter.

(e) When the condemnor is the department of transportation, the condemnor shall review any independent appraisals for accuracy before formulating a notice of offer.

(f) The condemnor shall provide a copy of the appraisal, and if requested, any official appraisal review notes upon which the negotiations are based, to the condemnee at the time of negotiation or at least 45 days prior to making the notice of offer, whichever comes first.

III. NOTICE OF OFFER.

(a) The condemnor shall make its notice of offer within a reasonable time after it publicly announces its plans to take a property.

(b) No property shall be taken unless the condemnor shall serve upon the condemnee a written notice of offer to purchase, which shall set forth:

(1) The purpose for which the property will be taken.

(2) A description of the property to be taken sufficient for the identification thereof, including sources of title, if ascertainable.

(3) The amount of compensation offered and whether the offer is based on the appraisal required by RSA 498-A:4, II(a), or on some other basis.

(4) The effective date of the appraisal.

(5) That an action to condemn the property in the manner provided by this chapter will be commenced if the offer is not accepted within 30 days after service of the notice, or that the condemnee may reject the offer within 20 days and request a notice of offer based on the value of the property at the time the taking was announced or at the time of the notice of offer.

(c) Any offer shall remain outstanding and may be accepted by the condemnee until such time as either the condemnor or the condemnee files a petition in the superior court to have the damages reassessed under RSA 498-A:27.

(d) The condemnor shall make public a complete list of such offers showing the name of each condemnee and the amount of the offer in each case, including the value of the property before and after the taking, if different, and the amount of damages.

IV. SERVICE OF NOTICE.

(a) The giving of the notice of offer is a jurisdictional prerequisite to instituting condemnation proceedings. The notice may be served by certified mail and service shall be complete on the date of mailing. If the condemnee is a minor, an incompetent person, unknown, or is one whose whereabouts are unknown, the condemnor shall serve such notice upon the legal guardian of the condemnee. If there is no such guardian, the condemnor shall petition the board and request that a guardian ad litem be appointed to represent such condemnee. If the condemnee is unknown or one whose whereabouts are unknown, such notice shall also be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is located.

(b) If the offer is accepted, the transfer of title shall be accomplished within 30 days after acceptance, including payment of the considerations set forth in the offer or as agreed upon between the parties, unless such time is extended by mutual written consent by the condemnor and condemnee. In the event the condemnee fails to convey the property within the specified time, the condemnor may commence condemnation proceedings.

(c) If the offer is not accepted within 30 days after the service of the notice, the condemnor shall commence condemnation proceedings within 90 days after the expiration of such 30-day period.

2 Abandonment of Project; First Offer to Original Landowner. Amend RSA 498-A:12, II to read as follows:

II. If a condemnor has [~~condemned~~] acquired a fee and thereafter abandons the property, after the purpose is served for which the property was [~~condemned~~] acquired, or abandons the property for any reason within 10 years of [~~condemnation~~] acquisition, the property may not be disposed of without first being offered to the [~~condemnee~~] landowner, his heirs and assigns at a price equal to the current appraised value of the property including any improvements made thereon. The [~~condemnee~~] landowner, his heirs and assigns shall be served notice pursuant to RSA 498-A:12, I. This provision shall not apply to those properties purchased as early or total acquisitions at the landowner's request

SB 173, relative to certain historical and recreational facilities. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. William E. Leber for Public Works and Highways: This bill authorizes recreational and cultural interest signs that meet the standards of the federal "Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices" for use on primary or secondary highways and roads within the state. Such signs shall be designed to direct the traveling public to recreational facilities for alpine and Nordic ski areas that are recognized by the state in state-sponsored publications. The areas listed on the sign shall pay for all costs associated with signs approved under this bill. The committee finds that ski areas hold a special value to our state and needs such assistance. Vote 13-0.

SB 198, relative to a certain highway sign in Concord. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. William E. Leber for Public Works and Highways: This bill permits the placement of a certain sign within 500 feet of Exit 12 on Interstate 93 in Concord. This is an exception to the rule for off-site direction signs to permit a sign that directs the traveler to Exit 15 for the owner's hotel and conference center. The owner shall be allowed to erect and maintain a sign on the owner's property easement provided all approvals required by the city of Concord are obtained. This provides for improved traveler information and safety. Vote 14-0.

SB 206-FN, relative to the registration of OHRVs used as grooming equipment for cross country ski trails. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Pierre W. Bruno for Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill adds OHRVs used to maintain cross country ski trails to the existing definition of "OHRV trails maintenance vehicles" established for OHRV trails maintenance. This bill also clarifies this use when crossing class I, II, and III highways with regard to "trail connectors." The committee amendment establishes a uniform registration fee for all trails maintenance vehicles. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1277h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Trail Connector; Cross Country Ski Trails. Amend RSA 215-A:1, XVII to read as follows:

XVII. "Trail connector" means that specific portion of an OHRV trail or cross country ski trail on which an OHRV trail maintenance vehicle may operate authorized within a state highway right-of-way by the department of transportation.

3 Bureau Responsibilities; Cross Country Ski Trail Maintenance. Amend RSA 215-A:3, VI to read as follows:

VI. The supervisor of the bureau shall receive all written requests from persons applying for permission to establish a highway trail crossing or trail connector on any class I, class II or class III highway for any OHRV trail or cross country ski trail on which an OHRV trail maintenance vehicle may operate. The requests shall be submitted by the supervisor to the commissioner of the department of transportation or the commissioner's representative for the department's approval or disapproval. If approval is granted, the commissioner of the department of transportation may post the area with appropriate signs designating the location of the trail crossing or trail connector and providing signs for both sides of the highway at an appropriate distance from the crossing or trail connector to warn the motoring public of said crossing or trail connector.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2003.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill adds cross country ski trail maintenance OHRVs to the term "OHRV trails maintenance vehicles" for purposes of OHRV registration.

The bill also includes cross country ski trail connectors in the supervision of highway right-of-way crossings.

SCR 2, urging the United States Congress to act to rectify the science, research funding, and restrictions governing the Northeast multispecies fishing industry and its impact on New Hampshire fishermen. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Ken Hawkins for State-Federal Relations and Veterans Affairs: The committee felt that the New Hampshire fishermen have been unfairly penalized for voluntarily reducing their fishing days to help the stocks rebuild. They now are being forced to cut 20% of their 5-year average of days fished. This has resulted in a large number of fishermen being allowed only 10 days or less to fish out of the maximum of 88 days allowed. Vote 11-0.

Amendment (1285h)

Amend the resolution by replacing all after the title with the following:

Whereas, the New England fishing industry, including New Hampshire fishermen, have worked tirelessly over the last decade to rebuild the fishing stocks off New England and have increased their community effort to work towards better conservation practices and sustainability; and

Whereas, the new federal fishing restrictions imposed by the National Marine Fisheries Service have severely curtailed fishing opportunities available to New Hampshire fishermen and may well put these small commercial fishermen in financial jeopardy in the present and in the future; and

Whereas, the methodology for estimating fish populations, which became the basis for these new federal fishing restrictions, might be based on faulty science due to the fact that the federal government's research vessel used uncalibrated scientific fishing equipment for more than 2 years, possibly painting a more dire picture of fish stocks than might exist; and

Whereas, a recent federal court ruling required the Secretary of Commerce to publish an interim rule to be in compliance with the overfishing, rebuilding, and by catch provisions of the Sustainable Fisheries Act; and

Whereas, the proposed interim rule proposed additional restrictions to include a freeze on days at sea at the highest annual level used from fishing years 1996 to 2000 and a 20 percent cut from that level; and

Whereas, the use of days at sea from the fishing years 1996 to 2000 as a vessel's new "baseline" fails to take into account a number of factors, including participation in formerly "exempted fisheries," creates inequitable results and thereby unfairly penalizes fisherman who were encouraged to enter these "exempt fisheries"; and

Whereas, the head of stock assessment for the National Marine Fisheries Service has stated faulty gear on a trawler used to collect data about groundfish stocks may have led to inaccurate findings and New Hampshire fishermen have suspected the federal fisheries stock assessments were seriously flawed; and

Whereas, New England fishermen, including New Hampshire fishermen, have readily complied with voluntary conservation measures only to be penalized by this "good faith" compliance; and

Whereas, the goals to allow the regeneration of groundfish stocks in the waters off the New England coast while protecting those individuals and their significant investments who bring that resource to the public are not mutually exclusive; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

That the United States Senate and House of Representatives seek legislation requiring the Secretary of Commerce not to implement any new federal restrictions on the New England multispecies fishery until the following conditions have been met, and not before May 1, 2006:

I. All regulations now and in the future must be adjusted based on fairness and equity, and social and economic needs of communities in accordance with the national standards;

II. All collection and analysis of scientific information must be sound and apply the best methods and technology available;

III. All National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration trawl survey vessels should be independently reviewed for stock status reference points, definitions for all stocks should be implemented, the incorporation of state-of-the-art survey devices should be made on these research vessels, and a independent review made of trawl survey protocol; and

That the Secretary of Commerce be allowed to relax federal regulations on an emergency basis as appropriate to address issues of fairness and equity within the Interim Final Rule; and

That greater federal funding be made for cooperative research within the fishing industry and the scientific community; and

That copies of this resolution be forwarded by the senate clerk to the governor, the executive director of the fish and game department, the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, the Secretary of Commerce, the administrator of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and the members of the New Hampshire congressional delegation.

SB 41-FN, relative to the installation of airbags. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Brenda L. Ferland for Transportation: This bill would establish a criminal penalty, class A misdemeanor, for any person who knowingly sells, purchases, installs or reinstalls any object which is not a properly operating airbag designed in accordance with federal safety regulations for the make, model and year of a vehicle. Nothing in this law prohibits the installation or reinstallation of a recycled airbag as long as it meets the previously stated criteria. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1218h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Sections; Sale, Purchase, and Installation of Airbags. Amend RSA 358-D by inserting after 11 the following new sections:

358-D:11-a Sale, Purchase, and Installation of Airbags; Criminal Penalty Established. Any person who knowingly sells, purchases, installs, or reinstalls any object which is not a properly operating airbag that was designed in accordance with federal safety regulations for the make, model, and year of the vehicle, as part of a vehicle inflatable restraint system, shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

358-D:11-b Installation of Recycled Airbag. Nothing in RSA 358-D:11-a shall prohibit the installation or reinstallation of a recycled airbag that was designed in accordance with federal safety regulations for the make, model, and year of the vehicle, as part of a vehicle inflatable restraint system.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a criminal penalty for any person who knowingly sells, purchases, or installs an inoperative airbag or one that was not designed in accordance with federal safety regulations for the make, model, and year of the vehicle.

SB 44, relative to penalties for vehicle dealers. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Sherman A. Packard for Transportation: This bill increases the authority of the Department of Safety to suspend an automotive dealer's license along with the dealer's plates for misuse or illegal conduct. It also makes it a misdemeanor to make false statements on an application form when applying for a dealer license. It allows veterans with Purple Heart or Prisoner of War plates to obtain more than one set of said plates, the same as our Veterans plate law reads. It also exempts dealers from having to install an inspection sticker on a new or used vehicle, but requires that all vehicles completely comply with all safety requirements. It also requires dealers to inspect the vehicle upon delivery, with a twenty day plate, to a customer. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1297h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to penalties for vehicle dealers, relative to the applicability of motor vehicle inspection requirements, and relative to special number plates for certain veterans.

Amend RSA 261:177 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by inserting after paragraph IV the following new paragraph:

V. Any dealer, utility dealer, automotive recycling dealer, transporter, or repairer who knowingly makes a false or misleading statement in any application or form required by the director pursuant to this chapter, with the purpose of obtaining any registration, license, or privilege, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 6:

3 Special Number Plates for Certain Veterans; Limitation Deleted. Amend RSA 261:86, II to read as follows:

II. Plates furnished pursuant to subparagraphs I(a)-(c) shall be issued without charge. Plates furnished pursuant to subparagraphs I(d) and (e) shall be issued upon payment of the regular registration and number plate fees. Notwithstanding RSA 265:73 or any other law, any person who is issued a plate pursuant to subparagraphs I(c)-(e) shall not be entitled to free parking privileges provided for disabled veterans. ~~Individuals who qualify for special plates for certain veterans shall only be issued one set of plates pursuant to this section, except that a person who qualifies for special plates pursuant to subparagraph I(d) may be issued an additional special plate for a motorcycle.]~~

4 Motor Vehicle Inspections; Newly Registered and Transferred Vehicles. Amend RSA 266:1, IV to read as follows:

IV. Notwithstanding paragraphs II and III, newly registered vehicles, other than OHRV's, snow traveling vehicles, and mopeds, and vehicles, other than OHRV's, snow traveling vehicles, and mopeds, the ownership of which has been transferred, shall be inspected not later than 10 days after the registration or transfer of ownership of said vehicle. ~~[However, if a vehicle is purchased at retail from a licensed dealer, as defined in RSA 259:18, II, the vehicle shall be inspected not later than 30 days after the date of transfer.] Any vehicle that may be operated under a dealer registration pursuant to RSA 261:III shall meet vehicle safety requirements.~~ A vehicle for which a dealer has issued a 20-day plate pursuant to RSA 261:109 shall be ~~[presumed to be capable of meeting the vehicle inspection requirements]~~ inspected upon delivery to the retail customer.

5 Motor Vehicle Inspections; Exemption. Amend RSA 266:1, VIII to read as follows:

VIII. A new vehicle which has been delivered in this state with a certificate of origin in the form prescribed by the director ~~and any vehicle that may be operated under a dealer registration pursuant to RSA 261:III~~ is exempt from the inspection requirements contained in this section until it is sold at retail. ~~[Upon retail sale of such a vehicle, the owner shall be required to have the vehicle inspected pursuant to paragraph IV and as provided in this section and the rules adopted under this chapter.]~~

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Establishes additional penalties for dealers, utility dealers, auto recycling dealers, transporters, and repairers who violate RSA 261 and orders made pursuant to RSA 261.

II. Deletes the limitation on the number of sets of special number plates for certain veterans that may be issued to an individual.

III. Requires that a vehicle for which a dealer has issued a 20-day plate be inspected upon delivery to the retail customer.

IV. Exempts vehicles that may be operated under a retail vehicle dealer registration from inspection requirements, but requires that such vehicles meet vehicle safety requirements.

SB 56-FN, relative to parking for persons with disabilities. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Deanne S. Rollo for Transportation: This bill amends the current disability parking space law to include the striped area next to handicap parking spaces. People who need to use a wheelchair ramp cannot open the doors of vans without using the striped area, which measures about 96 inches, for clearance. The bill also increases and sets up a fine for violators. People in wheelchairs testified it has become a problem for them in many parking lots. The only opposition was to the fines, but others testifying felt that the fines would be effective in educating the public. Vote 14-1.

SB 66-FN-A-L, limiting the exemption from the meals and rooms tax for sales of alcoholic beverages by voluntary nonprofit organizations operating under one-day licenses from the liquor commission. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Jeffrey D. Gilbert for Ways and Means: This bill would exempt non-profit organizations from paying the meals and rooms tax on their beer sales under temporary 1 to 3 day licenses for special events, such as the Hampton Beach Seafood Festival. Promoters of the festival were required for the first time to pay this tax ($3,700) last year. This festival and similar events generate significant economic benefit for the communities they effect and substantial state tax revenues from commercial activities surrounding the events. Consequently, the committee believes the approval of this exemption will benefit both our charities that sponsor these events and the state. Vote 12-1.

SB 138-FN, clarifying the exemption from the interest and dividends tax for distributions from qualified tuition savings programs. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Lee M. Hammond for Ways and Means: This bill would exempt income and dividends from any IRS qualified tuition savings program from the New Hampshire Interest & Dividends Tax. Currently, interest and dividend income received by New Hampshire residents from a non-New Hampshire college tuition savings plan is taxable. The State Treasurer and the College Savings Advisory Commission strongly endorse this proposal. The fiscal note indicates the decrease in state unrestricted general fund revenues should not exceed $25,000 per year. Vote 17-0.

SB 147, establishing a committee to study alternative strategies to relieve the property tax burden on private educational institutions and to encourage scholarships to New Hampshire students. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Kurt J. Roessner for Ways and Means: This bill is similar in nature to HB 645-FN-A-L which has been retained by the Municipal and County Government Committee. The subject matter of this bill will be considered in connection with deliberations on HB 645. The sponsor agrees with this approach and with the committee's ITL recommendation. Vote 13-0.

SB 172-FN, increasing certain fees charged by the secretary of state. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. John M. Gibson for Ways and Means: This bill raises fees the Secretary of State charges for apostilles (an "apostille" is a form of authentication issued to documents for use in countries that participate in the Hague Convention of 1961) and certificates for notaries public and justices of the peace by $5, establishes a new fee for expedited service of certain documents and increases the fee charged for a marriage permit. All of these fee increases which cover the cost of services provided by the Secretary of State are included in HB-2, the trailer bill. SB 172 no longer is needed as the vehicle to increase the above-mentioned fees to cover the state costs. The sponsor of this legislation agreed with the committee recommendation of ITL. Vote 16-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR

SB 85-FN, making certain revisions to the special education laws. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John R.M. Alger for Education: This bill was a request of the Department of Education because of an audit that pointed out discrepancies with federal law. This bill corrects these discrepancies. Vote 12-3.

Amendment 1316(h)

Amend RSA 186-C:2, I as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

1. "Educationally disabled child" means any person 3 years of age or older but less than 21 years of age who has been identified and evaluated by a school district according to the provisions of RSA 186-C:7 and determined to be mentally retarded, hearing impaired, speech or language impaired or both, visually impaired including blindness, seriously emotionally disturbed, orthopedically impaired, otherwise severely health impaired, deaf-blind, multi-disabled, traumatic brain injured, autistic, or as having specific learning disabilities, who because of such impairment, needs special education or special education and educationally related services. "Educationally disabled child" shall ~~[not] include a child [aged] ages 18 [through] to 21, [who, in the educational placement prior to his or her incarceration in an adult correctional facility was not actually identified as being a child with a disability or did not have an individualized education program] who was identified as an educationally disabled child and received services in accordance with an individualized education plan but who left school prior to his or her incarceration, or was identified as an educationally disabled child but did not have an individualized education plan in his or her last educational institution.~~

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 Special Education; Policy and Purpose. Amend RSA 186-C:1 to read as follows:

186-C:1 Policy and Purpose. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state that all children in New Hampshire be provided with equal educational opportunities. It is the purpose of this chapter to ensure that the state board of education and the school districts of the state provide a free and appropriate public education for all educationally disabled children.

SB 94-FN, requiring criminal conviction record checks for employees working in long-term care facilities and in home health care and for applicants for a license from the board of nursing. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Sandra C. Harris for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill is a product of a joint study committee which met last summer. It requires that criminal background checks be done on workers in long-term care businesses like nursing homes and home care agencies. This bill mandates that the checks, costing ten dollars, be done through the New Hampshire State Police and not require fingerprints. Temporary staffing agencies supplying long-term care workers are required to perform the check on those employees, whereas the checks on workers licensed by the Board of Nursing are to be performed by the Board. The cost of the checks is intended to be a medicaid reimbursable expense for facilities with medicaid residents. The checks are required to be done on applicants who apply on or after July 1, 2003. The committee felt that this is an important safety measure for our elderly and disabled citizens. Vote 15-1.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

An employee shall not begin work before the final offer of employment is made.

III.(a) Upon receipt of a notarized criminal conviction record release authorization form from a residential care facility licensed under RSA 151:2, I(e), the division of state police shall conduct a criminal conviction record check pursuant to RSA 106-B:14 and provide the results to the residential care facility. The residential care facility shall maintain the confidentiality of all criminal conviction records received pursuant to this section.

(b) The cost of criminal conviction record checks for such applicants shall be borne by the residential care facility; provided, that the residential care facility may require an applicant to pay the actual costs of the criminal conviction record check.

SB 96-FN, establishing a pharmacy discount program for seniors and disabled persons and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. James R. MacKay for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill was amended by the Senate. The extensive fiscal note was also amended. Originally, the state costs for prescriptions for FY 2005 would have been $44,437,620; the new fiscal note appropriated ten dollars. Obviously, ten dollars per year was not designed to fund a pharmacy discount program for seniors and disabled persons. This bill also required a Federal Medicaid waiver. Testimony was provided from several sources that the model utilized in the bill (based on the Maine model) and the lack of an appropriate appropriation would likely make the waiver unacceptable to the Center for Medicare-Medicaid Services. The committee agreed that a pharmacy discount program is a credible goal, but recommends that this bill as written should not pass. However, because it is believed that further study is in order, an ad hoc committee has been formed to investigate the possibilities of a prescription drug program, either alone or combined in other legislation currently in the study phases. This bill offered nothing new that would be workable to assist eligible seniors. The ad hoc committee will come back by November 1, 2003 with a recommended course of action. Vote 15-0. Adopted.

SB 222-FN-A, relative to motor vehicle fees. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. George N. Katsakiores for the Majority of Transportation: This bill accomplishes two important related functions concerning vehicle emissions and safety inspections. First, it funds the start-up cost through a very modest registration increase (.20 per month) for the Municipal Agent Automated Program (MAAP). This program will allow every town and city in New Hampshire to be online with the Department of Safety; additionally, this would also allow citizens to be able to register their vehicles from their homes or office online. This bill also begins a new safety and emission program for automobiles and light trucks, 1996 and newer, to bring NH into compliance with the Clean Air Act, something the state had already agreed to do in 2003, by an agreement with the federal Environmental Protection Agency. This is the development of a state-of-the-art electronic on-board diagnostics system that would be performed by your local inspection station and hooked directly in the Department of Safety (DOS) computers. The systems would be leased to each dealer and would be provided by a vendor selected by the DOS through a bidding process. Failure to adopt this legislation would take us out of compliance with the Clean Air Act and leave us open to massive sanctions to our federal highway funding, leaving us open to the loss of millions of dollars and delay in highway construction projects. Further, failure of this legislation most likely would lead to erroneous tail pipe emission testing. The committee amended this bill with committee concerns on the fiscal impact this bill has on vehicle registrations. Testimony revealed that the added registration fees would only be needed to implement the MAAP program for two years. The committee amendment sunsets the increased fees in 2005. The committee also amended the bill to include fiscal oversight on vendor fees for the On Board Diagnostic II (OBD) testing program. Vote 11-4.

Rep. Lawrence A. Artz for Minority of Transportation: This bill is the proverbial gun that is pointed to our heads by the Environmental Protection Agency and the minority also realizes the sanctions that the EPA could impose on us. The main element of this bill is to establish an on-board diagnostic requirement for vehicle emissions inspection for all 1996 and newer passenger cars and light trucks, as well as to increase registration fees to implement a Municipal Agent Automation Program. A 1996 and newer vehicle will fail inspection merely because the "Check Engine" light is lit on the dashboard and an error code is set in the vehicle's on-board computer under On Board Diagnostic II (OBD). Testimony in committee also indicated that inspection stations could also increase their inspection fees as well. The minority is convinced that this OBD program will have no measurable impact on air quality. We could conduct onerous emissions tests on motor vehicles as stringent as California, and include every vehicle made going back to the 1968 model year as was originally mandated by the EPA back in 1992, and still there will be no measurable effect on air quality. Currently, California is still having air quality problems despite their really tough ongoing automobile emissions program, and they are considering un-exempting motor vehicles that are 1973 models and going back 45 years. We are being forced to just 'play the game' that the EPA is demanding based on some theoretical air quality model that was created years ago. New Hampshire's air pollution is due to the fact that we are located right at the end of the jet stream. We cannot change that fact. All pollutants are carried over from as far away as California. In reality, NH has relatively few emission sources to cut, and all the emissions testing in the world will not change the air quality in any significant way.

Majority Amendment (1429h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

I Fees to be Collected; Prorated Fees for Motor Vehicles for Biennium Ending June 30, 2005. For the period beginning July 1, 2003 and ending June 30, 2005, the department of safety shall collect, in place of the fees required by RSA 261:141, III(g), the following prorated fees for all motor vehicles other than those in RSA 261:141, I:

0-3000 lbs.	$27.60 ($2.30 per month)
3001-5000 lbs.	$39.60 ($3.30 per month)
5001-8000 lbs.	$51.60 ($4.30 per month)
8001-73,280 lbs.	$.84 per hundred lbs. gross weight.

Amend RSA 266:59-b,V(b) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) Reasonable fees, as approved by the fiscal committee of the general court, to cover the operation of an approved electronic on-board diagnostic and vehicle safety inspection program. All fees collected pursuant to this subparagraph shall be deposited in the highway fund.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Inserts provisions for the administration of the electronic on-board diagnostic and vehicle safety inspection program.

II. Increases registration fees for motor vehicles for the biennium ending June 30, 2005.

Rep. Packard moved Recommit to committee and spoke in favor.

Recommitted to Transportation.

SB 115, increasing the fees for review of subdivisions and waste disposal systems by the department of environmental services and making an appropriation for implementing information technology and regulatory process improvements. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Kurt J. Roessner for Ways and Means: This legislation increases the Department of Environmental Services fees for review of subdivisions and waste disposal systems and applies the increased revenue to establish a system for electronic permitting for waste disposal systems, subdivision plans, and for permits and approvals. The Ways and Means Committee recommendation, along with favorable endorsements from the DES, Granite State Designers and Installers Association, and the Business and Industry Association of New Hampshire, are predicated on the appropriation of the increased revenues for the development of the electronic permitting system. Vote 14-3.

Adopted.

Referred to Finance.

SB 223-FN-A, relative to fees for copies of motor vehicle records and relative to the fire standards and training and emergency medical services fund. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Jeffrey D. Gilbert for Ways and Means: This bill expands the activities of the Fire Standards and Training and Emergency Medical Services Fund to include the division of Fire Safety and Emergency Management and raises the fees that are its funding source by 12.5%. Currently, this fund is running an annual surplus of approximately $900,000. The budget for the Division of Fire Safety and Emergency Management is approximately $1.5 million per year and is paid from the general fund. The transfer of these activities to the Fire Standards fund will absorb its surplus and coupled with the fee increase will save the general fund $1.5 million per year. The fee increase provided for in the bill would raise the current charge to insurance companies for copies of records from $7 per page to $8 per page. The Deputy Commissioner of Safety testified that the insurance companies who paid these fees approved of the increase. No testimony was offered in opposition to the bill. Vote 14-0.

Adopted.

Referred to Finance.

SB 140-FN, establishing an optional renewal period for licenses to carry a pistol or revolver. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Elbert I. Bicknell for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: The amendment to this bill changes the term for a pistol/revolver license, RSA 159:6, from "not less than 4 years" to "not more than 5 years." The amendment adds section II which simply gives the applicant the alternative to choose the expiration date of his license to carry a pistol or revolver, as long as it is not issued for more than 5 years. This procedure is for the convenience of the applicant and the issuing authority shall so inform the applicant. Vote 11-0.

Amendment (1431h)

Amend the bill by replacing section I with the following:

I Pistols and Revolvers; License to Carry. Amend RSA 159:6 to read as follows:

159:6 License to Carry.

I. The selectmen of a town or the mayor or chief of police of a city or some full-time police officer designated by them respectively, upon application of any resident of such town or city, or the director of state police, or some person designated by such director, upon application of a nonresident, shall issue a license to such applicant authorizing the applicant to carry a loaded pistol or revolver in this state for not [less] more than [4] 5 years from the date of issue, if it appears that the applicant has good reason to fear injury to the applicant's person or property or has any proper purpose, and that the applicant is a suitable person to be licensed. Hunting, target shooting, or self-defense shall be considered a proper purpose. The license shall be valid for all allowable purposes regardless of the purpose for which it was originally issued. The license shall be in duplicate and shall bear the name, address, description, and signature of the licensee. The original shall be delivered to the licensee and the duplicate shall be preserved by the people issuing the same for not more than [4] 5 years. When required, license renewal shall take place within the month of the [fourth] fifth anniversary of the license holder's date of birth following the date of issuance. The license shall be issued within 14 days after application, and, if such application is denied, the reason for such denial shall be stated in writing, the original of which such writing shall be delivered to the applicant, and a copy kept in the office of the person to whom the application was made. The fee for licenses issued to residents of the state shall be $10, which fee shall be for the use of the law enforcement department of the town granting said licenses; the fee for licenses granted to out-of-state residents shall be $20, which fee shall be for the use of the state. The director of state police is hereby authorized and directed to prepare forms for the licenses required under this chapter and forms for the application for such licenses and to supply the same to officials of the cities and towns authorized to issue the licenses. No other forms shall be used by officials of cities and towns. The cost of the forms shall be paid out of the fees received from nonresident licenses.

II. As an alternative to the application procedure in paragraph I, an applicant may choose any license expiration date within 5 years of the date of application. Issuing authorities shall inform applicants that this choice is provided for their convenience.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows qualified residents to elect an optional renewal period for a license to carry a pistol or revolver.

Rep. Welch moved Recommit to committee and spoke in favor.

Adopted.

Recommitted to Criminal Justice and Public Safety.

SB 18-FN, relative to vehicle stops at railroad grade crossings. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Brenda L. Ferland for Transportation: This bill would have required drivers of an empty school bus to stop at all railroad crossings. The committee found this legislation unnecessary, as there has been no noted accidents between a train and an empty bus. Current law requires school buses carrying passengers to stop at these crossings. Vote 11-2.

Rep. Weldy spoke against.

Rep. Packard spoke in favor.

Adopted.

SB 86-FN, relative to disclosure of certain information about child fatalities and near fatalities resulting from abuse and neglect, and relative to accreditation of the department of health and human services by the Council on Accreditation for Children and Family Services. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Janet F. Allen for Children and Family Law: This bill will require the Division of Children, Youth and Families to report fatal and near fatal incidents happening to children in the home. The amendment extends accountability to all out of home court ordered placements and includes suicide along with near fatal incidents. Current law preserves confidentiality at the discretion of the commissioner using current best interest standards; the amendment would require written reasons for the same. This bill also requires an annual report of what it would take for DCYF's child protection services to achieve national accreditation. The bill extends the reporting date of the Grafton County Court Pilot Project to 2004. Vote 13-0.

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the disclosure of information about child fatalities resulting from abuse and neglect; relative to accreditation of the department of health and human services by the Council on Accreditation for Children and Family Services; and extending the reporting date for the pilot project relative to abuse and neglect hearings in Grafton county court.

Amend RSA 126-A:5, XII(a) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the commissioner ~~[may]~~ shall, upon request, publicly disclose ~~[certain case specific information]~~ the information in subparagraphs (c)(3)–(c)(12) regarding the abuse or neglect of a child, as set forth in this paragraph, [and the investigation of such abuse or neglect and any services related thereto;] if there has been a fatality or near fatality resulting from abuse or neglect of a child. Information included in subparagraphs (c)(1) and (c)(2) shall also be disclosed if it is determined that such disclosure shall not be contrary to the best interests of the child, the child's siblings or other children in the household and there has been a fatality or near fatality resulting from abuse or neglect of a child. In addition, the same disclosure shall be made when there has been a fatality, to include suicide, or near fatality of a child under the legal supervision or legal custody of the department. In determining whether disclosure will be contrary to the best interests of the child, the child's siblings, or other children in the household, the commissioner shall consider the privacy interests of the child and the child's family and the effects which disclosure may have on efforts to reunite and provide services for the family. ~~[In evaluating the request for disclosure, the commissioner shall consider the source of the request, and whether the disclosure will promote public accountability of the department.]~~ If the commissioner determines not to release the information, the commissioner shall provide written findings in support of the decision to the requestor. As used in this section, "near fatality" means an act or event that places a child in serious or critical condition as certified by a physician.

Amend RSA 126-A:5, XII(c)(2) as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(2) The name of the parent or other person legally responsible for the child or the foster family home, group home, child care institution, or child placing agency where the child is placed.

Amend RSA 126-A:5, XII(c)(11) as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

~~[(+)]~~ (11) Identification of services and actions taken, if any, by the department regarding the child named in the report and his or her family or substitute caregiver as a result of any such report or reports.

Amend RSA 170-G:4, XX as inserted by section 4 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

XX. Submit a plan for the department to achieve accreditation by the Council on Accreditation for Children and Family Services, Inc. no later than July 1, 2007. The plan shall contain staffing requirements, a timetable for achieving those requirements, projected budgets for achieving those requirements and any other costs associated with achieving accreditation. The plan shall be submitted no later than 90 days after passage of this paragraph to the governor; the president of the senate; the chairs of the finance committee and of the public institutions, health and human services committee of the senate; the speaker of the house of representatives; the chairs of the children and family law committee and finance committee of the house of representatives; the legislative budget assistant; the advisory board established in RSA 170-G:6; and the New Hampshire child fatality review committee. Annually thereafter, on or before September 1 of each year, the department shall submit an updated plan, which includes the current status of the original plan, and any changes necessary to achieve accreditation on or before July 1, 2007. Reports from the Council on Accreditation shall be public documents. Copies shall be submitted to the president of the senate; the chairs of the finance committee and of the public institutions, health and human services committee of the senate; the speaker of the house of representatives; the chairs of the children and family law committee and finance committee of the house of representatives; the legislative budget assistant; the advisory board established in RSA 170-G:6; and the New Hampshire Child Fatality Review Committee.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 5 the following and renumbering the original section 6 to read as 8:

III. Extends the reporting date for the pilot project relative to abuse and neglect hearings in Grafton county.

SB 71-FN-A, establishing a committee to study improving access, affordability, and alternatives in health insurance for New Hampshire consumers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Stella Scamman for Commerce: The committee found this legislation unnecessary, as there have been numerous other efforts to deal with health insurance. This study committee is redundant to other on-going efforts and would not provide more insight into this matter. Vote 14-1.

SB 122, relative to the regulation of first mortgage brokers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Paul D. Spiess for Commerce: This bill, as passed by the Senate, would require a licensed mortgage broker to make sure that each licensed office has a supervisor on premise with at least three (3) years experience in mortgage lending or mortgage brokering. While the committee believes that the issue of competency is important, years of experience does not define or guarantee competency. Further, it is not appropriate for the state to prescribe business practices beyond the parameters of the licensed activity. In the absence of a reliable competency testing procedure, the committee voted not to support the proposed legislation. Vote 13-2.

SB 131, establishing a committee to study the system of health care safety net providers in New Hampshire, and options for improving access to primary and preventive care for the uninsured and underinsured. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Matthew J. Quandt for Commerce: The intent of the bill was already being dealt with by the Hospital Association's "NH Health Access," so the bill is unnecessary. Vote 14-0.

SB 135, relative to hotel keeper liability for personal care services. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Donald D. Flanders for Commerce: The bill exempts hotelkeepers or innkeepers from liability for losses of goods or property or other damages based on a guest's or visitor's use of a child care services provider whose name is furnished by the hotelkeeper or innkeeper, provided the hotelkeeper or innkeeper does not know of any adverse information about the person or persons providing the child care services, receives no compensation for providing the information or services and gives written notice that the child care service providers have not been evaluated by the hotelkeeper or innkeeper. It also allows the hotelkeeper or innkeeper to provide the name of an employee if the hotelkeeper or innkeeper receives no compensation and the employee is acting outside of the scope of his or her employment when providing the child care services. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1465h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to hotelkeeper or innkeeper liability for personal child care services.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Section; Child Care Referrals. Amend RSA 353 by inserting after section 353:2 the following new section:

353:2-a Child Care Referrals. No hotelkeeper or innkeeper shall be liable for losses of goods or property or other damages sustained by a guest or other visitor based solely upon the furnishing by the hotelkeeper or innkeeper of a name or names of persons available to provide child care services for such guest or other visitor provided the hotelkeeper or innkeeper has no knowledge of any adverse information relating to the person or persons providing the child care services, the hotelkeeper or innkeeper receives no compensation for furnishing the information or the services provided, and the hotelkeeper or innkeeper has given written notice to the guest or visitor that the child care service providers have not been evaluated by the hotelkeeper or innkeeper. No such liability shall arise from furnishing the name of an employee of the hotelkeeper or innkeeper provided the hotelkeeper or innkeeper does not recommend or compensate any such employee for the provision of such child care services and the employee is not acting within the scope of employment for the hotelkeeper or innkeeper when providing such child care services.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2004.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill exempts hotelkeepers or innkeepers from liability for losses of goods or property or other damages based on a guests or visitor's use of a child care services provider whose name is furnished by the hotelkeeper or innkeeper provided the hotelkeeper or innkeeper does not know of any adverse information about the person or persons providing the child care services, receives no compensation for providing the information or services and gives written notice that the child care service providers have not been evaluated by the hotelkeeper or innkeeper. It also allows the hotelkeeper or innkeeper to provide the name of an employee if the hotelkeeper or innkeeper receives no compensation and the employee is acting outside of the scope of his or her employment when providing the child care services.

SB 69-FN-A, combining the career incentive program and the nursing leveraged scholarship loan program within the department of postsecondary education, and establishing a workforce incentive program within the department of postsecondary education, and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Deanna P. Rush for Education: This bill provides an incentive to study in shortage areas such as nursing and education. It consolidates the career incentive loan program and the nursing leveraged scholarship loan program into the workforce incentive program, which contains a forgivable loan component, and a loan repayment program for individuals who work in designated shortage areas. This bill includes a fiscal note of $1.00, thus allowing for grants and other fund transfers. Vote 15-0. Referred to Finance.

SB 80, relative to vocational education and the automotive technology curriculum. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Richard Leone for Education: This bill was introduced to update and improve the high school automotive technology programs in New Hampshire. It establishes an automotive technology and advisory council in the Department of Education. Not only will these programs meet the standards of the National Automotive Technicians Education Foundation (NATEF), but they will greatly enhance New Hampshire's opportunity for Federal funding in this area. Vote 17-0. Referred to Finance.

SB 23-FN, allowing veterans the right to purchase credit in the retirement system for certain service in the armed forces. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. William R. Zolla for Executive Departments and Administration: The amendment for this bill allows for the purchase of up to three years of additional service credit in the retirement system. The amendment reduced the time to three years rather than five years so that all military personnel were put on the same playing field regardless of time served in that the subsequent minimum time of enlistment following the demise of the draft became three years. This benefit is only available to active members of the retirement system with ten years of in state service and must be paid in accordance with the actuarial determination of the cost. This cost shall include both the employer and employee contribution for the time purchased and shall be the responsibility of the purchaser. The other changes made by the amendment to the original bill were to clarify in all sections of RSA 100 that the military time purchased under this bill shall not be used as creditable service eligibility for retirement or for the purpose of eligibility for medical and surgical benefits as a retired employee under RSA 21-I:30, RSA 100-A:52, RSA 100-A:52-a or RSA 100-A:52-b. Vote 15-1.

Amendment (1498h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Paragraph; Creditable Service for Military Service. Amend RSA 100-A:4 by inserting after paragraph V the following new paragraph:

VI.(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a member in active service in the retirement system who has completed 10 years of creditable service in the state, shall be entitled to receive credit, upon payment by the member of the cost of such credit and upon approval of the board, for not more than 3 years of additional creditable service for active service in the armed forces of the United States, subject to the following:

(1) The member is not receiving military retirement benefits at the time of application for such credit, other than disability allowances.

(2) The member is honorably discharged or is an officer honorably separated from the military service of the United States, or is in active status in the New Hampshire national guard or organized reserve. A member on active status in the New Hampshire national guard or organized reserve may apply such service time on a ratio of 5 years active national guard or reserve service to one year of available additional creditable service under this paragraph.

(3) The member is not at the time of application for credit receiving any retirement benefits under this chapter or under any predecessor system.

(b) Credit for active service in the armed services shall not be made until the member has paid either in lump sum or, if permitted by the board of trustees, by installment deductions from pay from an employer. The actuary's statement shall be the product of the member's annual rate of compensation at the time of buy-in, multiplied by the sum of the member and employer contribution rates in effect with respect to the member at the time of buy-in, multiplied by the number of years of prior service credit bought.

(c) Additional creditable service purchased under this paragraph shall not be used as creditable service for the purpose of determining service retirement eligibility or for purpose of eligibility for medical and surgical benefits as a retired employee under RSA 21-I:30, RSA 100-A:52, RSA 100-A:52-a, or RSA 100-A:52-b.

SB 43, relative to archives and records management. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Judson K. Dexter for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill updates the name of the division of records management and archives to the division of archives and records management which conforms with the rest of the country. Additionally, it gives the Secretary of State, Governor and Executive Council greater flexibility in selecting the director. Vote 16-0.

SB 143, establishing a commission to study and review the regulation of the building trades. IN-EXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Judson K. Dexter for Executive Departments and Administration: In 2001-2002, we established a statewide universal building code, which covers every aspect of building from foundation to finish, including heating and plumbing. This was created after two years of study. Therefore, this legislation is not needed at this time. Vote 15-0.

SB 179-FN-A, relative to positions in the banking department. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Peter F. Bergin for Executive Departments and Administration: The banking commissioner and the sponsors testified that currently there are not enough bank examiners to audit the ever-growing mortgage and consumer loan industry. This bill will enable the banking department to add additional personnel to audit the industry. There will be no cost to the state as each company audited is billed by the state. Vote 15-0.

Referred to Finance.

SB 210, relative to the administrative procedures of the real estate commission. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. William R. Zolla for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill would require the commission to hold a formal hearing on all complaints regardless of the severity of the violation. The bill also removes the authority of the commission to negotiate a settlement prior to a hearing under RSA 541-A:31, the administrative procedures act. The committee felt that this bill would hamstring the commission in its work to the detriment of the public that the commission was established to serve. Vote 15-0.

SB 146, relative to eligible costs for training grants in the job training program for economic growth. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Clifford A. Newton for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: The committee realizes this is a good program. However, funding will not be available for this program until late 2006. There are also several issues and concerns to be worked out between the Department of Employment Security and the provider of administration of the grant-funded program. By voting this bill ITL, the Advisory Council will have time to work out these issues and come forward with proper legislation next session. Vote 13-0.

SB 174, relative to scheduled permanent impairment awards and remedial care under workers' compensation. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Franklin C. Bishop for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: This bill clarifies the wage to be used when calculating permanent impairment awards under workers compensation. The amendment makes minor technical changes. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (1433h)

Amend RSA 281-A:15, I as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. Except as provided in paragraphs II and III of this section and of RSA 281-A:32 and subject to RSA 281-A:28, 281-A:28-a and RSA 281-A:31-a, an average weekly wage shall be computed by using the method in subparagraph (a) or (b), or (c) that yields the result more favorable to the injured employee:

Amend RSA 281-A:23, II as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. The employer, or the employer's insurance carrier, shall pay the cost of artificial limbs, eyes, teeth, orthopedic appliances, and physical and surgical aids made necessary by such injury; shall pay the cost of replacement or repair when such is made necessary by wear and tear or by physical change in the person; and shall pay compensation for disability resulting from the replacement or repair, based on the employee's average wages at the time of the original injury. Notwithstanding RSA 281-A:48, I, a party may petition the commissioner for payment of such compensation at any time, if the disability results solely from the replacement or repair. If an employee by accident arising out of and in the [cause] course of the employment has suffered the loss of glasses, false teeth, an artificial member, or hearing aid, the employer or the employer's insurance carrier shall pay the employee an amount equal to the value of the property so lost.

SB 32, relative to municipal budget recommendations. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Nancy K. Johnson for Municipal and County Government: The main duty of town budget committees is to "prepare the budget as provided for in RSA 32:5 for submission to each annual or special meeting of the voters of a municipality, and, if the municipality is a town, the budgets of any school district wholly within the town." There has been some controversy about which budget goes on the warrant – the school board's or the budget committee's if there is one. RSA 32 clarifies that the "budget" submitted to the voters is to be that of the budget committee, or the governing body if there is no budget committee. Vote 13-1.

SB 130-FN-L, relative to county departments of corrections. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for Municipal and County Government: The original bill is a combination of housekeeping changes concerning the way the county department of corrections operates as well as clarifying changes in what is the responsibility of the sentencing court and what is the responsibility of the superintendent for inmate care and management.

The amendment clarifies and aligns the approval process used by the sentencing court to order the committal of an inmate to the county correctional facility for rehabilitation based on the rules and regulations of the specific county correctional facility in RSA 30-B:20.

RSA 262:23 deals with motor vehicle habitual offenders and the amendment again aligns the process used by the sentencing court to order the committal of an inmate to rehabilitation based on the rules and regulations of the county correctional facility where the sentence is to be served. We amended the minimum mandatory term for the offender from eight consecutive weekends to 14 consecutive days prior to eligibility for a home confinement program.

RSA 651:17 deals with the time limit for a sentence to a county correctional facility and Section II is amended to state that the offender must be confined to the county correctional facility in the county where the crime was committed.

RSA 651:19 deals with release for gainful employment, rehabilitation or home confinement. As previously stated in RSA 262:23, the amendment basically aligns the approval process used by the sentencing court to order the inmate to home confinement, provided the county correctional facility has a home confinement program. It also allows the superintendent to have discretion in determining who is eligible for the home confinement program. If the superintendent deems an inmate inappropriate for the home confinement program, the superintendent is to notify the sentencing court, and, at the request of the defendant, a hearing may be scheduled to hear the defendant's grievance. The amendment also requires that the defendant must serve 14 consecutive days prior to the eligibility for the home confinement program. The amendment also contains some housekeeping measures that clarify the terms of home confinement. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (1539h)

Amend the bill by inserting after section 8 the following and renumbering the original sections 9-10 to read as 13-14, respectively:

9 Employment of Offenders; Work Release. Amend RSA 30-B:20 to read as follows:

30-B:20 Work Release. [Any] A sentencing court may order that any person sentenced to imprisonment in a county department of corrections facility may be released therefrom by the superintendent with the approval of the sentencing court at the time of sentence, or at any time during the term of sentence [~~by the court for such purpose as the court may deem conducive to his rehabilitation~~] based on the rules and regulations of the county correctional facility for such purposes as the superintendent may deem conducive to his or her rehabilitation. Such release shall be for such terms or intervals of time and under such terms and conditions as ~~[the court may order the superintendent to impose]~~ may be permitted by the facility's rules and regulations. Any part of a day spent in the free community under such a release order shall be counted as a full day toward the serving of the sentence unless otherwise provided by the sentencing court. [~~If a person violates the terms and conditions laid down for his conduct, custody, or employment, the court may require that the balance of the person's sentence be spent in actual confinement and may cancel any earned reduction of his term. If the superintendent refuses to permit a person confined, who is~~] otherwise eligible for a work release program, to participate in such program, that person shall have the right to petition the court for a hearing on the matter, and the decision of the court shall be conclusive;]

10 Motor Vehicles; Habitual Offenders. Amend RSA 262:23, I to read as follows:

I. It shall be unlawful for any person to drive any motor vehicle on the ways of this state while an order of the director or the court prohibiting such driving remains in effect. If any person found to be an habitual offender under the provisions of this chapter is convicted of driving a motor vehicle on the ways of this state while an order of the director or the court prohibiting such operation is in effect, he or she shall be guilty of a felony and sentenced, notwithstanding the provisions of RSA title LXII, to imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than 5 years. No portion of the minimum mandatory sentence shall be suspended, and no case brought to enforce this chapter shall be continued for sentencing; provided, however, that any sentence or part thereof imposed pursuant to this section may be suspended in cases in which the driving of a motor vehicle was necessitated by situations of apparent extreme emergency which required such operation to save life or limb. Any sentence of one year or less imposed pursuant to this paragraph shall be served in a county correctional facility ~~[and the]~~. The sentencing court may order that any such offender may serve his or her sentence under home confinement pursuant to RSA 651:19 [on such terms and conditions as the court may order;] based on the rules and regulations of the county correctional facility where the sentence is to be served for the minimum mandatory term or any portion thereof, provided the offender first serves ~~[8 consecutive weekends or]~~ 14 consecutive days of imprisonment prior to eligibility for home confinement. Habitual offenders shall only be eligible for the home confinement ~~[sentencing option]~~ program once per lifetime. Any sentence of more than one year imposed pursuant to this paragraph shall be served in the state prison.

11 Sentence to County Correctional Facility; Year or Less. Amend RSA 651:17, II to read as follows:

II. The sentence shall be that the offender be confined to hard labor, for the term ordered by the court, in the county correctional facility ~~[, except where otherwise expressly provided]~~ of the county in which the crime was committed.

12 Discretionary Sentences; Release for Purpose of Gainful Employment. Amend RSA 651:19 to read as follows:

651:19 Release for Purpose of Gainful Employment, Rehabilitation or Home Confinement. ~~[Any]~~ A sentencing court may order any person who has been committed to a [penal] correctional institution other than state prison under a criminal sentence may be released therefrom [by the sentencing court at the time of sentence or at any time during the term of sentence;] for the purpose of obtaining and working at gainful employment, for the performance of uncompensated public service as provided in RSA 651:68-70, or to serve the sentence under home confinement, provided the [offender first serves 8 consecutive weekends or] correctional facility has a home confinement program. If the superintendent determines the person is inappropriate for the home confinement program, the court shall be notified and, at the request of the defendant, a hearing may be scheduled. In any case, the defendant shall first serve 14 consecutive days prior to eligibility for home confinement, or for such other purpose as the court may deem conducive to his or her rehabilitation, for such times or intervals of time and under such terms and conditions as the [court may order] rules and regulations of the correctional facility may allow. Any part of a day spent in the free community, or in home confinement, under such a release order shall be counted as a full day toward the serving of the sentence unless otherwise provided by the court. If a person violates the terms and conditions laid down for his or her conduct, custody and employment, he or she shall be returned to the ~~[sentencing court]~~ correctional facility. The ~~[court]~~ superintendent may then require that the balance of the person's sentence be spent in actual confinement ~~[and may cancel any earned reduction of his or her term].~~

SB 47-FN, relative to refunds for tolls paid on account of shrinkage or loss by evaporation of motor fuel. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
Rep. Sandra B. Keans for Public Works and Highways: This legislation changes the rate from 1 cent to ¾ cent per gallon that can be refunded to gasoline dealers for shrinkage. All parties agree that shrinkage does occur but with new technology, such as new tanks and pumps, much less is lost.
Vote 17-1.

Amendment (1363h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Road Tolls; Retail Dealers; Refund Rate. Amend RSA 260:48, I to read as follows:

I. The amount of refund shall be computed at the rate of $\frac{3}{4}$ of one percent of the toll paid on gross purchases.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill reduces the rate used to calculate refunds to retail dealers for road tolls paid on account of shrinkage or loss by evaporation of motor fuel.

SJR 1, approving certain uses of Weeks state park. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. David M. Lawton for Resources, Recreation and Development: This legislation encourages the Division of Parks and Recreation to enter into a lease agreement with a cellular communications provider. The agreement would allow for the installation of cellular communications equipment entirely within the existing stone structure of the Weeks State Park in Lancaster, New Hampshire. After careful consideration, and further consultation with the Attorney General's office, the committee endorses this resolution and strongly believes that the proposed use is in keeping with the stipulated deed restrictions of the Weeks' Estate. Further, the committee agreed that the contract will hopefully make the state park self-funded and the enhanced communications will improve both the safety and economic vitality in this rural region of the state. Vote 16-2.

SB 58-FN-A, relative to the net operating loss under the business profits tax. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Vivian R. Clark for Ways and Means: As passed by the Senate, this bill failed to accomplish the stated purpose of eliminating net operating loss carry-back requirements. The amendment is a technical correction that restores a date reference in the statute and thereby does effect the desired result. The change will not alter FY '04 or FY '05 business profits tax revenues, but will cause a $2 million reduction in the Business Profits Tax in FY '06 and thereafter. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1520h)

Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 77-A:4, XIII as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

XIII. A deduction for the amount of the net operating loss carryover determined under section 172 of the United States Internal Revenue Code in effect on December 31, 1996 [~~provided, however, that in calculating such net operating loss carryover, the election permitted under section 172(b)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code in effect on December 31, 1996, shall not be allowed~~]. A net operating loss shall be apportioned in the year incurred according to RSA 77-A:3. Net operating losses may only be carried forward for the 10 years following the loss year. For taxable periods ending: Referred to Finance.

SB 139, relative to exhibition fees charged by the boxing and wrestling commission. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Daniel M. Hughes for Ways and Means: This bill allows the commission to waive boxing and wrestling exhibition fees, in its sole discretion, for amateur boxing and wrestling events to the extent that the proceeds are used for charitable purposes and that the sponsor is a 501(c) (3) entity. Vote 13-1.

Amendment (1466h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Paragraph; Permit and License Fees; Nonprofit Organizations. Amend RSA 285:13 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. The commission in its sole discretion, may waive fees for amateur boxing and wrestling exhibitions to the extent that the proceeds are to be distributed for charitable purposes to organizations which are exempt from federal taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows the commission to waive amateur boxing and wrestling exhibition fees for non-profit organizations.

REGULAR CALENDARSB 98-FN, prohibiting telemarketers from contacting customers on a federal do-not-call registry. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John B. Hunt for Commerce: This bill, as it arrived from the Senate, had two controversial provisions that were exemptions to the telemarketing do-not-call list. The first one was that "on behalf of a newspaper to build its own circulation provided the telemarketer making such call has used and observed with respect to such call the do-not-call list maintained by the Telephone Preference Service of the Direct Marketing Association, Inc., Farmingdale, NY, or its successor organization." The second controversial provision says, "In which the sale of goods or services is not completed, and payment or authorization of payment is not required, until after a face-to-face sales presentation by the seller." This exception stirred much discussion because of the perception that some small businesses need to make a sales call to everyone whether the consumer is on the do-not-call list or not. Clearly, if your name and phone number is not on the list your are fair game, but the majority of the committee was uncomfortable creating an exemption that would free realtors and any other small or large business from having to check the national-do-not call list simply because they are only making an appointment. The committee felt that the exemption was so broad as to help not only small businesses but also large businesses such as Sears which makes calls for appointments to sell siding and windows. This bill, as amended, is essentially the same as HB 109 that came out of the Science & Technology Committee except that the federal law that this bill mirrors is a little broader as related to computer generated calls and includes "safe harbor language" for unintentional errors. Vote 13-2.

Amendment (1406h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 2 with the following:

3 New Subdivision; Telemarketing Sales Calls. Amend RSA 359-E by inserting after section 6 the following new subdivision:

Telemarketing Sales Calls

359-E:7 Prohibited Telemarketing Sales Calls. Any person who is required to comply with the Federal Trade Commission Telemarketing Sales Rule, 16 C.F.R. part 310, as amended, shall also comply with the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Telemarketing Sales Rule for telemarketing sales calls made within the state of New Hampshire. This section shall also apply to any person who would be required to comply with the Federal Trade Commission Telemarketing Sales Rule, if such person were making interstate telemarketing sales calls.

359-E:8 Violations; Penalties.

I. A violation of RSA 359-E:7 shall result in a civil penalty of $11,000 per violation.

II. A violation of RSA 359-E:7 shall also constitute an unfair or deceptive act or practice. Any person injured by another's violation of this chapter may bring an action for damages and for such equitable relief, including an injunction, as the court deems necessary and proper. If the court finds for the plaintiff, recovery shall be in the amount of actual damages or $1,000, whichever is greater. If the court finds that the act or practice was a willful or knowing violation of this subdivision, it shall award as much as 3 times, but not less than 2 times, such amount. In addition, a prevailing plaintiff shall be awarded the costs of the suit and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the court. Any attempted waiver of the right to the damages set forth in this paragraph shall be void and unenforceable. Injunctive relief shall be available to private individuals under this subdivision without bond, subject to the discretion of the court. Upon commencement of any action brought under this section, the clerk of the court shall mail a copy of the complaint or other initial pleadings to the attorney general and, upon entry of any judgment or decree in the action, shall mail a copy of such judgment or decree to the attorney general.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect on January 1, 2004.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires telemarketers to comply with the Federal Trade Commission's Telemarketing Sales Rule for telemarketing sales calls made within the state.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 121-FN, relative to mortgage originator registration. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Paul D. Spiess for Commerce: The intent of this bill, as passed by the Senate, would require that any person engaged in the business of originating mortgage loans for compensation must be registered as a loan "originator" with the New Hampshire Banking Department. This would require filing an application, paying a fee, and being subject to suspension, revocation or non-renewal. The committee felt that there was not sufficient evidence to justify implementing a registration process. Further, the committee believes that the licensed mortgage banker or mortgage broker is ultimately responsible for the actions of their agents/employees. The committee amendment requires the licensee to provide a list of all loan originators who originate loans on their behalf to the banking department at the time of renewal of their license. Vote 13-2.

Amendment (1500h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to mortgage originators.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Definitions; "Originator". RSA 397-A:1, IX is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

IX. "Originator" means an individual who is employed and supervised by a mortgage banker or broker required to be licensed under RSA 397-A, and who, for compensation or gain or in the expectation of compensation or gain, negotiates, solicits, arranges, or finds a mortgage loan.

2 New Subparagraph; License Application; Requirements; Originator List. Amend RSA 397-A:5, II by inserting after subparagraph (c) the following new subparagraph:

(d) Each applicant shall provide a list of all individuals, and the address of the work location of each such individual, who will act as originators for the licensee.

3 Annual Report; Originator List Included. Amend RSA 397-A:13, I to read as follows:

I. SB 221-FN, relative to the offense of obstructing government administration by the use of simulated legal process. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
 Rep. Stanley E. Stevens for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill relates to the use of a simulated legal process against a public official a misdemeanor and allows injunctive relief and restitution in addition to the criminal penalty. Although the use of simulated legal process has not been a major issue in New Hampshire, it is not unheard of. In one recent case, a simulated action was brought against a presiding district court judge summoning him before "The People's Court of New Hampshire," a non-existent court. Vote 14-2.

Amend RSA 638:14 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

SB 107-FN-A-L, establishing a statewide education accountability system. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Sharon M. Carson for Education: This bill attempts to fulfill both the federal requirement under No Child Left Behind and the recent "Claremont" decision relative to a statewide education accountability system. It creates a comprehensive accountability system that sets statewide performance targets for all New Hampshire schools, measures school performances at the state and local level, reports on these results at the school district and state level, gives schools the opportunity to receive assistance from the State Department of Education in order to meet identified state targets and creates a system of rewards for schools that excel and strategic responses for schools that do not meet statewide performance targets. Over a series of meetings, the concerns and suggestions of a multitude of interested parties were heard. The strong bipartisan vote of the committee believes this is a fair and balanced attempt at creating an accountability program designed for the State of New Hampshire. Vote 13-2.

Amendment (1541h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a statewide education accountability system which includes school performance standards, the creation of an education improvement fund, and the development of a local school improvement plan in each school district.

Floor amendment (1598h) adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

SB 114, implementing an unsafe school choice option for pupils attending schools which have been classified as persistently dangerous and authorizing the state board of education to implement a complaint process to address school safety and school violence issues in nonpublic schools. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John R.M. Alger for Education: This bill is a requirement under the federal No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB). Under Section 9532 of that law, any state adopting NCLB must implement a policy defining a persistently dangerous school and allowing students attending such a school the option of attending another school in the same district. This bill might be considered an umbrella over existing state law that already spells out safe school zones and pupil safety requirements under RSA 193-D & F. Vote 13-4.

Amendment (1514h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I New Chapter; Persistently Dangerous Schools. Amend RSA 193 by inserting after chapter 193-F the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 193-G

PERSISTENTLY DANGEROUS SCHOOLS

193-G:1 Persistently Dangerous Schools.

I. A persistently dangerous school is a school in which 3 of the following acts have occurred as separate incidents during the period of one school year for 3 consecutive years:

- (a) Homicide under RSA 630.
- (b) First or second degree assault under RSA 631:1 and RSA 631:2.
- (c) Aggravated felonious sexual assault under RSA 632-A:1.
- (d) Arson under RSA 634:1.
- (e) Robbery as a class A felony under RSA 636:1, III; or
- (f) Unlawful possession or sale of a firearm or other dangerous weapon under RSA 159.

II. Any act set forth in paragraph I must occur within the school or on school grounds, during regular school hours or during a school-sponsored event, or during transportation of pupils to or from school, if such transportation is provided by the school district.

III. No later than July 1 of each year, the commissioner of the department of education shall report any persistently dangerous schools to the state board of education and to the school board of such schools.

193-G:2 Citizen's Advisory Committee. If a school is classified as a persistently dangerous school, the local school board shall establish a citizen's advisory committee to examine the conditions which led to the designation and offer input to the school board and administrators on steps which might be taken to remedy the designation and prevent further incidents. The committee shall be appointed by the local school board chairman with the advice of the local school board members. It shall include but not be limited to the principal of the designated school, the superintendent of the designated school, one member of the school board, one teacher employed at the designated school, one law enforcement official from the police department having jurisdiction in the district in which the designated school is located, and representatives of parents whose children are assigned to the designated school. The committee shall serve until the designation of a persistently dangerous school is removed.

193-G:3 Removal of Designation. Any school which is designated a persistently dangerous school, which for 2 consecutive years has operated as a safe school, shall be decertified as a persistently dangerous school. For the purposes of this section, a safe school is a school which has not had the number or frequency of qualifying events set forth in this section.

193-G:4 School Choice.

I. Any school which is designated a persistently dangerous school shall, within 5 days of being notified of such designation, notify the parents or guardian of the pupil attending such school of the option to transfer the pupil from the school to a school within the same school district, consistent with local school board policy.

II. If a pupil is the victim of any offense set forth in RSA 193-G:1, I, the school district shall, within 5 days of being notified of the incident, notify the parents or guardian of the pupil of the option to transfer the pupil to another school within the same school district, consistent with local school board policy.

193-G:5 Department of Education Authority. The commissioner of the department of education shall be the certifying authority under this chapter.

193-G:6 School Safety. Schools shall be authorized to implement policies promoting school safety.

2 New Paragraph; State Board of Education; Rulemaking. Amend RSA 186:11 by inserting after paragraph the following new paragraph:

XXIX-a. Adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to establishing a process for receiving, investigating, and resolving complaints from parents or legal guardians concerning school safety and school violence in nonpublic schools.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 132-FN-A, extending the Parents as Teachers program in Sullivan county and making an appropriation therefor. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Sharon M. Carson for the Majority of Education: This bill has two objectives. First, it seeks to establish the Parents as Teachers program throughout Sullivan County. Under Chapter 140, laws of 2000 (SB 170), Sullivan county was chosen as the rural site for this program and the necessary funds were appropriated. The majority of the committee believed we should continue the state's commitment to this very successful program. Secondly, the bill removes oversight of the program from the Department of Health and Human Services and places it under the Department of Education. This change was made per the request of Health and Human Services believing it will result in administrative efficiency and program coordination. Vote 11-5.

Rep. Barbara J. Hagan for the Minority of Education: This legislation is the Senate component to HB 621-FN, which narrowly passed the House on April 10, 2003, after it was revealed that there would be a funding commitment that could be staggering in 2004. The legislation proposes to move a program, which rightfully belongs in HHS to Education in hopes of capturing a new revenue source. The bill funds only one program, leaving 26 other state Parents as Teachers programs with nothing. Testimony by the proponents of the bill confirmed that it "was not an academic program," that it "was not a preschool program," and that it was "more a program for social and emotional skills." The minority felt that the Claremont Parents as Teachers should not ask the state for money to continue, but should look to their local community to financially support the program.

Rep. Ingbretonson spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Newton spoke against.

Reps. Alger and Rodeschin spoke in favor.

On a division vote, 196 members having voted in the affirmative and 153 in the negative, the majority report was adopted.

Referred to Finance.

SB 163-FN, relative to the procedures of the health services planning and review board. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Charles E. McMahon for the Majority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill, as amended, streamlines the review process for health services by reducing regulation, provides for public input through an oversight advisory committee, improves data collection and analysis, and increases choice for health care consumers while protecting the viability of small hospitals. In addition, SB 78 was incorporated into this bill because of the data collection benefits that were compatible with this bill. The goal of the original Certificate of Need (CON) process was to manage growth of health care facilities statewide while reducing costs incurred by New Hampshire citizens. The committee believes the CON process has not met this goal to manage growth and control costs. One report stated that the influence of CON appeared to add 20.6% to per capita hospital expenditures in the long run. Additionally, the committee found the CON process has less to do with the "quality" of the care than it did with restricting the volume of choices available to citizens for that care. The amendment provides for the transfer of existing review staff to the Department of Health & Human Services. The Health and Human Services Oversight Committee, with the assistance of a three-person citizen advisory committee, will annually assess the performance of the department in its review process. In addition the amendment specifies those health services that are subject to a certificate of review. Small hospital service areas are provided alternative choices to ensure protection from unregulated expansion of duplicate services. Finally, the existing staff will be used to do more efficient long term health care planning and assessment as well as assuring improvements in quality of care issues. Based on consideration of the information received, the committee felt that the bill would help to ensure that all New Hampshire citizens have access to high quality, cost effective health care services. Vote 15-1.

Rep. Hilda W. Sokol for the Minority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The belief that all health care service, outpatient as well as inpatient, should be subject to similar review procedures is rationale for voting against the amended version of this bill.

Majority Amendment (1483h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT transferring the duties of the health services planning and review board, adding a duty to the oversight committee on health and human services, and relative to certain health care data.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Certificate of Review. RSA 151-C is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

II. No certificate of review shall be granted by the department unless a standard has been developed which delineates the need for the service and outlines the criteria which must be met by any person proposing such a service.

III.(a) No certificate of review shall be granted by the department for any nursing home, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility or rehabilitation facility from the effective date of chapter 310, laws of 1995, department of health and human services reorganization act, through the period ending June 30, 2003, except that a certificate of review shall be issued for replacement or renovation of existing beds as necessary to meet life safety code requirements or to remedy deficiencies noted in a licensing inspection pursuant to RSA 151 or state survey and certification process pursuant to titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act.

I. Prior to development or review of any new institutional health service the department shall publish in one or more newspapers of general circulation within each county, a description of the scope of coverage of its program for development and review of standards and the review of applications responding to requests for applications (RFA's) including the activities covered in RSA 151-C:5, II and 151-C:13. Whenever the scope of such coverage is revised, the department shall publish a revised description thereof, as provided in this paragraph.

II. The department shall develop standards for new inpatient institutional health services. These include the following:

(a) The transfer of ownership, in whole or in part, of an existing health care facility, or the acquisition of all or substantially all of its assets or stock, except where the transfer of ownership would be subject to the provisions of reevaluation of assets as outlined in the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 1984;

(b) The development and offering of new inpatient services;

(c)(1) In addition to subparagraphs II(a) and (b), the following shall apply to hospitals with fewer than 70 general hospital beds licensed by the department of health and human services:

(A) A threshold amount for construction of ambulatory surgical centers within the service area of such a hospital shall be $500,000, which threshold shall be adjusted annually using an appropriate inflation index, unless there is an objection by such hospital, in which case the application shall be subject to review regardless of value; or

(B) The construction, development, expansion, or alteration of any such hospital requiring a capital expenditure of more than $1,759,512. A threshold amount for construction of ambulatory surgical centers and other outpatient services (excluding physician offices) within the service area of such a hospital requiring a capital expenditure of more than $500,000, unless there is an objection by such hospital in which case the application shall be subject to review regardless of value. The department shall, by rule, adjust the capital expenditure threshold annually using an appropriate inflation index. The purchase, lease, donation, transfer, or other comparable arrangement by or on behalf of a health care provider of diagnostic or therapeutic equipment for which the cost or, in the case of donation, the value, is in excess of $400,000, including standards for one or more articles of diagnostic or therapeutic equipment which are necessarily interdependent in the performance of their ordinary functions as determined by the department. The department shall not develop standards for the purchase of equipment which is substantially similar to equipment owned by the provider within the preceding 12 months, provided the equipment will not result in a substantial increase in operating costs above that of the existing or replaced equipment.

(2) Such hospital shall notify the department within 30 days of July 1, 2003 whether it wishes to be covered under the option in subparagraph (c)(1)(A) or (B). Any such hospital which fails to notify the department within the 30-day period shall automatically be covered under the option in subparagraph (c)(1)(B). A hospital may change its option after January 1, 2006 and only every 2 years thereafter.

(3) The department shall determine by rule the service areas of such hospitals.

III. The department shall develop, pursuant to rules adopted under RSA 541-A, standards of need on health care services listed in paragraph II of this section. All persons enumerated in paragraph I of this section shall receive notice of all the standards and public hearings relative to the standards. The department shall publish notice of proposed standards in a state-wide newspaper and at least one newspaper in each county of the state. Each notice shall include dates and locations of public hearings.

151-C:6 Procedures for Existing Standards; No Standards.

I. If a standard of need, which precludes additional services, has existed for longer than 24 months, any person may request that the standard be reviewed to determine whether the standard should be continued. The 24-month requirement may be waived if it can be demonstrated that there has been a change in technology, market, or price which would warrant review of the standard. Notwithstanding RSA 541-A:4, the procedure shall be as follows:

(a) A request for a standard review shall be submitted in writing to the department.

(b) Within 30 days of the receipt of the request, the department must notify, in writing, the person making the request of the commencement of the 120-day standard review process or that the proposed project is not in accordance with RSA 151-C:5, II, and no standard review shall take place.

(c) The review of an existing standard shall take no longer than 120 days. Adoption of the standard shall be in accordance with RSA 541-A.

(d) The department shall notify persons, pursuant to RSA 151-C:5, I, of the beginning of the standard review period and the schedule for the review.

(e) If the department does not provide a standard allocating the new service or a statement on competition within the allotted 180 days, the proposed service shall not be required to obtain a certificate of review and shall not be subject to regulation under RSA 151-C.

II. In the case of a service for which there is no standard, any person may request, in writing, that the department develop a standard. Notwithstanding RSA 541-A:4, the procedure shall be as follows:

(a) A request for a standard development shall be submitted in writing to the department.

(b) Within 30 days of the receipt of the request, the department shall notify, in writing, the person making the request of the commencement of the 120-day standard development process or that the service is not in accordance with RSA 151-C:5, II, and no standard development shall take place.

(c) The development of a new standard shall take no longer than 120 days. Adoption of the standard shall be in accordance with RSA 541-A.

(d) The department shall notify persons, pursuant to RSA 151-C:5, I, of the beginning of the standard development period and the schedule for the review.

(e) The standard shall be either a standard allocating the new service by number, type, and location or a statement that the proposed new service is in the best competitive interest of health care in the state and shall not be subject to the provisions of RSA 151-C:8. The decision of the department shall be considered a final decision.

(f) If the department does not provide a standard allocating the new service or a statement on competition within the allotted 180 days, the proposed service shall not be required to obtain a certificate of review and shall not be subject to regulation under RSA 151-C.

III. In any standards for nursing facilities, the department shall provide that priority for a certificate of review for additional nursing facility beds shall be given to any facility which after January 1, 1999, has surrendered its certificate of review for the same or greater number of nursing facility beds. A facility may transfer to any other entity its priority status for a new certificate of review.

151-C:7 Criteria. Every standard developed by the department shall stipulate the criteria which must be met by any successful applicant applying to fill a need identified in the standard. At a minimum these shall include:

I. The immediate and long range financial feasibility of the proposed project, including the probable impact of costs and charges of the facility on health insurance premiums and personal health expenditures in the state or the region of the state.

II. The availability of resources for the proposed project including health and management personnel and funds, capital, and operating needs.

151-C:8 Procedures for Certificate of Review.

I. If a standard developed through RSA 151-C:5 or 151-C:6 indicates a need for additional health services, the department shall issue a request for applications. The department shall publish, in other than the legal notices section, in a newspaper of statewide distribution and in at least one newspaper in every county, as well as notify all affected persons as defined in paragraph VI(b) of this section, a notice that the department is requesting applications for certificates of review for the specified service. At a minimum the notice shall include:

(a) A brief description of the service to be provided, including the amount, type, and location as established by the standard.

(b) The final date that applications are to be submitted which shall be no sooner than 60 days from the date of publication. An application in response to a request for application may be submitted prior to the deadline, but no review shall commence prior to the deadline.

(c) An address at which applicants may obtain copies of the application format as well as the minimum criteria and specifications which shall be the basis for judging the merits of each application.

II. The department shall be available to provide technical assistance to any applicant submitting an application in response to a request for applications.

III. All applications received in response to a single request for applications shall be reviewed simultaneously and shall be considered in relationship to each other.

IV. Every application shall contain such information as the department adopts by rule. The department shall not require any information which it has not adopted by rule. The information requirements established by the department may vary according to the purpose of the review or the type of health service being reviewed. In addition to the information required for submission to the department, any applicant may submit, and the department shall duly consider, any other information.

V.(a) The department shall examine every application for form and completeness, and the information required by RSA 151-C:7 as well as the specifications and standards outlined in the request for application. If an application is determined incomplete by the department, it shall notify the applicant by electronic mail or by certified mail within 21 days of receipt of the application. Such notification shall include a full explanation of the reasons for incompleteness. If no request for additional information is made by the department within the 21 days, the application shall be considered complete.

(b) An applicant whose application is incomplete shall be allowed a maximum of 21 days, from the date of receipt of notification of incompleteness, to provide the required additional information. The applicant shall not provide more than the required additional information. The department shall then review the additional information provided by the applicant; and, if satisfactory, the application shall be considered complete and the applicant shall be notified by electronic mail or by certified mail. If the application is still found to be incomplete, the department shall mail the applicant a notification within 14 days of receipt of the additional information. If no such notification is mailed to the applicant by the department within the 14-day period, the application shall be considered complete. Within 7 days of the receipt of any information submitted pursuant to the second completeness notice, the department shall notify the applicant as to whether such information is satisfactory and the application shall be considered complete.

(c) Any applicant whose application is incomplete following the second completeness review under subparagraph (b) may, by electronic mail or by certified mail, within 7 calendar days of receipt of the second notice of incompleteness:

(1) Provide the additional required information; or

(2) Stipulate that it wishes to have its application reviewed by the department notwithstanding its incompleteness. Any applicant whose application is incomplete and who fails to either provide the additional required information or stipulate that it wishes to have its application reviewed notwithstanding its incompleteness shall waive any right to have its application reviewed.

(d) The department shall review any application for which a stipulation has been filed pursuant to subparagraph (c).

(e) An applicant may withdraw an application at any time thereby terminating the review process.

VI.(a) Within 14 days of completion of the completeness review under paragraph V of this section, the department shall mail, to any qualified applicant, a notice that formal review of the application has begun and shall publish the notice in other than the legal notice section of one or more newspapers of general circulation in the state and in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the service area of the facility to be reviewed. The department shall provide all affected persons, as defined in subparagraph (b), with written notification of the beginning of a review. The notice shall include a statement that review has begun and the proposed schedule for review by the department.

(b) For purposes of this paragraph, "affected persons" include organizations of health care providers and organizations of health care consumers, as defined by the department by rules adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A, and members of the public who are to be served by the proposed project. For purposes of this paragraph, notification of all qualified applicants in which the proposed project is to be offered or developed shall be by electronic mail or by certified mail. Notification to all affected persons shall be by mail and notification to members of the public shall be by newspaper. Notification by newspaper shall serve as appropriate notice to all health care facilities located within the state.

(c) If an affected person fails to receive notification which was provided in accordance with this paragraph, such failure of notice shall not be grounds for reversal of a decision made by the department, defeat any jurisdiction of the department, or adversely affect the regularity of any proceedings before the department.

VII. The date on which notification is sent to qualified applicants or the date on which notification to the members of the public first appears in a newspaper published in the state, whichever occurs later, shall be the date of notification and shall be the beginning date of the review cycle of the department.

VIII. The department shall establish review schedules which provide that no review by the department shall, to the extent possible, take longer than 90 calendar days from the beginning of the review cycle to the date of a final decision of the department. In accordance with the requirements of RSA 151-C:11, the department shall adopt exception criteria for determining when it would not be practicable to complete a review within 90 calendar days. If an application clearly meets such exception criteria, the department may provide for a single extension of the review period for a total of 30 calendar days beyond the initial 90-day period. The total review period for certificate of review shall not extend beyond 120 days from the beginning of review.

IX. Upon request, the department shall provide for access by the general public to all applications reviewed by the department and to all other written materials pertinent to department review.

X. The department shall provide in its review procedures for a public hearing. The department shall, prior to such hearing, provide notice of such hearing in accordance with the notification provisions in paragraph VI of this section. The procedures for a public hearing shall include an opportunity for any person to present testimony regarding the proposed project, the right of any persons testifying to be accompanied and advised by legal counsel, the right of any qualified applicant to cross-examine witnesses, and the establishment of a formal record of the hearing. The department shall not impose any fee for such a public hearing.

XI. During the course of review of any application for a certificate of review, the department shall take reasonable measures to prohibit and prevent all ex parte communication relating to the merits of such application.

XII.(a) After an application has been filed with the department, the applicant may file a request to amend the application only during the 45 days after the date of notification of the beginning of review. If the department grants the applicant's request, the application shall be filed 30 days after the department's approval. The department shall examine the amended application for form and completeness, for information required in RSA 151-C:7, and for conformity to all applicable standards in the request for applications. If an application is determined incomplete, the department shall notify the applicant by electronic mail or by certified mail within 14 days of receipt of the amended application. The applicant whose application is incomplete shall be allowed a maximum of 14 days from the date of receipt of the department's notification of incompleteness to provide the required additional information. The amended application shall then be considered complete and processed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph VIII.

(b) When an application is filed with the department, an applicant shall be required by the department to file an amendment of the application when any supporting documentation or other material submitted to the department by the applicant indicates that:

(1) The nature, scope, or location of the project will differ substantially from those described in the application;

(2) The method of financing will differ substantially from that described in the application in that the estimated capital expenditure will exceed that proposed in the application by 15 percent plus the inflation factor, as specified in RSA 151-C:12, IV.

(3) The identity of the applicant has changed.

(4) The department may waive the requirements of subparagraph (b)(1), (2) or (3) if it is determined that the proposed amendment of the application is technical or otherwise insignificant.

(c) If an amendment is filed in accordance with subparagraph (a) or (b), the application shall return to the point in the review process defined in paragraph VI relative to the notification to the applicant that review of the application has begun.

XIII. Any action by the department or by an applicant pursuant to this section which results in a delay of the review process shall affect all applicants which filed under the same request for application and are considered by the department to be competing.

151-C:9 Decision Regarding Certificate of Review; Issuance of Certificate of Review; Reconsideration.

I. Upon completion of the review, the department shall render a decision on the applicant or applicants which filed in response to a request for application. The decision shall be in the form of an approval, denial, or an approval with conditions. An approval of a certificate of review shall be in conformance with the standard used as the basis for the request for application.

II. The department shall consider competing applicants in relationship to each other. The decision shall be based on the applicant who demonstrates superiority in cost effectiveness, quality, and affordability and who will best meet the specifications and criteria outlined in the standard.

III. If the department fails to issue a final decision within the time period specified for the review, a certificate of review shall be denied. The applicant may either request a reconsideration hearing under paragraph IV, or, within a reasonable time following the expiration of that period, petition the supreme court to require the department to render a final decision on the application.

IV.(a) Any person, for good cause shown, may request in writing a public hearing for purposes of reconsideration of a final decision of the department. The department shall adopt appropriate procedures for such a hearing. No fee may be imposed for the hearing. For purposes of this paragraph, a request for a reconsideration hearing, other than by an applicant denied a certificate of review, shall be good cause if it:

- (1) Presents significant, relevant information not previously considered by the department;
- (2) Demonstrates that there have been significant changes in factors or circumstances relied upon by the department in reaching its decision;
- (3) Demonstrates that the department has materially failed to follow its adopted procedures in reaching its decision; or
- (4) Provides such other basis for a public hearing as the department determines constitutes good cause.

(b) To be effective, a request for a reconsideration hearing shall be received by the department within 21 calendar days following the release of the department's written decision and order. The reconsideration request shall be considered by the department not more than 45 calendar days from the receipt of the reconsideration request. If granted, the hearing shall commence within 45 calendar days of receipt of the reconsideration request. At least 14 calendar days prior to the reconsideration hearing, notification of the hearing shall be sent to the person requesting the hearing and to the persons proposing the new institutional health service and to others upon request. Within 35 calendar days after the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall make written findings which state the basis for its decision. The decision shall be considered the final decision of the department.

151-C:10 Appeals to the Supreme Court.

I. Any person submitting an application for a certificate of review, if aggrieved or dissatisfied with the decision of the department, shall have the right, upon a petition which provides a detailed statement of the grounds upon which the decision of the department is claimed to be erroneous and contrary to the facts and the law, to appeal from the decision to the supreme court pursuant to RSA 541.

II. The provisions of RSA 541 shall govern all appeals under this section.

III. The court shall affirm the decision of the department unless it finds it to be arbitrary or capricious or not made in compliance with applicable law.

151-C:11 Additional Rules.

I. The commissioner of the department shall adopt rules governing review of certificate of review applications consistent with and necessary to the proper administration of this chapter. All rules shall be adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A and as described in this section; except that, in the case of an irreconcilable conflict between the provisions of RSA 541-A and the provisions of this section, the provisions of this section shall control.

II. At least 45 days prior to adopting any rule, the department shall publish, in at least one newspaper of statewide circulation, a notice stating that rules for the review of certificate of review applications or any revisions thereof have been proposed for adoption and are available at specified addresses for inspection and copying by interested persons. Such notice shall appear in other than the legal notice section of such newspapers; in addition, notice may be given through other public information channels.

151-C:12 Validity of Certificates of Review; Compliance; Sanctions.

I. A certificate of review issued pursuant to this chapter shall expire upon failure to commence or complete the project authorized thereby within the time period specified in this section. The department's approval shall be terminated upon the expiration of such period, and the person proposing to offer or develop the new institutional health service shall be required to resubmit an application for certificate of review under RSA 151-C:8. In the event that only part of a project to offer or develop the new institutional health service has been commenced or completed within such period, the department's approval shall be terminated upon the expiration of such period solely with respect to the parts of the project which have not been commenced or completed. Project completion date requirements are as follows:

(a) In the case of construction projects, the following time periods apply:

(1) If the total estimated cost of the project is less than $ 1,000,000, the project must be commenced within one year of, and completed within 3 years of, the date of issuance of a certificate of review.

(2) If the total estimated cost of the project is greater than $1,000,000, then the project must be commenced within 18 months of, and completed within 5 years of, the date of issuance of a certificate of review.

(b) In the case of any plan for capital expenditures proposed by or on behalf of a health care facility, health maintenance organization, or health care provider under which a series of obligations for capital expenditures for discrete components of the plan is to be incurred over a period longer than one year, the department may allow up to 3 years following the date of approval for incurring such capital expenditures.

II. Pursuant to a showing of good cause by the person proposing the project, the department shall extend by 6 months the period for commencement. A maximum of 2 such extensions shall be allowed. Upon a showing of substantial, diligent progress and good cause by the person proposing the project, the department shall grant up to a maximum of 2 extensions of 6 months each for completion of the project. For purposes of this paragraph, "good cause" includes delay resulting from unpreventable or unexpected occurrences, such as emergency, strike, disaster, unforeseen shortage of materials or other reasonably unforeseeable event.

III. For the purposes of this chapter, a project shall be commenced if:

(a) The applicant has submitted to the department a certified copy of a written agreement executed between the applicant and a registered general contractor to construct and complete the project within a designated time schedule in accordance with final architectural plans and specifications; or

(b) The applicant has submitted evidence to the department that there has been construction work on the project to justify and require a progress payment by the applicant to the general contractor under the terms of the construction agreement, or, if the construction agreement does not require progress payments, then construction has progressed to the state at which an initial progress payment would otherwise be required in accordance with the usual and customary practices of the building industry.

IV. For purposes of this chapter, completion shall mean when the approved proposed project is sufficiently complete so that it becomes operational for the purpose for which the certificate of review was issued. A certificate of review shall be valid only for the designated scope of the project and for the premises and geographical area named in the application. A certificate of review granted for a project shall not be considered as an approval of that portion of the total actual cost of such a project which is in excess of the sum of: (a) the anticipated cost designated in the application; (b) an additional 15 percent of the total cost; and (c) cost increases clearly attributable to inflation.

IV-a.(a) Prior to completion of the proposed project, the department may require any applicant to file a change of scope when any documentation or other material submitted to the department indicates that:

(1) The nature, scope, or location of the project will differ substantially in the opinion of the department from those described in the application.

(2) The method of financing will differ substantially because the estimated capital expenditure will exceed that proposed in the application by 15 percent plus the inflation factor, as specified in RSA 151-C:12, IV.

(3) The identity of the applicant has changed.

(b) The department may waive the requirements of subparagraph (a)(1), (2) or (3), if it is determined that the proposed change in scope of the project is technical or otherwise insignificant.

V. All applicants receiving a certificate of review or a certificate of review with conditions shall file, at least semi-annually during the development stage and annually once the project is commenced, a report indicating that the project is in compliance with information provided in the application, and with the conditions outlined in the certificate of review. A report shall only be necessary for the first 5 years after completion of the project.

VI. Any applicant found not to be in reasonable compliance with any statement in its certificate of review application or with the conditions of the certificate of review shall be fined not more than 1/2 of one percent of the previous year's revenue minus contractual allowances or, in the case of a new facility, not more than 1/2 of one percent of the projected first year revenue minus contractual allowances.

VII. Funds collected under the provisions of this section shall be deposited in the general fund.
151-C:13 Exemptions.

I. The following are excluded from this chapter:

The amount to be collected shall be prorated at the end of each fiscal year among all health care facilities licensed under RSA 151, except those operated by county and municipal governments. Any acute care hospital, specialty hospital, nursing home, or ambulatory surgical center which does not pay the fee required under this paragraph in a timely manner shall not have its license renewed under RSA 151 until such time as the fee is paid.

II. All persons filing an application in response to a request for applications shall pay a fee of one percent of the total capital cost of the project with a minimum fee of $1,500, and a maximum of $12,000. This paragraph shall not apply to health care facilities operated by counties or municipalities.

III. Persons requesting a standard development or standard review as outlined in RSA 151-C:6 shall pay a fee of $1,000 if the department determines that a standard review or a standard development process shall occur.

SB 101-FN, relative to unemployment compensation. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert J. Guida for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: This bill, a recommendation of the Advisory Council on Unemployment Compensation, brings the Department of Employment Security into conformity with the Federal Unemployment Tax Act regarding the treatment of American Indian tribes, and in restricting the payment of benefits to individuals in the United States, its possessions and in contiguous countries with an unemployment compensation agreement with the United States. The bill also brings the state in line with federal law regarding the treatment of direct sellers engaged in the trade or business of distribution or delivery of newspapers. It allows the commissioner of employment security to approve vocational training programs for claimants, makes the statute consistent in so far as re-qualification provisions are concerned, and provides for appeals decisions to be mailed via first class mail. Additional provisions in the bill clarify the role of department employees as officers for serving liens and tax warrants, allow the commission to collect debts via civil action on behalf of other states and the federal government, and update the department's responsibility under the Trade Act of 1974 and the Trade Adjustment Reform Act of 2002. This bill also gives the commissioner the authority to waive debts of interest, fees and legal costs of up to $50 for employers and claimants. Finally, the bill includes a provision that will allow school bus drivers who are employees of private contractors to collect unemployment compensation benefits during the school and summer vacations, as they have in the past, something which was put in jeopardy by a recent New Hampshire Supreme Court decision. Vote 8-5. Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SCR 4, urging the New Hampshire congressional delegation to take appropriate action against modification of the Clean Air Act if the result jeopardizes New Hampshire's ability to safeguard public health and protect environmental quality. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Edward R. Leach for Science, Technology and Energy: No state has benefited more from the Clean Air Act than New Hampshire. Due to our geographic location, we are at the end of the nation's tailpipe, and most of the air pollution that is monitored in our state began its journey hundreds of miles away. Thus the national Clean Air Act does for New Hampshire something we are unable to do for ourselves. It sets uniform standards, emissions limits and attainment goals for polluters, whose effluence leaves their states and travels to us. Recent announcements from the EPA will change the rules of the Clean Air Act and that will have an adverse effect on the public health and environmental quality for New Hampshire citizens. When the proposed rules change was announced, the Attorneys General from all New England states joined together to launch a suit against the proposed rules. Then Governor Shaheen spoke out on the issue, and now Gov. Benson has directed Attorney General Heed to vigorously move forward with the suit. If successful, the suit will keep the law in place until such time as an in-depth scientific assessment can be completed by the National Academy of Sciences to determine what effect such changes would have on New England states. Our entire congressional delegation is also fighting the proposed rule change and this non-partisan resolution was overwhelmingly adopted by a strong bi-partisan vote in the committee in order to support Senators Gregg and Sununu, and Congressmen Bass and Bradley. We must give them every possible advantage as they strive to reverse this proposed, ill-advised, EPA rule change. Vote 10-1.

Rep. Slocum spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Leach spoke in favor.

On a division vote, 279 members having voted in the affirmative and 63 in the negative, the report was adopted.

SB 63-FN-A-L, relative to establishing community reinvestment and opportunity zones and granting business tax credits for investments in projects in such zones. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John M. Gibson for Ways and Means: This bill is a four-year pilot program to establish Community Reinvestment and Opportunity (CROP) zones in brownfields and economically disadvantaged areas of the state. Business tax, compensation and interest credits, for new business activity in CROP zones will be available to new and existing businesses as a way to stimulate economic development and investment, expand industrial areas, create new job growth, and increase long-term tax revenues. The yearly total compensation tax credits against the state's business taxes of $100 million in wages and $10 million in interest could stimulate up to 2,000 new jobs a year in the approved CROP zones. The maximum credit allowed per year during the pilot program will be $825,000. This legislation authorizes the Dept. of Resources and Economic Development to adopt rules for the designation and the eligibility of CROP zones with legislative oversight by the Joint Legislative Fiscal Committee. This pilot program will not diminish state revenues and is expected over time to significantly increase both state and local tax receipts. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1528h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose. The general court finds that establishment of community reinvestment and opportunity ("CROP") zones and tax incentives for CROP zone projects which are available to qualifying new and existing businesses in the state are effective ways to meet certain state economic objectives, such as stimulating economic redevelopment, expanding the industrial base, creating new jobs, reducing sprawl, and increasing tax revenue. Therefore, to further these economic objectives, the general court in this act authorizes the commissioner of resources and economic development to adopt rules relating to the establishment of CROP zones, providing for the designation of CROP zones, eligibility for projects within the CROP zones, tax incentives for such projects, reporting requirements, and other provisions as may be necessary for the establishment and operation of a 4-year CROP zones pilot program.

2 New Chapters; CROP Zones. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 162-M the following new chapter:

SB 72, relative to the regulation of small loans, title loans, and payday loans. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Paul D. Spiess for Commerce: The purpose of this bill is to set regulatory standards around two new types of lending programs known as "payday" loans and "title" loans. The bill also expands the existing small loan statute, RSA 399, by providing an expanded regulatory framework around the practices of small loan licensees. The enhanced regulatory framework provides the New Hampshire Banking Department with the same powers and structure it already possesses to regulate first and second mortgage bankers and brokers. The committee amendment expands and clarifies proposed limitations on both "payday" and "title" loans, and limits the exemption of licensees under the provisions of RSA 358-A and 358-C, the consumer protection act statute. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1516h)

Amend RSA 399-A:1, XV as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

XV. "Small loan lender" means any person engaged in the business of making small loans, including title loans and payday loans.

Amend RSA 399-A:2, I as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. No person shall engage in the business of making small loans, title loans or payday loans in this state or with consumers located in this state, without first obtaining a license from the commissioner as provided in this chapter.

Amend RSA 399-A:2 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by inserting after paragraph IV the following new paragraph:

V. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter or of RSA 358-A:3, no licensee, lender or person subject to this chapter shall be exempt from the provisions of RSA 358-A or RSA 358-C. Amend RSA 399-A:4, V- VIII as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

V. No license shall be issued to any person whose principal place of business is located outside of this state unless that person designates an agent residing within this state for service of process.

VI. Persons subject to or licensed under this chapter shall abide by applicable federal laws, and rules promulgated thereunder, including the Federal Truth in Lending Act, and the laws, orders, and regulations of this state. Any violation of such law, rule, or order shall be a violation of this chapter.

VII. Persons licensed under this chapter are under a continuing obligation to update information on file with the commissioner. If any information filed with the commissioner becomes materially inaccurate, the licensee shall promptly submit to the commissioner an amendment to its application records that will correct the information on file with the commissioner. An amendment shall be considered to be filed promptly if the amendment is filed within 30 days of the event that requires the filing of the amendment.

VIII. A licensee who ceases to engage in the business of a small loan lender, payday loan lender, or title loan lender at any time during a license year for any cause, including but not limited to bankruptcy, license revocation, or voluntary dissolution, shall surrender such license in person or by registered or certified mail to the commissioner within 15 calendar days of such cessation.

IX. Any licensee may surrender any license by delivering it to the commissioner with written notice of a surrender, but such surrender shall not affect administrative, civil, or criminal liability for acts committed prior thereto.

Amend RSA 399-A:11-15 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing them with the following: 399-A:11 Provisions Applicable to all Persons under this Chapter.

I. Any loan made outside this state, as permitted by the laws of the state in which the loan was made, may be collected in this state in accordance with its terms.

II. No person making small loans, payday loans, or title loans, shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broadcast or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcast, in any manner whatsoever, any statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions which is false, misleading or deceptive.

III. This chapter, or any part thereof may be modified, amended, or repealed so as to effect a cancellation or alteration of any license, or right of a licensee hereunder, provided that such modification, amendment or repeal shall not impair or affect the obligation of any pre-existing lawful contracts between any licensee and any borrowers.

IV. No interest shall be paid, deducted, or received in advance. Interest shall not be compounded and interest shall be computed only on unpaid principal balances. For the purpose of computing interest, whether at the maximum rate or less, a month shall be considered a calendar month and, where a fraction of a month is involved, a day shall be considered 1/30 of a month. However, if all or any part of the consideration for a loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of the prior loan with the same lender then the loan contract may include unpaid interest of such prior loan which has accrued within 60 days of the making of the loan contract.

V. If charges in excess of those permitted by this chapter shall be charged, contracted for or received except as a result of an accidental or bona fide error the contract of loan shall be void and the lender shall have no right to collect or receive any principal, charges or recompense whatsoever.

VI. No person shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney running to himself, herself, or any third person to confess judgment or to appear for the borrower in a judicial proceeding; nor take any note, agreement, or promise to pay which does not disclose the date and amount or maximum credit line of the note or agreement, a schedule or description of the payments to be made thereon, and the agreed charges or rates of charge; nor take any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after the loan is made.

VII. No person shall include any of the following provisions in a small loan, payday loan, or title loan contract:

(a) A hold-harmless clause;

(b) A confession of judgment or other waiver of the right to notice and the opportunity to be heard in an action;

(c) An agreement by the consumer not to assert any claim or defense arising out of the contract against the lender or any holder in due course;

(d) An executory waiver or a limitation of exemption from attachment, execution, or other process on real or personal property held by, owned by or due to the consumer, unless the waiver or limitation applies only to property subject to security interest executed in connection with the loan; or

(e) A clause permitting the continuation of interest after repossession of the consumer's motor vehicle.

VIII. No person shall be permitted to accept as collateral on a loan under this chapter:

(a) Real estate; or

(b) Household furniture presently in use on loans of $2,000 or less.

IX. Any agreement purporting to convey to a lender a security interest in the property listed in paragraph VIII shall be null and void.

X. If a borrower desires to renew an existing closed-end loan, payday loan, or title loan for the purpose of obtaining additional cash a new contract shall be drawn up in its entirety and such prior loan shall be paid in full from such proceeds of the new loan. All legal papers in connection with such prior loan shall be stamped "PAID IN FULL" and returned to such borrower.

XI. No charge for any examination, service, brokerage, commission, or other fee shall be directly or indirectly made or contracted for on closed-end loans, payday loans, or title loans except the lawful fees, if any, actually and necessarily paid out by the lender to any public officer, for filing or recording in any public office any instrument securing such loan, which fees may be collected when such loan is made, or at any time thereafter and except the reasonable costs, charges, and expenses, including court costs actually incurred in connection with a repossession of the security or an actual sale of the security in foreclosure proceedings or upon entry of judgment.

XII. Credit life insurance, credit accident and health insurance, and credit involuntary unemployment insurance may be issued in connection with a loan or other credit transaction authorized by this chapter in compliance with the provisions of RSA 408:15, II and the cost of such insurance and any commission, benefit or return to the lender therefrom shall not be deemed a violation of any provision of this chapter; provided, however, that if there is more than one borrower or obligor on any such loan or credit transaction, credit life insurance providing a single benefit may cover both borrowers or obligors.

XIII. The lender may require a borrower to insure tangible personal property given to secure the loan against any substantial risk of loss, damage, or destruction for an amount not to exceed the reasonable value of the property insured or the amount of the loan, whichever is less, and for the customary insurance term approximating the term of the loan. The borrower shall not be required to insure against unusual or exceptional risks not ordinarily insured against in policies issued to nonborrowers. The premium for such insurance may be included in the principal amount of the loan. Such insurance shall be written by or through a duly licensed insurance agent or broker with a company qualified to do business in New Hampshire. Such insurance shall name the borrower as insured but may include the lender as co-insured or protect the interest of the lender under a loss-payable clause. No lender shall require a borrower to duplicate or cancel existing insurance or to purchase insurance from a lender or any employee, affiliate, or associate of the lender or from any agent, broker, or insurance company designated by the lender, as a condition precedent to the making of the loan.

XIV. A lender in the business of making small loans, payday loans, or title loans shall include in every loan contract a notice, printed in type size equal to at least 12-point type, stating that the consumer or the consumer's attorney may file a complaint with the commissioner.

399-A:12 Provisions Applicable to Loans.

I. For any closed-end loan of $10,000 or less, excluding charges, a lender may lend in money, goods or things of value upon such security not forbidden by RSA 399-A:12,VIII as may be agreed upon and may charge, contract for and receive charges on the entire principal of the loan, at rates agreed to in writing by the borrower and lender.

II. For any open-end loan with a line of credit of $10,000 or less, excluding charges, a lender may charge, contract for and receive charges on the unpaid balances of the account at rates agreed to in writing by the borrower and the lender.

III. No small loan lender shall permit any person to be obligated to him or her on one or more contracts of loan the total principal balance of which is more than $10,000.

IV. For the purpose of applying paragraphs II and III of this section only, small loan lender shall mean any single small loan lender, except that in the event any person or affiliated group of persons holds more than one small loan lender license, such person or affiliated group of persons shall be considered a single small loan lender.

V. No small loan lender shall induce any potential borrower who is not a loan customer of the lender to enter into a closed-end loan agreement, by delivering in the first instance a negotiable check for such loan to such potential borrower, without including the following information clearly printed on the endorsement side of the check:

(a) A statement which reads, "By endorsing this check, you become legally liable for repaying all moneys, including interest, as specified in the following loan agreement/disclosure statement;"

(b) The amount financed;

(c) The annual percentage rate;

(d) The number of installments; and

(e) The amount of each installment payment.

VI. Every small loan lender shall:

(a) Mail or deliver to the borrower, or if more than one, to one of them, at the time of making a loan under this chapter, a payment book in which space shall be provided for the record of all payments showing principal, interest and balance and which shall contain statements showing the date of such loan; the amount of the principal of such loan; the total interest charged for the period of such loan; the nature of the security, if any, for such loan; the name and address of the borrower and of the lender; and the description of schedule of payments on such loans. The payment book shall also have printed therein an interest calculation such as the following:

"Interpretation of Interest Charges in the Event Payments are Made when Due.

2% per month = 24% per year or $13.47 per year on $100

1 1/2% per month = 18% per year or $10.01 per year on $100"

Provided, however, a lender may provide a borrower with a monthly billing statement in lieu of a payment book and the information required above.

(b) Give to the person making any cash payment on account of any closed-end loan a receipt at the time such payment is made.

(c) Permit payment in advance in an amount equal to one or more full installments at any time during the regular business hours of the lender.

(d) Upon repayment of a closed-end loan in full, mark plainly every note or other evidence of the indebtedness or assignment signed by an obligor or a copy of any of the foregoing documents with the words "PAID IN FULL" or "CANCELLED" and release or provide the borrower evidence to release any mortgage or security instrument no longer securing any indebtedness to the lender. If the original is retained by the lender, the original shall be returned within a reasonable period of time upon the written request of the borrower.

(e) Upon repayment of an open-end loan in full, written notice from the borrower to the lender of termination of such loan and surrender to the lender of any checks or other device used to obtain credit; mark plainly every note, agreement or assignment signed by an obligor, with the words "PAID IN FULL" or "CANCELLED" and release or provide the borrower evidence to release any mortgage or security instrument no longer securing any indebtedness to the lender.

VII. No lender shall conduct the business of making loans under this chapter at any office, suite, room, or place of business where liquor or lottery tickets are sold.

399-A:13 Provisions Applicable to Payday Loan Lenders.

II. Each payday loan shall be evidenced by a written loan agreement, which shall be signed by the borrower and a person authorized by the lender to sign such agreements and dated the same day the loan is made and disbursed. The loan agreement shall set forth, at a minimum:

(a) The principal amount of the loan.

(b) The interest charged.

(c) The annual percentage rate, which shall be stated using that term, applicable to the transaction calculated in accordance with Federal Reserve Board Regulation Z.

(d) Evidence of receipt from the borrower of a check, dated the same date, as security for the loan, stating the amount of the check.

(e) An agreement by the lender not to present the check for payment or deposit until a specified maturity date, which date shall be at least 7 days and not more than 30 days after the date the loan is made and after which date interest shall not accrue at a greater rate than 6 percent per year.

(f) An agreement by the lender that the borrower shall have the right to cancel the loan transaction at any time before the close of business of the next business day following the date of the transaction by paying to the lender, in the form of cash or other funds instrument, the amount advanced to the borrower.

(g) An agreement that the borrower shall have the right to prepay the loan in full or in part prior to maturity by paying the lender the principal amount advanced and any accrued and unpaid interest.

III. The lender shall give a duplicate original of the loan agreement to the borrower at the time of the transaction.

IV. A lender shall not obtain any agreement from the borrower:

(a) Giving the lender or any third person power of attorney or authority to confess judgment for the borrower;

V. A lender shall not require, or accept, more than one check from the borrower as security for any loan at any one time.

VI. A lender shall not cause any person to be obligated to the lender in any capacity at any time in the principal amount of more than $500.

VII. A lender shall not refinance, renew, or extend any loan.

VIII. A lender shall not cause a borrower to be obligated upon more than one loan at any time for the purpose of increasing charges payable by the borrower.

IX. A lender shall not require or accept a post-dated check as security for, or in payment of, a loan.

X. A lender shall not threaten, or cause to be instigated, criminal proceedings against a borrower if a check given as security for a loan is dishonored.

XI. A lender shall not take an interest in any property other than a check payable to the lender as security for a loan.

XII. A lender shall not make a loan to a borrower to enable the borrower to pay for any other product or service sold at the lender's business location.

XIII. Loan proceeds shall be disbursed in cash or by the lender's business check. No fee shall be charged by the lender or an affiliated check cashier for cashing a loan proceeds check.

XIV. A check given as security for a loan shall not be endorsed to a third party.

XV. Upon receipt of a check given as security for a loan, the lender shall stamp the check with an endorsement stating "This check is being negotiated as part of a payday loan pursuant to RSA 399-A, and any holder of this check takes it subject to all claims and defenses of the maker."

XVI. Before entering into a payday loan, the lender shall provide each borrower with a pamphlet, in form consistent with regulations promulgated by the commissioner, explaining in plain language the rights and responsibilities of the borrower and providing a toll-free number in the banking department for assistance with complaints.

XVII. Before disbursing funds pursuant to a payday loan, a lender shall provide a clear and conspicuous printed notice to the borrower indicating that a payday loan is not intended to meet long-term financial needs and that the borrower should use a payday loan only to meet short-term cash needs.

XVIII. A borrower shall be permitted to make partial payments, in increments of not less than $50 on the loan at any time prior to maturity without charge. The lender shall give the borrower signed, dated receipts for each payment made, which shall state the balance due on the loan.

399-A:14 Provisions Applicable to Title Loan Lenders. A title loan lender shall not:

IV. Offer, advertise, or make a loan with a rate of interest that is lower in the original period than in subsequent renewals.

399-A:15 Title Loan Renewals. A title loan shall be for an original term of no more than 30 days. A title loan lender may allow such loan to be renewed no more than 11 additional periods each equal the original term, provided however, that at each such renewal the borrower must pay at least 5 percent of the loan's original principal balance, in addition to any finance charge owed, to reduce the principal balance outstanding. If the borrower cannot pay this principal reduction at any renewal, the title loan lender may either: (i) declare the borrower in default, or (ii) allow the loan to be renewed, provided that the lender shall reduce the current principal amount of the loan by 5 percent of the original principal amount for the purposes of calculating interest thereafter. This reduction in principal shall continue to be owed by the borrower, but such amount shall not be entitled to accrue interest thereafter. For the purpose of this section, a renewal is any extension of a title loan for an additional period without any change in the terms of the title loan other than a reduction in principal. SB 40, relative to filing of complaints for violation-level offenses and making the electronic submission of a false statement chargeable as unsworn falsification. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John E. Tholl, Jr. for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill allows the electronic submission of violation complaints by the officer in the cruiser to comply with the Integrated Criminal Justice Information System, a portion of which is being tested in several locations in the state. It removes the requirement to have the complaints sworn to by a justice of the peace, and adds a notice on the electronic form that false statements are punishable by law. It reduces paperwork and duplication of effort on several levels. SB 40 is similar in content to HB 206, which passed the House on Feb. 13, 2003. The amendment replaces some of the Senate language with the language of the House version. Vote 11-0.

Amendment (1438h)

Amend RSA 592-A:7 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

592-A:7 Complaints. Criminal proceedings before a district ~~or municipal~~ court shall be begun by complaint, signed and under oath, addressed to such court, briefly setting forth, by name or description, the party accused and the offense [~~with which he is~~] charged, provided that a complaint filed by a police officer, as defined in RSA 188-F:23, I, for a violation-level offense shall not require a signature or an oath. Any complaint filed electronically shall include notice that making a false statement on the complaint may result in criminal prosecution.

Adopted.

Rep. Tholl spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 59-FN, relative to administrative license suspension hearings. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Stanley E. Stevens for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: The purpose of this bill is to allow hearings for administrative license suspensions to be conducted telephonically or electronically unless the hearing examiner requires the presence of the law enforcement officer. It will reduce the number of hearings at which the law enforcement officer who is involved in the case must physically appear. It has the potential to significantly decrease both state and local expenditures. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (1301h)

Amend RSA 265:91-b, I(c) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(c) If the request is for a hearing, the law enforcement officer's presence shall not be required unless the request also indicates that the person desires to have the law enforcement officer present and explains the reasons therefor. If the person requests the law enforcement officer's presence, the hearing examiner shall order the presence of the officer if the examiner determines, by a preponderance of the evidence, that reasons asserted indicate that the presence of the law enforcement officer is required. The hearing shall be held within 20 days after the filing of the request unless the person requests a continuance. A request for a continuance by the person shall not stay the order of suspension or revocation. The hearing shall be recorded, and be conducted by the department's designated agent. Except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph, the hearing may be conducted telephonically or electronically. If the person and the law enforcement officer so agree, the hearing may be conducted upon a review of the law enforcement officer's report. If the person requesting the hearing fails to appear without good cause shown, the right to a hearing shall be waived and the order sustained. If the hearing examiner orders the presence of the law enforcement officer, and the officer fails to appear without good cause shown, the case shall be dismissed and the order rescinded. The director may adopt rules relative to telephonic or electronic hearings conducted pursuant to this subparagraph.

This bill permits administrative license suspension hearings to be conducted telephonically or electronically.

Adopted.

Rep. Craig spoke against and yielded to questions.

LAID ON THE TABLE

Rep. Elliott moved that SB 59-FN, relative to administrative license suspension hearings, be laid on the table.

SB 16-FN, establishing the governor's incentive and reward program. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Amendment (1497h)

Amend RSA 99-E:2 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

99-E:2 Awards. The committee shall recommend to the governor and council that either of the following awards be given to eligible state employees:

I. Monetary awards for original suggestions to improve government cost savings or efficiency. Unclassified employees shall not be eligible for monetary awards.

II. Non-monetary recognition for extraordinary service in the interest of the state. Any state employee shall be eligible based on a suggestion or service that is outside or beyond the employee's regular responsibilities or performance standards.

SB 157, establishing a committee to study the vesting of development rights. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for Municipal and County Government: The need to study the vesting of development rights came about as a result of two recent court cases. A developer claimed vested rights after 20 years. The court agreed in this case and a similar case. It has previously been the practice that four (4) years was the limit for vested rights to be exercised. The purpose of this committee will be to clarify the law on vested rights and those rights should be established by the legislature. The amendment adds to the study the subject matter of simultaneous use of growth management ordinances and impact fees (RSA 674:21(h)) in light of another New Hampshire Supreme Court case. Vote 12-0.

Amendment (1428h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Duties. The committee shall study the vesting of development rights in light of the recent New Hampshire supreme court decisions in AWL Power, Inc. v. City of Rochester, issued December 9, 2002, and Monahan-Fortin Properties, LLC v. Town of Hudson, issued December 24, 2002, regarding the simultaneous use of growth management ordinances and impact fees under RSA 674:21, V(h). Rep. Patten moved Recommit to committee and spoke in favor.

Adopted.

Recommitted to Municipal and County Government.

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 18

Thursday, May 29, 2003

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, The Reverend Hays M. Junkin, Rector of Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church in Hopkinton.

Blessed Creator, despite the black flies, despite the unending rain, and despite the lack of umpires who can call a strike when they see one, we lift up our thanks to You for the innumerable blessings You have bestowed upon us as citizens of our beloved New Hampshire. May the decisions of this honorable House uphold and defend the freedom of every person, and with abundant compassion, may those in need of assistance not be forgotten.

We remember especially this morning the brave Americans who are risking their lives, and giving their lives, to promote freedom and self-determination for the free citizens of Iraq and Afghanistan. As always, we ask for Your protective hand to be upon all those who serve in the armed forces, law enforcement agencies, emergency medical services and in the fire service as they protect and defend our country, our homes, our lives and our communities. Amen.

SB 42, relative to charitable contributions by insurance agents. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Mark Brady for Commerce: This bill attempted to define permissible charitable contributions by insurance brokers/producers. After extensive testimony from the insurance department and industry representatives the committee felt that this bill did not effectively address the relevant issue of rebating practices by the insurance industry. The amendment updates what were antiquated rebating laws. Specifically, the bill broadly defines services that insurance brokers/producers can offer clients, taking into account how the industry has broadened its scope of services. The legislation codifies existing market practices and will have no adverse effect on the marketplace. The committee felt, however, that it was not good public policy to allow brokers/producers to rebate commissions to clients and therefore prohibits such action. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1532h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the insurance rebating laws.

Amend RSA 402:41 as inserted by section I of the bill by replacing it with the following:

402:41 Exceptions.

I. RSA 402:39, RSA 402:40, and RSA 417:4, IX shall not prohibit:

(a) An insurance company from paying to another insurance company or to any person who is a duly authorized producer, or an insurance company or such a person from receiving a commission in respect to any policy under which the entity or he or she is insured.

(b) An insurance company issuing non-participating life insurance from paying bonuses to policyholders or otherwise abating their premiums in whole or in part out of surplus accumulated from non-participating insurance.

(c) An insurance company transacting industrial insurance on the weekly payment plan from returning to policyholders, who have made premium payments for a period of at least one year directly to the company of its home or district offices, a percentage of the premium which the company would have paid for weekly collection of such premiums.

(d) Value added service, activity, or product offered or provided without a fee, or at a reduced fee, that is related to the coverage provided by an insurance contract, if the provision of such value added service, activity, or product does not violate any other applicable statute or rule, and is:

(1) Clearly identified and included within the insurance policy, annuity contract, or brokerage agreement; or

(2) Directly related to the firm's servicing of the insurance policy, annuity contract, or brokerage agreement, or offered or undertaken to provide risk control for the benefit of the client.

II. For the purposes of subparagraph I(d), "value added service, activity, or product" may include the following:

(a) Risk assessments.

(b) Risk control tools.

(c) Claims assistance.

(d) Legislative updates.

(e) Administration consulting.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the insurance rebating laws.

SB 164, relative to the unauthorized use of a financial institution's name. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Paul D. Spiess for Commerce: The purpose of the bill is to prohibit the unauthorized use of a financial institution's name in any form of advertising or promotion to encourage or induce the purchase of a product or service. Financial institutions are prohibited by Gramm-Leach Bliley from providing customer information without prior authorization. However, certain transactions, such as mortgages, are matters of public record. Therefore the committee amended the bill to prohibit the unauthorized and deceptive use of a financial institution's name or trademark. The committee also removed a "right of private action" from the original bill. Vote 13-1.

Amendment (1319h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the unauthorized and deceptive use of a financial institution's name.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Paragraph; Cease and Desist Order; Unauthorized and Deceptive Use of a Financial Institution's Name. Amend RSA 384:12-a by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

IV. If, in the opinion of the commissioner, an individual or business entity is engaging in or has engaged in the unauthorized and deceptive use of the name or trademark of any bank, as defined in RSA 384-B:1, I, national bank, federally chartered savings bank or association, federally or state chartered credit union, any mortgage lender as defined in RSA 397-A and 397-B, or any affiliate or subsidiary thereof, in violation of RSA 384:67, the commissioner may issue and serve an order upon the individual or business entity requiring the individual or business entity to cease and desist from such unauthorized and deceptive use.

2 New Subdivision; Unauthorized and Deceptive Use of the Name of a Financial Institution. Amend RSA 384 by inserting after section 66 the following new subdivision:

Unauthorized and Deceptive Use of the Name of a Financial Institution

384:67 Unauthorized and Deceptive Use. No individual or business entity shall use in an unauthorized and deceptive manner the name or trademark of any bank, as defined in RSA 384-B:1, I, national bank, federally chartered savings bank or association, federally or state chartered credit union, any mortgage lender as defined in RSA 397-A and 397-B, or any affiliate or subsidiary thereof, or any other financial institution as defined in the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (PL 102-106) in any written or oral advertisement or solicitation. Prior written consent of the financial institution shall constitute authorization and shall be an affirmative defense to any violation of this paragraph.

384:68 Cease and Desist Order. The bank commissioner may issue a cease and desist order, as provided in RSA 384:12-a, IV, against any individual or business entity which uses in an unauthorized and deceptive manner the name or trademark of any bank, as defined in RSA 384-B:1, I, national bank, federally chartered savings bank or association, federally or state chartered credit union, any mortgage lender as defined in RSA 397-A and 397-B, or any affiliate or subsidiary thereof, in violation of RSA 384:67. The insurance commissioner may issue a cease and desist order, as provided in RSA 400-A:14, against any individual or business entity which uses in an unauthorized and deceptive manner the name or trademark of any financial subject to the jurisdiction of the insurance commissioner in violation of RSA 384:67.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2004.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Prohibits the unauthorized and deceptive use of a financial institution's name or trademark.

II. Grants the bank commissioner authority to issue a cease and desist order against any individual or business entity using a financial institution's name in an unauthorized and deceptive manner.

SB 177, relative to credit unions. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Paul D. Spiess for Commerce: This bill was submitted on behalf of the New Hampshire Banking Department and makes technical corrections to statutes governing credit unions. Specifically, it requires review and approval by the Banking Commissioner of real estate leases; allows the payment of dividends from undivided earnings provided the credit union maintains a "well capitalized" rating; reduces the verification requirement for audits; establishes guidelines for loans to officers and directors; and replaces the "Guarantee Fund" for capital reserves with the more commonly recognized concept of "regular reserves." The committee believes that these changes are warranted by the changes in the broader financial services industry. Vote 13-1.

SB 178, relative to guaranty funds. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Paul D. Spiess for Commerce: The state has established by statute an Insurance Guarantee Association (or fund) to protect the insured from the failure or insolvency of his or her insurer. At present, any insured can place a claim upon the fund for an uncovered loss due to insolvency. This bill limits payment from the fund to companies whose net worth is less than $25 million. It is felt that larger companies have the financial capacity and expertise to evaluate the risk of insolvency by the insurer. Vote 13-1.

SB 180, making certain changes in the banking laws. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Stephen T. DeStefano for Commerce: This bill makes technical corrections in seven areas: expands the list of federal regulatory agencies; allows the department to conduct joint examinations of highly rated institutions; adds credit unions who must submit quarterly reports; provides flexibility in annual reports to the Commissioner; deletes the term regular passbook; deletes the term Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and replaces it with Federal Insured, and changes "shall" to "may" in rulemaking provisions. Vote 14-0.

SB 181, relative to investigations by and license revocation appeals to the board of trust company incorporation. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Stephen T. DeStefano for Commerce: This bill adds a section giving the board of trust subpoena power for the purpose of any investigation. The bill also removes certain rights of appeal to the board of trust because of duplicity of board members. Vote 14-0.

SB 184, relative to reinsurance. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Leo W. Fraser, Jr. for Commerce: This proposed legislation, as amended, addresses two issues. First, in the event of an insolvency of a primary insurance company, the reinsurance carrier would be allowed to set-off payments to the ceding insurer against the Guaranty Fund Assessments. The second part of the bill, introduced at the request of the state treasurer, addresses the situation when an insurance company demutualizes and converts to a stock company, and lost policy holders cannot be located after a diligent search. Under normal circumstances, in New Hampshire, by the terms of the unclaimed property law, the stock company would be required to report, within five years of demutualization the name and last known address of the lost shareholder. This amendment would require that the stock company must report to the state treasurer within two years along with the cash that is due and owing to the lost shareholder. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1359h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to reinsurance and relative to the unclaimed property of a demutualized insurance company.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 4 with the following:

5 New Section; Custody and Escheat of Unclaimed and Abandoned Property; Unclaimed Demutualization Proceeds. Amend RSA 471-C by inserting after section 7 the following new section:

471-C:7-a Unclaimed Demutualization Proceeds. Unclaimed property payable or distributable in the course of a demutualization, rehabilitation, or related reorganization of a mutual insurance company is presumed abandoned 2 years after the date of demutualization, unless the owner, during the 2 years following the date of demutualization, has communicated with the insurance company either in writing or through other communication which is evidenced by a contemporaneous record on file with the insurance company, concerning the demutualization proceeds.

6 Report of Abandoned Property; Unclaimed Demutualization Proceeds Included in Reporting Requirement and Exempt from Notice Requirement. Amend RSA 471-C:19, IV and V to read as follows:

IV. The report shall be filed before November 1 of each year for property presumed to be abandoned as of June 30 of that year, but the report of any insurance company, including the report of unclaimed demutualization proceeds under RSA 471-C:7-a, shall be filed before May 1 of each year for funds owing under insurance policies presumed to be abandoned as of December 31 of the preceding year. On written request by any person required to file a report, the administrator may postpone the reporting date.

V. SB 201, establishing a committee to study insurance practices relative to homeowner's insurance. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Sheila T. Francoeur for Commerce: This bill would have established a study committee to examine the practice of canceling or not renewing homeowners' insurance policies when one or more claims have been made. The committee recognizes that this has become a serious problem in New Hampshire, especially in the Seacoast and North Country. However, HB 115, which covers the same subject, has been retained and the committee agreed to a thorough review of the issue using HB 115. Therefore SB 201 is not necessary at this time. Vote 13-1.

SB 120, relative to testimony by video teleconference in criminal cases. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Nedeau for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill permits certifying scientists from the office of community and public health (Health and Human Services), criminalists or technical specialists from the Department of Safety (State Police Laboratory), or a laboratory scientist from the Department of Corrections to give testimony by video teleconference in criminal cases. Such testimony is limited to expert testimony or to the results of tests conducted by the respective scientist or criminalist. Amend RSA 516:37 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

516:37 Testimony by Video Teleconference in Criminal Cases.

SB 130-FN-L, relative to county departments of corrections. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Elbert I. Bicknell for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill was amended by the house as it came from the committee on Municipal and County Government. It was acknowledged that the courts had not agreed to all the provisions that relate to release for home confinement or work release. The committee has amended the bill to satisfy all concerns. The amendment corrects a typographical error in section 5 of the bill by deleting the word [or]. Section 9 of the bill, RSA 30-B:20 Work Release, was amended to include the sentencing court where it was necessary. Section 12 of the bill amends RSA 651:19 Release for purpose of Gainful Employment, Rehabilitation or Home Confinement. The amendment again includes the sentencing court where necessary. The amendment adds sections 13 and 14 and renumbers the original sections accordingly. New section 13, RSA 30-B:22 Removal of Prisoners Because of Epidemic or Repairs to Facility is amended to allow the county commissioners to authorize the superintendent to remove prisoners to another facility instead of the current requirement that any two justices may order the removal. New section 14, RSA 651:18, Place; Reduction in Sentence, is amended to say that a prisoner shall be committed to the county facility in which the crime was committed and amends the statute to clarify that the prisoners are "in the custody of the superintendent." Section 14 of the bill will become effective on passage while the remainder becomes effective on January 1, 2004. This bill, as amended, will allow the sentencing court to order an inmate to a home confinement program if such facility has a home confinement program. It further allows the superintendent discretion. If he, the superintendent, deems an inmate is inappropriate for the program he then notifies the sentencing court and at the request of the inmate a hearing may be scheduled. The amendment includes clarifying the terms of what a home confinement program is. Finally, the amendment allows an inmate, who was on a home confinement program, to now be eligible for reduced sentencing, or early release, upon having served his or her time with good behavior. All parties appear to be satisfied with the amended bill. Vote 19-0.

Amend RSA 504-A:5 as inserted by section 5 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

504-A:5 Detention of Violators. Any probationer or parolee who is arrested under the authority of RSA 504-A:4 or RSA 651-A:25 shall be detained at the county jail closest to the location where he was arrested or any other suitable confinement facility in reasonable proximity to the location where he or she was arrested. Such probationer or parolee shall be detained there pending a preliminary hearing which shall be held within 72 hours from the time of arrest, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, or, if supervised pursuant to RSA 651-A:25, shall be detained pending a hearing, including a final revocation hearing, or transfer to the sending state. No ~~[sheriff or]~~ county correctional ~~[administrator]~~ superintendent shall refuse to accept a probationer or parolee committed to his or her facility for detention by or under the authority of a probation or parole officer.

Amend the bill by replacing section 9 with the following:

9 Employment of Offenders; Work Release. Amend RSA 30-B:20 to read as follows:

30-B:20 Work Release. ~~[Any]~~ A sentencing court may order that any person sentenced to imprisonment in a county department of corrections facility may be released therefrom by the superintendent with the approval of the sentencing court at the time of sentence, or at any time during the term of sentence ~~[, by the court for such purpose as the court may deem conducive to his rehabilitation]~~ based on the rules and regulations of the county correctional facility for such purposes as the superintendent may deem conducive to his or her rehabilitation. Such release shall be for such terms or intervals of time and under such terms and conditions as ~~[the court may order the superintendent to impose]~~ may be permitted by the facility's rules and regulations or as the court may order. Any part of a day spent in the free community under such a release order shall be counted as a full day toward the serving of the sentence unless otherwise provided by the sentencing court. ~~[If a person violates the terms and conditions laid down for his conduct, custody, or employment, the court may require that the balance of the person's sentence be spent in actual confinement and may cancel any earned reduction of his term. If the superintendent refuses to permit a person confined, who is otherwise eligible for a work release program, to participate in such program, that person shall have the right to petition the court for a hearing on the matter, and the decision of the court shall be conclusive.]~~

Amend RSA 651:19 as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

651:19 Release for Purpose of Gainful Employment, Rehabilitation or Home Confinement. ~~[Any]~~ A sentencing court may order any person who has been committed to a [penal] correctional institution other than state prison under a criminal sentence may be released therefrom ~~[by the sentencing court at the time of sentence or at any time during the term of sentence;]~~ for the purpose of obtaining and working at gainful employment, for the performance of uncompensated public service as provided in RSA 651:68-70, or to serve the sentence under home confinement, provided the ~~[offender first serves 8 consecutive weekends or]~~ correctional facility has a home confinement program. If the superintendent determines the person is inappropriate for such release, the court shall be notified and, at the request of the defendant, a hearing may be scheduled. In any case, the defendant shall first serve 14 consecutive days prior to eligibility for home confinement, or for such other purpose as the court may deem conducive to his or her rehabilitation, for such times or intervals of time and under such terms and conditions as the ~~[court may order]~~ rules and regulations of the correctional facility may allow or as the court may order. Any part of a day spent in the free community, or in home confinement, under such a release order shall be counted as a full day toward the serving of the sentence unless otherwise provided by the court. If a person violates the terms and conditions laid down for his or her conduct, custody and employment, he or she shall be returned to the ~~[sentencing court]~~ correctional facility. The ~~[court]~~ superintendent may then require that the balance of the person's sentence be spent in actual confinement ~~[and may cancel any earned reduction of his or her term]~~.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 12 the following and renumbering the original sections 13-14 to read as 15-16, respectively:

13 County Department of Corrections; Removal of Prisoners. Amend RSA 30-B:22 to read as follows:

30-B:22 Removal of Prisoners Because of Epidemic or Repairs to Facility. Whenever~~[, on account of]~~ the prevalence of disease, or the rebuilding or repairing of a correctional facility or for other cause, the county commissioners shall think it expedient that the prisoners be removed therefrom, ~~[any 2 justices of the superior court may order their removal]~~ the county commissioners may authorize the superintendent to remove the prisoners to some other ~~[correctional]~~ facility in the same or another county location, there to be detained, in the same manner and by the same process as in the correctional facility from which they were so removed, until removed by similar process or discharged according to law.

14 Sentence to County Correctional Facility. Amend RSA 651:18 to read as follows:

651:18 Place; Reduction in Sentence.

I. Persons liable to commitment to a correctional facility for any offense ~~[may]~~ shall be committed to [any] the county correctional facility [at the discretion of the court. If the court sentences a person to a correctional facility in a county other than the county where the offense was committed, the expense of maintenance shall be paid by the county in which the offense was committed unless waived by the receiving county department of corrections in accordance with a reciprocal or other arrangement between the counties involved] in the county in which the crime was committed.

II. Any prisoner whose conduct while in the custody of the superintendent of a county correctional facility has been meritorious may be issued a permit and discharged by the superintendent of the county department of corrections when he has served 2/3 of his minimum sentence, provided it shall appear to the superintendent to be a reasonable probability that he will remain at liberty without violating the law and will conduct himself as a good citizen.

Amend the bill by replacing section 16 with the following:

16 Effective Date.

SB 149-FN, establishing criminal penalties for the use of a credit card scanning device or reencoder to defraud. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Elbert I. Bicknell for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: This bill adds 2 sections to the present fraud statutes, RSA 638:1-27. New section 638:28 deals exclusively with further definitions as to what a scanning or recorder device is, as well as "payment card and merchant." New section 638:29-I and II, outlines the elements of the crime occurring when a person with intent to defraud uses a card or a scanner or recording device to obtain encoded information an individual without that person's authority. Current law does not adequately address the use of such devices. The bill enhances our present fraud statutes and prohibits using these devices to defraud others. SB 97, limiting the liability of firefighters working for certain private firefighting units. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Janet G. Wall for Judiciary: The sponsor of this bill brought it forward with good intent because the Candia Fire Department believed it was being held to a different standard than other fire departments in the state. The bill became a catalyst for bringing together the selectmen from the town of Candia and their fire department to discuss and attempt to resolve longtime misunderstandings. The selectmen did not want this bill. A 1994 contract between the town and the fire department was discovered in records; said contract binding the town to expend funds for fire equipment and other expenses. The fire department was purchasing separate liability insurance because it didn't consider itself a municipal fire department. Now the town and fire department, together with attorneys and the state fire marshall, are working on an agreement verifying that the fire department is a municipal fire department with all the rights and protections under current laws as other municipal volunteer fire departments. Vote 18-0.

SB 154, relative to landlord access to rental properties. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. James W. Craig for Judiciary: This bill broadens a landlord's ability to enter a rental property (with reasonable notice) from merely in emergency situations to situations where it is necessary "to perform other reasonable and lawful functions commonly associated with the ownership of rental property." If a landlord and tenant cannot agree that a landlord's request for entry is a reasonable and lawful function, they can petition a district court for a ruling. If such a petition is brought in good faith, no costs or attorney's fees shall be awarded. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1338h)

Amend the bill by inserting after section 1 the following and renumbering the original section 2 to read as 3, respectively:

2 Landlord and Tenants; Remedies. Amend RSA 540-A:4, IX to read as follows:

IX. (a) Any landlord or tenant who violates RSA 540-A:2 or any provision of RSA 540-A:3 shall be subject to the civil remedies set forth in RSA 358-A:10, including costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in the proceedings. Each day that a violation continues shall constitute a separate violation.

(b) The provisions of subparagraph (a) shall not apply to petitions brought in good faith by a landlord or a tenant to determine whether a request for entry under RSA 540-A:3, V is reasonable and lawful.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill grants a landlord access to rental property to make repairs and for any other reasonable and lawful purpose.

This bill also allows the court to determine whether requests for entry are reasonable and lawful without subjecting the defendant to costs and attorneys fees.

SB 168, allowing school boards to adjourn to nonpublic session to consider pupil disciplinary matters. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Peter E. Franklin for Judiciary: This bill amends the Right-to-Know Law, RSA 91-A:3, II (exemptions for going into non-public sessions) and III (records of non-public sessions). Personal school records are already exempted by RSA 91-A:5, III and the committee does not believe there is a conflict between RSA 91-A and 20 United States Code section 1232g. Vote 13-0.

SB 73, establishing a committee to study establishing enterprise zones in economically deprived or challenged communities, and relative to the Black Brook Park Tax Increment Finance District. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Kenneth H. Gould for Municipal and County Government: The need to find ways to encourage economic development throughout the state, especially in the communities that are experiencing little or no economic growth, was the impetus for the creation of this bill. Currently, there are state and federal programs available but not easily accessible to all communities. Therefore the study committee will look at any funding or possible incentive options to encourage economic growth and what programs are currently functioning. The bill increases the boundaries of the Black Brook Corporate Tax Increment Financing District in Keene because the boundaries need to increase before the five-year limitation is reached, as stated in RSA 162-K:5. The amendment changes the quorum needed to hold a meeting from six to three members of the committee. Vote 12-0.

Amendment (1734h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 4 with the following:

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named senate member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Three members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

SB 157, establishing a committee to study the vesting of development rights. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Thomas J. Gillick for Municipal and County Government: The need to study the vesting of development rights came about as a result of two recent court cases. A developer claimed vested rights after 20 years. The court agreed with the developer in this case and a similar case. It has previously been the practice that four (4) years was the limit on vested rights and those rights should be established by the legislature. The amendment adds to the study the subject matter of simultaneous use of growth management ordinances and impact fees (RSA 674:21,V), and the subject matter of the planning board's authority to require off-site improvements in light of two New Hampshire Supreme Court cases. The committee has concerns that there is a great deal of confusion about the difference and definition of "off-site improvements" and "impact fees." The overall goal of the study committee will be to have the legislature clarify the statutes that deal with vested rights, growth management ordinances, impact fees and off-site improvements. Vote 11-0.

Amendment (1627h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a committee to study certain issues relative to municipal planning.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study the vesting of development rights and the planning board's authority to require off-site improvements.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Duties. The committee shall study the vesting of development rights in light of the recent New Hampshire supreme court decisions in AWL Power, Inc. v. City of Rochester, issued December 9, 2002, and Monahan-Fortin Properties, LLC v. Town of Hudson, issued December 24, 2002, regarding the simultaneous use of growth management ordinances and impact fees under RSA 674:21, V(h). The committee shall also study the planning board's authority to require off-site improvements in light of the New Hampshire supreme court decision in Simonsen v. Derry issued November 15, 2000.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study the vesting of development rights and the planning board's authority to require off-site improvements.

SB 64-FN, relative to updating the drought management plan. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE Rep. Richard T. Cooney for Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill would require the Office of State Planning (OSP) and the Department of Environmental Services (DES) to jointly update the state drought management plan. The last update was in 1990 and a new update is greatly needed. The majority of the committee felt that it is an existing duty of DES to update the plan as part of its ongoing activities and that legislation is not required to direct them to do their job. Therefore, this bill is not necessary. Vote 13-2.

SB 162, establishing a committee to study water resources. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT Rep. D. L. Chris Christensen for Resources, Recreation and Development: Extended testimony was heard in favor of the need for long term policy on water uses. While there are short term needs for monitoring specific issues, such as large groundwater withdrawals, this bill is aimed at a more global approach with a threshold that might be out several years into the future. Thus, there would be recognition of the relationships between ground water and surface water as well as potential opportunities for forthcoming technologies in desalinization and reuse of wastewater. Many study bills were reviewed by the committee this year and were rejected in favor of a more all-encompassing approach as presented by SB 162. The amendment modifies the committee to make it a statutory committee with reports due annually in November. Language was added to the duties of the committee suggesting that the subject matter of rejected bills be included in this committee's report. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (1594h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I New Section; Committee to Study Water Resources. Amend RSA 481 by inserting after section 1-a the following new section:

481:1-b Water Resources Committee.

I. There is established a committee to study water resources in the state of New Hampshire.

II.(a) The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(1) Three members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(2) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house.

(b) Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

III. The committee shall study water resources in the state of New Hampshire. It shall also consider the use of desalinization and shall report on the future municipal water needs of New Hampshire.

IV. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named senate member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

V. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the senate president, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1 of each year.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a statutory committee to study water resources, desalinization and municipal water needs.

SB 188-L, establishing a commission to study improving the enforcement of traffic laws in high traffic areas. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Brenda L. Ferland for Transportation: The Governor has put forth Executive Order 2003-7 establishing a task force on motor vehicle fatalities consisting of a wider group of people than the Senate bill would have included. The committee felt that a governor's task force would be more effective than a study committee. Vote 14-0.

REGULAR CALENDARSB 140-FN, establishing an optional renewal period for licenses to carry a pistol or revolver. IN-EXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. David A. Welch for Criminal Justice and Public Safety: The original intent of this bill was to change the term of the concealed carry license from 4 years to 5 years. Additionally, the applicant could request that the license expire on the same date as the individual's drivers license. Again, additionally, the $10.00 fee would have to be prorated if the resulting term of license is less than 5 years. The process of clarifying this procedure led to changes that were not satisfactory and the bill was recommitted. An attempt to amend the bill in a simple fashion by merely changing the term of license from 4 years to 5 years failed in committee by a large margin. There was discussion about amending the current statute which would create a major change from the original bill. The committee therefor recommends that SB 140 be found inexpedient to legislate. Vote 17-1. Adopted.

SB 116, establishing a committee to study methods to prevent or reduce the high school dropout rate. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Claire B. McHugh for the Majority of Education: The majority of the committee felt that any dropout rate is unacceptable and deserves another look since the last study bill. It is anticipated that a study committee will look at factors that contribute to a 20% dropout rate and develop recommendations to reduce the rate. Vote 16-1.

Rep. Michael A. Balboni for the Minority of Education: To create another legislative study committee to compile drop out information already compiled by the NH Department of Education (DOE) is ridiculous; a waste of taxpayer dollars. The DOE provided written testimony that no less than 11 separate programs and initiatives are supporting local school districts in dropout prevention and recovery efforts. To quote DOE testimony: "These supports offer technical assistance in the form of expertise, research and information on tested successful models and promising new practices, and resources for implementation." The DOE provided a spreadsheet listing the top 5 reasons students drop out and the associated DOE recommendations to "fix" the problem in local schools. The DOE also stated that just last year (2002) the Department collected "information about existing dropout prevention and dropout recovery programs." DOE went on to say, "This information will be compiled and reported in a separate document." Does the Legislature now need a study committee to ask DOE for a copy of the report? We also received a wealth of school dropout improvement documentation including a report from the National Conference of State Legislatures and the Educational Resources Information Center. This documentation included the reasons students drop out, how to identify students who are at risk for dropping out, programs that attempt to reduce dropout rates, and a list of legislation enacted by other states to reduce their dropout rates. We do not need another study. We know the reasons students drop out. The Department of Education is already working with local school districts to reduce dropout rates, and is compiling a report on the effectiveness of efforts to reduce the number of dropouts in our state. On a division vote, 216 members having voted in the affirmative and 136 in the negative, the majority report was adopted. Ordered to third reading.

SB 87, establishing a committee to study setback requirements for septage, biosolids, and short paper fibers, and extending the temporary use of septage, biosolids, and short paper fiber by certain persons. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Timothy J. Allen for Environment and Agriculture: This bill establishes a commission to study the setback requirements for spreading septage, biosolids, and short paper fibers. The commission includes representatives from the legislature, state agencies, academia, rivers management, agriculture, and the biosolids industry. The current setback of 250' has an exemption for "grandfathered" sites that is extended until July 1, 2005, giving the commission time to conduct its study and legislature time to act. Vote 11-0.

Amendment (1596h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT changing the membership of the commission to study setback requirements for septage, biosolids, and short paper fibers, and extending the temporary use of septage, biosolids, and short paper fiber by certain persons.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Membership. 2003, 43:10 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

43:10 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the commission shall be as follows:

(a) Two members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Two members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house.

(c) One member of the rivers management advisory committee, appointed by such committee.

(d) Two local river management advisory committee members; one appointed by the Connecticut River Joint Commissions, Upper Merrimack River Local Advisory Committee, and the Pemigewasset River Local Advisory Committee, and one appointed by the remaining 11 local river management advisory committees.

(e) One conservation and recreation representative appointed by the New Hampshire Rivers Council, Sierra Club, New Hampshire Association of Conservation Commissions, and the Appalachian Mountain Club.

(f) One representative from the New Hampshire department of environmental services, rivers management and protection program, appointed by the commissioner of environmental services.

(i) One representative appointed by the university of New Hampshire cooperative extension.

(j) One agricultural representative appointed by the New Hampshire Farm Bureau Federation and the New Hampshire Association of Conservation Districts.

(k) One biosolids industry representative, appointed by the New England Biosolids and Residuals Association.

(l) One member of the Natural Resource Conservation Service, appointed by such organization.

(m) One representative appointed by the New Hampshire Municipal Association.

(n) One academic representative from the university of New Hampshire at Durham, with expertise in soils and/or water quality, appointed by the university.

II. Legislative members of the commission shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

2 Quorum Removed. 2003, 43:12 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

43:12 Chairperson. The members of the study commission shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the commission shall be called by the first-named senate member. The first meeting of the commission shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section.

3 Sludge, Biosolids, and Short Paper Fiber; Temporary Use. Amend 1998, 56:6 as amended by 2003, 43:14 to read as follows:

56:6 Temporary Use Authorization. The septage and sludge land application restrictions contained in RSA 483:9, VI(c), RSA 483:9-a, VII(b), RSA 483:9-aa, VII(b), and RSA 483:9-b, VII(b) shall not apply until July 1, [2003] 2005 to any land upon which septage or sludge has been spread in accordance with all applicable rules adopted by the federal Environmental Protection Agency and the New Hampshire department of environmental services, during any portion of the 3-year period prior to January 1, 1998. In addition, there shall be no termination of this restriction exemption for qualifying land that is used for scientific research on septage or sludge. Any continued application of septage and sludge pursuant to this section shall comply with all applicable federal and state laws and any best management practices published by the university of New Hampshire cooperative extension.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill changes the membership of the commission to study setback requirements for septage, biosolids, and short paper fibers, and extends the temporary use of septage, biosolids, and short paper fiber by certain persons.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 136, relative to liability for hazardous materials accidents. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Timothy J. Allen for Environment and Agriculture: The wording in existing RSA 154:8-A requires an actual discharge before a person can be found liable to reimburse hazardous materials cleanup expenses. This bill expands liability to cover threatened discharges, and the amendment provides coverage for reasonable and proportionate response by police, fire, and emergency equipment and personnel. Vote 12-0.

Amendment (1503h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Liability Concerning Hazardous Materials Accidents. Amend RSA 154:8-a, II-a(a) and (b) to read as follows:

II-a.(a) Any person whose act or omission caused the actual or threatened discharge of hazardous materials or toxic wastes which resulted in the reasonable and proportionate response of police, fire, emergency preparedness, or emergency response equipment shall be responsible for payment of the cost of the equipment use or replacement of the equipment used, if damaged or expended, in containing the hazardous materials or toxic wastes.

(b) Any person whose act or omission caused the actual or threatened discharge of hazardous materials or toxic wastes which resulted in the reasonable and proportionate response of police, fire, emergency preparedness, or emergency response equipment shall be responsible for payment of the personnel costs of police, fire, public safety, and municipal personnel, including mutual aid standby personnel, directly involved in the emergency response, except that costs for on-duty paid personnel who have responded to the emergency involving the discharge of hazardous materials during their assigned duty shift shall not be costs eligible for reimbursement.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 113, changing the name of Plymouth state college to Plymouth state university. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. Rep. Judson K. Dexter for the Majority of Executive Departments and Administration: This bill has wide bipartisan support. The committee amended the bill to clarify the procedure used by a college to change its name to a university by adopting the "Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education" national system. In the future this will require the postsecondary education commission to use the same guidelines and criteria for public and private institutions. The committee feels this name change will be beneficial for the students, the institution, the state and the North Country.. Vote 15-3.

Rep. Francis Sullivan for the Minority of Executive Departments and Administration: Some members of the minority feel that this bill is more than a name change. There is a concern that the makeup of the student body at the school will be altered significantly and the opportunity for certain New Hampshire students to gain a college education will be jeopardized.

Majority Amendment (1351h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT changing the name of Plymouth state college to Plymouth state university and amending the responsibilities of the postsecondary education commission.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 Postsecondary Education Commission; Responsibilities of the Commission. Amend RSA 188-D:8 V to read as follows:

V. Classify educational institutions which it has evaluated into categories indicating approval or accreditation, or both. The commission may accept accreditation by a recognized accrediting association in place of its own evaluation. The commission shall accept designation by the Carnegie classification of institutions of higher education 2000 edition, or its successor classification system.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill changes the name of Plymouth state college to Plymouth state university, and requires the postsecondary education commission to accept designation by the Carnegie classification of institutions of higher education.

Majority amendment adopted.

Rep. Francis Sullivan spoke against.

Rep. O'Neil spoke in favor.

Rep. Francis Sullivan requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being adoption of the majority report.

SB 148-FN, relative to the regulation of water treatment equipment installers by the plumber's board. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Judson K. Dexter for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill was brought forward by the plumber's board and water treatment installers because of public health concerns related to improper installation of water treatment systems. The committee had documented evidence of over 100 cases of faulty installations, but because the profession is currently not regulated, the only recourse available to the homeowner who is harmed is through the courts. This can take years and cost the homeowner more money. Meanwhile, the installer can continue to operate because currently there is no licensing requirement. With this bill, the installer is licensed and, therefore, could be fined by the board or, in severe cases, put out of business by a revocation of the license. Additionally, there is a continuing education requirement to insure plumbing and water treatment equipment knowledge. Funding for this license is covered by fees under the 125% rule. Vote 10-8.

Amendment (1604h)

Amend the section heading of section 6 of the bill to read as follows:

6 Licenses; Journeyman Plumbers. Amend RSA 329-A:9 to read as follows:

Amend RSA 329-A:10, IV as inserted by section 8 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. A corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other business entity that installs, maintains or repairs water treatment systems, provided the entity designates one employee licensed under this chapter who is responsible for the entity's compliance with this chapter and the rules adopted by the board. Within 30 days after termination of employment of such employee by such entity, he or she shall give notice thereof to the board and, if no other employee licensed under this chapter, the entity shall not act as a water treatment technician until some other employee has obtained a license. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the board shall not require a fee for an entity that installs, maintains or repairs water treatment systems where the person licensed under this chapter is the sole owner of the entity.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 8 the following and renumbering the original section 9 - 13 to read as 10 - 14, respectively:

9 Water Treatment Technician License; Renewal. Amend RSA 329-A:11 to read as follows:

329-A:11 Expiration and Renewal. Notwithstanding any outstanding license to the contrary, all licenses issued by the board shall expire on the last day of the month of the licensee's birth, but may be renewed during the following month, retroactive to the first day of the month. The fee for renewal of all licenses issued under this chapter shall be established by the board. Upon failure to pay the renewal fee within the required period, a licensee may renew his license by submitting the required fee plus $10 before the last day of the second month following the month of his birth. Any application received thereafter shall be rejected, unless accompanied by proof of successful completion of the examination required under RSA 329-A:7. A water treatment technician shall attend one seminar of at least 2 hours duration before his or her license is renewed

Amend the bill by replacing section 12 with the following:

12 Transition. Notwithstanding RSA 329-A:9-a, no person shall be required to take an examination to obtain licensure as a water treatment technician under RSA 329-A if prior to January 1, 2005 such person files with the state board for the licensing and regulation of plumbers a statement sworn or affirmed before a notary or other person authorized to administer oaths that he or she has been engaged in the installation, maintenance, or repair of water treatment systems. Any person who files such a statement with the state board for the licensing and regulation of plumbers shall be deemed qualified to be licensed as a water treatment technician unless, after a public hearing, the board finds the person's knowledge and understanding of, and experience with the configuration and installation of water treatment systems are questionable enough to require examination as required under RSA 329-A:9-a. Such person shall be entitled to retain his or her license as a water treatment technician unless and until he or she fails to achieve a passing score on the examination for water treatment technicians. Notwithstanding RSA 329-A, no fee shall be charged nor shall continuing education be required for the annual renewal of the license granted to a water treatment system technician if under RSA 329-A:11 such license expires on or before September 30, 2004.

Amendment adopted.

Rep. Harrington spoke against.

Rep. Dexter spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

On a division vote, 155 members having voted in the affirmative and 209 in the negative, the committee report failed.

Rep. Harrington moved Inexpedient to Legislate.

SB 83, relative to paralegals and legal assistants. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. James W. Craig for Judiciary: This bill would allow a "paralegal or legal assistant" to practice in courts and administrative hearings either under the direct supervision of an attorney who appears with the paralegal or alone, providing that the supervising attorney provides an affidavit verifying that the person is qualified to appear without the attorney. The paralegal could appear in any case other than a criminal matter or a civil commitment. While many on the committee felt that the intention of the bill is good, the majority felt that the bill needs much revision, which should be done by the bill's proponents to be resubmitted in a future session. For example, there are no statutory definitions of a "paralegal" or a "legal assistant." Further, there are no statutory requirements to become a paralegal and court rules (Rule 35) declare a legal assistant as anyone who works in a lawyer's office. Vote 9-4.

Adopted.

PROTEST

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Soltani requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

This bill was an attempt to break the stranglehold of the New Hampshire Bar Association on the New Hampshire courts and judicial system. Its defeat by the House is yet another blow to the people of the state and preserves the monopoly currently granted to the Bar. Access to the courts would have been granted to the ordinary citizen under this bill and it should have been passed.

SB 119, relative to medical and hospital liability insurance. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
Rep. Bette R. Lasky for Judiciary: The intent of this bill as amended is to overrule the Lord v. Lovett, 146 N. H. 232, NH Supreme Court decision of April 4, 2001. This decision broadened the opportunity to recover damages in medical injury cases through the recognition of the so-called loss of opportunity doctrine by incorrectly applying the burden of proof requirements in the existing medical malpractice statute, 507-E:21. As amended, this bill overrules the decision in Lord v. Lovett and eliminates the "Loss of Opportunity" doctrine, while preserving a medical liability plaintiff's right to claim damages for aggravation of an underlying condition on the same legal basis as before Lord v. Lovett was decided. The bill also preserves the patient's rights to recover damages for new harm proximately caused by medical negligence, regardless of the patient's underlying condition, based on the reasoning in an Ohio court decision, McMullen v. Ohio State University Hospitals, 88 Ohio St. 3d 332 (2000). The amendment is intended to simplify and clarify the text of the original senate bill. The committee believes the passage of this bill is an important step toward holding down the escalating costs of medical malpractice insurance. Vote 18-1.

Amendment (1722h)

Amend the bill by replacing sections 1 and 2 with the following:

I Purpose. Availability and affordability of insurance against liability for medical injury is essential for the protection of patients as well as assuring availability of and access to essential medical and hospital care. This act reaffirms the intent of the general court to contain the costs of the medical injury reparations system and to promote availability and affordability of insurance against liability for medical injury, by codifying the law applicable to recovery of damages for medical injury in RSA 507-E. The decision of the court in Belinda Joyce Lord v. James Lovett, M. D., decided April 4, 2001, departed from that intent by broadening the opportunity to recover damages in medical injury cases through recognition of the so-called "loss of opportunity" doctrine. This act is intended to overrule that decision, as well as to restate the legislative policy that this judicial broadening of the opportunity to recover damages in medical injury cases is contrary to the intent of the general court in enacting RSA 507-E.

2 New Paragraph; Burden of Proof in Medical Injury Cases. Amend RSA 507-E:2 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. The requirements of this section are not satisfied by evidence of loss of opportunity for a substantially better outcome. However, this paragraph shall not bar claims based on evidence that negligent conduct by the defendant medical provider or providers proximately caused the ultimate harm, regardless of the chance of survival or recovery from the underlying condition.

Adopted.

Rep. Mock offered a floor amendment (1863h) and spoke in favor.

Floor amendment (1863h) adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 226-L, increasing the homestead exemption. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. James W. Craig for Judiciary: This bill raises the homestead exemption from $50,000 to $100,000 for every person in his or her homestead. This is a pro-consumer measure that protects equity in homesteads that may exist over and above perfected mortgages and other liens from creditors. This bill will particularly benefit the elderly whose largest asset may be their home equity and who are often sought out by predator creditors. Finally, as property values increase, the committee felt that the exemption should be higher as they are in many other states including Vermont and Massachusetts. Vote 14-3.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 193, extending the report date for the commission on the education of the deaf and hard of hearing in New Hampshire and the commission on architecturally secure facilities and community shelter care facilities for juveniles. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Anna Z. Tilton for Legislative Administration: Those persons testifying before the committee were unanimous in their support for extending these deadlines. The committee felt it was appropriate to honor their requests, because of the importance of each of these committees. Vote 13-0.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 169, relative to frivolous actions against the state concerning state construction projects. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. William E. Leber for the Majority of Public Works and Highways: This bill would allow a prevailing party to recover certain costs, attorney's fees and damages when the court determines that a law suit pertaining to a state construction project was frivolous or intended to harass or intimidate the prevailing party. The 10-Year Highway Plan process takes two years to complete starting in odd numbered years. Public input is encouraged very often through the process. Local government is the beginning of the process and from there the planning process moves to the regional planning boards. Next, the Governor and Council have a part in refining the plan to be sent to the legislature. With legislation in the even year, the 10-Year Highway Plan is complete. All of the projects then get to serious planning while in the possession of the Department of Transportation. Hearings are held at various places near the proposed construction sites during this phase. At this point the planning and engineering become a workable document requiring permits at a considerable cost. It is after the permits are obtained that this legislation is implemented. The majority of the committee felt that this step should be added to avoid construction delays jeopardizing the safety of anyone using our highways in need of upgrading. The committee felt that with public input all along it is necessary to have an end. The committee wants to allow all parties to continue progressive actions involved in projects. A great deal of testimony was received in respect to frivolous lawsuits and their associated impacts. This is limited to state construction projects, and is very narrow in scope. Current statutes address frivolous actions in a very broad way. The majority of the committee felt that this approach limiting the scope to only state construction projects would be best. Vote 11-7.

Rep. Bernard L. Benn for the Minority Public Works and Highways: The minority asks you to vote against the majority amendment and for the minority amendment. Commissioner Murray of the Department of Transportation neither supports nor opposes this bill, but offered testimony that indicates frivolous lawsuits have not been the principle reason for delays in state construction projects. It is the minority's opinion that this bill will do nothing to improve the approval process or shorten the timeframe of those projects. Existing statutes on frivolous lawsuits have served the public well for many years. The minority supports adjusting the potential penalty in the current statute to an appropriate but not punitive level. This bill, as amended, exposes potential litigants to penalties that could bankrupt the largest not-for-profit organization as well as almost any individual or small business. The effect of this bill will be to intimidate those that may have legitimate concerns, including municipalities, in order to keep them from challenging the state. The minority also believes that the bill may be in violation of Part 1, Article 14 of the New Hampshire Constitution as well as the 5th and 14th amendments of the United States Constitution. Recently, the DOT has made a determined and laudable public relations effort to represent itself as a "softer and gentler" agency. This bill will be detrimental to that effort.

Majority Amendment (1485h)

Amend RSA 507:15-a, 1 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. If, upon the hearing of any action against the state pertaining to a state construction project, which has commenced after the necessary state and federal approvals for construction have been issued, it appears to the court that the action is frivolous or intended to otherwise harass or intimidate the prevailing party, then the court, upon motion of a prevailing party or on its own motion, may order summary judgment or other relief against the party who brought such action, and award the amount of costs and attorneys' fees incurred by the prevailing party. Costs may include, up to 10 percent of the total construction cost estimate for the project, determined as of the date the final pre-construction permit is obtained.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

In a suit brought concerning a state construction project, this bill allows the prevailing party to recover costs, attorneys' fees and damages that may include up to 10 percent of the construction costs of the project.

Rep. Benn spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Leach spoke against.

Rep. Kenison spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Royce requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being adoption of the majority amendment.

SB 70, establishing a commission to study implementing a recommendation of the New Hampshire estuaries project management plan. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT
 Rep. David M. Lawton for Resources, Recreation and Development: This legislation will establish a commission to study regional problems relating to wastewater disposal in the Great Bay estuary area. Among the duties of this commission will be to examine the feasibility of combining the wastewater discharge of multiple communities and ways to dispose of it with the least environmental impact. Regional cooperation among the communities will be explored as well as other potential partnerships to help fund the restoration of the Great Bay estuary habitat. The committee amendment adds the Executive Director of the New Hampshire Fish and Game Department or designee to the proposed commission. Vote 11-2.

Amendment (1544h)

Amend paragraph I of section 2 of the bill by inserting after subparagraph (k) the following new subparagraph:

(l) The executive director of the fish and game department, or designee.

SB 155, establishing a commission to study issues relative to water withdrawals. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. D. L. Chris Christensen for the Majority of Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill establishes a study commission with members from a variety of interests to study groundwater uses and issues. There was no question in the committee or in testimony that groundwater withdrawals and related policy are important to the state. The committee was presented with several water study bills this year, each focusing on a portion of the problem of how to establish policy and monitor uses and needs. Several of these were recommended as inexpedient to legislate, with the intent of incorporating those in a more comprehensive format. In the amendment, related language was added (as in SB 162) to insure that the subject matter of those bills will be considered in the duties of the commission. Minor membership changes were made, adding a member from a regional planning commission and reducing the representation from the Association of General Contractors from two to one. Final recommended membership was 21 members. As evidenced by the vote, the committee emphatically believes that this bill should pass as amended. Vote 14-1.

Rep. Pierre W. Bruno for the Minority of Resources, Recreation and Development: The minority concurs that the General Court should act to establish a commission to study issues relative to groundwater withdrawals. Notwithstanding such agreement, the minority believes that to entertain the consideration of charging fees for groundwater withdrawals in the duties of the commission is to fly in the face of our "Live Free or Die" motto and principles. We currently know that any fee for groundwater withdrawals could only be established upon speculative arm waving. Government's thirst for revenue, never being fully satisfied, will make frequent trips to tap any "well" created by such fee policy. This conclusion is supported by testimony that a committee studied this same issue about six years ago.

Majority Amendment (1567h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a commission to study issues relative to groundwater withdrawals.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Commission Established. The general court recognizes that the waters of New Hampshire are a precious and invaluable resource upon which there is an ever increasing demand for existing, new, and competing uses. The general court further recognizes that an adequate supply of groundwater for domestic, agricultural, industrial, and recreational uses and for fish and wildlife is essential to the health, safety, and welfare of the people of New Hampshire. Therefore, there is hereby established a commission to study ways to clarify the hierarchy of water uses while considering existing private property rights, to bring a balanced approach to water use among residential, public water supply, industrial, commercial, agricultural, recreational and other water users, and to improve the current process by which all such new water users may reasonably and efficiently use state water resources, including consideration of potential regional impacts and local water management issues, in order to best protect and preserve an adequate supply of water for the state.

Amend the bill by replacing paragraph 1 of section 2 with the following:

1. The members of the commission shall be as follows:
 - (a) Three members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.
 - (b) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house.
 - (c) A representative of public water supplier interests, nominated by the New Hampshire Water Works Association, and appointed by the governor.
 - (d) The commissioner of the department of environmental services, or designee.
 - (e) One member of a regional planning commission, nominated by the New Hampshire Association of Regional Planning Commissions, and appointed by the governor.
 - (f) A representative of the International Bottled Water Association, nominated by the association, and appointed by the governor.
 - (g) Two members of the public, appointed by the governor.
 - (h) Two representatives of different business water users, nominated by the Business and Industry Association of New Hampshire, and appointed by the governor.
 - (i) A representative of municipal interests, nominated by the New Hampshire Municipal Association, and appointed by the governor.
 - (j) A representative of the Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests, nominated by the society, and appointed by the governor.
 - (k) A representative of the New Hampshire Farm Bureau, nominated by the bureau, and appointed by the governor.
 - (l) A representative of recreational interests, appointed by the governor.
 - (m) A representative of the joint board of professional engineers, architects, land surveyors, foresters, professional geologists, and natural scientists who shall be a hydrologist or geologist, appointed by the governor.
 - (n) A representative of the New Hampshire Association of Conservation Commissions, nominated by the association, and appointed by the governor.
 - (o) A representative of construction and mining activities, nominated by the Associated General Contractors of New Hampshire, and appointed by the governor.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Duties. The commission shall study ways to bring a balanced approach to water use among residential, public water supply, industrial, commercial, agricultural, energy, recreational, and other water users, and to improve the current process by which new water users may reasonably and efficiently use state water resources, including consideration of potential regional impacts and local water management issues, in order to best protect and preserve an adequate supply of water for the state with particular attention to groundwater. This study shall include consideration of issues such as potential impacts on New Hampshire's environment, property rights as they relate to groundwater, possible fees on water withdrawals, and the protection of New Hampshire's aquifers. The commission may address other issues related to water.

Amend the bill by replacing section 5 with the following:

5 Report. The commission shall make an interim report of its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the senate president, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 2003. The commission shall make a final report of its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the senate president, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 2004.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a commission to study issues relative to groundwater withdrawals.

SB 54-FN-L, relative to the local inventory of property values for assessment of property taxes. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Eric G. Stohl for Municipal and County Government: This bill, as amended, strengthens the requirement for municipalities to report the assessed inventory of property within their bounds by September 1st of each year and increases the penalty to $100 per day for willful neglect or intentional disregard of that requirement. It clarifies the fact that all properties shall be assessed their value as of April 1st of every year and makes a gender neutral language adjustment. In addition, this bill establishes a 4-year moratorium on the proposed standards for the certification requirements that were to be placed upon municipalities. The committee feels that these standards may have an inequitable impact on municipalities within the state due to differences among municipalities in such characteristics as size, parcel count, number of sales and geographic location. The committee feels it is necessary to further analyze the assessing practices of the states' political subdivisions. This analysis can be accomplished by using the assessing standards board's recommended standards as goals for a measurement tool, rather than as certification requirements, in the first 4 years of the process. The results of measuring these goals can then be analyzed for the state's large and small political subdivisions, with a report to be made to the municipalities and through the assessing standards board to the general court Vote 11-0.

Amendment (1750h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following

AN ACT relative to the local inventory of property values for assessment of property taxes, and relative to municipal property assessment certification goals of the department of revenue administration.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Department of Revenue Administration; Equalization Procedure. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 21-J:9-a to read as follows:

The following procedures shall apply in determining the equalization of property within the cities, towns, and unincorporated places as required by RSA 21-J:3, XIII, but shall not affect a municipality's requirements for inventory of property and assessment of taxes as of April 1:

2 Inventory of Property; September 1 Deadline; Penalty Added. Amend RSA 21-J:34 to read as follows:

1. A report filed by the governing body of each city, town, ~~or unincorporated [town, and un-~~ organized] place, shall certify the number of residents and total valuation of each class of property included in the inventory of residents and ratable estates. This report shall be filed by September 1 of each year, unless this filing date is extended by the commissioner for just cause. Municipalities which fail to timely file the report required by this paragraph due to willful neglect or intentional disregard of laws or rules and not reasonable cause shall pay a penalty to the state in the amount of $100 for each day that the report is not timely filed. Within 30 days after the imposition of the penalty by the commissioner, officials of the city, town, or unincorporated place upon which the penalty was imposed may appeal by written application to the board of tax and land appeals or the superior court in the county in which the city, town, or unincorporated place is located. The board of tax and land appeals or the superior court, as the case may be, shall determine de novo the correctness of the commissioner's actions.

3 Property Taxation; Annual List. Amend RSA 74:1 to read as follows:

74:1 Annual List. The selectmen of each town shall annually~~[in April]~~ make a list of all the polls and shall take an inventory of all the estate liable to be taxed in such town ~~[on the first day of that month]~~ as of April 1.

4 Gender Neutral; Property Tax Inventory List. Amend RSA 76:10 to read as follows:

76:10 Selectmen's Lists and Warrant. A list of all property taxes by them assessed shall be made by the selectmen under their hands, with a warrant under their hands and seal. The list shall be directed to the collector of such town, requiring ~~[him]~~ the collector to collect the same, and to pay to the town treasurer such sums and at such times as may be therein prescribed. The selectmen shall assess such taxes to the owner as of April 1, or to the current owner, if known. The selectmen of a town or the board of assessors of a city may round off to the nearest dollar the total tax due on each parcel appearing on the list.

5 Findings and Intent; Sections 6-15. The general court recognizes all the work in creating a set of proposed standards for the certification of assessments. There is reason for concern, however, that these standards may have an inequitable impact on municipalities within the state due to differences between municipalities in such characteristics as size, parcel count, number of sales, and geographic location. Therefore, the general court finds that in order for the state to continue to implement fair and equitable assessing practices, it is necessary to further analyze the assessing practices of the state's political subdivisions. This analysis can be accomplished by using the assessing standards board's recommended standards as goals for a measurement tool, rather than as certification requirements, in the first 4 years of the process. The results of measuring these goals can then be analyzed for the state's large and small political subdivisions, with a report to be made to the municipalities and through the assessing standards board to the general court.

6 Duties of Commissioner of Revenue Administration; Assessment; Equalization. Amend RSA 21-J:3, XXV and XXVI to read as follows:

XXV. Petition the board of tax and land appeals to issue an order for reassessment of property pursuant to the board's powers under RSA 71-B:16-19 whenever the valuation of property, for equalization purposes, in a particular city, town, or unincorporated place is disproportional to the valuation, for equalization purposes, of ~~[other]~~ property ~~[within that city, town, or unincorporated place]~~ in other cities, towns, or unincorporated places in the state, or whenever the municipality has not complied with RSA 75:8-a.

XXVI. Review and report each municipality's assessments once within every 5 years ~~[and certify the assessments of the municipality if such assessments are valued in accordance with RSA 75:1. In carrying out the duty to certify the assessments of property, the commissioner shall follow the procedures set forth in]~~ pursuant to RSA 21-J:11-a, II.

7 Assessment Certification Revised; Implementation of Assessment Goals. Amend RSA 21-J:11-a and RSA 21-J:11-b to read as follows:

21-J:11-a [Certification of Assessments] Report of Assessment Certification Goal Achievement.

I. The commissioner shall ~~[certify that the assessments of a municipality comply with the provisions of RSA 75:1 when the commissioner determines that]~~ report the degree to which assessments of a municipality achieve substantial compliance with applicable statutes and rules. The commissioner may consider whether:

(a) Level of assessments and uniformity of assessments are within ~~[acceptable]~~ suggested ranges as prescribed by state assessing standards by considering, where appropriate, an assessment-to-sales-ratio study conducted by the department for the municipality;

(b) Assessment practices substantially comply with applicable statutes and rules;

(c) Exemption~~[-]~~ and credit~~[-and abatement]~~ procedures substantially comply with applicable statutes and rules;

(d) Assessments are based on reasonably accurate data; and

(e) Assessments of various types of properties are reasonably proportional to other types of properties within the municipality.

II. ~~[If the commissioner does not certify that the assessments of a municipality comply with RSA 75:1, the commissioner shall order in writing those corrective actions, including the time for completion, deemed necessary to assess the municipality's property in accordance with RSA 75:1; and:~~

(a) If the governing body of the municipality agrees with the commissioner's determination, the municipality shall complete the corrective actions within the time prescribed by the commissioner;

(b) If the governing body of the municipality does not agree with the commissioner's determination not to certify its assessments, with the corrective actions ordered, or the time allowed for completion, the commissioner shall petition the board of tax and land appeals to order that the municipality's property is not assessed in accordance with RSA 75:1 and to order such corrective action necessary to ensure that the municipality's assessment are in accordance with RSA 75:1.

III. The commissioner shall adopt rules under RSA 541-A relative to acceptable ranges of level of assessments and uniformity of assessments, procedures for review of assessment practices, and procedures and forms for the commissioner's certification of assessments. Rules adopted by the commissioner under this paragraph shall remain effective until the assessing standards board adopts rules under RSA 21-J:14-b, II.

IV.] The commissioner shall issue a copy of the report upon its completion to the municipality and to the assessing standards board. When issued, the report shall be a public document.

III. The assessing standards board shall study and recommend to the legislature whether municipalities should be reimbursed for expenses incurred as a result of changes in assessment practices resulting from legislation enacted in response to the judicial interpretation of part 2, article 6 of the New Hampshire constitution in Evelyn Sirrell et al v State of New Hampshire et al and, if reimbursement is appropriate, shall recommend a formula for implementation of a reimbursement program.

21-J:11-b Implementation of [Certification] Assessment Goals.

I. The commissioner of revenue administration shall adopt a schedule so that each city, town, and unincorporated place has its assessments reviewed within 5 years of April 1, 2002, and shall notify each city, town, and unincorporated place, within 60 days of passage of this act, of the property tax year for which their initial assessment certification goal achievement review shall occur.

(d) The establishment of [standards] recommended goals for monitoring of local assessment practices by the department of revenue administration, [standards] recommended goals for the adequacy of tax maps and other records, and [standards] recommended goals for audit by the department of revenue administration of municipalities.

9 Assessing Standards Board; Goals. Amend RSA 21-J:14-b, II to read as follows:

II. All [standards] goals and practices developed or identified by the board, pursuant to this section, shall be reviewed and updated annually. The board shall hold a series of at least 3 public forums annually throughout the state to receive general comment through verbal and written testimony on assessing [standards] goals and practices. After the public forums are concluded and the board has made its recommended changes, in accordance with paragraph III, the board shall proceed to adopt any proposed rules.

10 Setting of Tax Rates. Amend RSA 21-J:35, I to read as follows:

I. The commissioner of revenue administration shall compute and establish the tax rate of each town, city, or unincorporated place. Any [decision] report by the commissioner [~~not to certify the assessments~~] relative to assessment certification goal achievement of a municipality pursuant to RSA 21-J:11-a shall not delay or otherwise affect the setting of the tax rate for that municipality.

80:4 Powers of Collector. Every collector, in the collection of taxes committed to him and in the service of his warrant, shall have the powers vested in constables in the service of civil process, which shall continue until all the taxes in his list are collected. Any ~~decision~~ report by the commissioner ~~[not to certify the assessments]~~ relative to assessment certification goal achievement of a municipality pursuant to RSA 21-J:11-a shall not affect the authority of the tax collector to issue tax bills and to exercise all powers contained in this chapter for the collection of taxes.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Reps. Wendelboe, Joseph Manning and Leber addressed the House.

Rep. Stone requested that the remarks of Rep. Joseph Manning and Leber be printed in the Permanent Journal.

Without objection, the Speaker so ordered.

Rep. Joseph Manning: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Well, he made us laugh and forget our troubles a long time ago when we were young and in harm's way and a long way from home. Today is his 100th birthday, so I want to say "Happy Birthday, Bob, thanks for the memories."

Rep. Leber: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I want to ditto that. I hope this is not considered a frivolous request for Unanimous Consent. But, I did not want the day to go by without recognizing the 100th birthday of Bob Hope. I know that I was a boy on a farm during World War II and I saw my two brothers go off to the US Navy and to the war. On Movietone News we watched as Bob Hope entertained those people at the front and in the war, you see all those faces out there. My brothers didn't get to see Bob Hope, by the way. As I grew older and went into the Air Force during the Korean War, I used to see the movies of Bob Hope entertaining the troops on those frozen hills of Korea. I never got to Korea so I didn't get to see Bob Hope. During the Cold War, we flew him around from McGuire on C-18s to various places in Europe to entertain the troops at Christmas. I never got those flights and I never got to see Bob Hope. But finally, in Vietnam, in Nha Trang, the Christmas of '64, I got to see Bob Hope entertaining the troops and my face was one of those out there. You can't imagine what a lift it gives you when you are away from home at Christmas and they bring the entertainment to you. Bob Hope is such a great guy, and I thought that would be enough, but in 1971 the war was still going on and I had an assignment to U-Tapao, Thailand and I got to see Bob Hope again. It was just a bigger thrill the second time. I would appreciate it if you would join me in wishing Bob Hope, "Happy 100th Birthday." And I ask the Speaker to send a resolution or declaration to Bob Hope from the New Hampshire House that we recognized his great service to this country and thanks a lot Bob, thanks for the memories.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Rep. Hess moved that the Consent Calendar with the relevant amendments as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

SB 161, relative to procedures in eminent domain proceedings, removed by Rep. Edwin Smith.

SB 15, relative to Election Day registration. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Harriet E. Cady for Election Law: The sponsors of this bill believe another bill, HB 627 is a more comprehensive law and includes the intent the sponsors had regarding election day registration. This bill would have provided another form for voter registration, which was not as comprehensive as the House passed bill. Vote 12-0.

SB 17, relative to incompatible offices. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Howard C. Dickinson for Election Law: This bill addresses the same issue as HB 394, which passed the House on March 20th and is far more inclusive. The prime sponsor of this bill is a co-sponsor of HB 394 and agrees that this bill is no longer necessary. Vote 12-0.

SB 16-FN, establishing the governor's incentive and reward program. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Joseph E. Stone for Finance: In the 2004 and 2005 budget as passed by the House, the Governor has an incentive and reward program funded by his salary transferred to this program. In 1983, RSA 99:E became law and it established an incentive program for extraordinary employee service and original suggestions for improving government operation, safety and efficiency. Under the program the total of awards granted in any fiscal year could not exceed $10,000. SB 16 which upon passage repeals RSA 99:E, has the same objectives, however, the financial rewards are either $10,000 or 10% of the cost savings in the first year of implementation for each award. The funding for the program comes from the savings brought forth by the recommendation of the employee. Furthermore, upon passage, the Finance Committee recommends the executive branch make a concentrated effort to notify all state employees of the program. Vote 18-0.

SB 23-FN, allowing veterans the right to purchase credit in the retirement system for certain service in the armed forces. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. MaryAnn N. Blanchard for Finance: This bill will increase state restricted expenditures (retirement funds) by $5,000 each year and has no impact on local, county, or state expenditures. Vote 18-0.

SB 46-FN, repealing the meat inspection account and the poultry inspection account. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Frederick W. King for Finance: This bill retires the meat inspection special account. New Hampshire does not conduct inspections of slaughterhouses and has not done so for the past 30 years or more. This special account is no longer needed. Vote 22-0.

SB 58-FN-A, relative to the net operating loss under the business profits tax. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: States compete with each other to attract businesses. Most of New Hampshire's taxes make us very competitive. However, our business taxes are in the higher echelon. Many states allow a discount from taxes paid, or owed, when a company suffers a loss in a tax year. Our existing law mirrored federal tax code by requiring losses to be carried back against the previous three years profits before any remaining losses could be carried forward as a credit against future profit. Carry-backs make revenue estimates difficult. When the business cycle is in decline, not only are revenues reduced from estimates, but the state must also write rebate checks from taxes that have already been spent. This would be a double hit. The Department of Revenue Administration dealt with this by prohibiting amended returns. The result was that carry back losses became "phantom" losses, and no allowances against taxes could be taken. This bill removes the contradiction between law and rule, and allows losses to be carried forward progressively increasing to as many as ten years after 2007 to a maximum of one million. This shifts credits to the upside of the business cycle, delaying incremental revenue loss until there is a positive trend in revenue. Vote 19-0.

SB 69-FN-A, combining the career incentive program and the nursing leveraged scholarship loan program within the department of postsecondary education, and establishing a workforce incentive program within the department of postsecondary education, and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Elizabeth S. Hager for Finance: This is an important change in our postsecondary education laws. The committee made no change in the $1 appropriation. The committee of conference on the budget may revisit this amount. Vote 21-0.

SB 80, relative to vocational education and the automotive technology curriculum. OUGHT TO PASS
Rep. Marjorie K. Smith for Finance: There are currently 18 regional career and technical education centers that offer courses in automotive technology. Each of the centers is trying to obtain certification from the national body which would make it possible for those who complete these secondary level courses to move on to postsecondary level courses. After satisfactory completion at the postsecondary level, graduates could be certified in a field which is currently significantly understaffed. The bill supports the importance of this training, establishes operational frameworks and the ability to accept matching funds already offered by the NH Automobile Dealers Association. A maximum of $90,000 in state funding would be required but no state funds are appropriated by this bill. Vote 21-0.

SB 85-FN, making certain revisions to the special education laws. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Elizabeth S. Hager for Finance: This bill came about as the result of a 2000 federal audit. It makes certain changes in the language of state special education laws to clarify existing policy or conform with state law. There is no impact on state, county, or local revenue or expenditures. Vote 21-0.

Amendment (1652h)

Amend RSA 186-C:18, VI (a) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(a) Catastrophic aid payments under paragraph III on or before January 1 [~~of School~~], provided that school districts shall annually submit their catastrophic costs for the immediately preceding school year to the state board of education by [~~June 30~~] July 31 [~~of each fiscal year~~]. The state board of education shall then verify the cost and distribute the appropriate amounts for the previous [~~fiscal~~] year on or before January 1 of each [~~fiscal~~] year.

SB 86-FN, relative to disclosure of certain information about child fatalities and near fatalities resulting from abuse and neglect, and relative to accreditation of the department of health and human services by the Council on Accreditation for Children and Family Services. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Fran Wendelboe for Finance: This bill requires the Department of Health and Human Services to disclose certain information on abuse and neglect cases if there has been a fatality or near fatality. It also extends the reporting date for the pilot project relative to abuse and neglect hearings in Grafton County. The finance committee amendment makes changes affecting the section that requires the Department of Health and Human Services to submit a plan to obtain accreditation by the Council of Accreditation for Children and Family Services by July 1, 2007. The amendment removes the requirement that we qualify for accreditation by July 1, 2007 but directs the Department to bring additional information that would also demonstrate outcomes as well as what the cost of meeting the accreditation standards would be to the state. The bill as presented would have set the state on the path to accreditation regardless of cost or outcomes. The committee also deleted a section dealing with the LBA auditing compliance to meet the 2007 deadline because the deadline was removed. Vote 21-0.

Amend the bill by replacing section 4 with the following:

4 Department of Health and Human Services; Plan for Accreditation by the Council on Accreditation for Children and Family Services. The department of health and human services shall develop a plan for the department to achieve accreditation by the Council on Accreditation for Children and Family Services, Inc. The plan shall contain (1) inputs, including staffing requirements, a timetable for achieving those requirements, projected budgets for achieving those requirements, and any other costs associated with achieving accreditation, and (2) outcomes, including an assessment, based on statistical and other evidence, of the impact of accreditation on the number of abused and neglected children, the nature of their abuse and neglect and the relationships between such children and their families. The plan shall be submitted by February 1, 2004 to the governor, the president of the senate, the chairs of the finance and public institutions, health and human services committees of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the chairs of the finance and children and family law committees of the house of representatives, the legislative budget assistant, the advisory board established in RSA 170-G:6, and the New Hampshire child fatality review committee.

Amend the bill by deleting section 5 and renumbering the original sections 6-8 to read as 5-7, respectively.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Requires the department of health and human services to publicly disclose certain information regarding abuse and neglect cases if the disclosure would not be contrary to the best interests of the child and if there has been a fatality or near fatality resulting from abuse or neglect.

II. Requires the department of health and human services to submit a plan to obtain accreditation by the Council on Accreditation for Children and Family Services.

III. Extends the reporting date for the pilot project relative to abuse and neglect hearings in Grafton county.

SB 90-FN, increasing the cap for relocation assistance for businesses in eminent domain proceedings. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert K. Dodge for Finance: This bill increases the cap for businesses in eminent domain proceedings from $10,000 to $100,000. The amount is for actual reasonable expenses necessary to reestablish a displaced farm, non-profit organization or small business at a new site, subsequent to eminent domain proceedings. Vote 21-0.

SB 179-FN-A, relative to positions in the banking department. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: This bill provides for the recommendation of a recent LBA audit and review of the Consumer Credit Division within the Banking Department to come to fruition. Additional positions are required to allow the commissioner to comply with current statutes and the funds are contained in the budget bill. The committee passed this bill to authorize the positions in the event of complications to the budget bill and amended it to take effect upon passage. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (1825h)

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SB 197-FN, relative to extended unemployment benefits and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: This bill provides 13 weeks of additional benefits to those who have exhausted benefits under the state Unemployment Compensation Program during the period from 6/1/02 to 12/28/03. The source of funding is federal dollars from the Reed Act in the amount of $38 million. There is no direct cost to New Hampshire employers. The current balance of the Unemployment Trust Fund (as of 5/03) is $268 million. Vote 18-0.

SB 77, relative to bond votes in school districts with official ballot voting procedures, and relative to adoption of revisions and the budget process in city charters. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert L. Theberge for Municipal and County Government: Official ballot voting has become a way of life in some municipalities and school districts, which are also statutorily called political subdivisions. If any political subdivision adopted the official ballot voting type of government under RSA 40:13, also known as SB 2, any change needed had to come to the legislature to be enacted and then the change would automatically happen at the local level. When the statute (RSA 33:8) was changed in 1997, a 3/5 vote for bonds and notes was all that was needed in those political subdivisions. In contrast, any political subdivision that adopted official ballot voting type of government under RSA 49D, also known as HB 141 charter process, a 2/3 vote for bonds and notes was required. Any updates, changes or adoption of a charter have to be voted upon by the legislative body of the political subdivision. One of the amendments to SB 77 allows these political subdivisions to determine whether a 3/5 or a 2/3 vote for bonds or notes will be required. Sections 2, 3 and 4 are non-germane amendments that had the required posting and public hearing prior to decisions made by the Committee. Section 2 adjusts the Coos County Apportionment for 2002 for Wentworth Location to correct an error in the Department of Revenues' calculation of the county tax. Section 3 ratifies the 2003 Hampton Beach Village District annual meeting because the posting of the warrant was one day later than required by state law. Vote 12-2.

Amendment (1842h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to town charter provisions for bond votes using official ballot voting procedures, relative to the 2003 apportionment of county taxes in Coos county, and ratifying the Hampton Beach village district annual meeting.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I Town Charters; Official Ballot Procedures; Bonds Issues. Amend RSA 49-D:3, II-a to read as follows:

II-a. Official ballot town meeting shall be a variation of the open town meeting which provides for voting on some or all warrant articles, including part or all of the annual town operating budget, by official ballot. In such event, the open town meeting shall be vested only with the limited authority to vote on all matters not voted on by official ballot. When an official ballot town meeting is included in any charter, the provisions of general law relative to town meetings, their warning, the right for petitioned articles at such meetings, and the conduct of such meetings~~[-and the type of majority required for bond issues]~~ shall apply to the official ballot and open town meeting in all respects. The majority vote required to approve bonds or notes shall be either 2/3 or 3/5 as adopted and provided for in the charter. If a charter is silent with regard to such required majority, then the majority vote shall be 2/3. When a charter provides for an official ballot town meeting it shall also specify with precision the budgetary items to be included on the official ballot, a finalization process for the annual budget, the process for public hearings, debate, discussion, and amendment of questions to be placed on the official ballot, the procedures for the transfer of funds among various departments, funds, accounts, and agencies as may be necessary during the year, and the applicability of the official ballot procedure to special meetings. All voting by official ballot shall be in accordance with the procedures established in RSA 669:19-29, RSA 670:5-7 and RSA 671:20-30, including all requirements pertaining to absentee voting, polling places, and polling hours. Nonbudgetary items may be placed on the official ballot pursuant to this section notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 40:4-e and RSA 39:3-d.

2 Adjustment to Coos County Apportionment for 2002; Wentworth's Location Warrant. As a modification to the 2003 property tax rates, the department of revenue administration shall adjust the 2003 Coos county apportionment among cities, towns, and unincorporated places by the amount of $11,257, which is equal to the 2002 apportionment for Wentworth's Location resulting from an incorrect application of the 2001 equalized valuation percentage. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the tax year beginning April 1, 2003, the equalized value to be used to calculate the statewide education property tax warrant for the unincorporated place of Wentworth's Location shall be $5,567,771.

3 Ratification of the 2003 Hampton Beach Village District Annual Meeting. All acts, notices, votes, and proceedings of the Hampton Beach village district annual meeting held on March 28, 2003 are hereby legalized, ratified, and confirmed.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

- I. Allows political subdivisions that have adopted a town charter the option of a 2/3 or a 3/5 majority when voting on bonds or notes.
- II. Requires the department of revenue administration to adjust the 2003 county taxes for Coos county and the statewide education property tax warrant for Wentworth's Location.
- III. Ratifies the 2003 Hampton Beach village district annual meeting.

REGULAR CALENDAR

SB 21, relative to health insurance riders. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Donald H. Flanders for Commerce: This bill affects only health insurance for individuals and follows up on changes made two years ago to the rules for the individual market. Similar to what SB 110 does for the small group market, community rating was repealed two years ago in the individual market and health insurance companies are now allowed to "underwrite" their non-group or individual coverage. Unlike SB110, the individual market does not have guaranteed issue (whereby the insurance companies must offer their policies to everyone). If someone is unable to get health insurance in the individual market, they can get insurance from the high-risk pool. This bill will allow insurers in the individual market to offer a policy to a new customer (not for renewals) that excludes certain pre-existing conditions. So, instead of not making any offer to a person with a significant health condition, this bill authorizes insurers to place health insurance riders or endorsements on individual policies excluding coverage for certain specified medical conditions that existed prior to the issuance of coverage. At the hearing, the committee learned that typical exclusions are allergies and lower back pain. The coverage exclusion cannot apply to any other medical condition not related directly to the specific medical condition being excluded, and the committee added language requiring that the consumer be notified in writing and before buying the policy of all the conditions or complications that will be considered to be related to the excluded condition and therefore not covered. The insurer may exclude no more than two specified conditions. These exclusions shall not apply to services, benefits or options required by state or federal law to be included in the coverage. Persons with diabetes and other conditions that can have numerous of different kinds of complications will probably not be able to take advantage of this legislation and will most likely be referred to the high-risk pool. Vote 15-2.

Amendment (1707h)

Amend RSA 420-G:5, II as inserted by section I of the bill by inserting after subparagraph (j) the following new subparagraph:

(k) Any rider or endorsement used to reduce or deny payment for coverage otherwise included in the policy, shall include the name or specific description of the sickness or physical condition that is to be reduced or denied.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 110, relative to small group health insurance coverage. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. John B. Hunt for the Majority of Commerce: This bill has been in the making for several years. Similar legislation was introduced two sessions ago, but the committee felt at that time that the changes to the individual market needed to happen first. The reforms in this legislation are designed to bring more insurance companies and products back into the state and to make the small group health insurance market more competitive. The committee held many work sessions on this bill so that each element of the bill was understood and made sense for New Hampshire. Currently New Hampshire is a "community rated" state with only age and group size as allowable rating factors. What this means is that the premium paid in New Hampshire for a particular health benefit plan from a particular insurer will not differ by very much from one small employer to another. As predicted when this law was debated almost 10 years ago, the current law disfavored insurance companies offering indemnity type coverage, and many of them subsequently left the state. The vast majority of small employers now buy their coverage from a handful of HMOs. When the current law was passed, it was said to be model legislation that other states would adopt. About 12 states did pass community rating, but most states opted for a less restrictive scheme of rating parameters.

This legislation will reintroduce competition by bringing back insurance underwriting. The bill changes the age banding from 3:1 to 4:1, which will match what we did in the individual market. It changes the definition of the small group market from the current 1 to 100 employees to 1 to 50. For employers who have 51 to 100 employees and now will be treated as large employers, the amendment limits the extent to which insurers can underwrite the group based on that group's own experience. New Hampshire was the only state that went to 100 for its definition of small employers. Every other state stops at 50 employees. This legislation also permits the use of new rating factors for industry classification, health status, and geographic location. There is a specified range that limits the extent to which each factor can be used, and in every case these ranges are similar to or more stringent than what most other states allow. The one factor that seemed to generate the most controversy was geographic location. Ironically, this is the one of the factors that is permitted without limitation by the vast majority of the other states. The Insurance Department reported that it believes that the north country and the sea coast could be the areas most affected by the introduction of increased rating flexibility due to the higher medical loss ratios reported by insurers writing in those regions. However, the Department believes that this impact is not solely attributable to geographic rating.

Although the legislation has caps on how much any one group's premium can go up, the committee is confident that the reintroduction of competition and more product choice will tend to limit the extent to which higher risk groups experience premium increases, making the caps largely unnecessary. Other insurance such as auto and life have very few limits or restrictions on rating factors, and New Hampshire has a very competitive and reasonably priced market for those types of insurance. The assumption that someone will be rated to the maximum of each factor is not how insurance underwriting works. Not all companies use all the factors, and not all companies that use a factor do so to the maximum extent allowable. Rating factors are just underwriting tools, and insurance companies often adjust a customer down to get their business. To say certain areas or people will be severely disadvantaged by allowing the use of rating factors is to disregard how insurance underwriting works and what is happening in other states. The committee also amended this bill to add new reporting requirements concerning the use of rating factors by insurers and creating an oversight committee to report annually on the impact of this legislation. This bill strikes a good balance between current law and the laws that exist in the many states that allow even greater underwriting flexibility in the small group market Vote 10-8.

Rep. Matthew J. Quandt for the Minority of Commerce: The minority approaches healthcare reform from the perspective that 91% of New Hampshire adults and children have healthcare. We are the healthiest state in the United States. Further, 76% of those insured receive their insurance from their employers who are in the small group market. Therefore, when altering the small group market any legislation should do so from the premise of not reducing the amount of insured. At the heart of the legislation is underwriting and the ability of insurers to manipulate the risk pool. In the case of SB 110, it will be easier for insurers to segregate the healthy from the unhealthy. The proponents of this bill say that these changes will create competition amongst insurers and therefore drive down premiums. Upon exhaustive hearings and a plethora of information provided to the committee, there was not evidence that there would be a decrease in premiums. The best that the proponents could say was that premiums would not go up as much and there would be new products introduced into the market. The minority felt that an unintended consequence could be an increase in uninsured. Further, the bill does not address the underlying costs that are driving healthcare-utilization and administration. Recognizing the importance of the legislation and the need to create appropriate competition, the minority felt that the bill should be retained and worked on in combination with two other bills retained by the committee, HB 265 and HB 652 which address the cost drivers of healthcare.

Majority Amendment (1713h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to small group health insurance coverage and relative to health plan loss information.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Definition; "Base Rate." RSA 420-G:2, 1 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

I. "Base rate" means a single rate reflecting the carrier's average cost of actual or anticipated claims for all health coverages or health benefit plans the carrier writes and maintains in a market, including the nongroup individual health insurance market and the small employer group health insurance market.

2 New Paragraph; Definition Added. Amend RSA 420-G:2 by inserting after paragraph IX the following new paragraph:

IX-a. "Health coverage plan rate" means a rate that is uniquely determined for each of the coverages or health benefit plans a health carrier writes and that is derived from the base rate through the application of factors that reflect actuarially demonstrated differences in expected utilization or cost attributable to differences in the coverage design and/or the provider contracts that support the coverage.

3 Definition of Large Employer. Amend RSA 420-G:2, XII(a) to read as follows:

XII.(a) "Large employer" means an employer that employed on average at least ~~[101]~~ 51 persons, on business days, during the previous calendar year.

4 Definition of a Small Employer. Amend RSA 420-G:2, XVI(a) to read as follows:

XVI.(a) "Small employer" means a business or organization which employed on average, one and up to ~~[100]~~ 50 employees, including owners and self-employed persons, on business days during the previous calendar year. A small employer is subject to this chapter whether or not it becomes part of an association, multi-employer plan, trust, or any other entity cited in RSA 420-G:3 provided it meets this definition.

5 Premium Rates for Small Employers. RSA 420-G:4, I is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

1. Health carriers providing health coverage to individuals and small employers under this chapter shall be subject to the following:

(a) All premiums charged shall be guaranteed for at least 12 months, unless otherwise allowed by the commissioner.

(b) Base rate shall be established by each health carrier for all of its health coverages offered to individuals and, separately, for all of its health coverages offered to small employers.

(c) Health carriers shall calculate health coverage plan rates for each of the coverages or health benefit plans written by that carrier. Variations in health coverage plan rates shall be solely attributable to variations in expected utilization or cost due to differences in coverage design and/or the provider contracts or other provider costs associated with specific coverages and shall not reflect differences due to the nature of the groups or eligible persons assumed to select particular health coverages.

(d) In establishing the premium charged, health carriers providing coverage to individuals shall calculate a rate that is derived from the health coverage plan rate through the application of rating factors that the carrier chooses to utilize for age, health status, and tobacco use. Such factors may be utilized only in accordance with the following limitations:

(1) The maximum premium differential for age as determined by ratio shall be 4 to 1. The limitation shall not apply for determining rates for an attained age of less than 19.

(2) The maximum differential due to health status shall be 1.5 to 1 and the maximum differential rate due to tobacco use shall be 1.5 to 1. Rate limitations based on health status do not apply to rate variations based on an insured's status as a tobacco user.

(3) Permissible rating characteristics shall not include changes in health status after issue.

(e) In establishing the premium charged, health carriers providing coverage to small employers shall calculate a rate that is derived from the health coverage plan rate through the application of rating factors that the carrier chooses to utilize for age, group size, industry classification, geographic location, and health status. Such factors may be utilized only in accordance with the following limitations:

(1) Carriers may use the attained age of covered persons as a rating factor. However, the maximum premium differential for age as determined by ratio shall be 4 to 1 beginning with age 19.

(2) Carriers modifying such average premium for age may do so only by using the following age brackets:

0 - 18
 19 - 24
 25 - 29
 30 - 34
 35 - 39
 40 - 44
 45 - 49
 50 - 54
 55 - 59
 60 - 64

(3) Carriers may use group size as a rating factor. However, the highest factor based on group size shall not exceed the lowest factor based on group size by more than 20 percent; provided that for groups of one, an additional 10 percent rating factor shall be allowed from the highest factor.

(4) Carriers may use the small employer group's industry classification as a rating factor. However, the highest factor based on industry classification shall not exceed the lowest factor based on industry classification by more than 20 percent.

(5) Carriers may use the small employer group's geographic location as a rating factor. However, the highest factor based on geographic location shall not exceed the lowest factor based on geographic location by more than 15 percent.

(6) Carriers may use the health status of the small employer group as a rating factor. However, the application of a health status factor shall be subject to the following limitations:

(A) The health status factor may reflect health status of covered persons, the small employer's claim experience, or the duration of coverage since health statements were last provided.

(B) Variations from the arithmetic average of the highest rate charged to the lowest rate charged shall not exceed 25 percent.

(C) Upon the renewal of a small employer policy, any increase in the premium rate that is solely attributable to changes in the health status factor from the prior year shall be no more than 15 percent.

(7) Upon the renewal of a small employer policy, a carrier is prohibited from increasing the premium rate by more than 25 percent of the rate that was charged in the preceding year. Such rate increase limitation shall not include any premium rate increase that is based on a carrier's annual cost and utilization trends or changes in the rating factor for attained age of covered persons.

(f) Each rating factor that a carrier chooses to utilize shall be reflective of claim cost variations that correlate with that factor independently of claim cost variations that correlate with any of the other allowable factors.

(g) The same rating methodology shall apply to newly covered individuals and to individuals renewing at each annual renewal date, or to new small employers and small employers renewing at each annual renewal date or anniversary date. Rating methodology shall not be construed to include health carrier incentives to individual subscribers or members to participate in wellness and fitness programs provided such incentives are approved by the insurance department.

(h) The commissioner shall not approve any filing if such filing is excessive, inadequate or contrary to the intent of this chapter.

6 New Paragraph; Premium Rates. Amend RSA 420-G:4 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. A health carrier, when determining the premium charged to a large employer group that employs from 51 to 100 employees, shall calculate the rate using a weighted average calculation consisting of the group's experience and the carrier's large employer group pool experience. The weight used for the group's experience shall be no more than 25 percent and the weight used for the experience of the carrier's large employer group pool shall be a minimum of 75 percent.

7 Medical Underwriting. RSA 420-G:5 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:
420-G:5 Medical Underwriting.

I Health carriers providing health coverage for individuals or small employer groups may perform medical underwriting, including the use of health statements or screenings or the use of prior claims history, to the extent necessary to establish or modify premium rates as provided in RSA 420-G:4. Such underwriting shall be limited to the use of a standardized health statement for use in adjustments to rating pursuant to RSA 420-G:4. The commissioner shall, by rule, require carriers to use standardized health statements.

II. Health carriers providing health coverage for individuals may refuse to write or issue coverage to an individual because of his or her health status. Regardless of claim experience, health status, or medical history, health carriers providing health coverage for small employers shall not refuse to write or issue any of their available coverages or health benefit plans to any small employer group that elects to be covered under that plan and agrees to make premium payments and meet the other requirements of the plan.

III. Health carriers providing health coverage for small employer groups shall not knowingly provide health coverage to groups where the employer has discriminated based on health status or claims history against any employee or potential employee or his or her dependents with respect to participation in an employer-sponsored health benefit plan.

IV. Health carriers shall not offer riders or endorsements to exclude certain illnesses or health conditions in order to avoid the purpose of this chapter.

V. Individual health insurance carriers shall be responsible for ascertaining the eligibility of any individual applicant or insured for high risk pool coverage. If a carrier determines that an individual meets any of the eligibility criteria set forth in RSA 404-G:5-e, the carrier shall give the individual written notice, with the declination of coverage, the coverage offering or upon a rate increase at renewal. The notice shall include information about available benefits and exclusions of high risk pool coverage and the name, address, and telephone number of the pool administrator or the administrator's designee.

VI. It shall constitute an unfair trade practice under RSA 417 for an insurer, insurance producer, or third party administrator to refer an individual employee to the pool, or arrange for an individual employee to apply to the pool, for the purpose of separating that employee from group health insurance coverage provided in connection with the employee's employment.

8 Qualified Association Trust. RSA 420-G:10 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

420-G:10 Qualified Association Trust.

I. A qualified association trust or other entity, as defined in RSA 420-G:2, XV, shall:

(a) Comply with the rating restrictions outlined in RSA 420-G:4 for all small employer members with 50 or fewer employees based upon the association's group experience, except that no rating factor shall be utilized without the express written consent of the association.

(b) Offer all eligible members, as defined under the applicable trust or other documents, coverage and rates on a guaranteed issue and renewable basis.

(c) Comply with the regulations concerning medical underwriting in RSA 420-G:5.

(d) Comply with the preexisting conditions provision of RSA 420-G:7.

II. Nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted to limit the size of employers who may participate in coverage with a qualified association trust.

9 Group Health Insurance; Health Plan Loss Information. RSA 420-G:12-a is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

420-G:12-a Health Plan Loss Information.

I. To ensure maximum competition in the purchase of group health insurance, all private and public employers with at least 50 employees enrolled in their group health plan shall be entitled to receive their specific health plan loss information upon request and without charge. No contract between any health carrier, third-party administrator, employer group or pool of employers shall abridge this right in any manner.

II. Upon written request from any private or public employer with 50 or more employees enrolled in its group health plan, every health carrier, third-party administrator, pooled risk management program under RSA 5-B or any other type of multiple employer health plan shall provide that employer's loss information within 30 calendar days of receipt of the request. The loss information shall include all physician, hospital, prescription drug, and other covered medical claims specific to the employer's group plan incurred for the 12-month period paid through the 14 months which end within the 60-day period prior to the date of the request. An employer shall not be entitled by this section to more than 2 loss information requests in any 12-month period; however, nothing shall prohibit a carrier from fulfilling more frequent requests on a mutually agreed-upon basis.

III. If an employer requests loss information from an insurance agent or other authorized representative, including an administrator of a pooled risk management program or a multiple employer health plan, the agent or authorized representative shall transmit the request to the health carrier or carriers or third-party administrator within 4 working days.

10 Commissioner's Requested Information. Amend RSA 420-G:14-a to read as follows:

420-G:14-a Requested Information.

I. As authorized in accordance with RSA 420-G:14, the commissioner may request the submission of such information by carriers as is necessary to better understand the coverage history and choices of participants in the nongroup market. The commissioner shall make every attempt to ensure the reasonableness of such request, both in terms of scope and timeframe, and to limit this request to information the commissioner deems necessary to better understand the dynamics of the nongroup health insurance market and to assess the appropriateness of alternative sources of funding for the nongroup subsidy.

II. The commissioner shall request and health carriers shall supply information no later than April 1 of each year sufficient to report on the distribution of rating factors being applied to small employers. The commissioner's report shall summarize the rating factors utilized by health carriers in the preceding calendar year.

III. The commissioner shall request and health carriers shall supply information no later than April 1 of each year sufficient to report on the types of health coverage being purchased by individuals and employers by geographic area. The report shall include specific details regarding the type of coverage, including, but not limited to, co-pays, out-of-pocket maximums, network restrictions, and deductibles.

IV. The commissioner shall file the required reports by July 1 of each year with the senate president, the speaker of the house, the chairperson of the house commerce committee, and the chairperson of the senate insurance committee.

11 Preexisting Condition Exclusion Periods. Amend RSA 420-G:7, I(a) to read as follows:

(a) No preexisting condition exclusion shall extend beyond a period of [3] 9 consecutive months ~~[while the person's health coverage is in force and during which the person incurred no medical treatment expenses in connection with the preexisting condition, or beyond 6 consecutive months while the person has been continuously covered and actively at work full-time, or beyond 12 months]~~ after the effective date of the person's health coverage; and

12 Preexisting Condition Exclusion Periods. Amend RSA 420-G:7, II(a) to read as follows:

(a) No preexisting condition exclusion period shall extend beyond a period of [3] 9 consecutive months ~~[ending while the individual's or covered person's health coverage is in force and during which the individual incurred no medical care treatment expenses in connection with the preexisting condition, or beyond 9 months following]~~ after the effective date of the person's health coverage.

13 New Section; Legislative Oversight Committee Established. Amend RSA 420-G by inserting after section 14-b the following new section:

420-G:14-c Legislative Oversight Committee.

I. There is hereby established a joint legislative oversight committee on small group health insurance reform. The committee shall review the reports filed by the commissioner pursuant to RSA 420-G:14-a, monitor the small group health insurance market in the state, and monitor the effect of SB 110 of the 2003 legislative session. The committee shall make recommendations for any legislative changes the committee deems necessary. The committee shall include 3 members, of the house, appointed by the speaker of the house and 2 senators, appointed by the president of the senate.

II. The committee shall submit a written report of its findings and recommendations to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the chairpersons of the house commerce committee and senate insurance committee on November 1 of each year.

14 Repeal. RSA 420-G:4, I(e)(7) relative to increasing the premium rate, is repealed.

18 Effective Date.

I. Section 9 of this act shall take effect September 1, 2003.

II. Section 14 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2005.

III. Section 15 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2006.

Ordered to third reading.

Rep. Headd declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

SB 76, relative to the process for nonrenewal of teacher contracts. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Mark Carter for the Majority of Education: This bill streamlines the process of appeal of non-renewal of teacher contracts by local school boards based on poor performance. Currently teachers are in a special position, unlike any other employee in the state, because they have multiple avenues of review of non-renewal decisions. These multiple reviews are time consuming and expensive for local school boards and ultimately deter non-renewal decisions. School boards are required to hire attorneys and expend teacher and administrator time (otherwise spent in the schools) in lengthy hearings appealing their decisions. The bill provides protections to school boards, parents and teachers. The bill continues to provide full due process rights to teachers. Superintendents are required to demonstrate at a local school board hearing that a teacher received written notice of unsatisfactory performance, had an opportunity to correct the performance, and that the teacher failed to correct the unsatisfactory performance. All decisions of local school boards may be appealed to the State Board of Education and shall be upheld unless they are shown to be clearly erroneous. This procedure provides great weight to decisions made by the local school boards. The bill also provides that non-renewal decisions shall not be subject to binding arbitration. Binding arbitration hearings are an additional cost to local taxpayers. This provision does not impact binding arbitration on any other teacher contract matters other than non-renewal for unsatisfactory performance. The House has overwhelmingly passed this legislation three times since 1999. This proposal has the support of the Speaker, the Governor, the NH School Boards Association, and the NH School Administrators Association. The passage of this bill will improve the quality of teaching in the state and is crucial to education reform. Vote 11-7.

Rep. James T. Dunn for the Minority of Education: This legislation is an egregious assault on local control by removing from existing collective bargaining agreements binding arbitration as those agreements expire. This legislation takes away from teacher's valuable protection from arbitrary and capricious dismissal. The minority thinks that if bad teachers exist in New Hampshire schools, perhaps administrators need further training in evaluation, and dismissal procedure as outlined in the collective bargaining agreement. Therefore the minority offers an amendment to clarify continuing contract non-renewal.

Rep. James Dunn offered the minority amendment (1305h).

Minority Amendment (1305h)

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 3 with the following:

4 Review of Nonrenewal Decision. RSA 189:14-b is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:
189:14-b Appeal of Nonrenewal Decision.

I. A teacher aggrieved by a nonrenewal decision may appeal to the school board and superintendent for review of such decision. The petition for appeal shall be in writing and submitted to the superintendent within 10 days of the nonrenewal decision. Upon receipt of such petition, the superintendent shall notify the school board and shall schedule a hearing within 10 days of receipt of the petition. A decision shall be issued in writing within 10 days after the hearing.

II. A teacher aggrieved by an unfavorable decision issued under paragraph I may, within 10 days of such decision, request binding arbitration. An arbitrator certified by the American Arbitration Association shall be agreed upon by the parties and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both parties. The parties involved shall share the costs of arbitration in equal measure.

III. The procedures set forth in this section constitute the exclusive remedy available on the issue of nonrenewal of a teacher's contract.

5 Applicability. Section 4 of this act shall not be construed to alter, amend, or modify any existing collective bargaining agreement in effect upon the effective date of this act, but shall apply upon the expiration and subsequent renegotiation of each collective bargaining agreement.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the process for nonrenewal of teacher contracts and the appeal of nonrenewal decisions.

Rep. Dunn spoke in favor.

Reps. Carson and Alger spoke against.

On a division vote, 124 members having voted in the affirmative and 229 in the negative, the minority amendment failed.

Reps. Sandra Harris, Souza, DiFruscia and Hagan spoke against.

Reps. Mark Carter and Carson spoke in favor.

Rep. Mark Carter requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being adoption of the majority report.

and the majority report was adopted.

Rep. Naro declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

PROTEST

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Pelletier requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

Under Part Second, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, I hereby register my protest of the vote of the New Hampshire House of Representatives by which it passed SB 76, relative to the process of non-renewal of teacher contracts and to have this protest entered on the journal of these proceedings. SB 76 represents an unwarranted and unprecedented intrusion of the state into local control especially whereby it stipulates that non-renewal decisions shall not be subject to binding arbitration and where such a provision exists in collective bargaining agreements, upon their expiration, that provision may never be included in future agreements.

RECONSIDERATION

Having voted with the prevailing side, Rep. Alger moved that the House reconsider its action whereby it voted SB 76, relative to the process for nonrenewal of teacher contracts, Ought To Pass, and spoke against.
Reconsideration failed.

SB 123, establishing a commission to study structures for increased voter education and improved enforcement of campaign practices laws. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Howard C. Dickinson for the Majority of Election Law: The majority of the committee felt that this study commission was a duplicate of the voter/official educational and training process mandated by the Help America Vote Act (HAVA) and currently being developed as an ongoing program that will take place starting this summer and fall of this year. Yet, the amended version of SB 123 would not even have a preliminary report until December 01, 2004. It is important to move HAVA along in a schedule that meets federal law. All the provisions of SB 123 were composed prior to the passage of the Help America Vote Act. So, with the advent of HAVA, SB 123 is preempted as its contents are being addressed under HAVA. As of this date, New Hampshire has complied with the federal requirements and thus recently received the first $5,000,000 installment to the election fund in the state treasury. We should not delay the process by calling for parallel study of a program that should and will be underway by the election of September–November 2004. Vote 6-5.

Rep. Charles F. Weed for the Minority of Election Law: The bipartisan minority is concerned that leaving the education of voters and election officials to the unfolding of the implementation of the Help America Vote Act leaves this required education effort in a state of limbo. Although we recognize there is an advisory state plan committee, the draft preliminary state plan appears to leave education of voters and election officials to the secretary of state. Whereas the commission in SB 123 would have included 8 members of both parties from the House and the Senate to make recommendation regarding electoral education compliant with campaign practices law, and the establishment of a “clean” elections board. Rep. Weed spoke against.

Rep. Dickinson spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Weed requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being adoption of the majority report.

SB 29-FN-A-L, refunding certain meals and rooms taxes paid by the city of Manchester. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert K. Dodge for Finance: The committee has compassion for the City of Manchester's plight. However, since the Department of Revenue Administration does have rules to be followed to recoup taxes that have been paid inappropriately, the committee feels that this is an issue that should be handled at the local level under the existing rules. Vote 12-6.

Reps. Infantine and Pepino spoke against.

Rep. Peter Sullivan spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Dodge spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

LAID ON THE TABLE

Rep. Pepino moved that SB 29-FN-A-L, refunding certain meals and rooms taxes paid by the city of Manchester, be laid on the table.

On a division vote, 183 members having voted in the affirmative and 152 in the negative, the motion was adopted.

SB 47-FN, relative to refunds for tolls paid on account of shrinkage or loss by evaporation of motor fuel. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: This bill reflects the advances in technology of the vapor recovery systems now installed at all gasoline stations. A one percent shrinkage allowance for evaporation is now paid to all retail gasoline dealers. The tax is collected from the wholesaler, so the allowance is a rebate to the retailer. This amount is close to one million dollars across the state. Reduction of the one percent to three-quarters of one percent means almost $250,000 gain in revenue to the highway fund. A multi-part amendment added by the committee adds revenue to the highway fund and assigns that revenue to specific 2003 budget shortfalls. One million in revenue is added by taking $200,000 from the fuel oil discharge cleanup fund; $700,000 from the motor oil discharge cleanup fund; and $100,000 from the oil pollution control fund. Of this million dollars, $600,000 is appropriated to the highway bridge betterment fund, $200,000 for state police overtime, and $200,000 to purchase highway enforcement equipment. The three funds will be left with sufficient operating cash. The highways have been damaged by the winter weather, and the state police have already served the overtime, but would otherwise be required to substitute compensatory time. Vote 13-6.

Amendment (1817h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to refunds for tolls paid on account of shrinkage or loss by evaporation of motor fuel, relative to a transfer of funds to the highway fund, and relative to oil import and underground storage facility fees.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

III. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the sum of $100,000 is hereby transferred from the New Hampshire oil pollution control fund established in RSA 146-A:11-a to the highway fund.

IV. The sum of $600,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2003 is hereby appropriated to the highway and bridge betterment account established in RSA 235:23-a. Said appropriation shall be a charge against the highway fund.

V. The sum of $200,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2003 is hereby appropriated to the department of safety for the purpose of compensating state police officers for overtime worked. Said appropriation shall be a charge against the highway fund.

3 Oil Import Fee. Amend RSA 146-A:11-b, II to read as follows:

II. Any person who imports or causes to be imported oil into the state, except those using oil pipelines, railroads, and highways to transport oil products between states other than

New Hampshire or for international transport of oil products, shall be licensed by the department of safety under this chapter. The annual fee for the license shall be [~~$5.00+~~] $0.00125 per gallon of oil imported into this state. The fee shall be paid monthly by such person to the department of safety. [~~and then deposited by]~~ The department of safety shall deposit the first $100,000 of fees paid in each fiscal year into the general fund. The remainder shall be deposited into the oil pollution control fund administered by the department of environmental services. Imposition of the fee shall be based on the records of the person and certified as accurate to the department of safety.

4 Interest Assessed on Overdue Oil Import Fees. Amend RSA 146-A:11-b, IV to read as follows:

IV. Every person who imports or causes to be imported oil shall file a monthly report for the preceding month and shall include all fees due for that reporting period with the department of safety on or before the twentieth day of the following calendar month. Failure to file by the required date or to enclose fees due shall result in the assessment of a 10 percent penalty to be added to the amount of fees due for that month. If no fees are due, a penalty of $1 per day shall be assessed. Said penalty shall immediately accrue and thereafter the overdue fees and the penalty shall bear interest at the rate established by the [~~Internal-Revenue Service effective on the first business day of the calendar year. To this rate shall be added 2 percent. In determining the monthly rate, that figure shall be rounded off to the nearest quarter percent~~] commissioner of safety under RSA 260:40-a. The department may waive all or any portion of penalties or interest for good cause.

5 Underground Storage Facility Permit. Amend RSA 146-C:4, II to read as follows:

II. The department shall issue or deny a permit to all facilities registered under RSA 146-C:3 within 90 days of the receipt of the complete registration information. A permit issued under this section shall be displayed on the premises of the underground storage facility at all times. Permits shall be valid for a period of 5 years[~~, except as provided in paragraph III~~].

6 Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. RSA 146-C:4, III, relative to underground storage facility permit fees.

II. RSA 146-C:9, IX, relative to collection of underground storage facility permit fees.

7 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1 and 3-6 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2003.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

I. Modifies the eligibility and procedures for road toll refunds based on shrinkage or loss by evaporation of motor fuel.

II. Transfers a total of $1,000,000 from certain dedicated funds to the highway fund and makes certain appropriations from the highway fund.

III. Increases the oil import license fee, changes the rate of interest assessed on overdue oil import fees, and repeals underground storage facility permit fees.

IV. Allocates the first $100,000 of oil import license fees paid in each fiscal year to the general fund.

Rep. Timothy Robertson spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Holbrook and Weyler spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Burling requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

The question being adoption of the committee amendment.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

Rep. Scott did not vote and wished to be recorded against.

SB 63-FN-A-L, relative to establishing community reinvestment and opportunity zones and granting business tax credits for investments in projects in such zones. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Elizabeth S. Hager for Finance: This is an important community development bill. It potentially costs the state up to $825,000 in business tax credits each year, cumulating to a maximum of $3.3 million in the fourth year, but it is the committee's belief that it will encourage business growth that will eventually result in more revenue. It should immediately aid in the creation of new jobs. The amendment simply removes a sentence that would have added the Fiscal Committee to the rule making process and says the Fiscal Committee will receive a report. Vote 18-1.

Amendment (1757h)

Amend RSA 162-N:8 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

162-N:8 Rules. The commissioner of revenue administration shall adopt rules, under RSA 541-A, relative to documentation of the credits claimed under this chapter. The commissioner of resources and economic development shall, in consultation with the executive director of the community development finance authority, adopt rules, under RSA 541-A, relative to the administration and implementation of this chapter. The rules adopted by the commissioner of resources and economic development shall include provisions relative to:

I. Establishment and certification of CROP zones.

II. Criteria for and approval of projects in CROP zones, including jobs per dollar thresholds.

III. Fees which the commissioner of resources and economic development may charge to each applicant to cover the reasonable costs of the state's administration of the applicant's participation in the CROP zone.

Amend RSA 162-N:9 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

162-N:9 Reports. The commissioner of resources and economic development shall furnish a report annually to the governor, the senate president, the speaker of the house, and the fiscal committee which describes the results of the CROP zone program, and shall include any recommendations for further legislation regarding CROP zones.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 107-FN-A-L, establishing a statewide education accountability system. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: The concept of accountability for our public schools has been well supported in the past year by the NH House of Representatives. The former governor vetoed those bills after they passed the legislature. Our present governor agrees with educational accountability and the federal No Child Left Behind Act (NCLBA) also requires it. Further, that act requires annual testing, a measurement tool that was not available to us previously. The committee amended the funding source to substitute federal funds for general funds. The NCLBA allows flexibility in the funds provided, to a greater extent than earlier grants. The House also supported HB 786 by a wide majority. That bill was to assure that New Hampshire would only participate in NCLBA to the extent that each of its parts were federally funded. Its text is added to SB 107 as an amendment at the request of the House Education Committee. Vote 13-6.

Amendment (1840h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a statewide education accountability system and relative to the participation of the state and its political subdivisions in the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001.

Amend RSA 193-C:9 as inserted by section 5 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

193-C:9 Local Education Improvement and Assessment; Funding.

I. The department of education is authorized to use any amounts appropriated for any of the following purposes:

- (a) To support and administer the local education improvement plan program.
- (b) To collect, analyze, and report the demographic and educational improvement data.
- (c) To assist local school staff with the analysis and use of school performance data.
- (d) To provide grants as available to school districts for local school improvement.
- (e) To provide a system of annual recognition to identify best practices and promote school improvement.

II. The priority for the use of any funds under this section shall be given to lower-performing schools.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 7 with the following:

10 Purpose. The federal No Child Left Behind Act (NCLBA) of 2001 (H.R. 1) directs those states that participate in it to make many meritorious improvements in their system of public education. Furthermore, contrary to state experience with other federal laws, NCLBA was enacted as a fully-funded federal law as directed by federal Public Law 104-4 of 1995 and section 9527 of NCLBA which curb the practice of imposing unfunded federal mandates on states and local governments. Therefore, the general court hereby directs that general funds not be expended on the NCLBA and that school districts also prohibited from such expenditures.

Compliance with the No Child Left Behind Act

21-N:12 Compliance with No Child Left Behind. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary:

I. No general funds of the state or any of its political subdivisions shall be appropriated, expended, or encumbered to implement the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLBA).

II. A school district or other political subdivision may, upon a majority vote of its legislative body, be exempt from all state administrative rules or regulations of any kind, adopted for the purpose of implementing NCLBA if the cost of compliance with such rules or regulations is not fully covered by the additional federal funds received by the school district or other political subdivision.

III. The state board of education and the commissioner of the department of education are hereby prohibited from adopting any new administrative rules or regulations, or amending existing administrative rules or regulations for the purpose of complying with NCLBA until 60 days after the submission of a written report detailing such new or amended rules or regulations to the house and senate education committees.

IV. No additional costs incurred by the state or any of its political subdivisions in implementing NCLBA shall be included in calculating the cost of an adequate education pursuant to RSA 198:40.

12 New Paragraph; Adequate Public Education; Statewide Testing. Amend RSA 193-E:3 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. The results of any statewide testing required under the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 shall be ranked by the commissioner of the department of education by individual school and grade level performance. The rankings shall be made available to the public arranged by numerical rank order and alphabetical order no later than 30 days after the results are available to the commissioner of the department of education. No test shall be ranked until the commissioner of the department of education submits to the house and senate education committees a written explanation of the ranking methodology to be used.

13 Report. No later than January 1 of each year, the commissioner of the department of education shall submit to the house and senate education and finance committees a statement of expenditures by the state and by school districts necessitated by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 in the immediately prior fiscal year, and the sources of funding used for such expenses.

14 Severability. If any provision of sections 10-13 of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

15 Contingency. If HB 1-A of the 2003 legislative session is enacted into law, sections 8-9 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2003 at 12:01 a.m. If HB 1-A of the 2003 legislative session is not enacted into law, sections 8-9 of this act shall not take effect.

16 Effective Date.

I. Paragraph II of section 6 of this act shall take effect June 30, 2005.

II. Section 8-9 of this act shall take effect as provided in section 15 of this act.

III. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Establishes a statewide education accountability system which includes school performance standards, the creation of an education improvement fund, and the development of a local school improvement plan in each school district.

II. Prohibits the spending of state general funds for compliance with the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLBA).

III. Allows school districts to exempt themselves from compliance with NCLBA by a majority vote of the legislative body if the cost of compliance is not fully covered by the additional federal funds received by the school district or other political subdivision.

IV. Directs the department of education to ensure that no costs associated with NCLBA shall be included in the calculation of the cost of an adequate education.

V. Requires the department of education to submit a financial report for expenditures and sources of funding to the house and senate education and finance committees on an annual basis.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 115, increasing the fees for review of subdivisions and waste disposal systems by the department of environmental services and making an appropriation for implementing information technology and regulatory process improvements. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: The current fees for sewage disposal system and subdivision plan review are inadequate to cover the costs of review and compliance. This bill brings the fees up to a level to cover the costs as well as implement the I.T. improvement. It appropriates $931,000 to cover implementation costs. Subdivision of land goes from $80 to $150 per lot, sewage or waste disposal plans go from $80 to $140 and combined should produce nearly $2 million per biennium. Vote 15-2.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Appropriation. The sum of $931,000 is hereby appropriated to the department of environmental services for the biennium ending June 30, 2005 for the purpose of implementing information technology and regulatory process improvements. This appropriation is in addition to any other funds appropriated to the department. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sum out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 163-FN, relative to the procedures of the health services planning and review board. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Fran Wendelboe for Finance: This bill reflects the House's position on HB 788 which repeals the Certificate of Need board and transfers a much limited scope of regulation to the Department of Health and Human Services. The committee made several housekeeping changes in the bill as it came from the policy committee. The extension of the nursing home bed moratorium in HB 663 is codified in this bill. The additional federal revenue available due to the transfer to Health and Human Services and the additional function of data analysis were clarified. The policy committee established a three member public advisory committee to be appointed by the Governor. With the policy committee's approval, Finance added approval by the Executive Council. A section was added to further clarify the confidentiality of personal identification in the data collection portion of the bill. Finally, the effective date was changed from July 1, 2003 to upon passage. Vote 13-6.

Amendment (1824h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT transferring the duties of the health services planning and review board, adding a duty to the oversight committee on health and human services, relative to certain health care data, and making an appropriation.

Amend RSA 151-C:4, III(a) as inserted by section 1 of the bill replacing it with the following:

III.(a) No certificate of review shall be granted by the department for any nursing home, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility or rehabilitation facility from the effective date of chapter 310, laws of 1995, department of health and human services reorganization act, through the period ending December 31, 2006, except that a certificate of review shall be issued for replacement or renovation of existing beds as necessary to meet life safety code requirements or to remedy deficiencies noted in a licensing inspection pursuant to RSA 151 or state survey and certification process pursuant to titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act.

Amend RSA 151-C:15 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

151-C:15 Fees.

I.(a) In addition to any other fees required of it, each acute care hospital, specialty hospital, nursing home, and ambulatory surgical center licensed under RSA 151 shall pay an annual administrative fee. The total amount collected shall be equal to the amount actually expended in that year for the health services planning and review component of the department of health and human services or $700,000, whichever is less. This amount shall be reduced by federal funds available to the department for such purpose. The amount to be collected shall be prorated at the end of each fiscal year among all health care facilities licensed under RSA 151, except those operated by county and municipal governments. Any acute care hospital, specialty hospital, nursing home, or ambulatory surgical center which does not pay the fee required under this paragraph in a timely manner shall not have its license renewed under RSA 151 until such time as the fee is paid.

(b) The department of health and human services may use a portion of the funds collected under subparagraph (a) for the maintenance of the health care information system under RSA 420-G:11-a.

II. All persons filing an application in response to a request for applications shall pay a fee of one percent of the total capital cost of the project with a minimum fee of $1,500, and a maximum of $12,000. This paragraph shall not apply to health care facilities operated by counties or municipalities.

III. Persons requesting a standard development or standard review as outlined in RSA 151-C:6 shall pay a fee of $1,000 if the department determines that a standard review or a standard development process shall occur.

Amend RSA 151-C:16, II as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. The advisory committee shall consist of 3 public members, appointed by the governor and council. The members shall serve for 3-year terms and until their successors are appointed and qualified; provided, that initially one member shall serve for one year, one member for 2 years, and one member for 3 years. No member of the committee shall serve more than 2 consecutive terms. Geographic diversity shall be maintained.

Amend the bill by replacing section 16 with the following:

16 New Section; Health Care Information System. Amend RSA 420-G by inserting after section 11 the following new section:

420-G:11-a Development of a Comprehensive Health Care Information System. The department and the department of health and human services shall enter into a memorandum of understanding for collaboration in the development of a comprehensive health care information system. The memorandum of understanding shall include a description of the data sets that will be included in the comprehensive health care information system, the criteria and procedures for the development of limited use data sets, the criteria and procedures to ensure that Health Information Privacy and Accountability Act (HIPAA) compliant limited use data sets are accessible, and a proposed time frame for the creation of a comprehensive health care information system. To the extent allowed by HIPAA, the data shall be available as a resource for insurers, employers, providers, purchasers of health care, and state agencies to continuously review health care utilization, expenditures, and performance in New Hampshire and to enhance the ability of New Hampshire consumers and employers to make informed and cost-effective health care choices. User fees shall be assessed for persons and entities requesting data available under this paragraph. Fees collected under this paragraph shall be deposited into the general fund. In presenting data for public access, comparative considerations shall be made regarding geography, demographics, general economic factors, and institutional size. Notwithstanding HIPAA or any other provision of law, the comprehensive health care information system shall not include or disclose any data that contains direct personal identifiers. For the purposes of this section, "direct personal identifiers" include information relating to an individual that contains primary or obvious identifiers, such as the individual's name, street address, e-mail address, telephone number, and social security number.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 17 with the following:

18 Appropriation. The sum of $200,000 is hereby appropriated to the department of health and human services for the biennium ending June 30, 2005, for the purposes of the certificate of review process under section 1 of this act and for the purposes of the health care information system under section 16 of this act. This appropriation shall be contingent on the receipt of federal funds in said amount by the department. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sum out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

19 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill adds a new duty to the oversight committee on health and human services.

This bill requires the department of health and human services and the insurance department to collect encrypted health insurance claims data and to collaboratively develop a comprehensive health care information system.

and the committee report was adopted.
Ordered to third reading.

SB 45, relative to property tax exemptions and credits for the elderly, veterans, and the disabled, and allowing municipalities to adopt an optional date for filing exemptions. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. James E. Twombly for Municipal and County Government: The committee considered and debated existing and proposed legislation concerning property tax exemptions and credits having to do with veterans, the elderly and the disabled. The original SB 45 had all the exemptions and credits in RSA 72 in one bill instead of the separate bills that were passed by the House: HB 108 - relative to the adoption of an optional veterans' property tax credit; HB 424 - relative to a net asset qualification for the elderly property tax exemption, and clarifying certain references in property tax exemptions; HB 466 - relative to the adoption procedure for property tax exemptions and credits; and HB 467 - allowing towns or cities to increase the property tax credit for service-connected total disability, and relative to the date for filing for exemptions and tax credits. Currently there are differences in the enactment procedures for all exemptions and credits. The committee researched this issue and determined that having a uniform enactment procedure for adopting or modifying property tax exemptions or credits in RSA 72 would simplify the procedure at the local level. Throughout SB 45, these enactment procedures are referenced and codified. The filing date for exemptions and credits has been changed from March 1 or August 15 prior to the setting of the tax rate to April 15 preceding the setting of the tax rate. This bill enables the political subdivisions to increase the optional veterans tax credits from $51 up to $500, the optional service-connected total disabled veterans tax credit from $701 up to $2,000 and states that it is either the standard or the optional tax credit that the veteran can receive, not both. This bill also lowers the residency requirement for a disabled person applying for a deferral of property taxes from five years to one year. This bill also enables the political subdivisions to change the elderly exemption income and asset requirement by allowing differing age groups to have different assets and income. This amendment is a conscientious effort to codify and clarify this complicated subject regarding exemptions, credits and deferrals Vote 15-0.

Amendment (1831h)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the adoption procedure, eligibility, and amounts of property tax exemptions and credits and the property tax deferral program.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

I New Section; Procedure for Adoption, Modification, or Recission. Amend RSA 72 by inserting after section 27 the following new section:

72:27-a Procedure for Adoption, Modification, or Recission.

I. Any town or city may adopt the optional provisions of RSA 72:28, RSA 72:29-a, RSA 72:35, RSA 72:37, RSA 72:37-b, RSA 72:39-a, RSA 72:62, RSA 72:66, or RSA 72:70 in the following manner:

(a) In a town, other than a town that has adopted a charter pursuant to RSA 49-D, the question shall be placed on the warrant of a special or annual town meeting, by the governing body or by petition pursuant to RSA 39:3.

(b) In a city or town that has adopted a charter pursuant to RSA 49-C or RSA 49-D, the legislative body may consider and act upon the question in accordance with its normal procedures for passage of resolutions, ordinances, and other legislation. In the alternative, the legislative body of such municipality may vote to place the question on the official ballot for any regular municipal election.

II. The vote shall specify the provisions of the property tax exemption or credit, the amount or such exemption or credit, and the manner of its determination, as listed in paragraph I. The exemption or credit shall take effect in the tax year beginning April 1 following its adoption.

III. A municipality may modify, if applicable, or rescind the exemption or credits provided in paragraph I in the manner described in this section.

IV. An amendment to a statutory provision listed in paragraph I related to an exemption or credit amount or to the eligibility or application of an exemption or credit, shall apply in a municipality which previously adopted the provision only after the municipality complies with the procedure in this section, unless otherwise expressly required by law.

III. Either the standard veterans' tax credit or the optional veterans' tax credit shall be subtracted each year from the property tax on the veteran's residential property. However, the surviving spouse of a resident who suffered a service-connected death may have the amount subtracted from the property tax on any real property in the same municipality where the surviving spouse is a resident.

(i) Any other war or armed conflict that has occurred since May 8, 1975, and in which the resident earned an armed forces expeditionary medal or theater of operations service medal.

3 Veterans' Credit; Surviving Spouse; Reference Changed. Amend RSA 72:29-a, II to read as follows:

II. Upon the adoption of this paragraph by a city or town as provided in RSA ~~[72:29-b]~~ 72:27-a, the surviving spouse of any person who was killed or died while on active duty in the armed forces of the United States or any of the armed forces of any of the governments associated with the United States in the wars, conflicts or armed conflicts, or combat zones set forth in RSA 72:28, shall receive a tax credit in the amount ~~[of $1,400]~~ from $701 up to $2,000 for the taxes due upon the surviving spouse's real and personal property, whether residential or not, in the same municipality where the surviving spouse is a resident.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 62, relative to the application and enforcement of the state building code. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for the Majority of Municipal and County Government: This bill as introduced attends to details that were causing some problems at the local level with respect to 1) adopting codes by reference instead of having to include the entire language of those codes into an ordinance; 2) clarifying that any enforcement procedures adopted prior to the effective date of the new state building code would remain in effect, unless in conflict with the state building code; and 3) allowing the building code of Review Board to update or change the state building code, not just the manuals. The amendment identifies the National Electric Code of 2002, not 1999, as part of the definition of "New Hampshire building code and adds a master electrician licensed in this state for a minimum of 5 years, nominated by the New Hampshire Electrical Contractors Business Association. Vote 12-3.

Rep. Robert L. Theberge for the Minority of Municipal and County Government: The minority asks you to vote against the majority amendment. Although it is progressive for the members of the Building Code Review Board to adopt rules, any update or changes to the State Building Code is a legislative function. The Building Code Review Board should not have the authority to adopt rules prior to the adoption of appropriate legislation. This is a clear violation of separation of powers.

Majority Amendment (1833h)

7 Planning and Zoning; State Building Code Enforcement. Amend RSA 674:51, I to read as follows:

I. The local legislative body may enact as an ordinance or adopt, pursuant to the procedures of RSA 675:2-4, additional provisions of the state building code for the construction, remodeling, and maintenance of all buildings and structures in the municipality, provided that such additional regulations are not less stringent than the requirements of the state building code. The local legislative body may also enact a process for the enforcement of the state building code and any additional regulations thereto, and the provisions of a nationally recognized code that are not included in and are not inconsistent with the state building code. Any local enforcement process adopted prior to the effective date of this paragraph shall remain in effect unless it conflicts with the state building code or is amended or repealed by the municipality.

8 New Section; Planning and Zoning; Local Adoption of Building Codes by Reference. Amend RSA 674 by inserting after section 51 the following new section:

674:51-a Local Adoption of Building Codes by Reference. In addition to the local powers under RSA 674:51 a municipality may adopt by reference any of the codes promulgated by the International Code Conference which are not included in the state building code under RSA 155-A.

9 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the definition and application of the state building code, and the enforcement by local authorities. The bill also adds a member to the state building code review board.

Rep. Balboni spoke against.

Majority amendment adopted.

Majority report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 67, relative to a report on municipal water needs. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Richard T. Cooney for the Majority of Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill would require the Office of State Planning (OSP) and the Department of Environmental Services (DES) to prepare a report on current and future municipal water requirements when permitting groundwater withdrawals. These issues are addressed by a study commission formed by SB 155 and by a legislative study committee formed by SB 162. These studies involve establishing important water policies of the state of New Hampshire and therefore should be formulated by elected legislators and not by members of a state agency. In addition, duplicate effort would be expended by the departments in satisfying both initiatives. The majority of the committee felt that these important water policy decisions belong in the study process of SB 155 and SB 162. Therefore, this bill is not necessary. Vote 11-4.

Rep. Judith T. Spang for the Minority of Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill, unanimously passed by the Senate as a companion to SB 155 and SB 162, would provide the research necessary for those policy-making committees to move forward. For this reason, it is an essential complement, not duplication, of SB 162. The state needs to develop a fact-based methodology for determining how much water a municipality will need to accommodate its future growth. The lack of this methodology has hampered groundwater permitting, and policy-making for water management on state, regional and local levels. With SB 67, the Department of Environmental Services will be able to provide the information necessary to support the legislatively overseen policy-making of SB 155 and SB 162.

Reps. Brueggeman, McEachern and Spang spoke against.

Reps. Chris Christensen and Richard Cooney spoke in favor.

Rep. Spang requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded.

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 20

Tuesday, June 24, 2003

The House assembled at 9:30 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the Speaker.

His Excellency, Governor Craig Benson, joined the Speaker on the rostrum for the day's opening ceremonies.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, The Reverend Hays M. Junkin, Rector of Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church in Hopkinton.

Compassionate God, as summer spreads across our beloved New Hampshire and visitors come from around the world to visit our fair state, may they find here not only a place of great beauty, but also a citizenry thankful for democracy and for those who have sacrificed so much for the heritage of freedom we enjoy. May visitors also find us to be a people who care for those least able to care for themselves and who respect the dignity and worth of all their neighbors.

May Your blessing be with the members of this honorable House as they face the important issues of this day, and as always, we ask that Your protective hand be upon all those who serve in the armed forces, law enforcement agencies, emergency medical services and in the fire service as they protect and defend our country, our homes, our lives and our communities. Amen.

Rep. Paul D. Spiess led the Pledge of Allegiance.

5 Findings and Intent; Sections 6-16. The general court recognizes all the work in creating a set of proposed standards for the certification of assessments. There is reason for concern, however, that these standards may have an inequitable impact on municipalities within the state due to differences between municipalities in such characteristics as size, parcel count, number of sales, and geographic location. Therefore, the general court finds that in order for the state to continue to implement fair and equitable assessing practices, it is necessary to further analyze the assessing practices of the state's political subdivisions. This analysis can be accomplished by using the assessing standards board's recommended standards as guidelines for a measurement tool, rather than as certification requirements, in the first 4 years of the process. The results of measuring these guidelines can then be analyzed for the state's large and small political subdivisions, with a report to be made to the municipalities and through the assessing standards board to the general court.

II. Any person injured by another's violation of this subdivision may bring an action for damages and for such equitable relief, including an injunction, as the court deems necessary and proper. If the court finds for the plaintiff, recovery shall be in the amount of actual damages or $1,000, whichever is greater. If the court finds that the act or practice was a willful or knowing violation of this subdivision, it shall award as much as 3 times, but not less than 2 times, such amount. In addition, a prevailing plaintiff shall be awarded the costs of the suit and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the court. Any attempted waiver of the right to the damages set forth in this paragraph shall be void and unenforceable. Injunctive relief shall be available to private individuals under this subdivision without bond, subject to the discretion of the court. Upon commencement of any action brought under this section, the clerk of the court shall mail a copy of the complaint or other initial pleadings to the attorney general and, upon entry of any judgment or decree in the action, shall mail a copy of such judgment or decree to the attorney general.

III. Notwithstanding paragraph I, a telemarketer shall not be held liable for violating this subdivision if the telemarketer can demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that, as part of the telemarketer's routine business practice:

(e) The telemarketer uses a version of the do-not-call list obtained no more than 3 months prior to the date that any call is made.

(f) Any subsequent call otherwise violating this subdivision is not part of a pattern of calls made in violation of this subdivision and is the result of a good faith error.

4 Use of Automatic Dialing Systems and Caller Identification Services; Violation; Reference Change. Amend RSA 359-E:6 to read as follows:

359-E:6 Violations. Any violation of the provisions of this [chapter] subdivision shall constitute an unfair or deceptive act or practice within the meaning of RSA 358-A:2. Any right, remedy, or power set forth in RSA 358-A, including those set forth in RSA 358-A:4, may be used to enforce the provisions of this chapter. Such remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies provided by law or equity.

5 Severability. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

6 Prospective Repeal. RSA 359-E:7, XI(d), relative to the exemption for telemarketing sales calls made on behalf of a newspaper to build its circulation, is repealed.

7 Effective Date.

I. Section 6 of this act shall take effect August 1, 2006.

PROTEST

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Bruno requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

Whereas, we have had many debates over the issue of groundwater supply in the past two sessions, and whereas, the likely outcome of this session will include a commission on groundwater withdrawals and a chaptered study committee on water resources, and whereas, the Department of Environmental Services has expressed that it will be updating the New Hampshire "Drought Management Plan" presently, and whereas, the State Geologist is limited to monitoring groundwater resources at only 25 sites for the entire state and expressed desire to increase the resolution of this data by adding an additional 25 observation wells for a cost of $196,000.00 which has been eliminated from this budget by the Committee of Conference, and whereas, the Estuary Wastewater Project Study, SB 70, creating a commission, originally came to the House showing a $1,000,000.00 fiscal note that was removed by Senate amendment #2003-1225s in order to gather support for the policy, and whereas, a $1,000,000.00 appropriation was made by the Senate for the Estuary Wastewater Project Study under the guise of capital improvements, while the critical groundwater information afforded by 25 observation wells that the State Geologist needs to provide to other established commissions, committees and the public has been eliminated;

 therefore, since a study is not a capital improvement, and since SB 70 would have met much greater House scrutiny with a $1,000,000.00 fiscal note and since valuable groundwater information necessary for committees and commissions formed for the purpose of studying that information will not be available because of the elimination of the State Geologist's request for $196,000.00 to install observation wells, a true capital improvement, I now enter my protest to the passage of HB 25-FN-A.

Respectfully submitted on this 24th day of June, 2003.
 Rep. Pierre W. Bruno

The House recessed at 1:00 p.m.

Reps. Thomas and Soltani addressed the House.

Rep. Patten moved that the remarks of Rep. John Thomas be entered in the Journal.

REMARKS

Rep. John Thomas: House Bill 787 originally came to the House in the last session as House Bill 1447. Because of certain issues that were not resolvable in the committee, House Bill 1447 was turned into a study committee to save the bill. The results of that study committee was a recommendation which was basically the same bill. Therefore, House Bill 787 was introduced.

After many long hearings and testimony from state agencies, the Governor, members of the New Hampshire Timberland Owners Association, loggers and electric utilities, the House Science, Technology and Energy Committee agreed to re-write the legislation.

As Whitefield is, in the eyes of the committee, no longer in the same position as the other wood burning plants who are operating profitable and are under rate orders, there were six requirements that the legislation had to meet. These were:

1. The bill had to be Whitefield specific. As stated, the other plants are currently operating in the black. The committee felt that as the Whitefield plant received a $40 million buyout of its rate order and said rate order no longer exists, it is a much different facility than the other plants.
2. The books of the facility had to be open. The committee feels that any entity taking ratepayer money shall have full financial oversight. The difference between the funding mechanisms and rate orders is that all ratepayers will be affected, not just Public Service of New Hampshire ratepayers.
3. The bill did not raise rates, hence the revenue would come from the energy efficiency part of the existing systems benefit charge.
4. There would be a sunset date bringing it more in line with the expiration of the rate orders of the other plants. The thought for this was, we wouldn't have to deal with each plant individually, but as a group.
5. There would be an economic development component by the inclusion of Department of Resources and Economic Development in the process so that working with chambers of commerce, economic development organizations and trade groups, markets for low grade wood could be explored and utilized to the fullest benefit of that economic sector. It cannot be stated strongly enough that the committee's prime concern was the survival and enhancement of the logging and other segments of the wood products industry, not the plant itself.
6. Trading credits were included to maximize sales revenues. The age of the plant was also a consideration.

The Senate amendment attempted to treat Whitefield like the other plants operating under a rate order. Their books would not be open. They would have an opt-out provision allowing them to take subsidies when the market price was low and then leave the program when the market was favorable. The amount of the subsidy was 80% higher than the House position, contrary to what the committee was told was needed to keep the plant open. The Senate version also increased the rate by connecting it to the consumer price index, thereby giving the Whitefield plant an unfair advantage over the other power producers.

The House conferees had the same concerns about the amendment as the members of the Senate policy and Finance committees which rejected attempts to change the House version. To save the bill, House Leadership asked the Senate to accept the amendment, hence the committee of conference.

As previously stated, by not being able to reach an agreement on the differences, the House and Senate conferees agreed to disagree.

As you know, without agreement in the committee of conference there is no "blurb" (or report), so I use this opportunity to set the record straight as to the negative press my committee has received on this issue by some members of the media and certain trade publications.

You also probably know the old saying of, "Shot at and missed, bleep, bleep and hit." Well, on occasion I've felt like I've been hit both times so it doesn't bother me so much if one wants to spread untruths about me. I do take exception to one spreading untruths about my committee. They all worked very hard on this issue and had to make decisions that I know they were not totally comfortable with.

So I say to those that I mentioned, do as you wish to me but leave my committee alone.

His Excellency, Governor Craig Benson, joined the Speaker on the rostrum for the day's opening ceremonies.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, The Reverend Hays M. Junkin, Rector of Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church in Hopkinton.

God of all resources and wisdom, bless the decisions of this honorable House today. May the needs of those least able to care for themselves be balanced with the abundance of our riches, that no citizen is left outside the community of care which is our beloved New Hampshire.

As the celebration of our nation's independence draws near, we especially give thanks for the gifts of freedom and democracy; may we never fail to appreciate and protect them.

Remembering especially those who in recent days have given their lives in the cause of freeing Iraq and Afghanistan from tyranny and oppression, we ask that Your protective hand be upon all those who serve in the armed forces, law enforcement agencies, emergency medical services and in the fire service as they protect and defend our country, our homes, our lives and our communities. GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 1 and HB 2

June 26, 2003

To the Honorable Members of the General Court:

By the authority vested in me as Governor of New Hampshire, pursuant to Part II, Article 44 of the Constitution of New Hampshire, today I have vetoed House Bills 1 and 2, the proposed budget bill and the proposed trailer bill.

The reason for my veto should come as no surprise to anyone. I believe that the level of increased spending in the proposed budget is too high and will ultimately lead to new taxes. Throughout the budget process I have stated that I would not support a budget that either raised taxes or failed to limit spending. I have consistently stated that I opposed any spending above the House of Representatives' proposed levels. The budget that has come to my desk seeks increased spending that is higher than that of any of New Hampshire's neighboring states, and among the highest in the Nation. By depleting the rainy day fund, by relying on an unprecedented amount of one-time revenues, and by increasing spending so much, the proposed budget will inevitably lead to new taxes.

It is indisputable that the proposed budget could lead to an over 200 million dollar deficit during the 2006/2007 fiscal years. In supporting this budget, one prominent member of House leadership said that this deficit could be addressed by "tweaking our existing revenue structure." Let us be very clear what that means: raising taxes.

One of the problems with spending one-time revenue is that it is very hard to reduce the spending once the one-time revenue dries up. Politically, the spending is addictive. Even when spending is increased, as in my proposed budget or the House of Representatives' proposed budget, we are accused of vicious cuts. Imagine the pressure if we ever actually had to reduce spending. And federal "maintenance of efforts requirements" can make especially difficult trimming back certain spending that had relied on one-time revenue. We must exercise strong fiscal discipline when we receive these one-time funds.

I am also very concerned at how much the proposed budget depletes the rainy day fund. Sure we are suffering some rainy days, but we received a one-time infusion of federal funds to help us deal with that. There was no reason to deplete the rainy day fund as much as does the proposed budget. Will we have enough left over if there are more rainy days ahead? We cannot rely on a surprise infusion of federal dollars to protect us then. Is it responsible to leave ourselves, and future legislatures so thinly protected? I think that it is irresponsible.

My objections to the budget include that it:

- Relies on IT savings that cannot be achieved under the IT plan in HB 663

- Relies on unprecedented amounts of one-time money

- Uses savings to balance the rainy day fund

- Prohibits the use of No Child Left Behind funds to replace general funds

- Restores funding for positions that have been vacant for six months

I share the concerns expressed by some legislators last Tuesday, during the debates on this budget, that the committee of conference process was especially irregular this year. With little discussion, the committee of conference made major policy changes and took other action for which the budget was an inappropriate mechanism, or which should have been subject to a more public hearing process. Last minute actions by the Senate finance committee or the committee of conference include:

- Changing the Presidential Primary Ballot, without so much as a hearing on whether this is the correct thing to do.

- Attempting to spend money that does not exist, such as certain securities settlement money.

- Abrogating a large HHS contract and limiting how HHS can reduce costs.

Without any discussion, arbitrary reductions were made in the Governor's budget. The Committee of Conference documents stated that these cuts were at "Governor's Office request." When the inaccuracy of this description was pointed out, one member of the committee of conference explained that an old spreadsheet was changed without changing the title. However, when the final report of the Committee was completed, the same inaccurate description was made. These cuts were arbitrary and petty, and the description was untrue. I find this kind of eleventh hour mischief troubling.

An argument has been made that it does not matter how much the proposed budget spends, because the budget is a cap rather than a floor. The Governor, according to this argument, can unilaterally reduce spending. If that were truly the case, there would be no need for me to veto any budget, no matter how large, and no reason for the finance committees of both Houses to have put so much work into the budget process. I could simply ignore the budget and reduce spending at will. Our Constitution and laws do not grant the Governor such powers, however. Basic civics tells us that the power of the purse rests with the legislature. The Governor cannot cut spending unilaterally. In case revenues do not meet expectation, the Governor can, with the consent of the legislature, order certain reductions in spending. As a practical matter, however, the spending levels set in the budget are both a cap and a floor.

I respect the prerogative of the General Court to complete a budget and present it to the Governor. I am convinced, however, that we could have avoided a veto if the leadership of the House and Senate had been willing to sit down with me before the vote of the committee of conference on Wednesday, June 18. Senate leadership was unwilling to meet, and House leadership was unwilling to meet without the Senate. Instead, I was presented with a budget I could not support.

Earlier in the process, when I was able to consult with the House on its proposed budget, a budget was produced that both the House and the Governor could support. When the House and Senate worked together, they produced a budget that was acceptable to both bodies. I am convinced that if the General Court will work with me, we can quickly come up with a budget that is acceptable to all three participants in this process. Just as I respect and honor the Constitutional role of the General Court in this process, I would hope that the General Court would also respect and honor my role in this process.

I know that I have angered some by standing my ground and refusing to be cowed by threats of a government shutdown. But I believe that just as you had a right and duty under the Constitution to exercise your judgment in deciding whether to vote yea or nay, the Governor has an equal Constitutional right and duty to follow his judgment in deciding whether to sign or veto the budget. This is the process set forth in the Constitution, and although disagreement is sometimes uncomfortable, it should not be personal. The workers of the State should not be placed in the middle. You have my pledge that if the veto is sustained, I will support a continuing resolution to keep government running at current levels, and my additional pledge that I will immediately reach out to leadership to produce a budget we can all agree on.

The committee of conference report is far superior to the Senate budget, but there is still work to do. We need to get back to work. It is for this reason that I have vetoed these bills.

Craig R. Benson, Governor

CONSIDERATION OF GOVERNOR'S VETO OF HB 1-A, making appropriations for the expenses of certain departments of the state for fiscal years ending June 30, 2004, and June 30, 2005

MOTION TO LIMIT DEBATE

Rep. Kurk moved that the House limit debate to 20 minutes for each side.

Rep. Vaillancourt moved to amend the motion to limit debate to 30 minutes for each side.

Reps. Jacobson and McElroy spoke against.

On a division vote, 156 members having voted in the affirmative and 204 in the negative, the amendment to limit debate to 30 minutes failed.

Rep. Jasper moved to amend the motion to limit each speaker to three minutes within the 20 minutes.

Reps. Hess and Jacobson spoke against.

Amendment failed.

Rep. Holden requested a roll call: sufficiently seconded.

The question now being adoption of the motion to limit debate to 20 minutes for each side.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Burling moved that the debate on consideration of the Governor's veto of HB 1-A, making appropriations for the expenses of certain departments of the state for fiscal years ending June 30, 2004, and June 30, 2005 and HB 2-FN-A, relative to state fees, funds, revenues, and expenditures be printed in the Permanent Journal.

On a division vote, 259 members having voted in the affirmative and 113 in the negative, the motion was adopted.

DEBATE ON HOUSE BILL 1

Rep. Itse: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and Honorable representatives to the General Court. I for one like to think about zero based budgeting because it tells you where you are. It adjusts the last budget for inflation and population growth. But when you make that assumption, you assume that all the operations and programs of government are necessary and efficient. Now having dealt with the machinations of government, we all know that's not true because government does few things well and most things poorly. However, accepting that assumption, zero based budgeting for the next budget would bring us an increase of 6 ½ percent. To increase the budget by 8 percent in a period of economic malaise, when economics are fearing deflation, is not wise. Worst of all, the 2004-2005 budget creates new spending which in the following biennium will require new taxes.

I moved here in 1991 from Massachusetts. I always have characterized myself as a political refugee from the state of Massachusetts. I was very proud to be moving to a conservative state. However, today I find myself in an awkward and even sad position when the Massachusetts legislature is behaving more responsibly, more conservatively than we have, for they enacted a 1 percent budget decrease, when we have enacted an 8 percent or more increase depending on what basis you assume. And this when our Governor is asking for, demanding less.

I'd like to make a comparison here, a lesson from history. Most of you remember the story of Jacob and Esau. Esau was a hunter. He came in from a hunt, hungry, tired; so hungry he was willing to trade his birthright, his inheritance, his heritage for a bowl of stew his brother happened to have ready. Today Jacob's descendants inhabit Israel. Esau's descendants don't exist. That's the fruit of expediency. We are in a similar position, whether to take the expedient route or to strive for economic security for our state for the foreseeable future. If the Governor's veto is overridden, we should all hang our heads in shame for we will have mortgaged away the New Hampshire advantage. We will be selling away our children's future, their heritage, for convenience today.

If not us, who is going to stand? If not now, when? It is the time. The time has passed for us to stop growing government faster than the people's pocketbooks. It is time for us to start controlling this behemoth, the ever-growing, ever-consuming monster that we call government. Thank you.

Rep. Weyler: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll try not to repeat myself from last week, but I may allude to some points I made then. You know I'm not a big spender. What I told you last week was we tried to make a more accurate report in HB 1 and in doing so we listed spending that had not been previously listed. That allowed it to appear to be a greater increase than in fact it was. I'm sorry my colleague is not sitting there in the front row because I wish to allude to some history. He got up here last week and he said "worse case scenario will be 200 million dollars in the hole at the end of the biennium." He said "worse case." The media didn't bother to report that. They just treated it as if it were fact, "Oh, we will be 200 million in the hole, we need an income tax." Boy, are they misinforming the public on this. That's how they get 72 percent saying, "Yes, veto the bill." Misinformation, misinformation.

Let me go back to some history between my colleague and myself. I have followed his lead basically since 1995 to the tune of about 95 percent of the time we agree. Approximately 13 months ago, he and I were looking at the same revenue figures for 2002 which were coming up short. We both were studying the same figures, for April which is a very important month, and he said to me, "Boy, in June 2003, we will be 100 million in the hole". I said, "No way." I'm looking at the same figures he is and I'm saying at most, if we are in deficit, it will be covered by the rainy day fund. Now, I ask you, who was correct? But I wish he were here to agree with what he and I had said in that conversation 13 months ago. He predicted 100 million in the hole and I said no more than the rainy day fund. I was correct. He was wrong. I say his 200 million now is very much overly pessimistic. That won't happen.

The mix we use in revenue has sustained us very well. In good times it rose at 6 percent. In less than good times, it rose at something less, sometimes as little as 3 percent.

Now when the budget was formed in 2002 and 2003, we assumed about a 5 percent revenue growth rate. It didn't happen. We're now presuming a less optimistic growth, probably around 3 percent growth which will probably be close to what will happen. That will cover this HB 1. That will make it work. That's what we do when we sit down. (Sorry Neal, you missed the whole piece when I talked about your conversation, you and I.) But will it lead to an income tax, I don't think so.

There's also a big debate on what is "one-time money". I remember in '95 when we got 200 million dollars from the federal government because what had caused our problem —Medicaid spending. They realized that the program was very much underestimated on the federal level, they had to give us more money. They gave us, through a slight-of-hand, we got 200 million. We needed 100 million of it in '95 to balance the budget and we used it. We put the other 100 million aside for the Healthcare Transition Fund which later became the Healthcare Fund which is now down to 30 million, which will likely disappear in the next biennium. But we have gotten a few good years out of it and on top of that we got more money because what was the problem with this next budget? Medicaid spending, provider payments. Yes, they are going to have to figure out something at the federal level to take care of this Medicaid funding which is being downloaded on the states, and downloaded on the counties and who knows where it will be downloaded next. That's got to be taken care of at the federal level.

But every piece of "one-time money" could be argued. Cuts in the back of the budget, I remember them in every budget. How could they be considered "one-time" money? But a big point that I want to address, and I hope you all listen to this, is the mutual respect between the branches of government. We are very cautious when we look at the judicial budget and we hope they regard us with the same respect. I'm not sure that they do. I told you last week that the way to really save money is not to vote to kill the budget and then expect something will happen. That isn't the way it works. It takes step by step, department by department, thorough analysis.

Earlier this year I had a bill I brought before ED&A, Executive Departments and Administration, which said "those who disregard the rules and laws of this state should find consequences." I guess that bill is in study. But I am really scared when I hear the Governor and the Attorney General decide which laws they will choose to disregard. I brought in a pile of probably 8 or 10 LBA Performance Audits and in every one of them there was the statement, "This department does not obey it's own rules or the laws of the State of New Hampshire." And I ask, what happens as a result of that? Nothing. Maybe 5 years later when they look at their audit again they'll say "O.K., are they still disobeying their own rules and laws." O.K., they get a check off that they didn't; but nothing happened to the bureaucrats that chose to disregard our law. That's what we are hearing. I remind you, HB1 is the budget for the State of New Hampshire. It is first, last, and always, a legislative document. You have been chosen by the constitution and the people of the United States because each one has to go to the corner drug store, or the post office, or the little convenience store and listen to all the people because they are going to hammer you one way or the other. Each one will have his own special interest he will want to talk to you about. You are the people's voice. You have decided through those who designated the Finance Committee, the Committee of Conference, that this budget was O.K. We thought it was O.K. when it passed the House. By the way, I don't remember a good word from the Governor when it passed the House. He didn't like the House budget until he saw the Senate budget. Then all of a sudden he's trying to get your votes by saying, "I really like the House budget." Where were you in May? But I digress.

I want to see some mutual respect here. This is our budget. This is our document. This is legislative. The Governor can do what he likes within the realm of that document. But this is first, last, and always a legislative document. By constitution it must originate in the House. I would like to see a little respect for the work we have done here. I would like to see a little respect for what we have done. I would like to see a lot less misinformation. We have held informative sessions where about 100 people came. I wished it had been 350. But 100 people were interested in knowing the details and asking questions and I did my best to answer those questions. I hope you will support the override of this veto and maintain the supremacy of this body in all matters of budget. Thank you.

Rep. Mark Carter: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Rep. Weyler, I understand that this biennium budget is a fully balanced budget. In fact, it has a surplus and I thought that perhaps I heard you say that there was a 200 million dollar deficit. Could you clarify?

Rep. Weyler: Wow, there goes the misinformation again. I said, I totally disagreed with my colleague who said there would be at the end of this budget a 200 million dollar deficit. And I gave the example of 13 months ago, when he said to me there would be a 100 million dollar deficit, as of this date. I disagreed with him then. I disagree with him now and I offer my batting average over his.

Rep. Scott: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Honorable members of this House. I arise in support of the Governor's veto for two reasons. In Dover, my District 71, I find an overwhelming number of people who say limit state spending. Secondly, I find that our collections so far, through May of this year are running behind our plan. Not only that, but the three main drivers which represent about 50 percent of our revenues, which is the business activities tax, meals and rooms tax, interest and dividends is now running 70 million dollars behind the plan. Now that is offset by several other items, for example, the liquor and beer tax and the tobacco tax are running better than budget. However they together represent only 12 percent of our spending. We would have to drink a lot of beer to be able to offset the losses we're having on the big drivers. Consequently, I feel that it would be imprudent to continue our spending at the rate in the budget and I'm going to vote "no" to sustain the Governor's veto.

Rep. Jasper: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the Governor's veto. I want to address something that one of my colleagues said a couple of minutes ago talking about whether it would be a 100 million dollar deficit last year and where we ended up. I would ask you all to remember that this Governor and the former governor, had to issue executive orders not to fill positions, to cut spending in order to meet those targets. We also ended up with over 20 million dollars between the sale of Seabrook and one-time debt where we got over 16 million. So I would submit to you that our budget is not in balance now. There probably will be a revenue shortfall and when you add all the things together, we were not in very good shape.

Mr. Speaker, my senator stated in defense of this budget that government is about compromise. Mr. Speaker, that doesn't fit any definition of government that I know. Politics is, of course, about compromise, but I would submit that good politics rarely translate to good government.

Government is by definition about control. In order to have good government, it is necessary to have that control based on a set of principles and principles are something that should not be compromised. Much of our work here does not involve principle but it is instead based on theories. Those theories allow for plenty of room for compromise. Mr. Speaker, what you are asking Republicans to do is to go against our core beliefs in smaller government and in government living within its means. No argument has been made to show that this level of spending can be maintained without new or expanded taxes. My vote today will not be a vote against leadership or a vote for the Governor. It will be a vote of conscience based on principle. And Mr. Speaker, I know that if the Governor's veto is sustained, you will work with us to see that government is not shut down.

But Mr. Speaker, for those who do not subscribe to my principles of government, I ask you to consider two points. The first is a point of law. What we refer to as the "rainy day fund" is RSA 9:13-E, the Revenue Stabilization Reserve Account. This law requires that the transfers may be made only when two conditions are met. Those conditions can only be met after the close of the biennium. When we include transfers from this account as a source of revenue within a budget, it is clearly a violation of the law. Have we changed the law? If we changed it without knowing it, shame on us. But if we didn't, and I don't believe that we did, then now is the time to stand up for the law. How can we expect anyone in this state to respect our laws, if we don't have respect for them?

The second point is the issue of the Tyco settlement and this is a settlement, a signed document that I saw this morning. Tyco agreed to make a donation to an investment education fund within the University of New Hampshire. We signed that and we agreed that we would establish that. Within this budget, we have taken that 5 million dollars and used it for our own purposes. But the fact of the matter is that that money does not exist. The first 2 ½ million has already been transferred to the fund and the second 2 ½ million dollars will in all likelihood not come to the state because we have violated a signed agreement by doing this. Mr. Speaker, we don't get the revenue. We start with a 5 million dollar hole and we de-fund an area of study, an area of learning that we thought was appropriate. What kind of messages are we sending? The message that I believe these examples send is that when dealing with state government money is all that matters. We need not wonder where our society is heading; we need only look to our own actions. If we don't set the moral and ethical tone, who will? Mr. Speaker, I can stand tall today knowing that I will be doing the right thing for the right reasons when I vote to sustain the Governor's veto.

Rep. Jacobson: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. You know I've been here since 1969 and I've heard these arguments over and over again. It is easy to say we shall end spending. But you know in the period of time that I've been in the legislature, I believe our population has increased 500,000 people in that period of time. How can we have less spending, if that is the case? Our school population has increased and is still increasing. How can we have less spending? Do you know that of the 50 states, we have the lowest ratio of government services and spending in relationship to income of all 50 states. We are not spenders in this state. And during the time I've been in the legislature, the fundamental characteristic has been to conserve. Now, we have a budget. It's not the Governor's budget. It's not the House's budget. It's not the Senate's budget. It is a compromise that is a workable compromise. It may well be true that not everything I wanted is in the budget. It may also be true that there are some things in the budget that you don't want. But the very nature of our legislative process is to try to achieve a compromise and that is what we have done. I congratulate the leadership on getting that compromise. They have to give some in order to get as well.

There's another factor we don't know what's going to happen ahead of time in terms of our economy. We can predict but very often these predictions are incorrect. But we do have an opportunity next January to make adjustments to the budget. We have done that before and we can do it again.

You got the Governor's letter and what intrigued me about the Governor's letter, he never talked about the budget that we are considering. He's talking about a budget in 2006, 2007. But we have nothing to do with that budget. We may or may not be here when that budget comes up for consideration. At this moment, we cannot lay claim to any part of that budget. As far as predictions are concerned, I have to laugh sometimes, I don't think there's been a session that I've been in, in which there have not been people who are predicting the most dire thing to happen — an income tax. We have done it over and over again. As far as I know, as of today, we have no general income tax. I have to pay taxes on the little income that I have earned because it comes from interest and dividends. That is my income and the income for thousands of people. So we do have an income tax, but we do not have a general income tax on earned income and I don't see one in the future anyway.

So what I would like to say is that back in 1977 when I was a member of the Senate, at that time, the Governor vetoed the budget. It created a problem that lasted, as far as I can remember, into October. So, I would urge you to support this budget because if the problems develop, we can make alterations come next January. So, the time is now to make a decision in the interest of the people of New Hampshire and to support the override. Thank you.

Rep. Kerns: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Rep. Jacobson, are you leading this body to believe that we are not accountable or responsible today for the decisions that have a fiscal impact a few years down the road? And are you suggesting that we can knowingly drive ourselves into a ditch just because we know a good tow truck company, Representative?

Rep. Jacobson: No, that is not true. We have a system that every two years there must be a review of the expenses that we have. Now, some of those expenses are incorporated into the general structure of our government services. There will be repeats but technically speaking, we have only the responsibility for 2004 and 2005. And now you are going to get a little advice.

Rep. Lefebvre: Well, Representative Jacobson, '69 and '73, as you well know, I'm a Democrat and you are a Republican. It's difficult sometime to understand the interpretation of perhaps both sides. If I understand your interpretation correctly, would I be correct in assuming that you have absolutely more faith in the 400 members of this House than you have faith in the one in that corner office?

Rep. Jacobson: Well, I certainly have faith in the members of the House because I believe in the democratic system but I would not say that my faith is absolute. I'm open to consideration and concession.

Rep. Gibson: Thank You, Mr. Speaker. Today is a solemn and historic day for New Hampshire. We are summoned here to decide the course the state will take for the next decade. We are here today to see if the principles of the Republican party are alive and well. Today, Mr. Speaker, we are being asked to decide whether the leadership of this legislature is right in spending a billion dollars over the last budget, over the last budget of the Shaheen administration, or is the Governor correct to veto a budget that fails to live within it means? A budget that uses 212 million dollars in one-time revenues, and Mr. Speaker, I truly believe this — this budget will saddle this state with an income tax in fiscal year '06. Mr. Speaker, the Governor is right. I admire his courage. The Governor has shown his willingness to keep his promise to defend the New Hampshire advantage. Mr. Speaker, this is leadership. Doing what is right even though it may not be popular. Mr. Speaker, when I look to my left I see a lot of smiley, happy faces. The opposition party is really enjoying this. We have done, and I'm not talking me, I'm talking the leadership in this legislature has done more damage to the Governor, than the minority leaders in both houses and the state Democratic Party leader could ever dream of. Mr. Speaker, I ask you why? Mr. Speaker, is increasing state spending by a billion dollars that important? So much for Republican principle if it is. Mr. Speaker, for me this is what it means to be a Republican and this is only me. You believe in fiscal responsibility, you believe in less taxes and you believe in less government. The Governor is true to his word, Mr. Speaker. The Governor stated a few weeks ago at a legislative function, "The House budget passed in April was acceptable." Mr. Speaker, there were members of legislative leadership present at this meeting. So leadership knew what the Governor considered acceptable. So why the surprise and why the personal attacks? Mr. Speaker, this was a big game of chicken. The Senate passed an outrageous 13 percent increase in state spending. And yes, the committee of conference passed an increase of a billion dollars over the last budget. The leadership of this legislature thought that the Governor would blink. Mr. Speaker, the leadership gambled and lost.

Mr. Speaker, the Governor kept his word. Now the leadership of this legislature played a new game. The game of government shut down. They want you know to override this veto and increase state spending by a billion dollars and embarrass the Governor. Why? The reason today is we've got to keep government open. Mr. Speaker, I expect to hear something like that from the opposition party, not the Republican party. Mr. Speaker, I am confident this House will pass a continuing resolution to make sure government remains running. We all have a responsibility to ensure that. So stop using this as a threat. I am very confident, as a member of House Ways and Means Committee, that this budget will not create a surplus. I want to repeat, not create a surplus.

Let's just take a look at it. The revenues, even though there's minimal growth, House Ways and Means had a pretty rosy growth picture. It's not happening. The use of 112 million dollars in one-time savings and revenues is a tell-tale sign that something is wrong. When spending, when the growth and spending outpaces the growth in revenue, you know something is wrong. This budget will create a huge hole in fiscal year '06. We must look to the future. We cannot pass this debt on. Mr. Speaker, we have the responsibility to protect the New Hampshire advantage. We have resisted the siren call of big government for the last 250 years. Now, we embrace it. Why? Just to send the Governor a message? What has happened to our traditions, Mr. Speaker? What has happened to our values? Mr. Speaker, we are at a crossroads here today. If you join the leadership of this legislature and you vote to override that veto, you have chosen the road of big government and Massachusetts-style taxes. You know it's kind of funny, Mr. Speaker, they're laughing about it because they know it's going to happen and their dream will come true. Mr. Speaker, you can join with me and others today and do the right thing. We can sustain the Governor's veto, stand up for cherished Yankee values of less government, less taxes and personal responsibility. Most importantly, we can do what is right for New Hampshire. Mr. Speaker, I will stand with the Governor because he is right and knows, like I, that New Hampshire is worth fighting for. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Rep. Bruno: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise today to sustain the Governor's veto because I made a promise when I was campaigning. I campaigned for limited government, lower taxes and local control. Some of you might be surprised to find this little fact out but three sessions ago when I was a freshman, I was an income taxer. I was a steadfast income taxer until I saw some member come right down to this very well and say to me that an income tax isn't bad. It's just like taking money out of a different pocket. That changed me. No, I'm sorry, she said "extracting money." And the word "extract" reminded me of going to the dentist when I have teeth extracted. It's not a pleasant experience. I've been trying to get rid of smoking cigarettes and I hope I can be as successful with quitting that because those reformed cigarette smokers are always adamant against smoking. Well, I'm a reformed income taxer. New Hampshire's at a crossroads right now, Mr. Speaker. We have a beautiful, rural state and we face development. However, without development we have no economy. I was just elated when Governor Benson presented his budget and talked about how the economy was going to be stimulated. By stimulating the economy, then we could have the revenues we need for the increased spending that my esteemed member from New London talked about. Sure, we need to spend more but we need to have the revenues for it and the way to get the revenues is to get some business going. Otherwise we have the same dollar bill going around and around and around in this state. We thank God that we have tourists that bring in a couple other dollar bills with them and leave them here.

What we are starting to do is we're loading more baggage to the ship of the state that is sinking in red ink. We're using bubble gum to plug the leaks. Instead of adding more baggage, we should not be adding more baggage until we are stabilized. What happens when we run out of bubble gum? Are we going to start taking some of the pieces of bubble gum out of the other leaks and trying to patch those remaining leaks? I don't think so. This budget is about more than dollars. It's about the future of our state. Do we want to leave our children in debt? This is my third budget session, Mr. Speaker. I'm a simple man. I deal with bottom line. I really give my heartfelt congratulations to all the members who worked on the budget because they do a phenomenal job. But I say, Mr. Speaker, that no one has a handle on the entire budget. If they do, they still don't know where each and every dollar of that budget is being spent once it goes to the departments. Yet over the years I have been here, I've seen every effort to oversee the operating efficiency of our government thwarted. My first budget was the year after the balanced budget act. Governor Shaheen was blamed for inflating it for the past two sessions. Now who's to blame? When we talk about a balanced budget, what does that mean to you? I've been at home trying to figure it out and I told my wife, and my wife said to me, "It's simple. Your checkbook is $1,000 in the red. You get your bank statement and it agrees with the bank statement that you owe them a $1,000. Your checkbook is balanced. No problem." Well, I think a balanced budget to us means a lot more. What will a sea of red ink mean to your children? Remember, this will set the destiny for what business we do in this state for a long time to come. I urge you to make good on your campaign promises and I urge you to support the Governor's veto. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Rep. Elliott: Thank you. I just went downstairs, would you believe, I just went downstairs and spoke to the LBA? I wanted to figure out what was going on with the back of the budget unspecified reductions. The 20 million dollars, specifically, for Health and Human Services. Would you believe 1.9 million dollars in each year goes to reduce employees? The other 16 million the Commissioner will get to decide. He does have to ask the Fiscal Committee. I remember Rep. Kurk telling us that he was trying to get the Fiscal Committee to make less decisions for the House and to have the House make more decisions. My question is I wonder if you'd cut Meals on Wheels or services for disabled folks, how will those decisions be made? Could you believe that this House is about ready to pass a budget that does that? That passes that responsibility over to an agency instead of doing it itself?

Rep. Bruno: My esteemed colleague, I am glad you didn't ask me to cut the budget for Meals on Wheels but I would certainly believe you because you are on the Finance Committee. Thank you.

Rep. McElroy: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Honorable Representatives. I rise here today in support of the Governor's veto because I rise in support of an irrefutably balanced budget. I do not see that right now. I see a lot of confusion on our own part. I see that our revenue trends have been down. Our business and interest taxes have been going down. Then, last Wednesday when Alan Greenspan of the Federal Reserve gave his reduction of the prime interest rate and then he went further and said, "We have not reached the bottom of this recession yet." If our revenues are trending downward, he just said they are going to continue downward even more. Because you need to keep in mind that those of us who are living on our principal and interest, those are going to be going down because of the drop in the prime rate. Our business and interest taxes are going to continue downward, so I think the responsible thing that we should do with just the federal numbers, if nothing else, we need to rework this budget and take the 3 to 5 percent out now before we get started. Thank you.

Rep. Mark Carter: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Distinguished members. Let's boil this down. There's a 60 million dollar difference here from what the Governor is willing to accept to what the House and Senate had adopted. The Governor wants to put it in the bank. Those who want to override this veto want to spend it on desirable social programs. I personally can't look real people in the eye and say we can't give you the services you need in order to put the money in the bank. The Governor has not done his job yet in finding waste. He hasn't had a chance to do his job yet. He's cutting substance not waste and waste is what he promised to cut. We should override this veto and let the Governor do what he promised us he would do. And what he promised the people he would do. Will we have to cut substance in 2006? Well, we may have to do that. But this isn't 2006, this the 2004 budget we are talking about and it's a balanced budget, in fact, it has a small surplus. I will not vote to put money in the bank today and to withhold essential services. It's not in the people's interest and I urge you to vote to override the Governor's veto. Thank you.

Rep. Easson: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I shall keep my remarks brief today. I have noticed that there have been some personal attacks made against our Governor for vetoing this budget. I've heard it said that the Governor is just a political novice. Being Governor is just a hobby for him. He's not willing to compromise. His behavior is erratic. He doesn't know what he is doing and he's out of control. Ladies and gentlemen, the Governor is not an issue today. The budget is. The Governor's decision to veto the budget was the right thing to do regardless of his motives, real or perceived. I am basing my vote on the merits of this budget and the good of my constituents and our state and nothing else. It's time to put the last election behind us. The time to stand in judgment of the Governor is not now but next fall when he seeks re-election. I have a great deal of respect for the members who have worked hard on this budget. Some members, in particular, I consider to be my friends. However, after all analysis, I disagree with this budget in principle and on principle I must stand. I hope that my constituents will pay attention to this vote today because when they do, they will see their representative keeping his word to support lower spending in this state. Let's send the committee of conference back to work so our constituents can have a better budget. Thank you.

Rep. Edwin Smith: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I've known Speaker Chandler for 11 years. As a freshman I was assigned to the Public Works and Highways Committee and I learned from his leadership as chairman of that committee. It has been my experience, Speaker Chandler is, above all, a man of his word, few that they may be. I have come to respect his judgment and honesty. While other commitments and responsibilities kept me from attending most of the deliberative budget sessions, in discussions with Speaker Chandler, I have come to understand the budget well and trust it will serve the people of the state while keeping fiscal needs in the forefront of our considerations. In contrast to the truth, trust and faith with Speaker Chandler, a veto message from Governor Benson stated and I quote, "I am convinced that if the General Court will work with me, we can quickly come up with a budget that is acceptable to all three participants in this process." While at the same time, the Governor is using his specially ordered 2x4 veto stamp to get attention. I for one do not feel that as an elected official, it takes a 2x4 to get my attention. I also know my colleagues in this House take their elected positions seriously, more seriously than implied by the use of a 2x4. I ask you who is showing respect for the members of this body? We all serve in this body because we sought the privilege and it is a privilege to serve with each and every one of you. We clearly do not do it for the money. We do it because we want to serve the constituents who elected us, our communities and our state. We need to vote to override this veto today on this budget that was passed by this body only a few days ago. The budget continued many but not all programs in a most economical way. My constituents are not in favor of cuts. They are interested in economy in government. The best bang for the buck. I think we have it in this budget as passed last week in this House. We are the board of directors for the government of this great state. Unlike a typical board, we are elected to serve our constituents, not to answer to an executive. We must be aware of the executive branch and cooperate wherever possible while still maintaining our independence. Since a line has been drawn in the sand, now is the time for this body to do what is right and support the recent action of this House by overriding the veto. The budget passed by this House last week has many things that I personally am not convinced are necessary. There are also things in there which I think should be funded. I know I'm not alone in this view. We all realize 235 votes from a total of 359 cast is very representative of the process and concessions that were made over the last several months were workable and supportable for all 3,089 constituents we each represent back home. Please respect your elected position and remember our government and society are an example to others throughout the world. Our political system based on checks and balances between the branches of government requires us as elected officials to provide the best possible standard of living for our citizens which the budget that we are currently looking at does. If the veto is sustained, countless hours of work and hard fought compromises that went into the budget will be lost. It would also force us into a situation where decisions will be made based on speed and not allow for the careful consideration under which the current budget was crafted. Please support the House position by voting "Yes" to override.

Rep. Harrington: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll be very brief. Low taxes are the result of low spending. That was true years ago when Mel Thomson said it and it's true today. We spend this additional money, we will inevitably will have to raise taxes. For the last six years the Republicans have blamed the Democrats for the increases in spending. We couldn't do any better because the Governor was a Democrat. We no longer have that excuse. It's up to the Republicans today to stand up and vote on what we supposedly stand for – controlling spending and the tax increases we won't have to worry about. If we end in a 200 million dollar hole, the only way out of it is a massive tax increase. We are not going to get tricky like we have in the past sometime to get out; that's too much money. This is a step, this budget is a step down the wrong road. It's the road to more spending and more taxes. I urge you all to please join me and upholding the Governor's veto. Thank you. Rep. Moore: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to sustain the Governor's veto of the budget to House Bill 1. There are some things in the budget that I don't agree with and one of them is the structural deficit "so called." If an individual spends more than he takes in, sooner or later he's going to be Chapter 7, 11, 13 or whatever else. Of course, you rely upon funds that come from the government and stuff like that, but what if it doesn't show up? Then you have a problem. I also object to the spending of one-time funds which may never again occur. All this is a gamble. If you roll the dice and they come up 11, you're in great shape. But if it comes up snake eyes, forget it.

I grew up at a time when it was a practice for your parents to say, "We can't afford this." Still, they took care of the needs you had. You had a house to live in, clothes on your back, food on the table, a warm place to sleep and you were tucked in every night. But when you asked for something that was a want, if you said, "Gee, I'd like to have a new pair of skis, Ma," she'd say, "We can't afford that." And you didn't get it. I have lived my whole life on that same principle. What you need, you buy. What you don't need, you don't buy and most of all, if you borrow, you can find yourself in considerable trouble. So, I suggest that we sustain the Governor's veto. Support the Governor, after all, he did get elected by an overwhelming majority. There is also one saying that I've lived by and a lot of people know it, and that is, "Tough times never last, but tough people do." And if you're tough, and you're willing to stick with things and refuse to spend money recklessly, you may be better off in the long run. Thank you very much and God bless you all.

Rep. Crane: My husband knows that I have been following this and reading an awful lot of materials and newspapers lately. He handed me a newspaper the other day and I read some of the stronger comments. "Proposed in my budget message to you is a hold-the-line budget with increases related to normal revenue growth." Along with this hold-the-line budget, he added, this is from The Telegraph, "is my determination to put an end to the practice of passing inadequately funded legislation." Then my husband proceeded to tell me that he had found this paper while renovating our bathroom. It's from 1969. It was Governor Peterson pledging a tight rein on state budget.

Governor Benson is not doing anything differently than every good Republican governor has tried to do in the State of New Hampshire. He's trying to hold the line on spending. It's the reason a lot of us new people were elected. There's 83 million dollars that fell from the sky and I cannot imagine that as good Republicans that we don't realize if we commit ourselves to spending that money today, we're committing ourselves to spending that money tomorrow and where is it coming from tomorrow? I suggest that this is a losing battle for all of us. It's a losing fight unless we go back. We look like we're cooperating with each other. We try to rework the budget. We extend an olive branch to the Governor and we say we want to do something about this budget or we are all doomed to self destruction 'cause you know as well as I do it's going to come down to this: There's going to be the Governor's camp and there's going to be leadership's camp and we are going to be squeezed in between the middle. Don't do that. Extend the olive branch to the Governor and let's start to rebuild and restore some of these relationships. I'm very concerned, this is the last point that I will make, these comments about the Governor. He has been given zero credit for all the efforts he's made towards the legislature. I have personally, as well as every single one of you, been invited within a two month period to speak to him twice in groups of five and ten. First at Upham Walker House and then at the Governor's mansion. I don't know any other Governor that has done that. I support leadership. I have great respect for Neal Kurk and some of the other people who have put their heart and soul into this budget, but I cannot stand idly by and watch this character assassination of our Republican governor when I know it is patently false. He has reached out to us. He has asked for our opinions on judgeships, on commissions. He has asked for our opinions and he has asked for the opinions of leadership. And it is simply unfair, we need to start cooperating or we are all going to be basically out of office.

Rep. Patten: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members of the House. The poet laureate spoke a hopeful message to me on Governor Craig Benson's inauguration day, maybe only to me, but that message was let's have our rude and raucous disputations during the cold winter months as a quorum of neighbors so that by the time the summer solstice came around our work will be done and we could go home to our fields, our woodpiles, and our families. I stand here today ready to vote for an override of the governor's veto. Last Tuesday I voted for the committee of conference report on the budget but I was not sure that I'd be able to support an override. As usual I wait until the final budget proposal is adopted and then figure out what it is all about. I'm not good at math, which my committee members know of me very well, but I can see that the numbers are being used by all sides to make their point. I have come to believe the committee of conference numbers because they have had public input, discussion and analysis has been done, appropriately so. During the committee of conference, the House and Senate members not only determined what amounts are acceptable to reduce or to spend, the committee of conference members also determined what revenue numbers are acceptable and usually, finally agree on the same numbers. I spoke with Rep. Eaton this morning who spent every moment with the budget from the beginning to the end. The Governor or his designee was not present to either argue, disagree or work to find the acceptable reductions or spending and the acceptable revenue amounts. Why is known to him, but to me that is significant. As a CEO of a successful business in the private sector, our Governor never had to ask permission. Now, as one of our councilors told us in a Republican meeting in May, the Governor walks out the door and there are five councilors, and then he goes around another corner and there are 24 senators, and finally he comes to the hall and here we are, 399 reps. We all work hard between January and June. The deadlines are published well in advance. All options are open for discussion and consensus or compromise until the deadlines. I ask questions, I do my homework, I listen, I give input, I decide the issue and then cast my vote. Since one-third of the participants chose not to come to the kitchen table, is that a reason why we as representatives should not work together to pass the budget and do the job that the New Hampshire people expect us to do? Please join with me in voting to override the veto. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Rep. Vaillancourt: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to urge my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to sustain our Governor's veto of this budget which, in fact, grows government at a rate of more than twice that of inflation. I respect leadership of this House, I respect leadership of the Senate, I respect everyone here and I think we have honest differences. In answer to the previous speaker's question, the Governor has a right to veto. That is part of our constitution. We have a right to attempt to override. What I hope we do not do is override this veto because we are tired and want to get out of town in a hurry. I listened to a lot of pundits over the weekend, and they said, "Oh, yeah, the House will probably vote to override because they don't want to do anymore work on this budget." That shouldn't be the reason we get out of town. If this budget is flawed, and I believe it is, we should go back to work on it. We should not be in a hurry to accept something that is flawed. What we can do is vote to sustain the veto today and at the same time vote for a continuing resolution to keep government going. I hope that's ready. We had some discussion earlier as to whether it was ready or not, but nobody here wants to shut government down. Having done those two things, we can then tell our leadership, go back to work, go back and meet with the Senate. Come back to us with a budget that is better. Not that this budget is terrible, but we can do better. I think for the people of New Hampshire, not only can we do better, but we must do better and I think we shall end up doing better. Even some of the leaders who are going to vote against the Governor and going to vote to override this veto today, when they are told to go back and work, I believe they will come up with some better ideas to make this budget better and one the Governor can accept. It's a good civics lesson, what we've all been going through and for all the heat and agony that we've had to endure, I guess we have all learned something. Governor Benson was elected by about 60 percent of the vote against a candidate who favored the dreaded income tax. The people spoke loudly and clearly. I was beginning to wonder if, in fact, the people still felt the same. I heard the results of a poll this weekend — 71 percent of the people think the legislature is spending too much, 72 percent support the Governor's veto. Impressive numbers. We can do better, we must do better and we will do better after we sustain this veto today. Thank you.

Rep. Jacobson: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Representative, I saw two surveys and one said that 72 percent favor sustaining the veto; but I saw the other one which said that 57 percent of the population agreed with overriding the veto. How do we know which is correct?

Rep. Vaillancourt: Well, if we take the average of the two, perhaps that's the best method.

Rep. Guay: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members of the House. [...auctioneer calling...]....and whether we bid for or not, where these people in the hall and all the people in the back there, let's appreciate it. We're about ready to sell a package here today. What I want to tell you is actually when the constitution was made, and I see all these people coming to the front and talking about the constitution ever since I've been here. But now is your chance to prove what you are saying and you're backing out. Doesn't make any sense to me. When the former government was made, our governor is not the same type as everybody else in the United States. Our governor is a weak governor. Not the governor itself. Benson is a good man but the system, that's why they have the governor's council. We in the House are empowered to administer the budget, to form the budget and he administers what we do. I would hope today, we've done in my last 26 years I always tried to retain the power in the House regardless of if you get paid or not. And if we sustain today, all those that did the last time, actually we were down to Hampton Beach and we couldn't get 'em that's why it lasted so long because you don't get paid. So the best thing we can do today is proceed the way that we were on our budget. It was a majority that passed it and we should have the same vote here today, much more than the same vote. So, I hope I'm selling something here today that you want to buy. Regardless, if you don't want to buy it, listen to me. Vote to override the Governor. Vote to override the Governor. Recapture your position. Recapture what you've been empowered to do and vote right, vote with the majority to override the Governor's veto. Thank you.

Rep. Mock: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in opposition to the motion to override the Governor's veto of House Bill 1. I rise on my own accord, I was asked by no one to speak and I was asked by no one not to speak. I have asked no one to join with me in voting as I am voting today until this very moment when I ask you to join with me supporting the Governor's veto of House Bill 1. As a member of House leadership, I do not take this overt action lightly but I do take it with a very clear conscience. I am well aware in getting up here today of the old saying, "It is better to be silent and thought to be a fool, than to speak and erase all questions." But you know what, I was sent here to be heard, 3,150 people, roughly, I guess sent me here and I will not sell out any principles that I may have. I'm just going to talk like I always talk. Because you know it's been said that when you stop sounding like where you grew up, is when you start getting into trouble. And I'm voting the way I am voting today by pressing the red button for some very important reasons. The first and primary reason that I'm voting the way I am is this: when I walk through those double doors on the last day that I am in this House, I will walk through that door with my principles intact and my conscience absolutely clear. I cannot support this budget. I did not support this budget last week. It's like a bird with a broken wing. It can't fly.

How do I know that the position I have taken is the correct position? I'm not a whiz with figures. I can't even balance my own checkbook. I saved a couple of dollars here and there but other than that I don't know figures. But nothing has happened to my hearing and I listened last week. I heard three distinct messages that were sent to me and those are the ones that I grasped, and those are the ones that made my decision. Speaker #1 came to this very podium, the most respected person in this entire House and Senate, in my opinion, when it comes to the budget and rather matter of factly, that speaker said that at the end of this biennium, this budget is out of tune— to the tune of 200 million dollars. I went and checked that out and found an LBA estimate that says it's really 212 million dollars. Then I heard speaker #2, another respected member of the House Finance committee who stood here and melodramatically proclaimed that the budget was full of smoke and mirrors. Smoke and mirrors! A biennial budget based on smoke and mirrors? No, no, no, I cannot accept that. So where do we go for the 200 million? It must be an increase in business and profits taxes, income taxes, sales taxes, maybe expanded gambling. What else? And then speaker #3 came up here. And speaker #3 in very excellent rhetoric, that nice, soft, cushy stuff that makes you feel good to agree with him. He said that what we should do is pass this budget along to the Governor and let the Governor shape it over the next two years. Specifically, you got that same message in a letter you received this week. It came from the Speaker and the Speaker said, "Let the Governor take the budget, work with it to implement his style and make the corrections that he is empowered to do." The key is "and to change what he is empowered to do." He is only empowered to make any corrections to that budget, freezing state hiring, etc. with the permission and the vote of the Fiscal Committee. And who is the Fiscal Committee? The Fiscal Committee is the committee who made the budget. I would hope, and I have confidence, that they would cooperate with it.

To be very frank with you I find it embarrassing and humiliating to see we Republicans tearing ourselves to pieces. If I were sitting over there on that side, I would have a bellyache and my bellyache would be caused from just holding in my giggles. Because we are walking down that highway exactly where the minority party would like us to go. Governor Benson stood at that podium, right there, at his inaugural address and he told you, as he had told in all of his stump speeches all last fall, that he would never accept passing along indebtedness to future generations. Two years down the line may not be a generation for people, but two years down the line is a new generation of legislators. He ran against a fervent income taxer. By receiving 70 percent, I guess about that, in the vote and many of us rode into this House on his coattails and on the coattails of an income tax. Now is not the time to sell him out. Eight percent increase, if it's 8 percent, and I agree with Alf Jacobson, Rep. Jacobson said, "Whose numbers are we supposed to believe?" I've seen 12.9, I've seen 8.8, I've seen 8.

Then we received the other figure of just general fund spending. About general fund spending, when federal money crosses that state line, and I guess it must come up from Boston, in my book it becomes state money. A respected member of this House Ways and Means Committee told me that the revenues are not there to support this budget. I believe it.

In conclusion, let me just say this, don't believe the Chicken Little story. The sky is not falling. As my vice chairman, Rep. Rowe, has often told me in our committee, he has said that a little conflict between the branches of government can be healthy sometimes. I agree with him. I think it can. Someone once said that all government, indeed every human benefit and enjoyment, every virtue and every productive act is founded on compromise and barter. It is not too late to do that with this budget. As the Speaker eloquently stated at the close of last week's session, he said that he had followed the budgetary process according to the Constitution and the applicable statutes. He has and I commend him for that. I also commend my Speaker for not getting involved in personal attacks against anyone. I appreciate that. But remember this, the budget is now back here in the House. It is probably sitting there on the table. It's not the Governor's budget. It's our budget. And what happens to that budget today is up to us, not the Governor. If government shuts down at midnight tonight, don't blame the Governor. You can only blame us. That's why it would be wise to push the red button and send this budget back for more work. When the day is done, trust me, the mighty Merrimack will continue to flow through this capital city all the way to the sea and government will still be viable. It will still be stable and the constitution and the people of this great state will have been well served. I ask you to remember this, in the end, the abilities of this body to solve its problems and the challenges faced by our state do not lie solely in our leaders but within ourselves. Thank you.

Rep. Whalley: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, working together works. Three very simple words — "working together works." We've all worked together with one another in this House. Republicans have worked with Republicans. Democrats have worked with Democrats. Democrats have worked with Republicans and Republicans have worked with Democrats. Not every time, but more often than not because that's the way we get something done. Mr. Speaker, we've worked with the Senate and we've worked with the Governor and whatever happens today, I think we should all be prepared to roll up our sleeves and work with the Senate and Governor beginning tomorrow. Just because we override this veto today, as I hope we will, it doesn't mean the work is done. Mr. Speaker, this disagreement, some have called it a spat, some have used more colorful language, it's over 25 million dollars per year on a 4.4 billion dollar budget per year. If you sugar that down, what it really means is we have a disagreement with the Governor over 60 cents per 100 dollars. Think about that. You walk into the grocery store, you buy your groceries, you get to the checkout line, the check out person says, "It's $100," and you say, "I'll give you $99.40." And the check out person says, "But it's $100" and you walked out without the groceries and the unintended consequences that go with that over 60 cents per 100 dollars. Now, Mr. Speaker, I heard my good friend from Jackson indicate that the Governor doesn't have the authority to implement this budget once it's authorized by this legislature and he's right. But the Governor has something that all of us possess to some small extent, but he has it in much greater dividends. He's the Governor of our state. He's the chief executive officer of the executive branch of government. The commissioners and the department heads work really for him. Two of them, Environmental Services and Health and Human Services were recently appointed by Governor Benson. To a great extent I would call those appointees, the Governor's appointments. You cannot convince me that in the next twelve months the Governor through good management practices, best management practices, cannot leverage his relationship with the executive branch of government and save two million dollars a month. Twenty-five million dollars a year for the next two years to get back to a point at which we would have agreement with the Governor. That is the reason he has vetoed this budget today. Think about it. Twenty-five million dollars a year, 50 million dollars over the biennium.

Now, Mr. Speaker, earlier somebody spoke of controlling expenses and costs and spending. And I agree. I think everyone in this room wishes to control spending. None of us are reckless spenders. I know for a fact that my friend from Moultonborough is not a liberal tax and spender. I know for a fact that my friend from Hinsdale is not a liberal tax and spender. I know that most of you who sit in this room today are not tax and spenders but you are responsible. Mr. Speaker, the budget we passed last week is a responsible budget. It's based on compromise and I believe it is a fair budget. Mr. Speaker, I believe that we are close enough with the Governor that we should not create potential chaos that might exist tomorrow if, in fact, we don't pass this budget.

Recently a memo was received in our office from the State Treasurer, and in a short and concise way I will try to tell you what that letter said. If we do not pass a budget today, our bond rating will be downgraded tomorrow. That's an immediate concern of mine. That will cost the State of New Hampshire probably more than the 25 million dollars that we're having this disagreement with the Governor. Mr. Speaker, some have talked about this as going down the road to an income tax. Mr. Speaker, I was honored to be on the committee of conference on the budget. I was honored to be surrounded by people who know a lot more about the budget than I do. I for one, Mr. Speaker, would not have signed a committee of conference report that would have taken us down the road to an income tax because like many of you, I am as opposed to a broad based tax for the State of New Hampshire as anybody here. As long as I am in this legislature, I will work in opposition to that.

Mr. Speaker, I think all that was said was necessary but nothing more needs to be said. I think most people know how we're going to vote. Mr. Speaker, please allow the members to use their conscience and do the right thing and vote to override the Governor's veto so that we can move on tomorrow and work with the Governor and find the 25 or more million dollars that the Governor is advocating that we must need to find to solve what he describes as a "200 million dollar problem" in the next biennium. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 2

To the Honorable Members of the General Court:

By the authority vested in me as Governor of New Hampshire, pursuant to Part II, Article 44 of the Constitution of New Hampshire, I have vetoed House Bill 2-FN-A, relative to state fees, funds, revenues, and expenditures. (Refer to veto message on House Bill 1)

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall HB 2-FN-A, relative to state fees, funds, revenues, and expenditures, become law?

Rep. Kurk spoke against.

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds approval, was taken.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 3 making temporary appropriations for the expenses and encumbrances of the state of New Hampshire.

Whereas, a budget has not yet been enacted for fiscal years 2004 and 2005; and

Whereas, action at this time is necessary to carry out the functions of state government after fiscal year 2003, and prior to enacting said budget act; now therefore be it;

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1.(a) That each state agency or state entity for which the general court appropriated funds for its operating budget for fiscal year 2003 is authorized to obligate additional funds for expenditures for fiscal year 2004 at a rate not in excess of 1/6 of the adjusted authorized appropriation as of June 30, 2003 plus 2 percent for fiscal year 2003 for all purposes, other than purchase of equipment and objects not deemed by the commissioner of administrative services to be normally of an annually recurring character for which continuity of expenditure is essential, unless due to an emergency it shall be otherwise authorized by the governor with the advice and consent of the council with prior approval of the legislative fiscal committee; and

(b) Enactment of this resolution shall constitute acceptance by the state of federal funds in such amounts as under applicable state or federal law shall be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this resolution and shall further constitute the appropriation of such state funds as under federal law shall be required to be added to such federal funds as a condition of their transfer to the state. The authorization provided in this resolution shall be deemed to be a budget within the meaning of RSA 9; and

(c) Funds subject to obligation under this resolution shall be deemed subject to transfer under the provisions of RSA 9:16-9:17-d, with prior approval of the legislative fiscal committee. The governor is authorized by and with the advice and consent of the council to draw his warrants for the sums necessary to discharge obligations authorized by this resolution out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated or, in the case of special funds, out of any such special funds. Expenditures obligated under authority of this resolution shall be charges upon any appropriations subsequently enacted with respect to identical purposes and periods; and

II. That the provisions of RSA 9 inconsistent with the provisions of this resolution and the provisions of any other statutes so inconsistent are hereby suspended to the extent of such inconsistencies during the time this resolution is in effect. The state of New Hampshire hereby indemnifies any state official, commissioner, trustee, or other person having control of public funds appropriated by the general court for any liability personally incurred because of the provisions of RSA 9:19 and RSA 9:20 for whatever period of time elapses from 12:01 a.m. July 1, 2003, until the time that the provisions of this resolution making temporary appropriations become law; and

III. That the provisions of HB 2 FN-A of the 2003 legislative session, and HB 663 FN-A-LOCAL of the 2003 legislative session as amended and adopted by the legislature, being necessary to give effect to the provisions of this resolution, shall be deemed to be in effect during the period that this resolution is in effect; and

IV. That this resolution shall take effect July 1, 2003 and shall continue in effect until an operating budget is enacted into law but in no event later than September 10, 2003.

MOTION TO PRINT DEBATE

Rep. Hess moved that the debate on the motion to concur with the Senate amendment to HJR 3, making temporary appropriations for the expenses and encumbrances of the state of New Hampshire, be printed in the Permanent Journal.

Without objection, the Speaker so ordered.

DEBATE ON CONCURRENCE HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 3

Rep. Soltani: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I thank you for your explanation. However, as my colleague, Rep. Jasper pointed out, this language lends itself to an interpretation which is contrary to our intent and under the New Hampshire rules of statutory construction, we first look to the language of the statute. The language of this statute is rather clear. It's three-twelfths of a 24-month appropriation. That's money which is appropriated for a total of six months. It does not distinguish for the 2004 appropriation nor the 2005 appropriation. It takes the money which we appropriated for six months and tells the governor and the executive branch of the government, and the judicial branch of the government, that they can spend it in three months because it expires in October 1. So this not only passes HB 1-A, the compromised version which was approximately a 9 percent increase, but doubles it and brings it up to a 16 percent increase. This is a slap in the Governor's face and a slap to our face. We passed something that was clear, objective and looking for compromise. I would suggest that this language, as presented to us, is just unacceptable to this House, to the people of New Hampshire and hopefully, to the Governor. I ask that we vote down the motion for concurrence and move subsequently for nonconcurrence and a Committee of Conference so we can work out the difference between what we passed, which was a two percent for 60 days, and what the Senate wants. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Rep. Holden: Thank you, the honorable representative from Epsom. I have a question on the resolution that we sent across the wall does it mention anything about HB 1, I thought we killed HB 1? And how is it they resurrected this?

Rep. Soltani: Amazing things happen in the legislative branch. The dead sometimes come back to life and incorporating that language by itself doesn't help because as of right now we don't have an HB 1-A in existence. In fact, one of the more crafty lawyers was telling me that we could say that HB 1-A was the House version that was passed because we don't have a final version of HB 1-A that was ever passed into law. So what we are doing is really not clear at all. At worst, it could be very damaging to the state government. At best it could just do a lot of damage to the state government.

Rep. Harrington: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Well it certainly seems by reading this and the previous discussion, that this bill at best is confusing. No one seems to be very clear as to what we are spending. I've had a few math classes and 3/12th should really in this case be 3/24th is what we should be spending here because we are talking about a three month period and this is a two year budget.

But that really comes down to a technical issue that I suppose could be fixed. The real heart of the problem here is that what we have done is, we just upheld the Governor's veto of the so-called HB 1 bill as it came out of the committee of conference. This one simply sticks that same bill that was just defeated and puts it back into the budget. We said we couldn't pass it for 24 months so now we're going to pass it for three months. That sets a precedent that we're going to try to get it passed for 24 months again during that ensuing three months. I can't speak for the Governor but since this is the exact same bill as he vetoed, I'm pretty sure that he's going to veto it again. And we're going to be no further along. We gave the Senate a good piece of legislation to work for on a continuing resolution. A continuing resolution means continue. We continue the spending levels at the present level plus two percent until September 10th. That was good, I think we should stick with it and I go along with Rep. Soltani and I think that we should vote to nonconcur and committee of conference on this.

Rep. DiFruscia: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Maybe I have difficulty understanding English but isn't it true that on the flip page, page 2, thank you for turning your pages, Roman Numeral IV, it states that this resolution shall take effect July 1, 2003, shall continue in effect until an operating budget is enacted into law, but in no event later than October 1, 2003. In speaking English that's very clear to me. It ends October 1, 2003. Where's the confusion?

Rep. Harrington: Thank you for your question. The confusion is not on when it will end, it's how much money is spent during that time. This says we can spend, or the various departments can spend 3/12th of the appropriations contained in HB 1-A between July 1st and October 1st. That 3/12th of a 24-month budget. That's a quarter of the whole budget can be spent. It should be 3/24th because it is a 12-month budget. But again, besides that's a technical issue that could be worked out. The problem is, it's the same budget we just defeated earlier this morning by upholding the Governor's veto.

Rep. Wheeler: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Representative, are you describing this problem as confusion or is it more clearly an unacceptance of an answer that was given to you by the Speaker?

Rep. Harrington: "unacceptance of an answer that was given to me by the Speaker?" Well, I'm confused by the Speaker's answer, if you want to know that. The problem I have with this again, it is a confusing bill. I'm not really sure what we are voting on and it's also what it presents from the Senate as it brings back for three months what we just rejected as a 24-month budget.

Rep. Weyler: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We began at 10 o'clock this morning, by noon we had a vote. We did not override the budget. That calls for a continuing resolution. That's what we did. The continuing resolution went over to the Senate and for whatever reason they wanted to be at the HB 1 level. Now, that entails a whole bunch of programs that perhaps we're going to start-up new in HB-1 or be discontinued from the 2003 spending. So you were sure that levels of spending, in other words, if you did the levels of spending, if you wanted to cut, let's say L-CHIP, you would go back to the 8 million dollars spending in L-CHIP, if that's what you wanted. Some of you said you didn't want that. The HB-1 changes those levels. There's other programs that change like that. You can nit-pick this thing forever but it's a temporary measure that only goes for something less than three months. It establishes a spending level. It allows government to continue to operate. Whereas, if you keep delaying this thing, government will shut down. This goes on for a temporary period during which some resolution will arise that you will find acceptable. So if you vote this thing out, it will take care of itself. Government will continue. We will go back into negotiation and we will come to some conclusion. In the meantime, nothing earthshaking will happen. We won't lose our bond rating. We won't have to shut down government. The programs which were supposed to start up come July 1st will start up. I don't see a problem. I think we're creating something that doesn't exist. This is a temporary solution. There will be changes. Thank you.

Rep. Harrington: Rep. Weyler, I guess my question would be, you mentioned how if HB-1 comes in, there will be some different programs and so forth. Now, if we have these programs start up for three months at the HB-1 level of funding then it turns around that the new budget doesn't match that. We're going to have to either cut or stop those programs? Won't there be quite a bit of confusion because you are going to be going from a level of spending that if presumably the Governor does hold tight here with his veto or holds tight in the negotiations for the final budget, it's going to be a lower level of spending than HB-1? So we're going to be giving programs the ability to start up, spend money and then, we're going to cut it and right after three months into the session. I think that would cause quite a bit of confusion.

Rep. Weyler: A lot of these programs were supported by the Governor, by the House, by the Senate. Not too many of them were really turned down flat on their own face. The most confusion will arise, if we cannot pass a continuing resolution. That would be confusing. If we can pass a continuing resolution, there will be a lot less confusion than there would otherwise be.

Rep. Dodge: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, representative from Kingston, my good friend. In regards to the fact that they're all worried about whether this is a 12-month budget or a 24-month budget, as you work on the budget for the people who are involved with it, it comes in two sections. It comes in 2004 and 2005. And all they are saying in this one here is we are going to go by the 2004 estimates, not the 2005. So instead of questioning the 3/24's, it's a question of 3/12's. That's all. Is that not correct?

Rep. Weyler: That is correct and I think the last paragraph spells it out that this resolution dies after October 1, 2003.

Rep. Kerns: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Representative, this looks like the same budget that the Senate sent back to us that we rejected previously. How is this not in defiance of the will of the House, and the will of a Governor who has been elected to enforce the mandate of the people, how does this solve anything, Representative?

Rep. Weyler: This is reflective of a budget that was passed by the Committee of Conference, passed by a majority of members in the House and an overwhelming majority in the Senate. To say this was not a reflection of the House is wrong.

Rep. McElroy: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Rep. Weyler. During the break I went over to see the Treasurer. We heard it this morning from Rep. Whalley. I heard it just now from you. I'd like to ask why do we keep hearing that our bond rating is going to drop? The Treasurer said there are several factors that go into this and that there is no way that our bond rating is going to drop by tomorrow and probably not at all. So, if that's true, I wonder, Rep. Weyler if you would mind explaining that to me, please?

Rep. Weyler: If you ever read the 100 odd pages that the Treasurer takes to the bond counsel in New York, there are many things in that, that all reflect. There are questions that are asked. Years ago the bond counsel didn't like the fact that we didn't have an income tax. However, I think what's happened to the majority of the states that do have an income tax may have opened their eyes and may have made them have a different opinion of whether you have a balanced set of revenues or whether you have an income tax that plummets when the economy goes down. So there are many aspects that enter into this. It is hard for any one of us to predict what the bond counsel will declare. But we know that anything that disturbs them, any investors will tell you – uncertainty is the thing that bothers them the most. If there's an uncertainty as to what will happen in the New Hampshire revenue picture, that will effect the bond rating. It's difficult to say to what extent.

Rep. Itse: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Representative Weyler. I just have a question since many of us feel uncomfortable with the expression of the 3/12th of the 2003 budget which is a 24-month budget. Would it be reasonable at this time to craft an amendment to this that clarifies that so that we all agree on the understanding?

Rep. Weyler: Any change to this amendment would mean going back to the Senate. It will probably mean hours more. Look how long it took to get this amendment over here now. Some people would like to go home and have some meetings they have in the evening, me included. If you want to keep changing this, this could go on and on. I think I understand it, I think the testimony is clear enough to what it means and I think the fact that this resolution ends on October 1, 2003 is sufficient.

Rep. Wendelboe: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I speak in opposition to the concurrence motion. I think we're losing sight of the big picture. We acted earlier today and rejected the budget. We acted responsibly and we said we're passing a continuing resolution to ensure the orderly continuation of government. I think the leadership's continuing resolution that they brought forth was a prudent one. It allowed for '03 spending plus two percent until September 10th. I think that showed good faith. We sent that over to the other side of the wall and they kept us waiting for three hours to come back with this. And what this is is status quo. It is saying, we are going to cram down the exact figures that you rejected this morning. Ask yourself, how open does this give you of an idea that the Senate is to go back to the table and come to a compromise? When the only thing they're willing to send back is what we rejected. It shows that they are unmovable. That there is no working with them as there was not working with them in the Committee of Conference. And I think it is another indication of the Senate saying to the House, "We don't care what your position is, we're the Senate and we rule." We had a position. It was leadership's amendment. We overwhelmingly without debate, with a voice vote passed it. The Senate kept us waiting three hours to send back exactly what we had rejected. How to do we put increased spending into effect for three months, maybe six month's worth of spending in that three months depending on who interprets what, start programs, increase services, and then try to turn the spigot off? If you think you were accused of cutting now, wait until then.

The subject of the bond rating came up and that's been used as a threat. I personally spoke with Mike Ablowich, the Treasurer, this afternoon and he denied ever saying that our bond rating was at risk. He said there are a whole mix of things that are looked at and maybe that might be part of it. It was stated on this floor earlier today that if we defeated the budget, that our bond rate tomorrow would be dropped. That was not truthful.

Our goal here is to have a continuing resolution and to go to a compromise position with the Senate. I do not see where we have any strength to compromise when we have been sent back status quo and an unwillingness of the Senate to say "O.K., for two months the state can continue under their existing budget with a two percent increase." I think we should reject this. I think we should go to a Committee of Conference, come back and revote in the House's position. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Rep. Robertson: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, fellow legislator. Speaking of compromises, and I do realize we turned down the budget but it was just over a third that turned it down and it would seem to me that the vast majority of us voted to override the veto. Wouldn't it be something to put us all back together if those, in spite of the fact that they carried the day, were in the vast minority compromised with what was the majority?

Rep. Wendelboe: Thank you for the question. Well you know that little 'ol minority has a strong constitutional majority. Our constitution gives that right to the minority and that is why we have a two-thirds. We won the debate this morning. You might not like it but this House now has a position and I think we should stand by it.

Rep. Robertson: The question was isn't it time that you who carried the day compromise with us the majority? I don't deny that you won. It was fair and square. It was by the rules of the House. But now, you've been suggesting that we do some kind of compromise and it takes two, in my opinion, to compromise and I haven't heard you offer anything except, you know, disaster and I was wondering where your compromise is and why you're so for it on one side and not on the other?

Rep. Wendelboe: Representative, the compromise was the '03 budget plus two percent increase versus no compromise from the Senate of forcing status quo that we rejected this morning back at us. The House compromised. The Senate is not.

Rep. Kerns: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, members of the House. Fran, you've never lied to me in all the time I've known you and in all your dealings with this House of Representatives which you respect. This bill looks just like what the Senate just handed us and with the enforcement, and the mandate from the people, we have rejected this proposal. Tell me how this differs from what this House has just rejected.

Rep. Wendelboe: Rep. Kerns, I don't think it differs at all from what we just rejected. It is exactly what we just rejected except for a shorter period of time. But once we have put into place what we have rejected, it's going to be very difficult to move back away from that in a Committee of Conference.

(Rep. Francoeur in the Chair)

Rep. Whalley: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I've learned that there are times when we need to be slow and methodical and this is one of those times. So that you will have the appropriate time out in the hall to speak with the powers to be. So I'm doing the best I can, Mr. Speaker, to waste a little bit of time but not too much time. It's time for us to do something. The day's running short. This may be our last opportunity at a continuing resolution. If you'll turn to page one on the Committee of Conference report, but in all seriousness, I hope we iron out one little detail and that we can report to you momentarily. But in the meantime, I would like to address something that has been asked a bit earlier in reference to House Bill 1-A and in reference to House Bill 2. I understand that we did not override the Governor's veto this morning, so in theory those bills no longer exist from a legislative point of view. However, those bills are documents of record, easily identified and that is why it is appropriate to mention them in this continuing resolution. And I see that you're not back, Mr. Speaker. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Rep. Chandler: Thank you. It has been a long day and this is going to be a very short speech. I have just spoken privately with the Governor. He has assured me that if we pass this measure, that he will live with it and work with the House and Senate on coming up with a new budget. He expressed to me the same thing that I have expressed right along as we have gone through this, that he has no interest in shutting down state government, nor do I, nor do I think this House. I take him at his word. He'll work with this. Hopefully, it may not be the whole three months but whatever time it takes. So, he's assured me that he will live with it and hopefully this House will adopt the Committee of Conference report and that will be it. Thank you.

Rep. Bishop: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Now, my question is there seems to be a lot of confusion with the Senate version here. Rep. Whalley referred to the fact that HB 1-A which I believe we realize is the same number as the 2002-2003 budget had. That was the bill number each year, it's HB 1-A. Is that correct? Not always. However, in the Senate version they're referring to HB 1-A as passed in the 2003 legislative session which would be the one we just failed. Is that correct? This is what's getting confusing in this amendment they have on this.

Rep. Chandler: We are in 2003 and HB 1-A was passed during the legislative session in 2003. This amendment refers to the continuing resolution which refers to the appropriation of 2004 as outlined in what was vetoed, but what was passed by the House and the Senate as HB 1-A just for the year 2004 only. As I and others have explained, we cannot make an appropriation out of the budget in 2004 for 2005. Thank you.

COMMUNICATIONS

June 24, 2003

Speaker Gene G. Chandler:

It is with great regret that I submit my resignation as State Representative from Nashua District 64 effective June 30, 2003. I do this for the reason of change of residency.

My time at the State House has been some of the most rewarding of my life and the people I have come to know have enriched my every day. It is my hope that some time in the future I can return to these esteemed halls.

Respectfully,

Rep. Christine Furman, Hills. 64

July 7, 2003

Speaker Gene G. Chandler:

It is with regret that I tender my resignation as Representative to the General Court, effective July 10, 2003.

Due to my husband accepting a new position, I will be leaving New Hampshire after nearly 19 years. I have greatly enjoyed my time here. It has been an honor and a privilege to represent the constituents of District 65 in Nashua.

I have made many friends among my colleagues at the State House, and they will be missed. Best of luck to all as you continue to work for the best good of all our New Hampshire citizens.

Sincerely,

Rep. Christine Konys, Hills. 65

July 21, 2003

Speaker Gene G. Chandler:

As a result of my wife's recent health problems, we have decided that it is prudent to move to a retirement community that provides a variety of levels of residential and nursing services, as may be required for her care. As a result, we have sold our home in Marlow, NH and moved to a retirement community in Cromwell, Connecticut where we are closer to our sons and our daughter.

Therefore, I am submitting my resignation as a member of the New Hampshire House of Representatives, effective as of this date.

I regret having to resign in mid-term and wish you and your colleagues every success in passing a budget that will meet the needs of New Hampshire's citizens and communities.

Very truly yours,

Rep. Robert Batchelder, Ches. 24

On behalf of the House the Speaker accepted the resignations with regret.

The House of Representatives offered the following Memorial Resolution:

House Resolution 14

Memorializing State Representative Maurice E. Goulet of Bedford

WHEREAS, we have learned with great sorrow of the death of our friend and colleague Maurice E. Goulet, who was in his seventh term of dedicated service to his Bedford constituents; and

WHEREAS, Maurice Goulet was a true son of New Hampshire, born in Manchester and returning to his native state following college, service in the Korean War and his early professional career to settle in Bedford where he became involved in community activities, including the Bedford Historic District Commission; and

WHEREAS, as a member of the Executive Departments and Administration Committee for his entire tenure in the House, serving as Vice Chairman in 1999-2000, in addition to having served as Vice Chairman and Chairman of the Legislative Administration Committee over the last three years, and having gained knowledge and expertise in the area of Administrative Rules, Maurice Goulet was known as a man of calm and gentle persuasion when dealing with the sometimes heated debate caused by differing opinions; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his sartorial splendor, Maurice Goulet was known by all as a gentleman who was never too busy to share a smile or, if needed, an encouraging word – always accompanied by a mischievous twinkle in his eye; and

WHEREAS, while Maurice Goulet was a man of many interests, among them reading, crossword puzzles and fly-fishing, his overriding interest was always his family – his wife, two daughters and four grandsons; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the House of Representatives in Regular Session convened, that Maurice E. Goulet be granted the highest of accolades for his outstanding and dedicated service to his community and his state, and be it further

RESOLVED, that expressions of heartfelt sympathy be extended to his family and all who loved him and that a suitable copy of this Resolution be prepared for presentation to his family.

MOTION ON HB 4

Rep. Hess moved that HB 4-FN-A, relative to state fees, funds, revenues, and expenditures, be read a third time and passed.

Adopted.

Third reading and final passage

HB 4-FN-A, relative to state fees, funds, revenues, and expenditures.

ADJOURNMENT FROM THE EARLY SESSION

Rep. Hess offered the following: RESOLVED, that the House now adjourn from the early session, that the business of the late session be in order at the present time, and when the House adjourns today, it be to meet at the Call of the Chair.

Adopted.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Rep. Dupuis addressed the House.

Rep. Burling requested that the remarks of Rep. Dupuis be printed in the Permanent Journal.

Without objection, the Speaker so ordered.

Rep. Dupuis: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We heard this morning about three people who had to move from their communities. I also had to do the same thing. I submitted my resignation effective tonight. I want to take this moment to thank some people. First of all and foremost, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you for your leadership, your friendliness and always your open door. The Municipal and County Government Committee, on which I served, it's an important committee, but I got to tell you it was the most boring thing I've ever had in my life, barring none. I do want to thank Rep. Patten and Rep. Brundige for putting up with my freshman antics, for making me understand and for leading me down there. Mr. Speaker, they are jewels in this House, both of them. Mr. Speaker, to all the members of the committee—I'm not going to go down the names—I want to thank each and every one of you that helped me through, especially Rep. Nancy Johnson, my friend whom I disagree with everything she says, but who was open and my friend. Rep. Dave Buhlman, we found each other on the first day and we have been friends ever since, this is your year Dave, go for it and I'll be there to help you. To the Derry delegation, who all signed a petition against me when I introduced legislation to split Derry in half. They all treated me with respect and kindness, even though they were wrong. I appreciate everyone of them, especially Rep. Zolla who was kind enough to give me advice and Rep. Jim Rauch, who are again, unsung jewels in the Derry delegation. To the freshman class, the freshman legislators who were kind enough to vote me as Vice Chairman. My job as Vice Chairman of the freshman class was to take any complaints they had with leadership to leadership and fight for their cause. I thank them for voting me Vice Chairman. I thank Rep. Crane, Rep. Sam Cataldo and to the freshmen of this class, this is the second half of the session, this is yours and go for your dreams. To my friends who take advantage of the privilege afforded us in the back room, or as I call them, the "hackers' caucus," there was a lot of things said in these hallowed halls, there's a lot said in that room also, I appreciate it and good luck. I guess that's it, I wish you all well. I hope your dreams come true.

Mr. Speaker, I'd like to take a moment, this House has come to the electronic age and we're on the Internet, and I'm sure that there are two or three people listening to us right now. One person who is listening, is who I call the Widow Dupuis and that's my mom who lives in Florida which I call the God's Waiting Room. I'm sure Mom is listening, she never believed I was a State Rep here in New Hampshire. She tried to get up here; she couldn't do it.

Speaker Chandler: It's true, Mom.

Rep. Dupuis: I want to thank my mom for giving me all the advice as a young child—never run with scissors, if your friends are going to jump over a cliff, you don't have to do it, and all of our favorites – always wear clean underwear because you never know when you're going to get in an accident. Mom, you told me one thing that did stay with me all my life and that's show me your friends and I'll show you who you are. Mom, if listening, I have 400 friends here and I'm proud of it and I'm proud to have served with all of you. Thank you.

COMMUNICATIONS

Speaker Gene Chandler

After numerous long discussions with my family, we have decided to move from Derry, the town which I represent in the House of Representatives. Therefore, please accept this as my official resignation to be effective at the close of the business day on Thursday, September 4, 2003.

I wish all my colleagues continued success and look forward to working with them in some capacity in the future.

Roland L. Dupuis, Rock 77

Speaker Gene G. Chandler

Regretfully, Mr. Speaker, I must tender my resignation as a State Representative for Merrimack County, District 34, effective September 18, 2003.

It has been my sincere honor to have served as a representative over the past several years and to have represented the good people of Bradford, Henniker, Hopkinton, Newbury, Sutton, Warner and Webster. However, a wonderful and challenging opportunity has been presented to me and I have accepted an appointment as County Commissioner for Merrimack County, Third District. I look forward to that commitment and the opportunity to serve an even larger constituency.

Thank you for your friendship and leadership. My experience in the House only enhances my confidence in assuming a different responsibility on behalf of our Great State, and I leave my position knowing that New Hampshire citizens are in the good hands of a hardworking and dedicated legislative body.

My best to you and the entire membership of the House.

J. D. Colcord, Merr 34

Speaker Gene G. Chandler

Due to reasons beyond my control I must resign my seat as a member of the New Hampshire House of Representatives effective on October 10, 2003.

I wish to thank the citizens of Franklin and Hill for granting me the opportunity to have served them in this capacity. I must tell you that serving in the New Hampshire House has truly been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life. I will always continue praying for the People of this great State, that God's will be accomplished, for the restoration and salvation of all his children.

Robert Ouellette, Merr 33

Speaker Gene G. Chandler

As of November 7, 2003, I hereby resign this honorable position of State Representative, District 82; Newfields and Newmarket. It is a sad day for me. However, I must do this. My family and I sold our home in Newmarket in late October. As I transition into my new residence and leave District 82, I wanted to do the right thing for the voters in Newfields and Newmarket.

I want to thank my fellow Democrats, my Committee, the Municipal and County Government Committee, with Chairperson Patten, and the many Republican friends that have helped me be a better State Representative.

Thank you Speaker, for a great job. I am very grateful that I was a State Representative under your direction.

Bob Davidson, Rock 82

The Speaker accepted the resignations with regret.

Rep. Hess offered the following: RESOLVED, the late filing and drafting having been approved by the Rules Committee, in accordance with the list in the possession of the Clerk, House Bills numbered 1404 through 1419 and House Concurrent Resolution numbered 25 shall be by this resolution read a first and second time by the therein listed titles, sent for printing, and referred to the therein designated committees.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 60

May 14, 2003

To the Honorable Members of the General Court:

By the authority vested in me as Governor of New Hampshire, pursuant to Part II, Article 44 of the Constitution of New Hampshire, I have vetoed House Bill 60, an Act changing the name of the advisory committee on shore fisheries and relative to the definition of shellfish and a rulemaking exemption for certain rules relating to marine species.

I have vetoed this bill only because I object to its last section, which limits the exemption from the provisions of RSA 541-A granted by current law for rules pertaining to marine species managed under the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Compact. As far as I can tell, the current exemption has generated no problems, and the limitation proposed by H.B. 60 is neither necessary nor warranted. Until there is significant reform of the rulemaking process as currently implemented under RSA 541-A, I am hesitant to extend, even slightly, the rulemaking to which that statute applies. Where as here, the current exemption seems to be working well, there is no reason to limit it.

There has been no claim by anyone that the Department has abused the current exemption or passed rules under the exemption that overstep the authority delegated to the Department by the General Court. Even if I had no concerns about the implementation of RSA 541-A, I would object to the last section H.B. 60 as a solution in search of a problem. The change to the rulemaking exemption proposed in H.B. 60 was not initiated by the Advisory Committee on Shore Fisheries, by the Fish and Game Department, by the commercial fishermen subject to rules passed by the department under the exemption, or by any environmental group. The change was initiated by the Joint Legislative Committee on Administrative Rules.

Since becoming Governor, I have heard from a wide variety of sources, including agency heads, the Attorney General, members of the public and members of the General Court that the rule-making process is in serious need of revision. The fact that administrative agencies should be able to move more nimbly and quickly in adopting detailed rules than can the General Court in adopting legislation, is one of the advantages of rules over statutes and presumably one of the reasons why the legislature has delegated rulemaking power to agencies. This advantage has been deeply eroded by the fact that the process for adopting rules has become in many instances more complex, time-consuming and burdensome than the process for passing legislation.

Another reason why the General Court delegates administrative rulemaking power is to allow an administrative agency with significant expertise in a particular regulatory area to craft regulations within a set legislative mandate. In delegating this power, the legislature has correctly required that agencies seek public input, and follow an orderly and open process in creating rules. At the end of that process, legislative involvement appropriately includes oversight to assure that the rules do not exceed the original legislative intent or the scope of the delegation of authority and includes suggestions on non-substantive drafting issues. My concern stems from the increasing complexity of the process and my belief that substantive decisions made after full public input by the administrative departments to which the legislature has entrusted them, and legal judgments which are properly under the jurisdiction of the Attorney General should not be second-guessed or interfered with during the legislative oversight portion of the rulemaking process. When we ask our agencies to cut unnecessary red tape and to make their procedures as friendly to the public as possible, we should not make the agency, in adopting its own rules, jump through unnecessary bureaucratic hurdles and subject the agency to overly complex and cumbersome process.

I know that many legislators share the view that has been expressed to me by the Attorney General, numerous department heads and members of the public that the rulemaking process must be governed not only by a desire for due process and public input, but also by common sense and good judgment. While I believe in appropriate legislative oversight of the administrative rulemaking process, I am concerned that the RSA 541-A rulemaking process for executive branch agencies is becoming increasingly cumbersome and unnecessarily complex. Legislative red tape during the rulemaking process leads to administrative red tape that defies common sense and disserves the public. The legislative procedures implementing RSA 541-A need to be reformed. Until that happens, I strongly will consider a veto of any bill that extends the reach of RSA 541-A or limits an existing exemption. Because H.B. 60 limits a current exemption from the RSA 541-A rulemaking process, I have vetoed it.

Craig R. Benson, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall HB 60, changing the name of the advisory committee on shore fisheries and relative to the definition of shellfish and a rulemaking exemption for certain rules relating to marine species, become law?

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds approval, was taken.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 164

June 17, 2003

To the Honorable Members of the General Court:

By the authority vested in me as Governor of New Hampshire, pursuant to Part II, Article 44 of the Constitution of New Hampshire, I have vetoed House Bill 164, an Act increasing the gross premium tax on insurance provided by certain unlicensed companies.

H.B. 164 raises the premium tax paid by certain companies from 2% to 3%. I have made it clear that I will veto any bill that comes to my desk that raises taxes. The people of the State have made it clear that government should live within its means without increasing taxes. I have made a commitment to honor their mandate.

One justification offered for the tax increase contained in H.B. 164 is that it will bring the tax into line with neighboring states. If we were to follow that logic, we would adopt a sales and income tax and would suffer, like our neighbors, some of the highest taxes in the country. This is not the New Hampshire way.

Another argument made in favor of the tax increase contained in H.B. 164 is that it only affects out-of-state companies. This argument is unpersuasive because premium taxes are inevitably passed on to New Hampshire consumers.

Because this bill increases taxes, I have vetoed it.

Craig R. Benson, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall 164-FN-A, increasing the gross premiums tax on insurance provided by certain unlicensed companies, become law?

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds approval, was taken.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 278

June 11, 2003

To the Honorable Members of the General Court:

By the authority vested in me as Governor of New Hampshire, pursuant to Part II, Article 44 of the Constitution of New Hampshire, I have vetoed House Bill 278, an act reducing the crime of sexual assault from a class B felony to a class A misdemeanor in cases where the victim is between 13 and 15 years old and where the defendant is up to 4 years older than the victim.

I have vetoed this bill because I believe that the penalty for sexual crimes committed against our children should not be reduced. The specific objection I have to this bill is that the age gap between the victim and perpetrator is too great. For example, this bill would reduce the penalty for sexual assault in cases where the victim is only 13 years of age and the defendant is 17 years of age. That age gap represents the considerable developmental difference between a seventh grader and a junior in high school. Likewise, a sexual assault committed on a victim that is only 15 years of age by a defendant who is 19 years of age would receive a reduced penalty under the terms of this bill. Just as there is a significant difference between a 13 year old and a 17 year old, there is a considerable disparity in maturity between an average 15 year old who is still a high school student and a 19 year old who may be living on his or her own. Given the unequal influence an older perpetrator can have on a younger victim in these types of cases and the mental anguish such victims often endure, I do not feel that we should reduce the consequences for committing the crime of sexual assault in these types of cases.

Craig R. Benson, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall HB 278-FN, relative to certain acts of sexual assault, become law?

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds approval, was taken.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 724

July 8, 2003

To the Honorable Members of the General Court:

By the authority vested in me as Governor of New Hampshire, pursuant to Part II, Article 44 of the Constitution of New Hampshire, I have vetoed House Bill 724, an Act extending the effective date of the Skyhaven airport transfer plan and the period for completing work under the wetlands permit.

H.B. 724 extends for an additional three years the date by which Skyhaven airport will be transferred from the State. We could extend the deadline in three-year increments forever. Instead, we ought to signal to all involved that the time has come to transfer the airport. I object to H.B. 724 because it sends the opposite signal.

The FBO at the airport is now profitable. The operation of the airport uses resources of the Department of Transportation that could be used for other projects.

The State has lived up to its commitments. If Skyhaven provides a valuable service to the pilots who use it and to the local communities, then Skyhaven should be able to operate without State help. Because this bill would extend Skyhaven's dependence on the State for another three years, I have vetoed it.

Craig R. Benson, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall HB 724-FN-L, extending the effective date of the Skyhaven airport transfer plan and the period for completing work under the wetlands permit, become law?

Rep. Bemis spoke in favor.

Rep. Berube spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds approval, was taken.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 737

July 8, 2003

To the Honorable Members of the General Court:

By the authority vested in me as Governor of New Hampshire, pursuant to Part II, Article 44 of the Constitution of New Hampshire, I have vetoed House Bill 737, an Act relative to the state conservation committee.

At a time when the budget is very tight, H.B. 737 creates a new unclassified state position. The bill then appropriates $1 to fund this position and carry out the other purposes of the bill.

As a general matter, I will not support adding new State positions, if we do not have the money to fund them. It is for this reason that I have vetoed this bill.

Craig R. Benson, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall HB 737-FN-A, relative to the state conservation committee, become law?

Rep. MaryAnn Blanchard spoke in favor.

Rep. Mock spoke against.

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds approval, was taken.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE ON HB 796

July 21, 2003

To the Honorable Members of the General Court:

By the authority vested in me as Governor of New Hampshire, pursuant to Part II, Article 44 of the Constitution of New Hampshire, I have vetoed House Bill 796, an Act relative to the taxation of manufactured housing and relative to the notice required prior to the sale of a recreational campground.

I do not object to the sections of this bill that provide that manufactured housing shall be taxed and treated as real estate, that eliminate the separate manufactured housing tax lien system and that change the definition of security interest. These sections were subject to hearing and were the result of much legislative effort. They make appropriate changes to current law. I object only to the final section of the bill, which was added during the committee of conference process and which makes a change to current law that is unnecessary and unfair to recreational campground owners. Section 8 of H.B. 796, requires that before a recreational campground owner may sell her campground, she must first give 60 days notice and a right of first refusal to any owner within the campground of a recreational trailer or manufactured home who pays property taxes to the town. Manufactured housing parks are separately regulated by RSA chapter 205-A, and the regulation of manufactured homes is outside the scope of the current RSA chapter 216-I. With respect to manufactured housing parks, a right of first refusal is in the current law, and makes more sense, since tenants have their primary residences within these parks. See RSA 205-A:21. A right of first refusal does not make sense in the context of a recreational campground, however.

By definition, a recreational campground contains campsites "intended for temporary occupancy for recreational dwelling purposes only, and not for permanent, year-round residency." RSA 216-I:1, VII. Still, some within a recreational campground may leave their recreational trailers in the recreational campground and may pay personal property taxes to the town. If H.B. 796 were to become law, these recreational trailer owners would be entitled to 60 days notice and a right of first refusal. H.B. 796 would give this important property right to the recreational trailer owners at the expense of the recreational campground owners.

The legislative history of this bill fails to show why this change is necessary or even why it would be generally beneficial to recreational trailer owners. On the other hand, since this bill passed, I have been contacted by numerous recreational campground owners who have expressed their concerns that section 8 of this bill would interfere with their property rights, make selling their property more difficult and reduce the value of their property.

Because section 8 of this bill would take away important property rights of campground owners and because there has been no demonstration of a compelling state interest in doing so, I have vetoed this bill.

Craig R. Benson, Governor

The question being, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, shall HB 796-FN-L, relative to the taxation of manufactured housing and relative to notice required prior to the sale of a recreational campground, become law?

Rep. Infantine spoke against.

Pursuant to the New Hampshire Constitution, Part II, Article 44, a roll call, requiring a two-thirds approval, was taken.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS

Rep. Hopper moved that the remarks made by Rep. Hess during debate on HA-1 be printed in the Permanent Journal.

Rep. Hess: Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. As the members know, on January 30, 2003, House Address 1 was introduced and referred to a Joint Committee on Address. This legislation called for the removal of the former director of the Fish and Game Department. A special committee, however, was never appointed because within the Executive Branch there were ongoing discussions about resolving this matter which ultimately resulted in the resignation of that individual. The director did resign, thus the need for this address was rendered moot. I am making this motion in order to clear the record on the final disposition of this legislation before we adjourn the 2003 session, and if this motion is adopted, I will then move to table House Address 1 so that it will be properly disposed of at the end of this session. Thank you very much.
